PROIOGUE - OID AND NEW. One of the most profound, beautiful and well-loved passages of Scripture is the opening of St. John's Gospel which is read as the Christmas Gospel. Its meanings are both apparent and hidden as St. John strives to present the fundamental meaning of God in Christ. For your interest and study we offer below the standard version that we all have heard many times, followed by a paraphrasing of the same passage which comes from the pen of Professor John Macquarrie of Oxford.

IN THE BEGINNING WAS THE WORD, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness, and the darkness overcame it not. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the light, that all men through him might believe. He was not that light, but was sent to bear witness of that light. That was the true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. He came unto his own, and his own received him not. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his Name: which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only-begotten of the Father) full of grace and truth.

"FUNDAMENTAL TO EVERYTHING IS MEANING. Meaning is closely connected with what men call 'God', and, indeed, meaning and God are the same. To say that God was in the beginning is to say that there was meaning in the beginning. All things were made meaningful, and there was nothing that was made meaningless. Life was the drive toward meaning, and life emerged into the light of humanity, the bearer of meaning. And meaning shines out through the threat of absurdity, for absurdity has not destroyed it. Every man has a share of the true meaning of things. This follows from the fact that this meaning has been embodied in the world from the beginning and has given the world its shape. Yet the world has not recognized the meaning. Even man, the bearer of meaning, has rejected it. But those who have received it and believed in it have been enabled to become the children of God. And this has happened not in the natural course of evolution or through human striving, but through an act of God. For the meaning has been incarnated in a human existent, in whom was grace and truth; and we have seen in him the final meaning or glory toward which everything moves the glory of man and the glory of God."

THE FLOWERS on the Altar of the Church are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Mr. & Mrs. Sherman Smith and Mrs. Roger deWinton, and the flowers on the Chapel Altar are in loving memory of Pamela Jo Wylie.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. As a new calendar year commences our thoughts are directed to the See of Canterbury and the great wealth of strength and tradition that comes to us from Canterbury. Canterbury is not only a diocese of its own, but is the name of the entire southern Province of the Church of England - some of whose constituent dioceses are remembered this week: Canterbury - Michael Ramsey; Winchester - Falkner Allison; Portsmouth - John Phillips; Salisbury - Joseph Fison; Gloucester - Basil Guy; Bath and Wells - Edward Henderson; Exeter - Robert Mortimer; Truro - Maurice Key. Within our diocese this year commences with the prayerful remembrance of the Parish of Drumheller (St. Magloire); the Rector is Robin G. Stubbs.

ANNUAL MEETING REPORTS. In preparation for the Annual Meeting of the Parish on Sunday, January 31st, all presidents, convenors and group leaders are asked to submit a concise report for their group by January 15th. These reports are included in the total printed report of the parish and become part of our historical record of the parish's life and work in 1970.

EAST PAKISTAN DISASTER. The Canada-Pakistan Association in Calgary has asked us to notify our people that they are continuing to solicit funds for emergency food and relief to aid the stricken area of East Pakistan. Contributions can be made at any Bank of Montreal and official receipts received.

CHURCH SCHOOL SEMESTER. Next Sunday we begin the third semester of the Church School program, and those who are to assist in teaching are reminded of the preparatory meeting on Thursday night (7th) at 8 p.m. in the Crump Room. At the time of writing there are vacancies in Grades 3 & 6, and for some of the 9.30 classes. Persons willing to assist for this semester are asked to speak to one of the clergy as soon as possible. We would like to remind all parents that one of the strong emphases in the semester approach to Church School teaching is that those who register for the semester should maintain a consistent record of attendance for the period of the semester, and to obtain maximum results for pupil, class and teacher.

IN GRATITUDE. The Rector and his family claim this corner of the leaflet as one way of expressing heartfelt thanks to so many who offered Christmas greetings and good will during this season, all of which has been most heartening and deeply appreciated.

Acknowledgments. We hope the beauty of this Church will not lead to taking the wrong pride over it, but it will probably come as no surprise to pass on to you that many times in the course of the year we receive compliments on the attractiveness of Christ Church and its helpful atmosphere. While its beauty renders us delights to eye and ear, we see it as a continuing attempt to offer God an honourable expression of man's best. For the Christmas Season we are further enhanced by the considerable efforts of many: the Altar Guild for the festive decoration, the choirmaster and choristers for abundant music, to the Servers for assisting duties, to the Sidesmen for their attention, to the Bell Ringers for the peals of praise, to the Staff for manifold details attended to, and to all who have added to the enjoyment of our worship.

Greetings. Perhaps the oldest and richest message to offer everyone is "God bless you at Christmastide and throughout 1971". So we extend it with heartiest intentions from your Clergy, Churchwardens, Vestry, and the Staff to all. May everyone share deeply in the meaning of this Season for a well-blessed Yuletide and the days ahead. This greeting is extended to all our parishioners, guests and friends who share in the worship at Christ Church at this time. Would visitors please sign the guest register in the Narthex.

Christmas Services

Someone has truly said that Christmas is a spectacle. For some a garish spectacle of extravaganza — gaudy lights, oversized presents, burdened meal tables and excessive indulgences; if this be so, then one can only deeply regret that the whole reason for the festival has been lost or perhaps never originally possessed.

For others it may be a spectacle of wonder, delight, adoration, soul-stirring messages and sheer amazement at God's irrefutable involvement in this world through the Birth of His Son.

Quite frankly, I don't know many people who fit entirely in either the former or latter category. Most of us are something of both — reflecting one or the other as our moods, environment and understanding shift. But as a spectator of the Christian spectacle there can be a genuine uneasiness about the whole affair.

When we enter this place of worship, one of the underlying conditions surely is that we can relax and know that it's all right to behold the spectacle — even rejoice in it. The shepherds and other witnesses at the first Birth must have felt some unworthiness and awe at being there — some inappropriateness over their presence at this moment when all human history came to focus. So too we come — unworthy but glad to share in the jubilation as the liberating message is again proclaimed: God has visited and redeemed His people.

There's another possibility for the spectator too — and that is that he will be drawn into the drama of the spectacle and become a part of it as its truth grabs him and becomes his Reality.

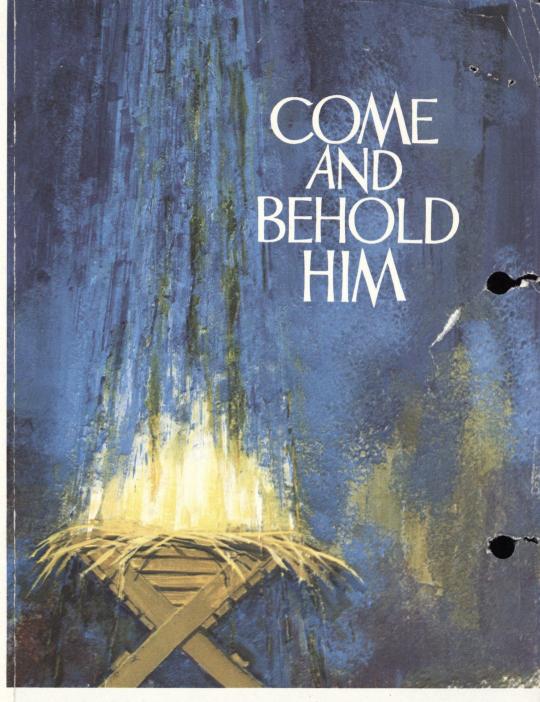

Both these roles are offered to us as we engage in the worship of Christ at His Nativity. Whether you come in the mystical aura of Christmas Eve midnight or the crisp daylight of His Birthday the spectacle is all there for everyone. The record shows that to stand back and observe is to miss much, maybe everything; to become a participant in the spectacle tends to produce the Birth of Love in the human heart — and keep Christmas alive!

OPINION POLL

Those who were here last Sunday and cast a ballot on the Opinion Poll (concerning the proposed organic union with the United Church) will be interested in the tabulated results shown below.

Over 30 Under 30 Total Approx. %

resurcs shown below.	Over 30	Under 30	Total	Approx. %
A. Strongly in favour	89	25	114	50%
B. Strongly against	28	4	32	14%
C. Would "go along"	63	11	74	31%
D. Undecided	14	3	17	5%
•			237	100%

Comments were very varied and many thoughtful. Appears to be still much confusion over union meaning uniformity (which it doesn't!). Concern for frequency of Eucharist and Anglican liturgical benefits often expressed.

MUSIC IN WORSHIP

Christmastide probably has the strongest musical connection of any Christian Festival, and who is there among us who doesn't enjoy the music of this Season? For the excellence, diligence and concern for a steady offering of worthy music in this parish we can today acknowledge those to whom it is due. The adult and boy choristers are trained by our organist & choirmaster, Mr. John Searchfield; the Girls' Choir by Hiss Elizabeth Stileman. They are all supported by the able efforts of our sub-organist, Miss Margie Robson.

Music such as we are favoured with for our public worship comes through conscientious labour and devotion on the part of many people. At the Coffee Hour today we can all take a moment to personally express our appreciation to those who make our observance of Christ's Birth a time of deep wonder through the beauty of music.

RELEVANCE

"We are being told over and over again that the Church is irrelevant, that the parish is obsolete, that in order to survive, Christianity must change and come on into the twentieth century and adapt itself to modern conditions and speak to modern needs. The parish is described as a kind of retreat from the world, a stagnant backwater where nothing important ever happens.

"The parish ministry is described as a lot of irrelevant activity—cranking mimeographs, doing paper work, attending unimportant meetings, "minding the store", promoting organization for the sake of organization, while real men are out in the real world doing real things with real people.

"We are told that monks and nuns are leaving the cloister and that priests are leaving the parish ministry for secular occupations, usually with the excuse that "in the world" they will have a larger opportunity to serve mankind and influence contemporary history. The new ideal of the ministry is the "worker priest"—a man who earns his living by some secular employment and functions as a priest only during evenings and weekends. The new form of the old vocation is said to be more honest, more effective, more real. It is "going where the action is", getting into the highways and hedges as our Lord commanded.

"That is just not true. Any lie will be believed by most people if it is repeated often enough by enough different people and if there is any truth in it. There is a lot of truth in the things that are being said, but it is a half-truth and therefore a dangerous heresy.

"It is true that many of the people in our congregations are sound asleep. It is true that much Sunday worship is drab and dull and ininspired and therefore uninspiring. It is true that many priests are, or at least seem to be, out of touch with reality, either natural or supernatural. It is true that in order to keep the institution afloat, a lot of trivial activity is required of both clergy and laity. It is also true that for many people who are vitally concerned with really important current issues, the indifference of much of the Church is terribly frustrating.

"Is the parish ministry obsolete and out of touch with the world? I hope not. Mine isn't, anyway. I can stay in my office and never go outside on the street, and yet the world comes in and sits right down in front of me. Most of the time I seem to be swallowed up in the world's problems—from corporation executives and bankers to the 17-year—old pregnant black girl with no family; people of all walks of life and in all circum—stances line up to share with me their concerns and their problems. Through my ministry I can extend an influence into a hundred business organizations, a score of schools and universities, and both political parties. I have been privileged to share intimately in the troubled lives of literally thousands of people, but I do not know of a single one who has been permanently helped to live a humane and decent and happy life who has not been incorporated into the daily life of the worshipping community.

"We may preach morality until the world looks level, but a moral life can be lived only in the context of a moral community. The flight from the parish ministry by so many clergymen must be surely some kind of funk, a panic reaction to fatigue and frustration, something of an un-Christian activism, a lack of confidence in God—a kind of "Here, God, let me do it!" Haybe it is more exciting to be involved in the social struggle, maybe it gives more personal satisfaction, but I doubt if it does more good.

"The idea that a priest must get out into the world of affairs to be a Christian witness is a confession to a kind of Christian double-standard—that only the priest is a real Christian. If he has to turn himself into a layman to do Christian work, why can't laymen do it?

"We've all been sold a bill of goods—all this talk about the necessity of relevance and involvement. We're frightened, because all the experts tell us that all the old verities are no longer valid, that all the old ways of doing things won't work. I'm reminded once again of Chesterton's remark, 'It is said that Christianity has been tried and found wanting. Actually it has been tried and found difficult, and people have quit trying.'

"We are told that never before has there been such rapid change, that the amount of knowledge is increasing so rapidly that more new facts have been learned in this generation than in all of man's previous history. We are told that unless the Church changes with the changing times, we will be left hopelessly behind and out of touch.

"We are told that because of such rapid change, life from now on is going to be different from all previous ages, that in our generation history has reached some sort of climax, that we are standing on a watershed, that the future will be so unlike the past that all the old truths and values will have been discredited and replaced by new ones.

"I don't believe it. It is a trick of perspective. The closer you are to a thing, the bigger it looks. Men have always made the mistake of supposing that their own age was different from all previous ages, that with them, mankind had arrived at some final goal of development. When each age recedes into history, however, it seems to diminish in importance and takes its place along with all other previous ages. I'm quite sure that today's age—call it the electronic age or the space age or you choose—a hundred or a thousand years from now will be but one era in many, along with the Civil War and the Industrial Revolution, the Reformation, the Crusades, and a host of others. I'm just not impressed by the contemporary turmoil.

"Christians must, of course, be concerned with contemporary issues, and we must do everything possible to correct injustice and prevent evil and bring peace, but we do not necessarily have to succeed in order to justify the Church. Our job is to work; results are God's business.

"The truth is that we have lived through all this many times. Once you get above the noise and confusion and see things in the perspective of eternity, our times are no more turbulent than the Renaissance, our warfare no more desperate than the Crusades, and not nearly so frightening as the Viking raids. Our social changes are no more rapid and radical and earth-shaking than the fall of Rome or the collapse of the feudal system or the French Revolution. At least we haven't yet erected a guillotine in the public square.

"All of it will pass, along with the miniskirt and the 1970-model automobile. There will come a day when professionable football will take its place in the history books alongside the bull-baiting of the 18th century and the tournament of the Middle Ages. The hippie will be known to historians as a curious twentieth-century version of the medieval troubadour. The civil rights revolution will take its place along with the slave revolts of classical Rome, and the guerilla warfare of the Donatists in North Africa in the time of St. Augustine, and the Maccabean revolt against the Seleucid empire, with Watts' Rebellion in England, the peasant revolts in the Germany of Luther. The war in Viet Nam will shrink to the proportion of the War of 1812, when seen in the perspective of history. When one looks at the long sweep of human history, the present age is not all that different.

"It is said that Church membership is declining and that the Church is losing its influence. Remember, though, that Christianity was all but swallowed up by Mohammedanism (that was a time when the Church was really sick and helpless before the wave of the future), that Christianity was destroyed by the Germanic barbarians, but in the end the barbarians were converted to Christianity, that the Church was put to death in the Colosseum for the entertainment of the Roman public, and yet Rome became the capitol of Christendom. The twentieth century is not nearly so atheistic as the eighteenth, and the modern Church is not nearly so moribund as the Church of the fox-hunting parsons which was called 'the Tory Party at Prayer'.

"The Church does not have the answer to the world's problems; the Church is the answer to the world's problems. The social program of the Church is the family of God, gathered Sunday by Sunday throughout the ages about the Lord's table, to eat and drink the Body and Blood of Christ at the Lord's Supper. It is there that we find eternal and cosmic meaning for our lives. It is there that we become a part of something that will endure beyond the turmoil of the historical moment. It is there that we find a pattern and blueprint for a just and humane society. It is there that we find love and acceptance and dignity, for that is the technique which God Himself devised for the salvation of the world. The most relevant thing in today's world is our Sunday worship, and it is the one thing that we can be sure will survive the modern world."

(Rector's note: This sermon is repeated in full from The Anglican Digest. Some of the comments are certainly debatable, but it is offered for your reaction and reflection.

Second Lesson: The Angel Gabriel salutes the blessed Virgin Mary.

Italian Carol arr. Wood

HYMN - God rest you merry

English Trad. arr. Willcocks

- 1. God rest you merry, gentlemen, let nothing you dismay,
 For Jesus Christ our Saviour was born upon this day,
 To save us all from Satan's power when we were gone astray:
 O tidings of comfort and joy, comfort and joy,
 - O tidings of comfort and joy.

- 2. From God our heav'nly Father a blessed angel came, And unto certain shepherds brought tidings of the same, How that in Bethlehem was born the Son of God by name:
- 3. The shepherds at those tidings rejoiced much in mind, And left their flocks a-feeding, in tempest, storm and wind, And went to Bethlehem straightway this blessed babe to find:
- 4. But when to Bethlehem they came, whereat this infant lay, They found him in a manger where oxen feed on hay; His mother Mary kneeling unto the Lord did pray:
- 5. Now to the Lord sing praises, all you within this place, And with true love and brotherhood each other now embrace; This holy tide of Christmas all others doth deface:

Third Lesson: St. Matthew tells of the birth of Jesus.

Carols: Myn Lyking Richard Terry
Personent Hodie German 1360 arr. Gustav Holst

- Sing aloud on this day! Children all raise the lay. Cheerfully we and they hasten to adore thee, Sent from highest glory, For us born on this morn of the Virgin Mary.
- Now a child he is born, swathing bands him adorn, Manger bed he'll not scorn, ox and ass are near him; We as Lord revere him.
 And the vain powers of hell spoiled of prey now fear him.
- 3. From the far Orient guiding star wise men sent; Him to seek their intent, Lord of all creation; Kneel in adoration. Gifts of gold, frankincense, myrrh for their oblation.
- 4. All must join him to praise; men and boys voices raise On this day of all days; angel voices ringing, Christmas tidings bringing.
 Join we all, 'Gloria in excelsis' singing.

For the guidance of worshippers today we will use the following procedures to carry out the polling ballot.

8.00 a.m. - Ballot forms and boxes at the rear of the church; polling to be carried out at the end of the Service.

9.30 a.m. - After the Service is concluded the Rector will repeat the announcement and the polling will proceed at that time.

11.00 a.m. - The ballot forms will be handed out with the leaflet. There will be an explanation of the polling procedure at the sermon time and opportunity given right then for people to complete the ballot paper. Sidesmen will stand with ballot boxes at all doors to receive the papers as the congregation leaves the church at the end of the Service.

BIBLE SOCIETY SUPPORT

Last Sunday offering envelopes were enclosed with each leaflet allowing everyone to make a contribution to the vital work of the canadian Bible Society. For those unable to respond at that time there are supplies of Bible Society information at the church doors today. We repeat the necessary expectation of the Bible Society that Anglicans, and all other church people, should support this vital arm of Christian education and outreach.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES

For your early notice we would remind you of these Christmas Services. Next Sunday at 11.00 the customary Service of Lessons and Carols will bring us traditional and novel Christmas music by the three choirs. On Christmas Eve the Service begins at 11.30, prefaced by 15 minutes of music and the pealing of the bells earlier in the evening. On Christmas Day there are two Celebrations of Holy Communion - at 8.00 a.m. and 12.00 noon; a Family Service at 11.00 a.m. is very much designed for the young ones coming to worship the Christ Child.

Christmas Music. Included in the notices posted for our attention there is a performance of Handel's 'Messiah' tomorrow night in the Jubilee Auditorium. On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week at the Allied Arts Centre, an evening of music, theatre and orchestra will be presented by the Calgary Inter-Faith Chorus. Next Sunday night in the Jubilee Auditorium the Anne Campbell Singers of Lethbridge present "The Singing Tree".

The Rector is pleased to receive contributions and offers of assistance to provide a happier Christmas for some families whose genuine needs have been brought to his attention.

YOUR FAVOURITE CHARITY

We have passed on to you in previous weeks the names and details of some charitable causes that seek publicity through this pew leaflet. We commend to you today the request for both financial and material help for the Bowness Day-Care Centre. Their particular needs are for trikes, pedal cars, active winter toys, used toys in good condition, puzzles and educational toys. This centre, which has received support from at least four civic groups, continues to be a pilot project of its kind. It provides supervised care facilities for not only working mothers, but those who have particularly difficult home situations. It also carries on a number of small home centres as satellite places of care under its direction. The director is Mrs. Nancy Hall, and for further information we direct you to her (288-1362).

CYCLE OF PRAYER

South America is not readily thought of as an area of much Anglican strength, but we are this week reminded that we have several dioceses in that continent. Their work is diverse and challenging as the whole political and social picture of those countries is emerging and changing.

One of the best known areas of our diocese is probably Banff, and the Parish Church of St. Georges in-the-Pines is a well known edifice. This week we pray for the Rector, Peter E. Millen, and his people, with whom the Parish of Canmore also is associated.

PARISH REGISTER FOR OCTOBER AND NOVEMBER:

We draw to your attention the following opportunities to hear Christmas music: Festival Chorus this Wednesday St. Anthony's Church 8.30 p.m....Calgary Inter-Faith Chorus Dec. 16-18 8 p.m. at Allied Arts Centre....Calgary Choral Society in Handel's 'Messiah' Dec. 14, 8 p.m. in Jubilee Auditorium....Carol Concert, Cathedral Church of the Redeemer, Saturday, Dec. 12 at 8 p.m., presented by the Royal Canadian College of Organists (Calgary Centre). Descriptive posters for these events are found on the notice board.

The Noonhour Organ Recital at the Cathedral this week (Tuesday 12.15) will be played by John Searchfield.

UNION ENCOUNTER POLL. The Bishop, acting on the direction of Synod, writes to ask that the following be brought to everyone's attention: "At the recent Synod the following resolution was passed - THAT an opportunity be provided for the people comprising the Diocese of Calgary to express their thinking on the question of union between the Anglican Church of Canada and the United Church of Canada for the information of the Bishop and Delegates to General Synod. ' To implement this resolution a poll will be taken next Sunday, December 13, at the close of morning services." The poll next Sunday will simply offer an opportunity for people to express whether they are in favour or against organic union, whether they are not enthusiastic, or whether simply undecided. The voting does not represent any final decision or unchangeable position; it is simply intended to register where we are at this moment. CANADIAN BIBLE SOCIETY. The Second Sunday in Advent is always observed with focus on the centrality of the Scriptures. We are all reminded that the task of providing Scriptures for all Christian groups falls predominantly to the Bible Society. Hence our continued support for their work is a responsible action that we must all accept. Opportunity is given in the envelope provided for each one to show his endorsation of this vital task. In the competitive world of publishing and communicating, the challenge to produce adequate numbers of Scriptures and to distribute them effectively is an essential part of outreach in the world.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. Two geographic sectors are isolated for the focus of our prayers this week: West Africa and continental Europe. In the former grouping we think of the African countries that border the southern Atlantic and where the churches have generally a strong following and a long history. In the latter group we think of one of the lesser known facets of Anglican outreach as we pray for the Anglican chaplaincy churches of Europe. Locally our prayers are for the Parish of St. Laurence, Calgary, serving the attractive residential areas of the south-western quarter, particularly Lakeview. The Rector is Peter H. McCalman, and we pray for their leaders and people.

A PRE-CHRISTMAS SENIORS' PARTY will be held in the Crump Room Thursday of this week from 2 to 4 p.m. If the weather is unfavourable do not hesitate to phone Mr. John Ireland (243-0092) for a ride.

1971 CHURCH CALENDARS (65¢) IN THE CHURCH OFFICE AT ANY TIME.

Good News Is For Telling

The task of the Canadian Bible Society is to spread the Good News which is found in the pages of the Bible. Much of the daily news we hear is disturbing, filling us with concern for the future. The message of the Bible is not always comforting to all who read it, but its central message about what man's relationship to God can be and what man can become when he lives as a child of God is Good News of the highest order.

The message of the Bible is so marvellous that many find it incredible. That God is the creator and sustainer of all life, that the ordinary life of an ordinary person has significance and meaning, that God is with us day in and day out, that even death itself has been conquered — this is just some of the Good News that comes to us through the Bible.

But this Good News is not just for us; it is for every human being on earth.

This Good News must be shared with others.

Last year for the first time the Bible was published in the Lisu language for part of Burma. One of the first to receive this Bible has written as follows:

"This is the most precious thing on this globe. Even if someone would offer me in exchange 1,000 kingdoms like this whole world I would never accept and never exchange. That which we have mourned for, with tears and longing, hoping and praying, God has granted, and on the evening of October 4th my own eyes saw and my own hands held His Holy Word. Hallelujah! Thanks be to God for ever and ever."

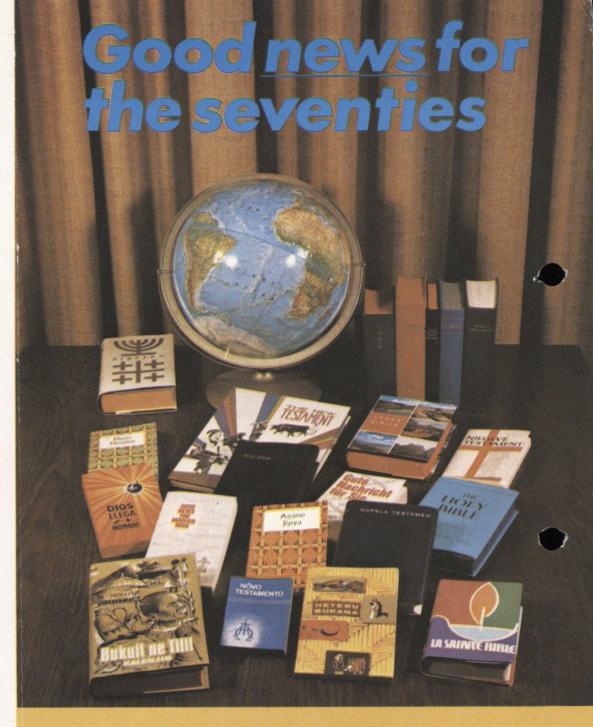

To tell the Good News the Bible Society engages in its world wide work.

Translation: The Scriptures are now in over 1400 languages but they have yet to be published in 1000 languages. At present more than 3000 translators are at work in 800 languages.

Publishing: The printed page is still a powerful means of communication and there is no indication that its effectiveness will decrease in the future. The Bible Society publishes Bibles, Testaments, Gospels and Scripture Selections in attractive formats to make the reading of the Bible attractive and its message as meaningful as possible.

Telling the Good News Costs Money: This year some eight million dollars is required in contributions and legacies to provide the Scriptures below cost. The poverty of Asia, Africa and Latin America makes it quite impossible for the people to have the Scriptures they want unless the Bible Society provides them free or below cost.

By supporting the Canadian Bible Society you help tell the Good News to the World.

HYMN 63: Hark! a herald voice is sounding Merton (Congregation to stand - Choir to Choir Stalls)

(Congregation to sit)

SECOND LESSON: Isaiah 40: 1-8. The Prophet proclaims good news to a people in exile.

CAROL: A spotless rose

Herbert Howells

A spotless Rose is blowing, Sprung from a tender root, Of ancient seers' foreshowing, Of Jesse promised fruit; Its fairest bud unfolds to light Amid the cold, cold winter, And in the dark midnight.

The Rose which I am singing,
Whereof Isaiah said,
Is from its sweet root springing
In Mary, purest Maid;
For, through our God's great love and might,
The blessed Babe she bare us
In a cold, cold winter's night.

THIRD LESSON: Zechariah 2: 10-13. The Prophet Zechariah foretells the coming of the Lord and the increase of his kingdom.

CAROLS:

There is no rose

Anonymous, c. 1420

There is no rose of such virtue
As is the rose that bare Jesu; Alleluia.

For in this rose contained was Heaven and earth in little space; Res miranda.

By that rose we may well see That he is God in persons three, Pari forma.

The angels sungen the shepherds to: Gloria in excelsis Deo: Gaudeamus.

Leave we all this worldly mirth, And follow we this joyful birth; Transeamus.

He came all so still

Richard Aldridge

He came all so still where his mother was, As dew in April that falleth on the grass.

He came all so still where his mother lay, As dew in April that falleth on the spray.

He came all so still to his mother's bower, As dew in April that falleth on the flow!r.

Mother and maiden was never none but she; Well may such a lady God's mother be.

HYMN 67: On Jordan's bank Winchester New (Congregation to stand - Choir to Chapel and Vestry)

(Congregation to sit)

GOSPEL OF THE SALUTATION: Luke 1: 26-33. The angel Gabriel salutes the Blessed Virgin Mary.

CAROL: Gabriel's Message

arr. Willcocks

The angel Gabriel from heaven came, His wings as drifted snow, his eyes as flame; 'All hail', said he, 'thou lowly maiden Mary, Most highly favour'd lady', Gloria!

'For known a blessed Mother thou shalt be, All generations laud and honour thee, Thy Son shall be Emmanuel, by seers foretold. Most highly favour'd lady', Gloria!

Then gentle Mary meekly bowed her head,
'To me be as it pleaseth God', she said,
'My soul shall laud and magnify His Holy Name.'
'Host highly favour'd lady, Gloria!

Of her, Emmanuel, the Christ, was born In Bethlehem, all on a Christmas morn, And Christian folk throughout the world will ever say: Most highly favour'd lady, Gloria!

(Choir proceeds to Sanctuary)

CHORALE: Zion hears the watchmen's voices J.S. Bach

Zion hears the watchmen's voices. With gladness all her heart rejoices, She eager wakes to greet the day.

See, her Lord from heav'n descending With grace and truth and power unending,

Her day-star dawns with brightest ray.

O come, thou blessed One,
Lord Jesus, God's own Son, Hosianna!

We follow there Thy feast to share. And taste the joys beyond compare.

Giory now to God we render, Who reigns on high in heavinly splendour: Let ev'ry tongue in praise unite.

Lo, we enter heavin's bright portal To join the song of saints immortal With angels round thy throne of light.

No mortal joy can e'er With heavin's true bliss compare: Alleluia! Rejoice below, io, io! Sing out in dulci jubilo.

GOSPEL OF THE ADVENT: Matthew 1: 18-23. St. Matthew tells of the coming birth of Jesus.

CAROIS: (Sung in Sanctuary)

King Jesus hath a garden Old Dutch Carol, arr. Wood

King Jesus hath a garden full of divers flow'rs, Where I go culling posies gay all times and hours. There naught is heard but Paradise bird. Harp, dulcimer, lute, with cymbal, trump and tymbal, And the tender, soothing flute.

The Lily, white in blossom there, is Chastity: The Violet, with sweet perfume. Humility.

The bonny Damask-rose is known as Patience: The blithe and thrifty Marygold, Obedience.

The Crown Imperial bloometh too in yonder place, 'Tis Charity, of stock divine, the flower of grace. HYMN: Veni, Redemptor gentium Praetorius (The procession moves from the West Door to the entrance to the Chancel - Congregation joins at verse 3)

Come, thou Redeemer of the earth. And manifest thy virgin birth: Let eviry age adoring fall: Such birth befits the God of all.

Begotten of no human will. But of the Spirit, thou art still The Word of God in flesh arrayed. The promised fruit to man displayed.

From God the Father he proceeds. To God the Father back he speeds; His course he runs to death and hell. Returning on God's throne to dwell.

O equal to thy Father, thou! Gird on thy fleshly mantle now; The weakness of our mortal state With deathless might invigorate.

Thy cradle here shall glitter bright, And darkness breathe a newer light. Where endless faith shall shine serene. And twilight never intervene.

All laud, eternal Son, to thee Whose advent sets thy people free. Whom with the Father we adore. And Holy Ghost for evermore.

ALL THE LAND OF THE PARTY OF THE

Let us make a church resound with the rejoicing praise of the faithful. He who Mary bore hath appeared.

God created man in His own image. God created all things, heaven, earth, seas and all that is born.

Therefore let our gathering bless the Lord with strings and organ,

And render thanks to the same God who gives us pardon and joy.

(Congregation to stand)

Vesper Responsory (said): Judea et Jerusalem

Priest Judah and Jerusalem, fear not, nor be dismayed; (the people continue together with him) Tomorrow go ye forth, and the Lord, he will be with you.

Priest Stand ye still, and ye shall see the salvation of the Lord.

People Tomorrow go ye forth, and the Lord, he will be with you.

(Kneel)

OUR FATHER, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

V. We wait for thy loving kindness, O Lord.

R. In the midst of thy temple.

COLLECT FOR CHRISTMAS EVE: Let us pray.

O God, who makest us glad with the yearly expectation of thy coming: Grant that we, who with joy receive thy only-begotten Son as our Redeemer, may without fear behold him when he shall come to be our Judge, even thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

THE BLESSING:

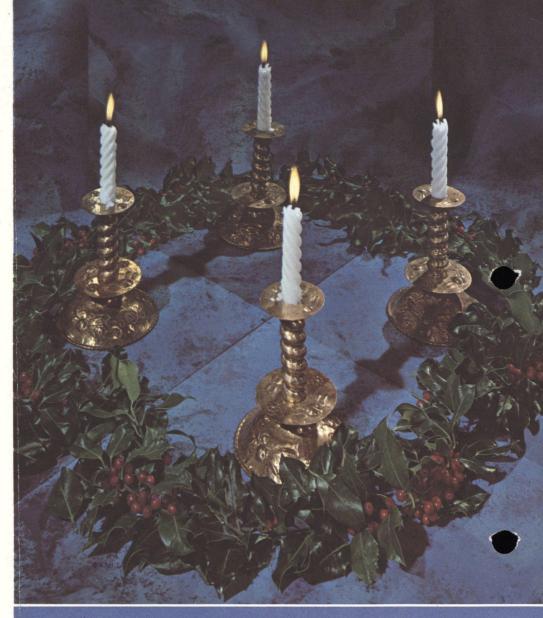

Open wide, O Lord, the gates of heaven and visit thy people in peace; send forth thy Spirit from on high that their hearts may be uplifted unto thee;

O Lord, who for our sake wast of a virgin born, make holy thy people, and bless thine heritage; And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you and abide with you for ever. Amen.

HYIN 62: Veni, Veni, Emmanuel arr. Healey Willan

VOLUNTARY: Chorale-Prelude - Now come, Thou Saviour of the Heathen J.S. Bach

A Procession with Carols for Advent Sunday. In the old Liturgies of the Church, the Advent Offices made a very vivid preparation for the coming of Our Lord to earth. This Carol Service, which is taken largely from the one used in King's College, Cambridge, is designed to include as many of these features as possible. Properly, the choir should be moving in Procession from West to East, from 'Darkness to Light', but the short length of our Nave only allows us to do this symbolically. First, from the west door the ancient Responsory of Advent Sunday Matins announces the hope of the Messiah. After a Bidding Prayer and a Carol the choir enters, singing St. Ambrose's great hymn, "Come, thou Redeemer of the earth". Prophetic lections alternate with carols. Finally the Gospel of the Redemption replaces the Prophets and the whole congregation stands to say with the Minister the last Responsory of Advent. and to sing the great Advent hymn, "O come, Emmanuel".

BEHOLD. YOUR SALVATION COMES!

CHRIST CHURCH - ELBOW PARK

THE FIRST SUNDAY IN ADVENT November 29, 1970 7.30 p.m.

TODAY

WHITE GIFTS brought today will be promptly forwarded to St. John's Parish, Blackfoot Reserve, where they will be sold at nominal costs providing some Christmas gift items under advantageous conditions for people on the reserve.

THE ADVENT WREATH is a symbolic form of marking off this season anticipating the Coming of Christ. In addition to the Advent wreath in Church and used in some of the Church School classes, we heartily recommend it as a suitable home and family focus for this important season. Wreaths can be purchased, but are also easy and fun to make.

We heartily encourage parishioners of all ages to be present tonight for the ADVENT PROCESSION AND CAROL SERVICE. It is a distinctive Service (not used in many places) which has great meaning and appeal at the commencement of the Advent Season.

CHURCH CALENDARS FOR 1971 are available today and every day (65¢) from the church office. We heartily recommend this calendar for a small gift item and your own home use.

EAST PAKISTAN DISASTER. In response to this mammoth disaster with its incredible loss of human life and goods, we would simply point out to everyone that there are ways in which an individual can express concern for this stricken area. At the back of the church there are Primate's World Relief Fund envelopes, and contributions made in this way will be directed to the national church office which has already sent $10,000 to this area, and we understand more is to follow. We would also point out that Oxfam of Canada has placed large ads in the local papers calling for contributions to support their airlift to the besieged country.

SAFE DRIVING WEEK - Dec. 1-7 strives to focus national attention on the huge social problem presented by Canadian driving attitudes. Statistics alone are staggering, but even more is the story of carelessness, discourtesy and wantonness that leaves its wake of sadness, disability and damage from the toll of traffic accidents. We support the Canada Safety Council in appealing for responsibility in the operation of vehicles and in all our traffic attitudes.

YOUR FAVOURITE CHARITY. As stated in last week's leaflet we pass on to you some of the charitable causes that are directed to the church office. This week we offer you the group called 'Operation Eyesight Universal' which is a way of funnelling funds to mission hospitals in India where eye surgery and treatments, especially cataracts, have brought sight to thousands there. Beginning with a handful of Calgary businessmen in 1963, this benevolence has found supporters across Canada, U.S.A. and Britain to provide staff, equipment and operational costs for this medical aid centre predominantly at Sompeta, India. For $10.00 someone afflicted with sight impairment can be given the chance to see. Further details are posted on the bulletin board.

PARISH NOTES AND REMINDERS

Friday morning of this week the Winchester Group presents its Annual Coffee Party and Bazaar and anticipates the full support of our parishioners and their friends. Many fascinating little items are offered, and a happy time over coffee and goodies is in store.

There will be two occasions of Public Baptism during December, next Sunday at the 9.30 Service and December 27th at 11 a.m. Parents who are interested in bringing their children for Baptism are asked to contact the clergy as soon as possible.

The Annual Couples' Conference in Banff is slated for February 26 - 28 with the theme 'Communication in Marriage'. Full details are posted on the bulletin board.

This weekend the Church notes the Consecration of two new Bishops in Western Canada. This afternoon in Prince Albert H.V.R. Short will be consecrated for the Diocese of Saskatchewan, and to-morrow night Douglas A. Ford will be consecrated Bishop of Saskatoon. The Rector and Mr. Challacombe intend to be present at the latter and will convey the greetings of many who knew Douglas Ford when he served in this diocese.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

North Africa is the locus for the prayers that we offer this week. It includes areas like the Sudan where the Church continues to exist in spite of persecution and grave difficulties.

On the local scene we remember the Church of St. George, Calgary, which is under the care of our former associate and good friend, John M. Buck.

THE SECOND ORGAN RECITAL in the Calgary Cecilian Series will be given Friday of this week 8.30 p.m. in St. Mary's Cathedral by the young German organist, Michael Radulescu who is Assistant to Prof. Anton Heiller at the Vienna Music Academy and teacher of organ in the Department of Church Music.

THIS WEEK'S TUESDAY NOONHOUR ORGAN RECITAL (12.15) in the Cathedral will be played by Terence Fullerton.

THE ALBERTA SERIES OF ORCHESTRAL CONCERTS, alternating between Calgary and Edmonton, will be given over the CBC network every Tuesday 7.30 to 8 p.m. The first in this series will come from Calgary (CBR) Tuesday of this week under the direction of John Searchfield.

For the sake of brevity we pass on to you some of the Synod's deliberations under these headings.

Christian Education.

- In the Bishop's Charge (state-of-the-diocese address) a plea was made for a specialist to be engaged so that parishes could be bolstered in their educational program. Synod concurred and asked for money to proceed with an appointment.
- Delegates from the Stettler-Drumheller-Big Valley area put forth a strong plea for radio and/or television teaching programs to reach rural and remote families. For many their only religious programs are of "Bible-belt" variety unsatisfactory to Anglicans.
- Sent a resolution to General Synod (Niagara Falls, Jan. '71) calling for a full extramural department of studies be set up for advancing Christian knowledge at all levels.
- Called for further effort in providing and encouraging post-ordination education for clergy.

Worship.

- Encouraged development of weekday evening services of similar magnitude to present major Sunday Services.
- That in future revision of the Prayer Book more emphasis be given to permissive forms and less to mandatory forms of public worship in order that in the use of one common book we may still achieve flexibility and variety.
- Requested the Bishop to give encouragement to the use of various liturgies in the Diocese.

Buildings.

- Resolution passed that "no further building projects be undertaken in the Diocese until all avenues of co-operation in the erection and use of facilities and in ministry to the community, and all possibilities of using existing community structures, have been fully explored, as well as the economic advisability of any such project".
- Urged the Bishop to give more effective pastoral care by the re-aligning of pastoral units with subsequent disposal of the unnecessary real estate.

Other Decisions.

- By vote of Synod, women can now be eligible for office of Churchwarden.
 - Lowered age of Synod delegates to 18.
- Instructed Executive Committee of Diocese to find ways and means to support Calgary Inter-Faith.

YOUR FAVOURITE CHARITY. At this time of year many persons inquire about whether they can make a contribution to some needy cause. The church office receives many notices from groups which are seeking publicity and support. For the next few weeks we will run a blurb each Sunday in the leaflet describing the needs of some group which has presented its cause to us. Here is one for you to consider.

The Canadian Mental Health Association (838 - 11 Ave. S.W.. 266-7283) seeks support for their Christmas program wherein they provide three distinct services under their Christmas gift campaign now in its 10th year (Senator Harry Hayes is their honorary chairman, 1970). The first program is a relatives-patients Christmas dinner provided at the Alberta Hospital. Ponoka. The Calgary Branch requires turkeys, hams and desserts for the dinner when friends and relatives of patients sit down on December 20th for a full Christmas dinner at the hospital. The second program is designed to give patients in hospital a chance to give gifts. Donated gifts are displayed at the "Shoppers' Fair", and patients can obtain presents here to give to friends or relatives whom they wish to remember. Gifts for this program should be sent or delivered to Wesley United Church, 1315 - 7 St. S.W. - 14th Ave. entrance in the mornings. The third program is a really big endeavour. Christmas gifts are collected and provided for patients at Ponoka, Claresholm and Calgary psychiatric units. Called "Creration Gift Lift", it will bring cheer to a significant number of patients who do not have regular contact from friends and relatives. This gift at Christmas helps to let them know someone remembers and cares. See descriptive pamphlet on bulletin board for more information.

CLOTHING BANK. Repeating the notice that was in last week's Clapper, we remind you that volunteer workers - men or women - are required to keep the Bank adequately staffed. Your turn may occur only 4 or 5 times a year. Please phone Mrs. Iris Birch, 243-1277, with offers or for information. Speaking of the Bank, may we remind you that at this time of year outdoor clothing is greatly appreciated. These items can be left at the church any time.

COUPLES! CONFERENCE - February 1971. For several years now upwards of 120 couples have been accommodated for this annual event at the Banff School of Fine Arts. The theme this year is 'Communication in Marriage' and the chief resource person is Mrs. Kay Crowe of Montreal, whose credentials in the realm of family life education are most impressive (she is a prominent Anglican laywoman). Details of the full agenda, costs and registrations, can be found in the descriptive pamphlet on the bulletin board.

FOR THE LADIES

Wednesday of this week at the regular 10.30 Communion Service there will be the presentation of United Thank-Offering boxes and the observance of the St. Andrew's Day Service.

The Ladies' Study Group meets Thursday morning at 9.30; baby-sitting services provided for tots.

Christmas Coffee Party and Bazaar will be held Friday, December 4th, 10 a.m. to 12 noon. Please tell your friends and invite them to attend with you. All sorts of goodies available and a happy time for all.

1971 CHURCH CALENDARS are available from the office any time (65ϕ) . The pictorial section is illustrative of the Beatitudes, and with large spaces for each day it makes a good calendar and gift for writing in notes and appointments.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. The dioceses of the Atlantic seaboard U.S.A. form the list of areas remembered in our prayers this week. Embracing areas in dense population and industry, it brings to focus the Church's witness in that type of society.

In our own city we uphold in prayers the Church of the Holy Nativity situated in the Acadia-Fairview area, and its attempts to reach out into the newer suburbs of south-east Calgary. We pray for their Incumbent, Creighton D. Chew, their parish leaders and people.

REMINDERS.

We are pleased with the response as bundles of used newspapers are left at the depot (34th Ave. door). This small contribution in the anti-pollution cause is helpful. Please ensure that the papers are clean, dry and bundled.

The series of noonhour organ recitals continues each Tuesday 12.15 in the Cathedral - program this week played by Stuart Kennedy.

Wednesday afternoon of this week at 2.30 will be the opening of the $1.2 million Riverview Village project. This is the creation of Inter-Faith Housing wherein seven denominations have collaborated to provide 103 units for middle income families. The public is welcome to the opening and to inspect the project at any time.

NEXT SUNDAY - ADVENT SUNDAY. We hope the whole parish will take to heart the opportunity to participate in White Gift Day. At the risk of being repetative we ask you to bring gifts unwrapped - toys, winter clothing, canned or boxed foodstuffs.

Advent Procession Service at 7.30 p.m. will once again be a highlight in our tradition of musical Services. We encourage all ages to attend this moving Service with its great message and atmosphere.

Here are some of the points and impressions arising out of the Synod and Conference of last weekend.

- Attended by over 200 delegates; good representation of all ages, men and women; and lowered the age to 18.
- Discussion groups were given lots of debate, and probably they afforded the most profitable experiences for many delegates.
- Concern and openness persisted right until Sunday's adjournment at 9 p.m.
- Arising out of three days' conference, Sunday dealt with over 50 motions to bring effect to the delegates' concerns.

Among the topics that were repeatedly aired was that which embraced the best use of church facilities and the most effective stewardship of all our resources. Arising out of the paper presented by Allan Challacombe the Synod passed three resolutions that would call for the Diocese to assess every parish to investigate the use to which buildings are being put, the financial difficulties of some congregations, and all possible avenues of ecumenical co-operation in the erection of new buildings that would best serve the Church's total mission to the community.

REMINDERS:

- White gifts will be collected on Sunday, November 22nd to be brought this year unwrapped for re-sale on the Reserve by our partner-parish there.
- In Brentwood Co-Op Auditorium tomorrow night Mr. W.E. Bolton of Debtors' Assistance Board will explain help available to people in financial difficulties.
- Your contribution in the fight over pollution is to bundle your newspapers and deposit them at the 34th Ave. door at Christ Church any day of the week. These used papers will be re-processed and save many tons of garbage for the City of Calgary.
- Parents of boy choristers are asked to meet with the clergy and choirmaster following the ll o'clock Service today.
- The Winchester Group will hold its regular meeting Tuesday of this week at 2 p.m.
- It is always appreciated when the congregation withdraws with undue noise.

THE LUNCHTIME ORGAN RECITAL at the Cathedral Tuesday of this week 12.15 to 12.45 will be given by our own organist, John Searchfield.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. The Cycle of Prayer this week brings our focus to the eastern sector of the U.S.A. where density of population and historic roots have given the Church a great opportunity for Christian witness and leadership. Today the demands are in facing the urban crises and the integration of all peoples under the total Christian concern.

On the local front we acknowledge in prayer the men who are ordained and licensed in this diocese but are not in the parochial ministry. The non-traditional, non-parochial ministry is a new fact of our age, and the men in this situation greatly appreciate the support and prayers of the Church family.

WE ACKNOWLEDGE THE CONTRIBUTION MADE THIS SEMESTER by the Church School staff, and for the information of the parish it is comprised as follows:

- 9.30 Pre-schoolers Mrs. Joanne Manning & Gina Arnold Grades 1 & 2 Mrs. Denny Beeman Grades 3 & 4 Judy Robinson Secretary Kathy Stanford
- 11.00 Nursery (3 & 4) Mrs. Margaret Fraleigh & Karen Rothwell Kindergarten - Mrs. Diane Farmer & Mrs. Norma Thurston Grade 1 - Mrs. Jane Hartford & Mrs. Chris Kassube Grade 2 - Mrs. Sandra Wasylchuk

Grade 3 - Mrs. Anne Novinger Grade 4 - Mrs. Jocelyn Cooper Grade 5 - Mrs. Jeanette King

Grade 6 - Mrs. Marlys Carruthers

Grade 7 - Mr. Ken Slater Secretary - Barbara Novinger Supervisor - Mr. Ron Cripps

THE LADIES OF THE PARISH are advised that the regular Wednesday 10.30 Celebration of Holy Communion on November 25th will be observed as the annual St. Andrew's Day Service at which time the presentation of United Thank-Offering boxes will be made.

THE FLOWERS ON THE ALTAR OF THE CHURCH are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of all the men of Christ Church who gave their lives in the two World Wars.

RENEWAL SYNOD. This major gathering dominates the Church's attention totally this weekend as 275 delegates from every part of the diocese assemble. In addition to this number of delegates dozens more are participating in the conference sessions where the themes of renewal are being aired. Commencing with the Synod Service and first business session on Thursday evening, the members of Synod have been engrossed in a very heavy agenda all day Friday, Saturday and today. The session this afternoon is crucial since the resolutions coming out of discussion will be acted on if they are to be legislated for this diocese. A full report of Synod will be conveyed to you as soon as possible. We are grateful to the laity and Archdeacon Swanson for the conduct of 9.30 and 11.00 o'clock Services while the clergy are in Synod session this morning.

POLLUTION - WASTE PAPER DEPOT. The topic of pollution has certainly caught the attention of the public and it deserves everyone's support. To bring home to all an opportunity to co-operate, there will be a waste newspaper depot here at Christ Church commencing this week. You are urged to bundle and drop off your newspapers at the 34th Ave. door any day.

The issue at stake is the conservation of our natural resources and the re-using of paper for other materials. When we consider that it takes 17 mature trees to yield 1 ton of newsprint, and the Calgary Herald reckon they use 50 tons per day, it is readily understood how our forest resources can be exploited. City officials state that 60% to 80% of garbage in Calgary is paper. Used newspapers are purchased and re-made into wall-board and other construction materials. The proceeds from the sale of our vaste newspaper depot will go in support of SPEC - Society for Pollution and Environmental Control. As a postscript we might add that a Rocky Mountain Forest Reserve official says it takes 70 to 125 years for one tree to reach mature growth.

A RETREAT FOR ANGLICANS (married or single, male and female) will be held at the Mount St. Francis Retreat House at Cochrane from November 13 to 15. Between the hours of 6.30 p.m. on Friday and 5.00 p.m. on Sunday, provision is made for relaxation, meditation and renewal. For further information or registration please call the Rev. or Mrs. Robert Greene at 249-0549 or 246-2800.

READY HELP FOR PEOPLE IN DEBT. A meeting sponsored by The Consumers' Association of Canada, Calgary Branch, will be held at the Brentwood Co-Op Auditorium next Monday, November 16th, at 8 p.m. Mr. W.E. Bolton of the Debtors' Assistance Board will explain how his staff attempts to assist people in financial difficulties, including orderly payment of debts, assignment of wages, seizure of property, and problems that create overspending. Mr. Bolton's Branch comes under the Attorney-General's Department and is of service to the whole of society.

WHITE GIFTS. We would like to give early notice that the ingathering of white gifts will take place on Advent Sunday. November 29th. at the morning services. This year, in response to the people of the Parish on the Blackfoot Reserve. a new policy is encouraged. We ask that the gifts be not wrapped so that they may be collected and sold by the parish to enable people who cannot afford store toys and gifts to buy the items forwarded from here at very nominal amounts. By this plan it is hoped to accomplish two important things, viz. that gift items will be made available to people who cannot afford to buy presents, and there will no longer be the perpetuation of charity and the dangers of misunderstanding. There is also the added benefit of the very difficult task of deciding who should receive the gifts; and the considerable job of delivering them around the reserve is eliminated. For further information phone Janet Ashburner (243-6791) or Billie Magathan (243-0678).

CYCLE OF PRAYER. As our winter season approaches here our thoughts and prayers are directed to warmer climes, viz. the Pacific and Korea. Local leadership together with supportive ministries and aid from other parts of the world are characteristic of the dioceses we remember this week:

The Hawaiian Islands - Honolulu: Lani Hanchett

Seoul, Korea: Paul Lee

Taejon, Korea: Richard Rutt

The Ryuku Islands - Okinawa: Edmond Browning

The Philippines: Benito Cabanban

Melanesia: John Chisholm

Polynesia: John Holland

On the local scene the Church of the Good Shepherd in the Wildwood area of west Calgary is singled out for our prayerful attention. The Rector is The Rev. R.S.H. Greene.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES. Please note that the sessions for Tuesday and Wednesday of this week are cancelled.

We turn our attention this week to a number of dioceses in the eastern part of our own country: Ontario, Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec, Fredericton, Nova Scotia, Newfoundland. As we pray for the Church in these areas, let us particularly remember the work of Christian witness in the Province of Quebec; we pray that this witness may play its part in healing the cultural and racial divisions which have led recently to violence and murder in that province. In our own diocese we remember today the Parish of St. Andrew here in Calgary. We pray for the Rector, Alfred Bell, as well as for the leaders and members of the congregation.

A RETREAT FOR ANGLICANS (married or single, male and female) will be held at the Mount St. Francis Retreat House at Cochrane from November 13 to 15. Between the hours of 6.30 p.m. on Friday and 5.00 p.m. on Sunday, provision is made for relaxation, meditation and renewal. For further information or registration please call The Rev. or Mrs. Robert Greene at 249-0549 or 246-2800.

THE CALGARY ASSOCIATION FOR THE MENTALLY RETARDED, in collaboration with Knox United Church, is in the process of establishing a nursery program for retarded children (18 months to 4 years). If any members of this congregation know of persons who might need and benefit from this program, please phone one of the clergy (243-0103 or 243-7324). All inquiries will be held in the strictest confidence.

We have been asked to announce a public meeting to hear the views of PENSIONERS CONCERNED, on Tuesday, November 3rd, at 1.30 p.m. at the Canadian Western Natural Gas Auditorium. PENSIONERS CONCERNED is a voluntary, non-profit, non-political group of retired persons whose aim is to work towards relieving the financial burdens of pensioners caught in the fixed income - inflation squeeze. All interested persons are welcome.

HALF-HOUR LUNCHTIME ORGAN RECITALS at 12.15 on Tuesdays at the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer continue this week with Terence Fullerton playing. These recitals are open to the general public at no charge.

WE REMIND MEMBERS OF CHRIST CHURCH OF THE RENEWAL SYNOD to be held from Thursday, November 5th, to Sunday, November 8th. Lay delegates will have received the official agenda for this Synod, but all interested persons are invited to attend the Synod Service (Thursday, 7.30 p.m. at the Cathedral) and the Conference sessions of the Synod. A copy of the agenda is posted on the notice board. This Renewal Synod could well be one of the most important and crucial events in the history of this diocese; please keep it in your prayers and come, if you can. Tickets can be obtained from the Church Office.

TODAY: "Miles for Millions - March for Man". During the day thousands of people of all ages will walk in the cause of humanity. We salute all those who are giving of their time and energy to support this community's outreach into those parts of the world where ignorance, poverty, and want hold human beings in slavery and bondage. We urge all those who have made financial pledges to the walkers to honour these pledges without delay.

THE SECOND SEMESTER OF THE CHURCH SCHOOL YEAR begins today with a full slate of teachers. Those children who are absent today because of "Miles for Millions" are urged to register next week at the latest.

THE WINCHESTER GROUP meets on Tuesday of this week at 2 p.m.

A DROP-IN CENTRE operates each night from 7 to 10 in the teenage lounge off the lower hall.

As many of you will remember, A PRESENTATION OF MODERN DANCE, scheduled for last Sunday morning here, had to be cancelled because of the length of the program. Those who were disappointed at this cancellation will have the opportunity to see this dance group in a free presentation in the University Theatre on Wednesday of this week, November 4th, at 8.00 p.m. The presentation will last for just over an hour and is most suitable for children - of all ages. The title is "There are Tigers Around Here, Probably!"

TODAY

We welcome to the ll o'clock Service The Rt. Rev. M.L. Goodman. It is a happy occasion to have our Bishop come for other than an official visit, and we hope that he will have a chance to meet many after the Service.

We have as our guest this weekend The Rev. Nelson Lord from the Parish of St. Mary's, Belize, British Honduras. Mr. Lord was encouraged to come to Calgary for a few days by a Canadian priest serving in his country, and to consider future studies here at some time and possible overseas linking of his area with us. It is our joy to have this able young clergyman in our midst; he is the only indigenous clergyman of his country.

FOR PARISH INTEREST WE REPORT

The Rummage Sale of last weekend realized over $1,000; thanks to all contributors and workers. The proceeds support the A.C.W. budget, much of which is designated for special appeals.

The Renewal Synod of the Diocese meets November 5-8, with Friday evening, Saturday and Sunday mornings designated as conference sessions. These sessions are open to additional representation, and persons willing and able to attend can obtain tickets from the church office.

The A.Y.P.A. is holding a teen-age Hallowe'en Dance this Friday, October 30th, in the lower hall.

The teachers who will be involved in the next semester of the Church School (Nov. 1st to Dec. 13th) will meet on Thursday night of this week at 8 p.m. in the Crump Room.

The theme speaker for the Renewal Synod is The Rt. Rev. Ralph S. Dean, Bishop of Cariboo; and his main address comes at 9 o'clock Saturday morning in the Henry Wise Wood School Auditorium.

The Visitation returns are steadily being accumulated, for which we are grateful. It is hoped that all outstanding cards will soon be returned and final figures presented in a full report to the congregation.

A Drop-In Centre operates each night 7 to 10 p.m. in the teenage lounge off the lower hall.

The Winchester Group urgently needs 1-lb. coffee tins and 16-oz. bottles for their Christmas baking project; please call Mrs. Ratcliff (243-3776) or Mrs. Coutts (243-2101) who will be glad to pick them up.

A telegram was sent last Sunday to the Prime Minister on behalf of many who encouraged the Rector in this move, assuring him of our prayers and support at a time of difficult national concern. The Prime Minister's acknowledgment is posted on the bulletin board.

OF WIDER INTEREST WE REPORT

In two recent episcopal elections Douglas A. Ford was elected Bishop of Saskatoon, and H. Vickers R. Short was elected Bishop of Saskatchewan; in both instances the bishop-elect was the former Dean of the Cathedral in that diocese. We offer prayers for the bishops-elect and their people; Consecration dates are Nov. 30th and 29th respectively.

An Inter-Faith Housing project situated at 2840 - 28 St. S.E. and called Riverview Village is nearing completion. This undertaking was made possible through the collaborative efforts of church bodies under the initiative and leadership of Calgary Inter-Faith. These 103 units - half apartments and half townhouses - will soon be ready for occupancy. The directors of the project are anxious that Calgary churches should be the first to know and have first opportunity to apply for tenancy. Basically it is designed for people whose income comes between 4,800 and 9,000 a year (CMHC requirements). Inquiries are to be directed to the Inter-Faith office (265-4980), and there will be a sizeable ad in the paper shortly inviting applications. The Rector and Mr. Henry Lawrie are both directors of this Inter-Faith Housing project.

The Miles for Millions - March for Man event next Sunday will undoubtedly be supported by many of us. The enclosed insert explains the entire event including the improved arrangements for the collection of sponsors' contributions.

Two prominent Canadian organists and two well-known European organists will play in the Calgary Cecilian Series: Melville Cook, formerly of Hereford Cathedral and now at Metropolitan Church, Toronto; Michael Radulescu of the Academy of Music, Vienna; Hugh Bancroft of All Saints' Cathedral, Edmonton; and David Lumsden of New College, Oxford, and Oxford University. The first recital will be given by Dr. Cook on Friday of this week, October 30th, 8.30 p.m. at Knox United Church. Season tickets are $9.00, single recitals $3.00; 50¢ for students, and children under 14 free.

Half-hour Lunchtime Organ Recitals at 12.15 on Tuesdays at the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer start Tuesday of this week with Robert Bell playing. These recitals are open to the general public at no charge.

The Baroque Ensemble led by John Searchfield (harpsichord) will give a recital tomorrow 8.30 p.m. at the University Theatre.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. Dioceses in the southern sector of Africa are remembered in our prayers this week, and as we do so we recollect the racial and political anxieties under which their Christian witness continues. In our own diocese and city we remember the Parish of All Saints and the Church of the Transfiguration, cared for by Archdeacon Crowder and The Rev. Gerald Shaw.

PARISH NOTES

We draw attention to the fact that there will be a full Service of Evensong tonight at 7.30, and with it a short recital of sacred music. This pattern of Evensong coupled with special music was well received last season, and we hope to offer similar Evensongs of worship and music throughout this season again. One often hears comments of regret that the beautiful Service of Evensong is not a regular feature of a parish's worship life any more, having suffered from the changing trends of family life and worship. These periodic Evensongs are an attempt to afford people both the opportunity to worship in the evening and to preserve the beauty of the Prayer Book Service of Evening Prayer.

In order to conclude as promptly as possible the Visitation program, the chairman has asked if all those who have cards that were either mailed to them or left with them might be returned soon. The results of the Visitation to date are encouraging, and as soon as something like final totals are in sight a full report will be made to the parish.

The Winchester Group will hold its regular meeting Tuesday of this week at 2 p.m.

The Ladies' Study Group continues its study of "Religions of Man", led by The Rev. Allan Challacombe, Thursday of this week at 9.80 a.m. in the Crump Room.

A Drop-In Centre - called 'The Bridge' - is the use and the name being given to the teen room in the lower hall area where every evening a core of teenagers is on hand to welcome and chat with any who want to drop in. It is simply a place of friendship, and available to any who would care to come and can expect to find a sympathetic ear and a friendly welcome.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

Dioceses which are found in the Union of South Africa are collectively remembered in our prayers this week. Little has to be said about the tensions and conditions of Christian witness in that art of Africa, and it is obvious they need to be supported by the prayers of the whole Christian world.

On the local scene we remember the Parish of St. Gabriel in northeast Calgary, its newly inducted Rector, J. Barry Patrick, all its leaders and people.

MARRIAGE PREPARATION SEMINAR will be held here next weekend for those engaged or recently married. Under the scope of this marriage education program a fairly complete spectrum of all the aspects of married life is covered, and the course is highly commended. Registration forms are available from the church office. 7.30 EVENSONG

NEXT WEEKEND

Next Sunday we shall welcome The Rt. Rev. M.L. Goodman as preacher at the 11 o'clock Choral Eucharist. Our Bishop is often limited in his contacts with parishes to occasions such as Confirmations, Inductions and the like. So it is a happy thing to have him with us simply as our Bishop, and to afford an opportunity for him to meet with his people in this parish.

A company of lively young dancers will present a program of contemporary dance at the conclusion of the 9.30 and 11.00 o'clock Services next Sunday. These presentations will take place in the lower hall, and are being offered through the courtesy of Mrs. Yone Young, dance instructress. This group has performed here on two previous occasions, and it has been a very exciting and dynamic performance greatly enjoyed by young and old alike.

TODAY

Should you be a Thanksgiving weekend visitor with us please join in the Coffee Hour that follows the 11 o'clock Service in the Crump Room. This is our best opportunity to meet each other, and there are refreshments for the younger ones too.

The flowers on the Altars of the Church and Chapel are to the glory of God and in loving memory of Fred and Ina Hess.

There is no gathering for the teenagers tonight (A.Y.P.A.) due to the holiday weekend; they will meet next Sunday as usual.

PARISH NOTICES

On Thursday afternoon of this week there will be a social gathering in the Crump Room for our senior set. These events which occur frequently during the season are always greatly enjoyed by both men and women, and a hearty welcome goes out from those making the arrangements. This interesting group of senior friends and parishioners has been searching for a name; have you a suggestion? Suggestions like 'Darby and Joan Group', 'The Senior Set', 'Tea and Talk Group' have already been made, and your ideas are welcomed.

Don't forget that next weekend is the Rummage Sale, open for business Friday night at 7 p.m. and again Saturday morning at 9.30. There are a lot of jobs in connection with this event, and offers of help are always appreciated. This is not to neglect the need for your good used goods which all make the sale possible; for pick-up call Mrs. Jane McCowan, 243-0121.

The Visitation of last Sunday was carried out most expeditiously by 102 visitors and the visitation executive. The overall atmosphere and results were positive and beneficial, and returns to date are most encouraging. The only adverse feature was the large number of people not at home on the day of visitation, even though they had been asked to oblige. It is always disappointing that the visitation cannot be completed on the day that the manpower is available; however, a strong follow-up team will attempt to complete the calls very shortly.

Mrs. Allison Gretton is chairman of the Diocesan A.C.W. Information and Education Services. For her work she requires a volunteer typist for approximately 2 to 3 hours per week. This work can be done at home and it is of a very interesting character. This aspect of A.C.W. is very important and would put the volunteer in the centre of some very exciting church work. Persons offering are asked to kindly phone Mrs. Gretton at 245-3188, or the church office.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

The ancient but troubled land of Ireland is the focus for our prayers this week, particularly the southern counties. There the Anglican constituency is small percentage wise, but wields a considerable influence in the life of the people.

The local parish upheld by our prayers this week is St. Cyprian's in north-west Calgary. We pray for the Rector, Gordon Dickin; all the parish leaders and people.

TEENAGERS: Are you bugged? Come and talk it over at "The Bridge" held in the Teen Lounge (off lower hall) - Monday to Saturday 7 to 10 p.m.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. This week our thoughts and prayers are directed towards the Church in England, and more particularly the central part of that nation. We pray for renewed vigour and vitality in the English Church as it struggles to make its witness in a rapidly changing society. Birmingham: Laurence Ambrose Brown; Coventry: Cuthbert Bardsley; Leicester: Ronald Williams; Derby: Cyril Bowles; Lichfield: Stretton Reeve; Oxford: Harry Carpenter; Bristol: Oliver Tomkins.

In our own diocese we remember particularly today the parishes of St. Augustine and St. Luke in Calgary. We pray for their Rector, Erle Andrew Justice, as well as for the leaders and members of these two congregations.

TODAY IS VISITATION SUNDAY in Christ Church Parish. This afternoon between 1.30 and 5.00 over 100 visitors will attempt to call at the homes of all families in the parish. They will be asking all parishioners to lend their wholehearted financial support to the work of Christ Church, work which extends from within the parish to the diocese, and from there into many parts of this country and the world. We hope you will make every effort to be at home this afternoon to welcome your visitor and to make your pledge towards the work of the Church in this parish and in the world.

A Prayer for our Visitation. God our Father, who providest for thy children in advance of their needs, bless we pray the work of our Every Member Visitation, and grant us all to share in it with glad and willing hearts for the sake of thy Kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Visitors are reminded of the luncheon which follows the 11.00 a.m. Service today. It is hoped to begin the luncheon at 12.30 sharp so that the visits may begin at 1.30 p.m.

NEXT SUNDAY at 11.00 a.m. a public Service of Holy Raptism will be held. Please contact the clergy or the church office immediately if you have children whom you wish baptized at this time.

ALL LADIES of the parish are reminded of the Open Meeting of the Anglican Church Women to be held this Tuesday, October 6th, at 1.30 p.m. in the Crump Room. The special guest on this occasion will be Mrs. R.J. Gibbs who will speak on Riverside Villa, a new venture in social rehabilitation in our community. All invited; all welcome.

THE FLOWERS on the Altar of the Church are to the glory of God and in loving memory of Lt. Col. & Mrs. J.W. Littleton; and the flowers on the Chapel Altar are in loving memory of Betty Crump, a gift from the Mardi Group.

OUR SENIOR PARISHIONERS will hold a party on Thursday, October 15 at 2.30 p.m. in the Crump Room.

Don't forget the great RUMMAGE SALE on October 16th and 17th. You can support this venture by donating rummage and by attending the sale with your friends. If you would be willing to help at the sale, please call Mrs. R.B. Banks (255-1224) or Mrs. C.W. Hunt (244-2834). If you would like rummage picked up at your home, please call Mrs. Jane McCowan at 243-0121.

If there are any further registrations for CONFIRMATION CLASSES, please phone the church office on Monday or Tuesday of this week. Candidates may enroll in either the Tuesday or Wednesday classes (6.30 to 8.00 p.m.).

MEALS ON WHEELS is organizing a visitation program and requires volunteers to do regular visiting with clients. Can you spare a few hours for this service? Also, men drivers for delivering meals are very much needed. For further information please phone Mrs. E.A. Anderson (244-2647) or the Meals on Wheels office (283-1687).

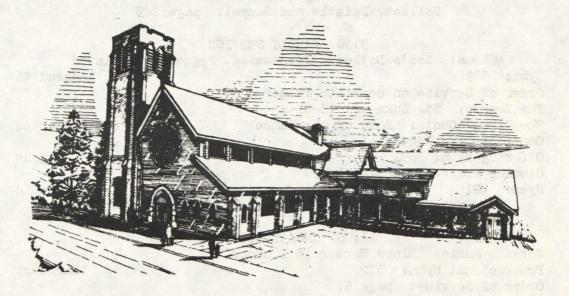

As the 1970 UNITED APPEAL moves into high gear, just a word or two about this annual venture and its importance to the community in which all of us live. Generous response to this appeal is surely an extension of our Christian conviction that we are in fact our brother's keeper, that we do have an obligation to share our plenty with those in our society less fortunate than ourselves. It's all part and parcel of loving our neighbours as ourselves!

THE CALGARY FRENCH SCHOOL will offer after-school classes on Honday and Wednesday afternoons in the Kemp Room of our Parish Hall, for children 6 to 14 with or without previous French. Please call Mrs. Janet Poyen (243-6303) for information.

HARVEST FESTIVAL. No one presumes that we are grateful only on one day of the year, but rather we use this Festival to be the highly expressive moment in our worship life to give prime emphasis to our need to give thanks to God for the whole of life. Many attempts are made today to express this sentiment; the decorations of the church, for which we acknowledge the contribution of the Altar Guild and others, the articles of personal value brought to the 9.30 Service, and all the homes and prayers speak of our awareness that God is to be praised for all His goodness. On this festive day we have the opportunity to make a special thankoffering which becomes part of our whole share in the ministry to people, carried out by and through this parish.

NEXT SUNDAY: VISITATION. As steps proceed quickly to execute the entire visitation of the parish next Sunday we make the unabashed appeal for support. Primarily we look for the readiness of all parishioners to give tangible evidence that they will endorse the church in all its work. Simultaneously we seek the active cooperation of well over 100 visitors to carry out next Sunday's task, and this raises the very obvious but ardent request that parishioners make every effort to be at home between 1.30 and 5.00 to receive their caller. The visitors are reminded that a luncheon follows the 11 o'clock Service next Sunday, at which time the assignments will be made.

REMINDERS:

- All ladies in the parish are urged to keep Tuesday, October 6th, free for the Anglican Church Women open meeting at 1.30. The whole gamut of A.C.W. involvement will be presented plus a special report; this also includes an opportunity to mix and meet with other women of the parish.

- We are grateful for the number of paperbacks already contributed, and seek your remembering of this appeal in support of halfway house for prisoners.

- Information in support of the United Appeal is to be found on the rear table of the Narthex. We endorse full support of our community's benevolent agencies.

- Rummage for the Sale on October 16th and 17th may be left in the Parish Hall c/o Mr. Marshall, or if pick-up is Leeded please phone Mrs. Jane McCowan at 243-0121.

- Meals on Wheels is organizing a visitation program and requires volunteers to do regular visiting with clients. Can you spare a few hours for this service? Also, men drivers for delivering meals are very much needed. For further information please phone Mrs. E.A. Anderson (244-2647) or the Heals on Wheels office (283-1687).
- Confirmation Classes for adolescents have just begun, and if there are to be any further registrations for either Tuesday or Wednesday classes (6.30 8.00) please call the church office soon (243-0103).
- A.Y.P.A. tonight at 7.30 will continue to explore some very exciting proposals for teenage programs this winter. These include social functions, inter-church activities, and teenage programs with a strong outreach emphasis.
- For those who wish to conclude their time of worship by staying for the voluntary, it is appreciated that others withdraw with a minimum of noise.
- We hope everyone knows that there is Coffee Hour every Sunday at the conclusion of ll o'clock Service. Here it is that we have the chance to meet and visit, and where particularly newcomers can be introduced to others.

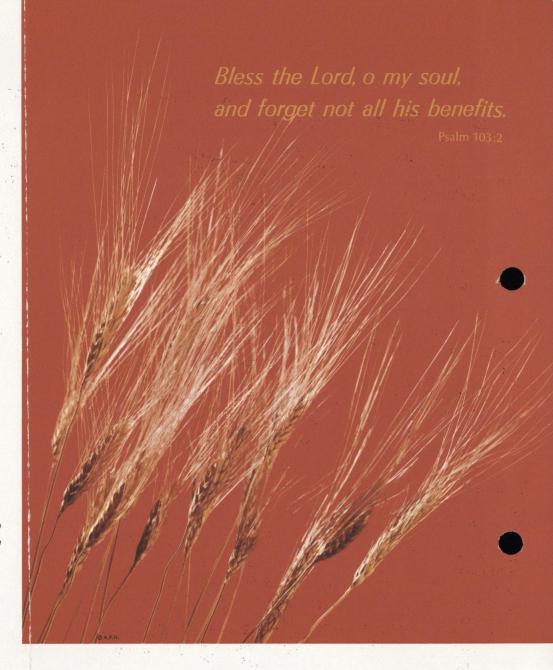

CYCLE OF PRAYER. Similar to last week's list we are directed in our prayers to recall South-East Asia including the Australian Church in the Brisbane area. This section of the Anglican Communion has need of continuing vitality as it grows and becomes indigenous.

Brisbane: Philip Strong, Rockhampton: Donald Shearman, North Queensland: Ian Shevill, New Guinea: David Hand, Kuching: Basil Temenggong, Sabah: Roland Koh, Kalimantan.

On the local scene our prayers are sought for the Parish of St. Martin, Calgary, ministering to the Westerly residential areas of the city. We include their newly arrived Rector, Peter N. A. Barker, and his Associate, Donald S. McKinnell.

OTHER NOTES:

- The next occasion of Public Baptism is scheduled to be on October 11th (Thanksgiving weekend), and parents and candidates are asked to contact the clergy.
- Senior parishioners will hold their first party of the fall season on Thursday, October 15th.

data price so Acciertes DVL : Treatments of GUESTS. The Rev. Ben Hall and his wife Nancy are our guests this morning to share their knowledge and experiences with both congregations. Since arriving in Calgary last spring Ben has conducted a sociological study of the Forest Lawn area for the Calgary Family Service Bureau. He is about to commence a three-year course at the Alberta College of Art to devote his considerable artistic talents so that he might offer a future ministry in the art forms. Prior to coming to Calgary the Halls served for seven years as Anglican missionaries in the community of Hay River, one hundred miles south of Yellowknife. This came after his theological training and service in the Diocese of Huron. Prior to coming to Canada Ben served in church social work in the U.K., specially in homes and hostels. Nancy is currently Executive Director of the Bowness-Montgomery Day-Care Centre; her specialized training in child care was received in Britain, and she has served in social service capacities. It is our pleasure to welcome them and have them with us today.

UNITED FUND. From the insert you will readily conclude that we enthusiastically lend our support and endorsation to the appeal being made in Calgary at this time. The United Fund is seeking $1.8 million to sustain the many wonders carried out by 36 community services. On this 'United Appeal Sunday' we solicit your support and co-operation in this endeavour, and commend all those involved for their concern for the health, welfare, rehabilitation and youth programs that benefit from their work.

NEXT SUNDAY. Our annual Harvest Festival will be observed next Sunday at all Services wherein we set aside this specific date to publicly acknowledge our great gratitude to God for all of life's blessings. The church will be decorated in its usual festive manner, and any persons with gifts of fruit, flowers, vegetables or grain are asked to leave them at the church before 10 a.m. next Saturday.

FOR ALL LADIES. We would remind all ladies of the parish that they are members of the Anglican Church Women, since this movement is not a membership-by-fee organization but is a comprehensive movement embracing all those who worship in the Anglican tradition. There is to be a general meeting of the A.C.W. on Tuesday, Oct. 6th at 1.30 in the Crump Room, and therefore all are cordially invited to attend. Mark the date now in your calendar. At this gathering ladies will be informed of what the A.C.W. in this parish embraces by way of projects and special interests, and also a special report will be made on Riverview Villa - a halfway house for women.

MEAIS ON WHEELS is organizing a visitation program and requires volunteers to do regular visiting with clients. Can you spare a few hours for this service? Also, men drivers for delivering meals are very much needed. For further information please phone Mrs. E.A. Anderson, 244-2647, or the Meals on Wheels office, 283-1687.

REMINDERS:

Paperbacks. One of the local department stores operates a counter to sell used paperbacks, with all proceeds going to a halfway house for discharged prisoners. Practically every house has some old paperbacks kicking around, and these we'd like you to bring along to church. Boxes are placed in the Narthex and at the side door clearly marked to receive them.

Quiet Day. All are invited to attend a Quiet Day at the Church of the Good Shepherd on Saturday, September 26th, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., conducted by Sister Rosemary Anne, S.S.J.D.

Rummage Sale dates are October 16th and 17th; and articles may be left in the parish hall c/o Mr. Marshall, or phone Mrs. Jane McCowan (243-0121) if pick-up is needed.

CYCIE OF PRAYER. Our Anglican brethren in Australia are included in our prayers this week, recalling that with the expansion of that dominion the Church also faces the good problems of growth and development.

Helbourne: Frank Woods
Ballarat: William Hardie
St. Arnaud: Alen Winter
Bendigo: Ronald Richards

Wangaratta: Keith Rayner Gippsland: David Garnsey Tasmania: Robert Davies

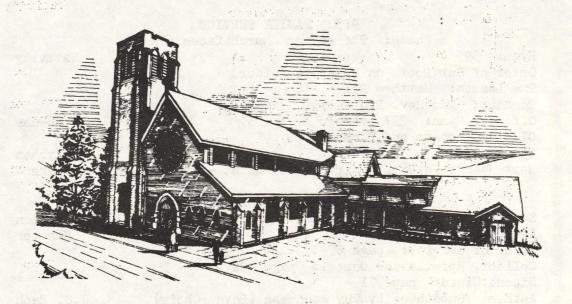

Our neighbouring parish to the west is St. Mark's on 33rd Ave.; and we remember all their people together with their Rector, Peter Niblock, in our prayers this week.

DRIVER EDUCATION. The mounting number of deaths and injuries resulting from traffic accidents is reaching such proportions that many government and private agencies are looking to ways of arresting the number of accidents taking place on our streets and highways. Driver education in our schools can be an important means towards this end; the subject of Driver Education will be featured on a public affairs program on Channel 4, CFCN-TV today from 5.30 to 6 p.m.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. Caribbean and Atlantic - This area we recall for inclusion in our prayers this week and recollect that it embraces old colonial strongholds plus places of tremendous growth and dynamic development.

St. Philip's, Calgary - Our neighbouring parish in Elboya is affectionately remembered because of its outgrowth from Christ Church in the early 1950s. The faithful congregation is remembered in our prayers together with its Rector, John R. Flagler.

In many respects today is a new year's day since it inaugurates a new season wherein the parish's groups and activities commence another term. The characteristic of September for many people seems to be that of rather frenetic activity as we stir everything up with great anxiousness to get things going. Let's hope that in the middle of our busyness we do not lose sight of what we stand for, Whom we serve, and the commission given to us by Christ to serve God in this world. There is no reason why 1970-71 season cannot be the most stimulating and exciting period ever known; it all depends on the spirit and the motive under which we work. It is not likely to be any different from lots of other years, however, if we approach it out of sheer habit or complacency. Since all time is a gift from God, let us pray that we utilize it for the furtherance of the Gospel here and now.

Church School. Registration takes place today at both 9.30 and 11.00 for the first semester which runs from now until the end of October. The intention is that children registered in this semester will attend faithfully the eight Sundays of this term. Classes are conducted at 9.30 for pre-school and up to the 4th grade; at 11.00 o'clock classes are offered for pre-school through to grade VIII.

- 9.30 Service. For those new to the parish or not fully aware of the varieties of worship offered here, the 9.30 Service retains a more flexible approach to worship. It tends to be informal, non-liturgical and freer in its use of forms other than the Prayer Book. Consistent with this approach, the 9.30 Service today will include a multi-media presentation of some of the glaring conditions in our world; these conditions of course call for a Christian reaction from those who hold the Christian ethic.
- A.Y.P.A. This group for all teenagers begins at 7.30 tonight and welcomes all high school people to a season of fellowship, fun and worthwhile activity. It is probable that the presentation described above (see 9.30) will be shown again for discussion. The parish fitted out a tremendous teenage lounge in the lower hall at considerable expense last year, and we hope it will get full use during this season.

MEETINGS - The Winchester Group will hold its first meeting of the fall season on Tuesday of this week at 2 p.m. in the Crump Room.

- Girls! Choir practices resume on Wednesday of this week at 6.30 p.m. under the leadership of Miss Elizabeth Stileman who welcomes new members.

WAYS TO HELP

Paper-backs. One of the local department stores operates a counter to sell used paper-backs with all proceeds going to a half-way house for discharged prisoners. Practically every house has some old paper-backs kicking around, and these we'd like you to bring along to church. Boxes will be placed in the Narthex and at the side door clearly marked to receive them. Try to remember this for next Sunday.

Rummage. The semi-annual "miracle" takes place on October 16th and 17th wherein the Guild section of the A.C.W. operates its fantastic sale of everything from clothing, toys, household effects and what-have-you. Please save, collect and take note of the need and the dates, and if pick-up is required please phone Mrs. Jane McCowan, 243-0121.

MISCELLANEOUS

We welcome Miss Margie Robson as sub-organist. Miss Robson is an organ major in the Bachelor of Music program at the University of Calgary, and this summer was awarded a first-class honours A.R.C.T. degree in piano.

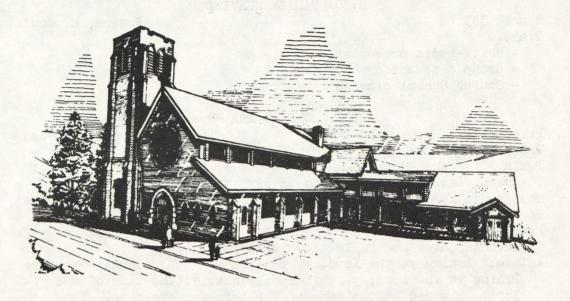

United Appeal. Next Sunday throughout Calgary support will be given the forthcoming appeal for $1.8 million to provide funds for 36 community services.

Bible Society. The Canadian Bible Society has probably notified many of you by separate letter of its hope to achieve its 1970 commitments through the support of Canadian church people. $2\frac{1}{2}$ million Scripture selections were available for distribution at Expo '70 Osaka – and this is just one of its many tasks in making the Bible available in the world. If you have not yet helped the C.B.S. this year "do it now".

CYCLE OF PRAYER.

We sometimes forget that the Anglican Communion extends into many countries not readily associated with its place of origin.

Our prayers this week are directed towards the Churches of the Anglican Communion in the countries of Europe:

THE RELEASE STREET

Gibraltor Italy
Spain Sicily
Portugal Corsica
France Sardinia
Belgium The Baltic
Netherlands Iceland
Luxemburg Greenland

These Churches, in the Convocation of American Churches in Europe, are under the episcopal jurisdiction of Stanley Eley and Brooke Mosley.

In our own diocesan family our prayers are asked for the Parish of St. Peter, ministering to a large suburban, residential area in south-west Calgary. We remember in prayer its Rector, W. I. D. Smith, its Parish Worker, Isabel Forbes, and all the leaders and members of the congregation.

CHOIR PRACTICES begin this week. The boys' choir meets Tuesday at 4.30 and Thursday at 6.45 for practice; the adults meet Thursday at 8.00 p.m. Anyone interested in joining one of the choirs should speak to Mr. John Searchfield.

NEXT SUNDAY, September 13, we return to our normal Service schedule: 8.00, 9.30 and 11.00, and the first semester of the Church School will begin with registration. The Church School is still in need of teachers for all semesters. Please check with the Church Office or the Clergy if you are willing to share in this most important aspect of our parochial life. A preparatory session is held for teachers before each semester: the session for those teaching in the first semester will be held on Thursday, September 10, at 8.00 p.m.

Cycle of Prayer: Our attention is directed this week to seven diocesesin our Canadian Church, their bishops, clergy and people: Rupert's Land, Keewatin, Moosonee, Algoma, Huron, Niagara and Toronto.

In our own diocese we remember today the Parish of St. Stephen, Calgary, one of our neighbouring parishes. The Rector there is the Rev'd F.H.W. Crabb, and his assistant is the Rev'd R.A. Hunt.

SUMMER ARRANGEMENTS: During August the Church Office will be open as usual from 9.00 a.m. until 5.00 p.m. The Rev'd Allan Challacombe is Priest-in-charge until the return of the Rector on A gust 22nd. He can be reached either at the office or at his home (244-8549).

WELCOME to all our summer visitors. We are delighted to have you worship with us here at Christ Church. Please sign the Visitors' Book in the Narthex and help yourself to any literature on the rear table. We hope you thoroughly enjoy your visit to our parish and city.

A THANK-YOU to all those members of the parish who have sent their weekly offerings by mail during their period of absence from Church because of holidays. The parish expenditures are constant even when people are not here, and we solicit your continuing co-operation in maintaining the income during the summer.

August 9: Eleventh Sunday after Trinity

Cycle of Prayer. The Dioceses of East Anglia, England. Lincoln, Peterborough, Ely, St. Edmundsbury & Inswich, Norwich, Worcester and Hereford. Under the plan of sending ten priests from Calgary Diocese to England each year for a 5-week mini-sabbatical, this region gains some personal attachments. At Lincoln Theological College they studied; in Norwich they lived in parishes and learned of English life first-hand.

The Parish of St. John the Divine on the Blackfoot Reserve has special meaning for Christ Church as we two are linked in a partner-parish program. We are grateful for evidences of growth in understanding, and especially for a good joint picnic in May. There is to be a new priest appointed this fall to serve on the reserve.

The flowers on the Altar of the Church are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Nellie Ireland, and the flowers on the Chapel Altar are in loving memory of Mary Elizabeth Papworth.

WELCOME to all our summertime visitors and guests. We are delighted to have you worship with us and visit Christ Church. Please sign the Visitors' Book in the Narthex and help yourself to any literature on the rear table. For those who are in Calgary for the great Stampede events we hope you thoroughly enjoy this experience and will have happy memories of our city.

Psalm 46: page 388
Lessons: 2 Kings 4: 8-37; Acts 27
Hymns as posted.

Cycle of Prayer: Africa is still the focus of our prayers this week, with emphasis on the Diocese of East Africa: Dar es Salaam, Zanzibar and Tanga, Morogoro, Central Tanganyika, Victoria Nyanza, Western Tanganyika, South West Tanganyika and Masasi.

The Mother Church of our Diocese is the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer; the Dean is The Very Rev. David J. Carter, and the Assistant is The Rev. J. Geoffrey Heald. It has a difficult assignment to minister to the downtown core, and still retain parochial style life. The provision of the drop-in centre (food and lodging) for transient youths in their Paget Hall is a significant contribution, meeting a real need this summer.

TO THOSE LEAVING. It seems that during the summer months many families take their leave of us to be settled in other communities and cities. We wish you all happiness in your new homes, and would love to hear from you once you are settled.

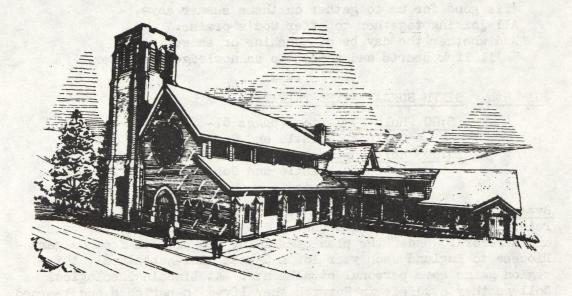

HAPPY HOLIDAYS to those who are able to take their vacations at this time. We hope you are well blessed in your holiday pursuits, and can return to work truly refreshed and recreated. Remember, no matter where you go there is a church waiting to welcome you to its worship!

REMINDER. If you are to be away for several Sundays it is most helpful to our Treasurer to have the offerings kept current. The parish expenditures are constant even when people are not here, so we solicit your co-operation in maintaining the income over the summer months. Thank: you for your co-operation in this concern.

DOMINION DAY. With Canada's birthday falling on Wednesday, there will not be the usual predominance that goes with a holiday weekend, which may be a blessing from the standpoint of highway traffic and fatalities. However, it is a day when we can and should pause to reflect with thanksgiving on our corporate security and blessings that come along with responsibility, in this good land. The specific opportunity to give thanks is the regular Wednesday 10:30 Eucharist in the Chapel - but wherever we are it ought to be a day of thankful reflection. Canadians are not yet that wildly patriotic, and may never become so in comparison to the avid patriotism known in other parts of the world. While we may lack emotion and a demonstrative kind of loyalty, we can always promote the kind of devotion to Canada and its people that reflects a responsible citizenry and an awareness of our duties both national and international.

VISITORS.

The summer season has barely begun, but already we have been pleased to meet several visitors worshipping with us at Christ Church. They have come from parts of the U.S.A., England and Europe. We hope that during the summer months parishioners will not hesitate to extend a greeting to those in their midst, and attempt if possible to see that they are made very welcome.

Among our recent visitors we were pleased to act as hosts from Thursday afternoon to Saturday morning of this past week to a contingent of high school students from St. Paul's School, Oakland, California. They billeted themselves here at the church for their Calgary stop-over on a four-week school sponsored bus tour.

VACATIONS. The Rector commences vacation this week, and Mr. Challacombe will return to duty July 2nd. Miss McLean in the church office will be on vacation in July, and for the month of July the church office will be open mornings only. Mr. Challacombe's home number is 244-8549, and if there is no answer at the church parishioners are free to call him at home. Mr. Challacombe is Priest-in-Charge for the summer period that the Rector is absent. Following vacation time the Rector will undertake postgraduate study at U.B.C., returning August 20th.

CYCLE OF PRAYER.

The regular geographic location that is the usual pattern for prayerful remembrance is interrupted this week to give prominence to the theme "The Human Family". The following designations illustrate the focus of our prayer for this week, that is so very appropriate and comprehensive.

United Nations Organisation

World Council of Churches - Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, General
Anglican Executive Officer - John Howe, Bishop Secretary

Deputy Executive Officer - Robert Jeffery Human Solidarity - Affluence and Poverty

Human Solidarity - Race

Human Solidarity - Justice and Peace

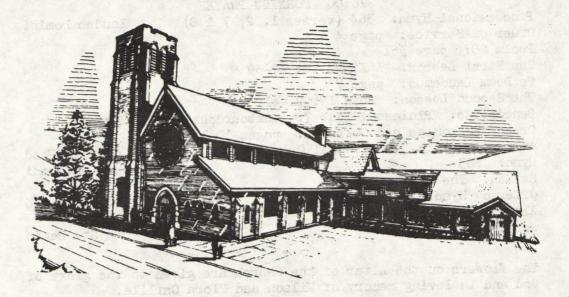

Human Solidarity - Science and Moral Choice

The diocesan prayer list presents the Cardston area for our remembrance. This includes St. Paul's School, a residential institution for Indian children whose administrator is The Rev. Allen K. McCuaig. It also includes the Parish of St. Paul and St. Thomas, Cardston, which is the Parish on the Blood Reserve whose priest is The Rev. Donald Dodman.

SUMMER READING. A random selection from the Parish Library offers you a mixed diet of topnotch reading for your summer days. To illustrate the variety offered we note these four:

From Pulpit to Prison. In 1964 Russell Horsburgh was a United Church minister charged with contributing to juvenile delinquency. The Supreme Court of Canada found him innocent of these charges; but meanwhile there had been a great furor, humiliation and ostracism. His own story is an interesting commentary on the forces in our society.

A Grief Observed. Published posthumously, this is the internal turmoil and reflections penned by C.S. Lewis at the time of his wife's death. Beautiful, heart-rending, triumphant, are inadequate words to tell of this intimate expression of grief. Many consider it the most helpful book they have ever read.

A Man in Christ. J.S. Stewart's account of Paul's thought and experience is a classic. It is scholarly, comprehensive and most helpful to those who are vague about the great Christian missionary exponent.

The Meaning of Persons. The Parish Library contains several of Paul Tournier's books, for he is a most gifted medical Christian analyst. This particular volume is a good place to begin for those who ponder the question, who am I?

MEMORIALS. The Sanctuary of the Church is further beautified by the addition of two memorial gifts being dedicated today.

The Frontal and Superfrontal that cover the face of the Altar are dedicated to the glory of God and in loving memory of Peter L. Rule; they are the gift of his wife and sons.

The Dossal Curtains which hang behind the Altar as part of the wooden reredos are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of William McKenna Haggart; the gift of his wife and family.

The Frontal and Superfrontal were worked by the Diocesan Chancel Guild (needlework section) of Toronto, which executed these pieces and all the fine embroidery. The Dossal Curtains were sewn by Mrs. Jean Firmstone of Christ Church Altar Guild.

BANNS. From time to time, like today's instance, when Banns are read in Church, their purpose and significance raises inquiry in people's minds. The present situation in the Province of Alberta is that all persons to be married must obtain a civil licence; this still allows Banns to be read as a courtesy to the persons and families involved.

Going back a few decades when the majority of people lived in small centres and rural areas, the Church assembly was one of the most public gatherings of society. At the time of worship then became an appropriate time to announce to the community the intended marriage of persons who resided in that community. If there were any reasons for prohibition (banns), people had the opportunity to express their concern and raise objections. Incidentally with the establishment of the North American colonies and settlements (both in the U.S. and in Canada), when the separation of church and state was clearly expressed, the governor's licence was required for marriage, and this licence was posted publicly - again to give public announcement of a forthcoming marriage. Hence the licence and banns have a similar history. While we do not look for the raising of prohibitions or objections through the exercise of calling the banns, it still provides a public awareness for marriage that reminds us that every marriage has an implication for the whole society and is something for which we ought all to have proper serious concern.

MARRIAGE. Following on this previous comment, and since we are in the summer season, a couple of comments about marriage are appropriate. First, it always takes awhile for a change in requirements and style to take effect, but we hope all Anglicans are aware that since 1968 it is required that all persons anticipating marriage must give at least thirty days' notice. It is also stated in Canon XXVII that adequate marriage education be provided for persons intending to be married. (Copy of this is posted at the rear of the Church and on the notice-board.)

It is a frequent reaction that the objection to both these requirements tends to come mostly from the parents of the bride and groom rather than the couple themselves. In the face of to-day's concern to create good solid Christian marriage, this kind of static from parents is hard to understand.

One of the positive, preventive and well-commended ministries that the Church exercises these days is the provision of marriage preparation courses.

For the Calgary churches these are carried out at Christ Church eight or nine times per season; last weekend there were 34 couples who attended such a seminar from Friday night to Sunday afternoon. The strongest reaction emanating from these sessions is that reported by the couples who expressed gratitude, acknowledgment of much benefit, and the conviction that this is something that they will recommend to all engaged couples.

THE FLOWERS ON THE ALTAR OF THE CHAPEL are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of our parents, from Col. & Mrs. Ryan.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. The more south and easterly sections of Australia are enumerated for our prayerful attention this week. Australia was slower than some dominions in becoming autonomous in its Church affairs, but has rapidly assumed strong independence along with a fairly vigorous missionary outreach directed mostly in south-east Asia and Africa.

FOR THE BLIND. The church office has received information for those who have problems of sight that are the concern of the John Milton Society for the Blind. There is a John Milton magazine in large type print that can be obtained, and subscription rates and information are available from the church office. Large type materials and braille magazines and books are available through this society; if you know of any persons who would be glad of such help please inquire.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. The Caribbean Area includes the more southeasterly islands of the West Indies and the northern mainland of South America which are collectively known as the Province of the West Indies. The Anglican Church is very dominant in many of the islands and has a long history of work in these places. On the mainland Venezuela is a newer area for Anglican concentrated effort, and Canada is particularly involved in this country through the presence of a Canadian Bishop and team of church workers.

This week, among our own diocesan intercessions, we remember the retired clergy of the diocese, the lay readers, and the Synod Office staff. Each of these groups represents a significant contribution to the whole diocese for which we offer prayers of thanksgiving.

SUMMER READING. Among the newer additions to the Parish Library (and there have been many new volumes added lately) we draw your attention to these samples:

My Life with Martin Luther King Jr. by Coretta Scott King (his widow) is a very readable and informative account of this outstanding contemporary figure who has left such a large legacy to the underprivileged people of the world.

The Supper of the Lamb by Robert Farrar Capon. Writing with a light and easy style, Capon produces a delightful book filled with the wisdom of a man in harmony with himself, with his world and with his table. Capon is an Episcopalian priest who has intense interests in history, classics and food.

The Incendiary Fellowship by Elton Trueblood. Trueblood is an American Quaker with an incisive mind and a style of great clarity presenting the call of the Church to be people not "mildly interested", but on fire with faith in Christ.

Hey, Preach...You're Comin! Through by David Wilkerson. This author established himself with "The Cross and the Switchblade" wherein he accounted his sidewalk ministry among New York's gangs. This latter volume continues his dialogue with the people of Harlem being confronted with the Gospel and their assimilation of the Good News into their culture.

CANTATA. The short cantata offered by the choir this morning is a setting of the text by Gustaf Duben, music by Buxtehude; and is appropriate to this season.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

"We are losing our Christianity mainly because Christianity is a creed for heroes; and we are harmless, good-natured little people who want everybody to have a good time."

"The charter of the Church is to be the servant of the world."

About Money.

"We, the miserable owners of the increasingly luxurious cars, and ever expanding television screens, do most humbly pray for that two-thirds of the world's population which is undernourished."

"Some people shift into reverse when you move from faith to finance, or from blessing to budget."

"Dear Lord: in spite of all we say and do, this is what we really think of you." (an offertory prayer)

GERIATRICS.

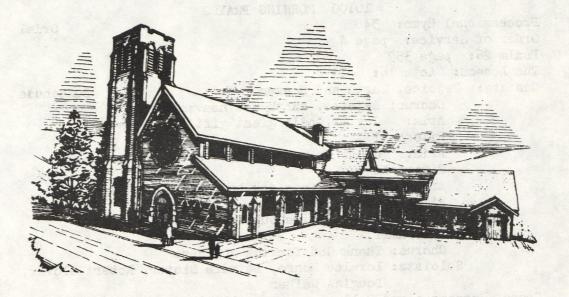

One significant change that has taken place in the last generation, that will not be obvious to many persons, is that the age span of people in our society has greatly increased. For example in our own parish we have two parishioners that are over 100, several in their 90s, a score or more in their 80s, and an ever increasing number of persons who are in the retirement years. This raises several important questions.

It seems that we have now reached a point where people spend the first 20 or 30 years preparing for a career, approximately 30 years practising their occupation, and maybe 30 or more years after their active working life ends. Therefore it seems very important that we must all make efforts to prepare for the latter years of life, that they may be as meaningful and rewarding as the earlier periods. It also means that there will have to be more and more facilities to care for those unable to care for themselves as well as more and more people who will be concerned with the welfare of the senior segment of our society. From a practical point of view, in our own parish it calls for more and more time and attention to the needs of senior parishioners and the ministry of visiting to be exercised by a lot more people.

WELCOME. It is our pleasure to welcome the men and boys of St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church Choir who are providing the music for our 10 o'clock Eucharist. Along with them we welcome their organist and choirmaster, Mr. Terence Fullerton, who is our old friend and former organist. While this choir is with us, our choristers are providing the music simultaneously at St. Anthony's Church in an expression of ecumenical fraternity and exposure to each other's worship.

The music offered this morning was composed by Luigi Zaninelli as a Mass in honour of the late Pope John XXIII. and was commissioned by the Roman Catholic Diocese of Calgary. It is an interesting and contemporary setting of the Communion Service from the hand of a well regarded musician. Luigi Zaninelli is Professor of Music at the University of Calgary.

NEXT SUNDAY

During the context of Morning Prayer next Sunday at 10 a.m. the choir will sing a short cantata "Rejoice Earth and Heaven" by Buxtehude.

PARISH NOTES

SENIORS' PARTY. We warmly welcome all senior parishioners and friends to a happy social hour on Thursday afternoon of this week. This will be the last such gathering for this season, and if anyone should need a ride please do not hesitate to call Mr. Jack Ireland, 243-0092.

Due to the uncertainty of mail deliveries recently the PARISH CLAPPER and a letter from the Churchwardens is a bit delayed in reaching you. It should be in your hands this week, and we trust you will give it due notice and consideration.

THE SORRENTO TRAINING CENTRE offers three week-long conferences this summer that are designed for total family participation. Families intending to go to the mountain area are invited and encouraged to consider including Sorrento in their plans, bearing in mind that it offers a variety of accommodation facilities plus activities and good arrangements for the youngest to the oldest. For details and dates pick up a Sorrento leaflet from the poster on the bulletin board.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

One of the characteristics of our year-round cycle of prayer is that it attempts to include the whole of the inhabited earth, and not just exclusively where Anglican congregations are dominant. Such is the case this week when Europe and Northern Asia are listed for our remembrance. Since this part of the world includes much of that world we call Communist, it reminds us of the continuing need to pray for the Gospel to be proclaimed "unto the ends of the earth".

> Germany, West and East Poland, Czechoslovakia, Austria and Hungary Rumania, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, Albania Greece USSR in Europe USSR in Asia Mongolia

The Diocese of Calgary maintains chaplaincies for hospitals and the university. It is this specific ministry that we remember in our prayers at this time; particularly Robert Shannon (Col. Belcher Hospital), Richard Davenport (the general hospitals), and David Baldwin (university chaplain who is to arrive July 15th).

SUMMER READING

Many new books recently have been placed in the Parish Library to keep the selection up to date and topical. Included in the new editions are:

- Angel Watching by Phyllis McGinley, which is a delightful account of Christian personalities through the ages.
- Ecumenism: Light and Shade by Stephen Neill presents by this incisive writer a current account of the relationships between church groups today.
- Norman Pittinger's God's Way with Men is a readable and provocative study of the major religious experiences.
- Sinews of Faith by Donald Coggan (Archbishop of York) speaks of the current issues addressed to all modern congregations.
- Richard Wurmbrand's Sermons in Solitary Confinement is a gripping story of one pastor's prison experiences and his incredible heroism and faith.

PLEASE NOTE NEXT SUNDAY THE SUMMER SCHEDULE OF SERVICES COMMENCES: 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. each Sunday for June, July and August.

The Churchwardens and Treasurer respectfully remind all envelope subscribers that with the coming of the holiday season it is of great benefit to the Parish to have commitments kept up to date. There is always the tendency to forget about offerings when our attendance is not regular, but obviously this leads to difficulties in maintaining our obligations. Every consideration in keeping pledges current is gratefully appreciated.

NOTES FOR TODAY

It is our pleasure to welcome as guest preacher at 11 o'clock today The Rev. Kenneth L. Genge, Rector of St. Michael and All Angels' Parish, Calgary. Mr. Genge is an able and articulate clergyman who served with some distinction in the Parish of Yellowknife before coming to Calgary last year. His contribution has already been felt in more than his own parish, and we are honoured to have him with us today. The Rector regrets that he is not personally able to welcome Ken Genge who is a good friend and former college mate; but knows the parishioners will extend a warm welcome.

After participating in the opening part of the 9:30 Service. the Rector will hastily proceed to St. Andrew's United Church where he is to be guest preacher at the 9:30 and 11:00 o'clock Services. St. Andrew's is the United Church congregation that serves the southern part of the city, and has recently erected a novel church structure at Elbow Drive and 82nd Avenue. It is in the common interest of church union that the invitation to preach has been extended.

Under the auspices of the A.Y.P.A. a drama presentation will be offered in the Crump Room at 7:30 tonight. It is a presentation by the Theatre - K.S. Group. The play is entitled "The Boy with the Cart", and depicts the life of Dunstan, an early missionary of Britain.

The Rev. Allan Challacombe commences his vacation tomorrow, : and will be out of the parish for the month of June.

EVENTS TO COME

The choirs of St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church and Christ Church are intending to do an exchange visit next Sunday, June 7th. This will mean that the men and boys of St. Anthony's will form our choir here for the 10 o'clock Service next Sunday while our choristers will provide the music for the Services at St. Anthony's.

A social afternoon for senior parishioners and friends is scheduled for Thursday, June 11th, in the Crump Room. Those concerned please note the date, and if any rides are required do not hesitate to let Mr. Jack Ireland know (243-0092).

The Winchester Group will hold a pot-luck luncheon Tuesday of this week at 12:30 noon in the Crump Room.

PARISH NOTES

We are able to report that the joint parish picnic of last Sunday was a happy event, well attended by both groups and held under very favourable weather conditions on the Blackfoot Reserve. The outdoor Service was very meaningful; the sports, ball games and races were all much enjoyed, concluding with an invitation to join in the Indian dancing in a circle brought things to a happy ending. A word of appreciation goes to all those who helped make it a successful day.

We would remind you that June 14th is the deadline for Camp Kananaskis registrations, which means that the fees and the doctor's certificate have to all be sent in by that date. There still are some forms available in the church office.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

India, and more particularly the eastern sector of that subcontinent, is the locale singled out for our prayerful remembrance this week. While the traditional mental pictures of teeming populations, abundant poverty and vast discrepancy amongst the population are still true, yet there is a new India to which the Christian Church is addressing its message of redemption and love.
Canada has had a long history of association, churchwise, with these areas, and continues to be strongly supportive of the missionary enterprise there.

Within our own diocese another race and culture is called to mind as our prayers are solicited for the Church of the Ascension at Coaldale, situated in the sugarbeet and truck farming area of Alberta. It was to this area that the Japanese Canadians were resettled twenty-five years ago (during the war); and the Rector is Canon Gordon Giochi Nakayama.

+ + + TODAY

Following the Whitsunday tradition, the open offerings today are designated for our Associate as an expression of our appreciation of his Ministry in the parish. Offerings made at any time, marked 'Whitsunday Offering', will be designated for this intention.

In response to the direction of our National Executive, this Festival of Pentecost is being proclaimed as CHURCH UNION SUNDAY. On this day when we celebrate the Coming of the Holy Spirit, there is the expectation of looking to Him formally and unitedly in our churches for the guidance we need as we work towards union.

NEXT SUNDAY

With weather obliging, we expect to spend next Sunday with the people of our partner parish, St. John's Blackfoot Reserve, in a full day including worship and all the things that go with a parish picnic. We strongly solicit support for this event and hope to fill the buses that have been chartered for the day. We seek everybody's co-operation in reserving their place on the bus and joining in this happy occasion. Please phone one of the following bus captains as soon as possible: Mrs. Janet Ashburner (243-6791), Mr. & Mrs. Sandy Heard (243-5304), Mr. & Mrs. Herb Officer (244-9486), Mr. & Mrs. Garry Johnson (245-1786). Should the weather be unfavourable the picnic arrangements will be held over till May 31st. There will be Services held here next Sunday; the usual 8 o'clock Communion, and Morning Prayer at 11:00 for those unable to go to the picnic.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. The region of the U.S.A. designated as the Plains States receive our prayerful attention in this first week of the Pentecost Season. The Episcopal Church has experienced considerable growth in these regions which have given considerable leadership to their national church. North Dakota: George Masuda; South Dakota: Conrad Gesner; Nebraska: Russell Rauscher; Kansas: Edward Turner; Western Kansas: William Davidson; Oklahoma: Chilton Powell; Northwest Texas: George Quarterman; Dallas: Avery Mason; Texas: Milton Richardson; West Texas: Harold Gosnell.

The combined congregations in the towns of Strathmore and Gleichen comprise one parish serving a rich agricultural belt east of the city. Their new Incumbent is Tony Bullman who arrives in a month's time.

NOTES: The Rector and Mr. Challacombe will both be participating in the Diocesan Clergy Retreat this week on Tuesday and Wednesday On May 26th at 7:30 p.m. there will be an Ordination in the Cathedral for The Reverends Terry Dunn and Douglas Skoyles.

THE WINCHESTER GROUP will hold its regular meeting on Tuesday of this week at 2 p.m.

THE FLOWERS on the Altar of the Church are to the glory of God from the Pearce family in memory of loved ones.

Sod Is Around

F PENTECOST means anything, it means that God is around. He has not abandoned the planet. The Holy Spirit broods over the lives of men. He waits to usher us into the presence of the Lord. He prods us to repentance and faith. He comforts us and leads us. He is at work to reshape us, so that we become more like Christ.

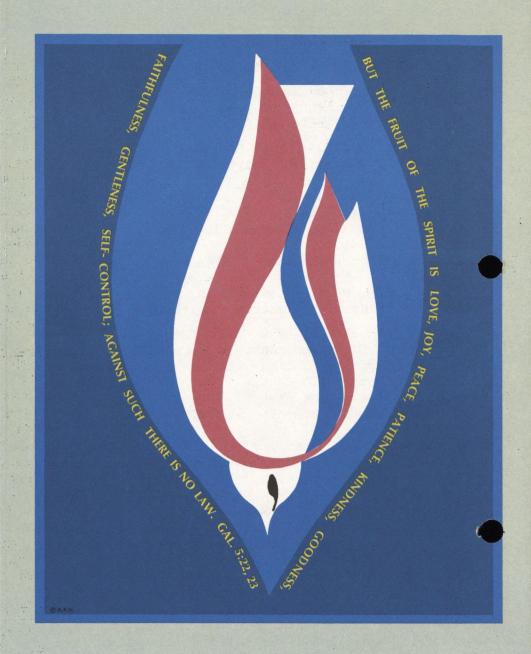

We dare not limit God nor program him. The Spirit of God may penetrate at the most unsuspecting times and in the most unexpected places. On the other hand, we are assured that he is at work in the Word of God and the Sacraments of God. You are more likely to encounter him in church than on the golf course.

Whenever he comes, he makes a difference. He opens to us a new world, beyond the world of sound and touch. He addresses our imaginations, our intuitions, our consciences. He imposes obligations, and commissions us to tasks, that go beyond the narrow limits of decency and duty. He shows us depths of meaning that no laboratory could disclose. He drives us into the presence of God.

Despite the lavish achievements of science, man's life remains flat and restricted without the Spirit of God. Placing men on the moon is poor fare for the spirit of man.

It is when God comes with forgiveness of sins through Christ, when he turns man from preoccupation with himself to a passion for the welfare of his brother, when he opens up the vistas so that even death is no more than a brief interlude in the epic march of eternal life—it is then that life opens up with a fullness that all the excitement of science cannot provide.

This is the work of the Holy Spirit in the lives of men.

TODAY

GUIDES AND BROWNIES. It is our pleasure today to welcome at 11 o'clock the Guide Company and the two Brownie Packs associated with this parish. Their presence is the obvious way in which we indicate our concern for their development, and to express our concerted appreciation to all who give leadership with these groups.

ASCENSIONTIDE. Sometimes our primary thoughts of Ascension are distracted into the more physical aspect of Christ going up. The Feast of The Ascension has often been called the Feast of Christ the King, and surely His Ascension to "sit at God's right hand" is the Christian affirmation that Christ is Lord of life and heaven. It is this majesty and this supremacy that we acknowledge in Ascension - always remembering that the regal words do not speak of harsh authoritarianism but of the greater dimensions of His love for the universe.

A.Y.P.A. tonight will have the pleasure of hearing from Dr. E.A. Johnson and seeing his slides which were taken during his stint in India and more recently his service on the hospital ship S.S. Hope anchored in North Africa.

NEXT SUNDAY

WHITSUNDAY - PENTECOST. The Feast of Pentecost is the great Festival acknowledging the source of the Christian gifts and power, namely the Coming of the Holy Spirit. The Services next Sunday will be truly Festival Services to mark this great day and to bring appropriate focus to its significance.

Appropriate to the observance of Pentecost will be our focusing on the theme of Christian Unity. Our Primate has conveyed to us that the Executive of the Anglican Church (plus the executive bodies of the United Church and the Disciples of Christ) have approved that Whitsunday be noted as Church Union Sunday. Their comment is: "There is the conviction that the day on which we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit is one of the best days for looking to Him formally and unitedly in our Churches, for the guidance we need as we work towards union". Hence we will use special prayers and emphases to carry out this direction next Sunday.

The Churchwardens would remind the parishioners that it is our custom to designate the open offering on Whitsunday for the Associate Rector.

NOTES AND REMINDERS

KANANASKIS - SORRENTO. With warmer weather at hand thoughts turn to summer pursuits, and we would remind you of the camping and training opportunities offered at Camp Kananaskis and the Sorrento Centre. Brochures and application forms are found on the bulletin board and in the church office.

SINGIE ADULTS' WEEKEND is scheduled for this weekend, May 8-10, at the Pastoral Institute. Theme: "Becoming a whole person". Information posted on the bulletin board.

The Annual Meeting of the Calgary Welcome Recreation Centre will be held at St. Francis Church Hall, 211 - 6th Ave. S.E., Monday, May 11th at 8 p.m. - all interested organizations and individuals are invited to attend. This Centre was originally initiated by Calgary Inter-Faith and continues to function serving indigent and lonely men. ... Archdeacon Swanson is assisting for a number of Sundays at the Church of the Transfiguration in north-east Calgary. ... The Parish Picnic is arranged for May 24th, to be held jointly with the people of St. John's, and will take place on the reserve at their invitation. Full details and arrangements (similar to those made last year) will be in your hands soon.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. The geographic point for the focus of our prayers this week is one of the world's most troubled areas, that of South-east Asia. The names of the dioceses listed here are eloquent enough to remind us of the gross human suffering and destitution to be found in this area. To pray for them may seem of little consequence, but it is the most supportive and vital thing that we can do at this distance and being fully aware of the forces that struggle in these countries.

In mid-Alberta's rich grainlands the town of Stettler is an important community serving a big agricultural region. St. George's Parish, Stettler, and those associated in the surrounding country are remembered in our prayers this week. The Incumbent is The Rev. C. Archibald McMullen.

SERVICE TONIGHT. We remind you of the Ecumenical Service to be held at the Salvation Army Glenmore Temple, 68 Ave. & Elbow Drive at 7 p.m. This Service has been arranged with the churches of our area, and will centre around the theme of "Co-workers with God"; young people from the participating churches are supplying the music. A social gathering will follow in the hall, and it is hoped that people from the United, Presbyterian, Roman Catholic and Anglican Churches will come together tonight in good numbers.

The flowers on the Chapel Altar are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of A. Jackson Davis.

ANGLICAN CHURCH WOMEN. As previously announced, tomorrow is an all-day workshop open to all Anglican women, being held at the University Theatre under the leadership of Bishop Scott. During the day Bishop Scott will give three addresses, and the participants in the day will be divided into an anticipated 40 small groups to develop the theme of "Renewal in the Church". The day concludes with a Diocesan Banquet at 6:30 in the University Dining Hall at which Bishop Scott will deliver the main address.

On Tuesday at St. Cyprian's Church, 2828 - 19 St. N.W., the annual meeting of A.C.W. for the diocese will be held under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mary Fenwick, Diocesan President.

CAMP KANANASKIS. Registration forms for the camps are available from the Church Office at any time, and we recommend that people register as early as possible. Adolescents who would like to serve as leaders and leaders—in—training should also pick up their forms soon.

GUIDE-BROWNIE PARADE. Next Sunday at 11 o'clock we will have these groups in attendance and participating in the Service.

A.Y.P.A. Tonight the teenagers are expected to participate in the Ecumenical Service announced in this leaflet. Next Sunday night Dr. E.A. Johnson, a parishioner who has recently served a term on the hospital ship S.S. Hope, and who also has had service in the eye clinics of India, will give an illustrated talk.

CLERGY NOTES. Allan Challacombe is taking Service at 11 o'clock today at St. John's, East Calgary, relieving Canon van der Leest who is one of the ten clergy currently in England on the minisabbatical study leave. - Archdeacon Swanson is officiating at Services in Edmonton today. - The Rector will take in the Council meetings and Convocation of Emmanuel & St. Chad College in Saskatoon this week. - We appreciate the assistance of The Rev. Richard Davenport at 11 o'clock today; he is remembered as a former Curate here and is now Hospital Chaplain.

CHILD SAFETY WEEK, May 3-9. The Calgary Safety Council urges all citizens to become acutely aware of the responsibility to prevent accidents and tragedies occurring to children. The statistics that are posted on the bulletin board reveal that it is a sad fact of our society that so many children are killed and maimed due to accidents, many of which could have been prevented.

ASCENSION DAY. Thursday of this week marks the Festival of Our Lord's Ascension, and there will be a Celebration of Holy Communion in the Chapel at 10:30.

ROGATION DAY. Concluding the Easter Season, today and the next three days comprise a minor season when the emphasis is on prayer (rogare - to ask). Traditionally this time of the year is associated with the seeking of God's favour on the planted seed, the beginning of the new growing season, and in coastal areas the blessing of the fleets.

THE WINCHESTER GROUP will not meet Tuesday of this week due to the A.C.W. Diocesan Annual Meeting.

THE CYCLE OF PRAYER brings us close to home with the inclusion of these Western Canadian dioceses which will be remembered throughout the Anglican world during this week: Edmonton - Gerald Burch; Calgary - Morse Goodman; Qu'Appelle - Frederic Jackson; Saskatoon - Stanley Steer; Saskatchewan - William Crump; Brandon - Wilfred Wilkinson; The Arctic - Donald Marsh. Since Monday is 'Diocese of Calgary Day', we commend that every parishioner attempt to remember the bishop, the clergy and the congregations of this diocese in their prayers tomorrow.

The Churches of Holy Trinity, Rocky Mountain House; All Hallows, Chedderville; and St. Hary the Virgin, Caroline are remembered in our prayers this week; the Rector is The Rev. A. H. Collier.

A.C.W. WORKSHOP. This event, to be held on May 4th at the University Theatre, may well prove to be one of the most informative and stimulating experiences of the entire year. We stress the fact that it is open to all women (nominal fee 1.00), and the leadership is in the capable hands of The Rt. Rev. E.W. Scott, Bishop of Kootenay. The point of this workshop is to emphasize the way renewal in the Church has to be a personal affair - hence the theme is "Beginning with Me". In the evening of that day there is to be a DIOCESAN BANQUET open to everyone, at which Bishop Scott will speak. Tickets for the dinner are 3.00 and available from the church office after Services today, which is the absolute deadline.

Camp Kananaskis

TO CAMPERS

Mountain trails to hike along; a quiet lake for canoes to explore; heated swimming pool with expert supervision & instruction; hearty meals and snug cabins; new friendships to be made and old ones to be renewed; a glowing camp fire to end those perfect days; learning experiences of many kinds - arts & crafts, swimming, boating, nature study, personal relationships and God-relationship. Can YOU ask more of summer camp....?

Camp Kananaskis is a GREAT place and a GREAT experience!

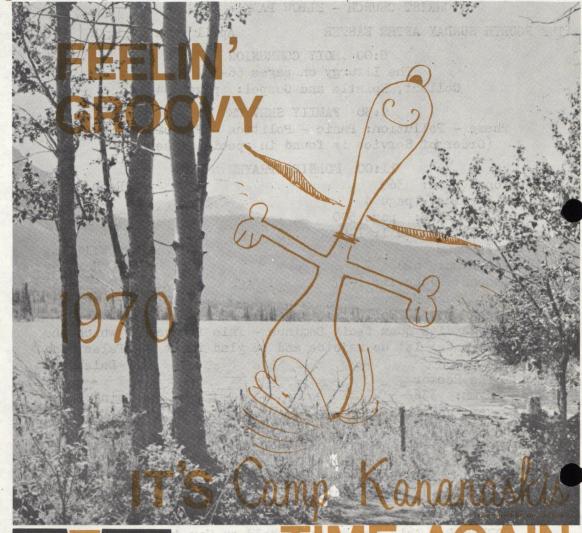

TO PARENTS

All the wonderful experiences of camping are available to the youth of Southern Alberta at this camp which is owned by the Calgary Diocese of the Anglican Church and located just off the Banff highway amid the grandeur of the Rockies in the Kananaskies Forest Reserve.

It is staffed by young, dynamic leaders who are fully trained and experienced in working with children and young adults. There are assistant leaders, craft teachers and qualified swimming instructor, a resident nurse and kitchen staff.

The camp organisation is run by a committee of approximately 20 - both clergy and lay persons. It is financially self supporting and all operating costs are covered by campers' fees. However, any capital improvements depend on extra contributions from parishioners in the Diocese. If you realise the value of this type of work with our young people, you may wish to send a donation through your parish (for tax purposes) made out to 'Camp Kananaskis Committee'.

YOUR support of YOUR camp is appreciated.

A CONFESSION

O God, we thank you that you have not treated us as we deserve.

We thank you that, though you are Creator, Judge and King, you are also Father, so that, though we are wandering children, there is always a road back to our Father's house.

You have spoken to us,

In 'the voice of conscience,

In the words of your Book,

In the promptings of your Holy Spirit, And yet we have not obeyed your voice.

You have shown us the best,

In the ideals which still haunt us,

In the life and example of godly men,

In the pattern of Jesus,

And yet we have not followed it.

You have tried to teach us,

In the events of history,

In the experiences of life,

In the wisdom of the sages, the prophets and the saints, And yet we have not learned your lesson.

You have called us to the life of love,

To the forgiving of each other,

To the helping of those in need,

To the caring which is like your care,

And yet we have lived in bitterness, in selfishness and in heedlessness of the appeal of need.

We have nothing in our hands to bring. We have no merits of our own. There is no plea of self-defence that we can offer. So above all else we thank you for Jesus Christ our Saviour, who died that we might be forgiven. So for his sake hear us as we say: God be merciful to me a sinner.

And when you hear,

Forgive and save.

This we ask for your love's sake. Amen.

Thank you for the trust we have been given. Help us to maintain and preserve this trust.

LORD, hear our prayer.

But where do we go now? What purposes are there, what needs to satisfy? We're comfortable now, most of us. But the hungry lands are all around us. So we ask you to prod us and push us and make us uncomfortable until, as a nation, we start caring.

Increase our concern for the unhappy and underprivileged, increase our personal gifts to them and create through our government a national budget for their relief that compares with our wealth. And show us how to give intelligently, not just to fill them today but to fill them forever.

LORD, hear our prayer.

For the past century we Canadians have enjoyed increasing comfort and influence on this planet. But in the century to follow please give us a plan, a purpose which will lead us to greater heights. Not necessarily to more wealth, less work and more power, though we would like these things. But to responsible leadership in the world, to practical, unselfish expressions of love to men, to a disciplined contribution to peace, and to a new life with you.

LORD, hear our prayer.

Give us political leaders who will really lead, and will challenge us to give instead of take, to care for others as well as ourselves, leaders who are not afraid to rock the boat, whose aims are to serve and to follow you, knowing they will be supported by thoughtful and committed voters.

LORD, hear our prayer.

Help us to realize too that we will never be successful on a national scale unless we are first successful individuals. And that our success is governed, and measured, by our closeness to you. Lead us into personal relationships with you that suit our different personalities. And wake up your church to the needs of the world and to its own need of you. May it forget about doing the ceremonial things that only make it feel good and get down to worshipping, caring, and serving.

LORD, hear our prayer.

Destroy our silly religions, the worship of public personalities, cars, cash, and clothes. Show us how to enjoy them without treating them as gods. Encourage us, here and across this nation, to respect those who deserve it; and make yourself known to us as the One worthy of being looked up to, copied and obeyed, the One worthy of our worship.

LORD, hear our prayer.

Make us searchers for peace, and then lead us to peace, in our time. May we be an example to the world of disciplined peace research. Let us neither aggress nor support aggression. And may we strive as much as we have it in us to live in peace with all men.

LORD, hear our prayer.

Take us among all those who, because of racial difference, are discriminated against in the east, the west, the north, and every part of Canada. And in each case take us to them with love and with determination to break down the barriers that separate us. Teach us to be proud of the varieties of our cultures and appreciative of our brothers.

LORD, hear our prayer.

These prayers seem a lot to ask, and we don't have by ourselves, a great deal of faith; just a very small mustard seed. We are quite certain that these are the things you stand behind; and that, given the right kind of servants, you can get them done. But as a people we are selfish, our leaders so often short-sighted, and we are pretty half-hearted most of the time.

So we are depending on you to stir us up to intellectual and active commitment to these goals. Stir us up, as well, to heart-felt commitment to you. May each day be a new and fresh experience of love and service to you.

LORD, hear our prayer. Amen

TEENAGE MANPOWER ON THE BIOCK. At the Coffee Hour today teenagers will be auctioned in the Slave Market to raise funds for A.Y.P.A. projects. Here's a chance for parishioners to obtain willing and courteous manpower for yard clean-ups and spring chores. Apart from the opportunity to hire some of the most attractive help you could imagine, it will benefit the teenagers' program and render you some valuable help. Active bidding is expected under the gavel of a capable auctioneer. See you there!

SORRENTO. Tomorrow night our parish plays host to the team of young adults who will present their annual spring production in our lower hall at 8 p.m. This team which has just completed the winter course at the Lay Training Centre, are on their spring itinerary throughout Alberta and B.C. We have been asked to provide billeting accommodation for eleven of these people, and we hope that parishioners will readily open up their homes from Monday afternoon to Wednesday morning to house the Sorrento team.

EVENSONG. Following our custom to present a full Choral Evensong at least once in each of the major seasons of the church year, an Easter Evensong will be sung next Sunday night at 7:30. At the conclusion of the Service a short recital of sacred song will be sung by Mrs. Joan Hartley.

A.C.W. WORKSHOP. For those ladies who have not yet got the message, may we remind you that there is to be a most exciting and helpful day offered on May 4th at the University Theatre. This is open to all ladies, and the leader of the day is Bishop Scott. In the evening there is to be a diocesan banquet open to all at 6:30 in the University cafeteria, at which Bishop Scott will also speak.

ECUMENICAL SERVICE. On Sunday, May 3rd, representatives from many churches in southwest Calgary will be participating in a Community Inter-Faith Service to be held at the Salvation Army Glenmore Temple, Elbow Drive and 68th Ave., at 7 p.m. The theme of the Service is "Co-workers with God", with the young people from the churches arranging the folk music in keeping with this theme. Nursery facilities will be available, and a social gathering will follow in the recreation hall. Please plan to attend this evening of fellowship.

SPECIAL NOTE TO LADIES. April 23rd - Ladies' Study Group, 9:30 a.m. at St. Stephen's Church; April 24th - Guild Bridge Wind-up, 8:15 p.m. in the Crump Room - further information from Mrs. George Leslie, 243-1296; May 1st - Springtime Fashion Show and Tea (Winchester Group), 2 to 4 p.m. in the lower hall.

YOUTH SEMINAR on "The Relationships between the Sexes" will be held on May 2nd under the auspices of the Pastoral Institute, at Ernest Manning High School. Full information is to be found on the bulletin board, and we heartily endorse this educational event to all our youth. It is concluded with a Parent Seminar on Sunday night, May 3rd, at the same place and under the same auspices. For further information phone the Pastoral Institute, 265-4980.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. Uganda, Rwanda, and Burundi are the names given to the newest Province of the African Church. Within this jurisdiction are found the following dioceses which we remember in prayer this week. From the names of the bishops it will be abundantly clear that the church here is thoroughly indigenous, and it will also be noted that it includes some of the areas of political unrest and the struggles for economic and political stability.

On our diocesan level prayers are sought this week for the Pincher Creek, Cowley and Waterton region where the parishes are ministered to by R.R. (Bob) Griffiths.

THERE WILL BE A MEETING ON FRIDAY EVENING, April 24th, at 7:30 p.m. of all young people who would be interested in training as Servers and Crucifers here at Christ Church.

CAMP KANANASKIS. Please note the following Camp dates scheduled for this summer. Registration forms are not yet available but are expected soon. Watch the leaflet for further notices.

THE MINISTRY OF SHARING

Throughout the Diocese April is being observed as Social Service Month. A time to consider our relationship between worship and social action - a time to shift the emphasis from ecclesiastical housekeeping to serving in the community.

Two weeks ago the projects in which the Diocesan Council for Social Service is interested were described and suggestions were made as to how your parish can help the Anglican Church Clothing Center and the Anglican Counselling Service. This Sunday you are asked to consider undertaking a new SOCIAL SERVICE PROJECT; an endeavour that you feel best fits the talents in your parish.

PROJECT IDEAS TO READ, DISCUSS, CHOOSE

Parish Partners: Has a City Parish considered linking up with a Rural Parish or a Rural Parish with a City Parish? Exchange clergy, choir, congregation.

Church Property: Is it offered to the community for

Professional Advisory Service: A team of voluntary professionals -

Legal, Medical, Economic, Educational - whose services would be available to the community.

Pollution: Parish involvement in the community affairs such as anti-pollution projects and education regarding pollution.

Sheltered Workshop: Can your parish be the liaison between the organized Sheltered Workshops and the handicapped in your area?

These are a few suggestions but you may have better ideas that would suit your particular parish better.

TODAY

All scheduled for today here at Christ Church are a variety of activities. A Marriage Preparation Seminar is in progress this afternoon, presenting for engaged couples an opportunity to prepare for Christian marriage. With the summer months approaching there will be a similar session the weekends of May 8-9-10 and June 12-13-14. ... Tonight at 7 p.m. the A.Y.P.A. launch their final term by having St. Peter's A.Y.P.A. as their guests. All teenagers are most welcome, and a provocative program is in store. ... On your way to the Coffee Hour please note the Sorrento poster and the brochures outlining their summer programs.

THIS WEEK

HOSPITAL VISITORS' WORKSHOP. The second annual training program for hospital and nursing home visitors (clergy and lay) commences Wednesday, April 15th. It entails six Wednesday mornings, and this year falls into two categories: one with attention for those training for the first time and some emphasis on visiting the elderly, and the second group is an advanced workshop for those who have had previous training. This is an excellent program under competent leadership, and this year to be held at Foothills Hospital. For full details see the yellow brochure on the bulletin board.

NEXT SUNDAY AT THE COFFEE HOUR following 11 o'clock members of the A.Y.P.A. will go on the block for a Slave Market. These teenagers are offering their services for spring cleanup chores and will go to the highest bidder.

COMING EVENTS

SORRENTO TEAM, comprised of the winter course students, will make their annual visit to Calgary and present a lively stage production on April 20th and 21st at 8 p.m. On Monday the 20th this will be presented in the lower hall at Christ Church, and we look for an enthusiastic audience for this troop on that date.

A.C.W. WORKSHOP. In a new departure offering a very stimulating experience, the Anglican Church Women of the Diocese will hold on May 4th at the University Theatre a full day's session under the leadership of The Rt. Rev. E.W. Scott, Bishop of Kootenay. At 6.30 the same day there will be an open Diocesan Banquet in the University Cafeteria at which Bishop Scott will speak on "The Church in the World". All women are encouraged to consider taking in this full day's event, and all parishioners are encouraged to be present for the evening banquet. Full details are to be found on the bulletin board.

ORGAN RECITAL. Presented by the University of Calgary and the Royal Canadian College of Organists, Catharine Crozier will perform in St. Mary's Cathedral Tuesday, April 21st at 8 p.m. Tickets are on sale at the University Theatre Box Office, the Bay Ticket Wicket and at the door. Catharine Crozier is one of America's leading concert organists.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR NOW for the Winchester Group's Springtime Fashion Show and Tea on Friday, May 1st, 2 to 4 p.m. Home-baking table; Fashions courtesy Mrs. Wallace, Florabelle. Tickets $1.00.

D.C.S.S. ANNUAL MEETING. The Diocesan Council for Social Service is a small but active group which carries the social service concerns on behalf of the diocese. At their annual meeting The Rev. R.D. McRae from the Division of Parish Services at church head-quarters will speak on National Priorities in Social Action. This gathering is in the form of a banquet to be held on April 20th at St. Cyprian's Church. The invitation form is found posted on the bulletin board, and the gathering is open to everyone.

VESTRY VISIT. To explore the continuation of our partner-parish relationship with the people of St. John's Parish, Blackfoot Reserve, the Christ Church Vestry will meet with their Vestry on the reserve on April 21st. It is hoped that this joint session will lead to further understanding and development of our partner-parish endeavour.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

England-North is the geographical centre for the prayers being offered this week as we remember the following dioceses, their bishops, clergy and people:

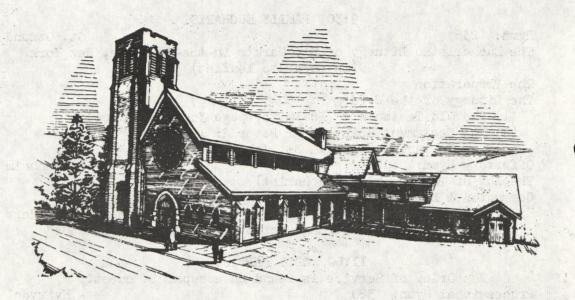

York: Donald Coggan Newcastle: Hugh Ashdown
Southwell: Gordon Savage Durham: Ian Ramsey
Chester: Gerald Ellison Sodor and Man: Eric Gordon
Carlisle: Cyril Bulley

The most north-easterly corner of the Diocese of Calgary includes the group parish centred in Oyen and including congregations at Cereal, Empress, New Brigden, Acadia Valley and the Alsack Radar Station. The Rev. L. Frank Lee is the Rector and serves this far-flung area.

In the leaflet today you will find an insert with regard to some of the work carried on by the Diocesan Council for Social Service. A second insert will appear in the leaflet on April 19th. We commend these inserts to your careful attention. The Church which is not concerned with the massive social problems of our day is not being faithful to the command of its Lord.

CYCLE OF PRAYER.

Our thoughts and prayers are directed this week to Greater London Area of the Church of England, the Mother Church of the Anglican Communion. Let us pray that our fellow Christians in England will be guided and directed by the Holy Spirit as they seek to witness effectively for Christ in a densely populated and highly industrialized society. London: Robert Stopford; Southwark: Mervyn Stockwood; Guildford: George Reindorp; Chichester: Roger Wilson; Rochester: David Say; Chelmsford: John Tiarks; St. Albans (vacant).

In our own diocese, we remember our Bishop, Morse Lamb Good-man, and pray for him the insight, sensitivity and courage required for leadership in the Church today.

The Pastoral Institute presents:

PARENT TALK: Thursdays, April 9 - May 28, 1.30 to 3.30 p.m. A series of parent improvement programs.

DISCOVERING PERSONHOOD IN THE MARRIAGE RELATIONSHIP: Weekend for couples, April 10 - 12.

BECOMING A WHOLE PERSON:

A weekend for single adults, May 8 - 10.

Further information on bulletin board, or from the Institute at Medical Arts Building (6th floor), 329A - 6 Ave. S.W., ph. 265-4980.

Senior parishioners and friends will meet for a social hour on Thursday of this week, April 9th, 2.30 p.m. in the Crump Room. If you require transportation please phone Mr. J.W. Ireland, 243-0092.

The Calgary Deanery, Anglican Church Women, will hold its Spring Meeting at St. Michael and All Angels' Church, Strathmore, on Friday, April 10th, with Holy Communion being celebrated at 10.30 a.m. Roll call will follow the Service. All women are invited to attend. A charter bus will leave the Bus Depot at 9.00 a.m., returning at approximately 4.00 p.m. Fare: $2.00.

Bible Reading Fellowship booklets for April-June (15¢ per copy) are on the Literature Desk in the Narthex. Contents of this issue are: The Story of Jacob (April), Practical Christianity - I Corinthians (May), and The Themes of St. Paul's Prayers (June).

THE DEATH AND RESURRECTION OF CHRIST draw near to us and touch us in Holy Communion. The bread is broken — there Christ dies; we receive it as Christ alive — there is his resurrection. It is the typical expression of divine power to make something from nothing. God has made the world where no world was, and God makes life out of death. Such is the God with whom we have to do. We do not come to God for a little help, a little support to our own good intentions. We come to him for resurrection. God will not be asked for a little, he will be asked for all. We reckon ourselves dead, says St. Paul, that we may ask God for a resurrection, not of ourselves, but of Christ in us.

THE MINISTRY OF SHARING

Throughout the Diocese April is being observed as Social Service Month. A time to consider our relationship between worship and social action - a time to shift the emphasis from ecclesiastical housekeeping to serving in the community.

This Sunday the work of the Diocesan Council for Social Service (D.C.S.S.) is brought to your notice. Twelve parishes in the Diocese provide members which form the Council. It exists for the purpose of identifying social problems as they arise, for formulating plans to meet these problems for the plans to materialize. At the present time the D.C.S.S. is concerned with two major projects - The Anglican Church Clothing Center and the Anglican Counselling Service - and it is hoped that it will spread out to grapple with more social problems in the future.

The Anglican Church Clothing Center situated at 1308 3rd Street N.E. is operated under the budget allotted to the Council of Social Service and staffed by volunteers from nineteen parishes throughout the city. The days of operation are Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. All clothing, household items and furniture are issued without charge to persons referred by the Department of Social Development, The City Social Service Department, John Howard Society, clergy of any denomination, Nursing Homes, Hospitals, Mental Health Association and the Indian Friendship Center. Over the past several years many people have received much needed assistance and many cases have been suitably clothed to enable them to become employed. What are the most urgent needs now?

For Man: Work clothing (jean-type trousers), coloured shirts, outdoor jacket and boots.

For Women: Clothing in sizes 18-52, flat shoes in all sizes.

For Children: Clothing for boys and girls sizes 3-10 and outdoor clothing and boots.

Furniture: Beds, kitchen tables and chairs, etc.

The Anglican Counselling Service. An Anglican family or individual who has need of professional counselling service will find it readily available. For example:

- (a) An elderly widow caught in the inflation squeeze sought help.
- (b) A deserted wife received direction, encouragement and moral support.
- (c) Marital difficulties due to a young couple being ill-prepared and uninstructed were eased.
- (d) Guidance has been given in cases where there has been lack of understanding between father and son, mother and daughter.

$3200 is needed to cover expenses of the Anglican Counselling Service for 1970 and your personal contribution would be welcome. This can be sent to J. M. Willsher, Treasurer, 199 Cardiff Drive N.W., Calgary 43.

Inter-Faith Telecasts: On Channel 2 at 2:00 o'clock today and for the next six Sundays the activities and concerns of the Calgary Inter-Faith Group are presented. Through these programs the community is informed of the wide scope and effective way that Inter-Faith is involved in the needs of the people.

Christmas — the Cradle: Good Friday — the Throne: Easter the Crown. So goes an old saying that includes the full sweep of Christ's life. For as His crowning victory is proclaimed in our Easter celebrations we need to be able to share in them or else be merely cast in the role of spectator.

The Easter event is both in time and timeless. His rising from death was witnessed, recorded and professed by the foundling Church as a unique event that gave them the distinctive conviction that Jesus had overcome sin (of all) and death (his own). But the radical discovery they made — through faith and experience was that this is to be every Christian's inheritance.

So the joy and certainty of Christ's resurrection has inspired men throughout the ages. Its confidence gave them not only a certain nobility in facing death, but a triumphant style of life for here and now.

This is the same message beamed at us today. To everyone that comes into our worship and reads these words we extend the message of Easter hope. May God bless you all as you worship the Risen Lord this Eastertide.

Your Clergy, Parish Staff, Churchwardens and Vestry.

NOTICES

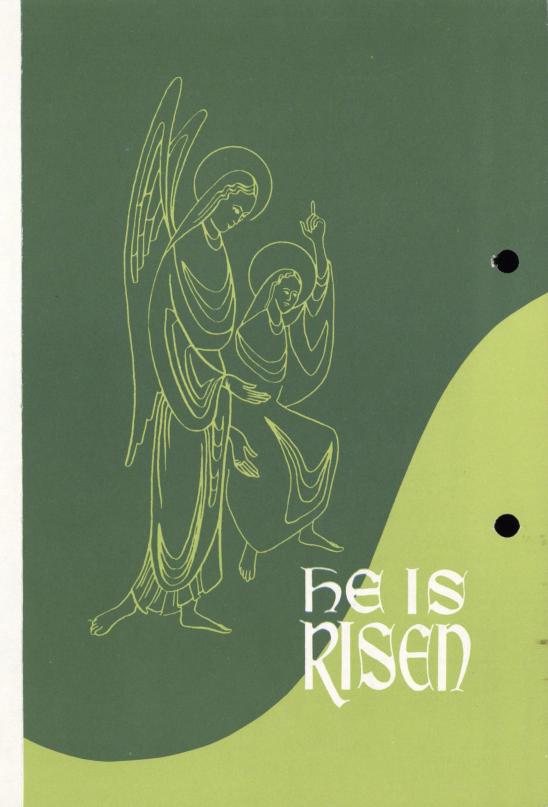

There will be a Social Hour for senior parishioners and friends on Thursday afternoon, April 9th, at 2:30 in the Crump Room. These highly enjoyable gatherings are much appreciated and anticipated. We are looking forward to seeing those who have attended the former affairs plus some new faces. For information please call Mrs. Iris Birch at 243-1277, or for transportation call Mr. J. W. Ireland at 243-0092.

Paschal Candle. An old tradition of the Church is to strike a new light at Easter and let it burn continuously for the forty days of the Easter Season. This Paschal (Victory) Candle speaks of the new life our Risen Lord brings, and calls us to let His power shine in our hearts to brighten the world with the faith of His followers. Our large Paschal Candle is lit on Easter morn and will burn at all the Services until Ascension.

During Easter week there will be the regular midweek Services at 9:00 a.m. Tuesday and 10:30 a.m. Wednesday. Special efforts will be made to call on shut-ins at this time, but please do not hesitate to call the Church Office (243-0103) if you know of any who would like their Communion or a call from the clergy.

Coin cards, Lent boxes and Easter offerings are all designated for our support of mission projects. The largest single commitment we maintain is that for the Parish of St. John's at Gleichen. As well, we are identified with the projects in the West Indies and Middle America, which the Diocese of Calgary has designated to be the areas we are especially linked with. The cards, boxes and envelopes can be given any Sunday; and there are special boxes at the entrances for the children's Lenten boxes.

Family Life Programs: The Pastoral Institute presents three distinctive programs fostering a better understanding between persons and of one's self. One series entitled Parent Talk commences April 9th for eight Thursdays, and has two sections; one for parents of children under 12, and one for parents of teens. A weekend program for couples, April 10-12, is entitled Discovering Personhood in the Marriage Relationship. The third program is a weekend for single adults, May 8-12, entitled Becoming a Whole Person. For further information check the church bulletin board, phone or write Pastoral Institute (265-4980), 329A - 6th Avenue S.W., Calgary 1.

GOOD FRIDAY - March 27, 1970

THE WAY OF THE CROSS

Hymn 128: The royal banners forward go Opening Prayer

Walton

I. JESUS IS CONDEMNED TO DEATH

A Lesson - St. Matthew 27: 24-26 Silence

Priest: The Lord be with you. People: And with thy spirit.

Priest: Who will rise up with me against the wicked? People: Or who will take my part against the evil-doers?

Priest: They gather them together against the soul of the righteous,

People: And condemn the innocent blood.

Priest: But the Lord is my refuge,

People: And my God is the strength of my confidence.

Prayer

Priest: O Saviour of the world, who by thy Cross and precious Blood hast redeemed us:

People: Save us, and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

II. JESUS RECEIVES THE CROSS

A Lesson - St. Matthew 27: 27-31 Silence

Priest: The Lord be with you. People: And with thy spirit.

Priest: He is despised and rejected of men: a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief.

People: And we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised and we esteemed him not.

Priest: Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows;

People: Yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

Priest: But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities.

People: The chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

Prayer

Priest: O Saviour of the world, who by thy Cross and precious Blood hast redeemed us;

People: Save us, and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

III. THE CROSS IS LAID ON SIMON OF CYRENE

A Lesson - St. Mark 15: 21-23 Silence

Priest: The Lord be with you. People: And with thy spirit.

Priest: The Lord ordereth a good man's going,

People: And maketh his way acceptable to himself.

Priest: Though he fall, he shall not be cast away;

People: For the Lord upholdeth him with his hand.

Priest: The law of his God is in his heart,

People: And his goings shall not slide.

Prayer

Priest: O Saviour of the world, who by thy Cross and precious Blood hast redeemed us;

People: Save us, and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

IV. THE WOMEN MOURN FOR JESUS

A Lesson - St. Luke 23: 27-31 Silence

Priest: The Lord be with you. People: And with thy spirit.

Priest: Thou feedest them with the bread of tears,

People: And givest them plenteousness of tears to drink.

Priest: Thou hast made us a very strife unto our neighbors.

People: And our enemies laugh us to scorn.

Priest: Turn us again, thou God of hosts;

People: Show the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

Prayer

Priest: O Saviour of the world, who by thy Cross and precious Blood hast redeemed us:

People: Save us, and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

V. JESUS IS NAILED TO THE CROSS

A Lesson - St. Luke 23: 33, 34, 38 Silence

Priest: The Lord be with you. People: And with thy spirit.

Priest: My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me?

People: And art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint?

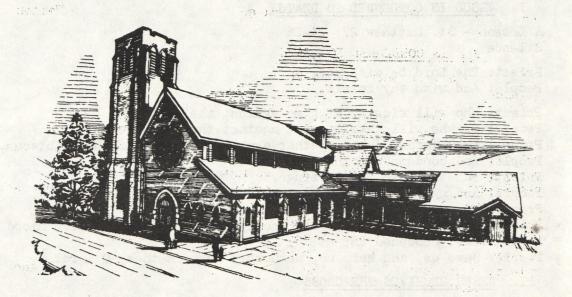

Priest: All they that see me laugh me to scorn;

VIII. JESUS IS TAKEN DOWN FROM THE CROSS

A Lesson - St. Matthew 27: 57-60 Silence

Priest: The Lord be with you. People: And with thy spirit.

Priest: He was cut off out of the land of the living;

People: For the transgression of my people was he stricken.

Priest: And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death.

People: Because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

Priest: Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great; People: Because he hath poured out his soul unto death.

Prayer

Priest: O Saviour of the world, who by thy Cross and precious Blood hast redeemed us:

People: Save us, and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

IX. JESUS IS LAID IN THE SEPULCHRE

A Lesson - St. John 19: 21 & 42; St. Luke 23: 55 & 56 Silence

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with thy spirit.

Priest: I have set the Lord alway before me:

People: For he is on my right hand, therefore I shall not fall. Priest: Wherefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth;

People: My flesh also shall rest in hope.

Priest: For why? thou shalt not leave my soul in hell; People: Neither shalt thou suffer thy Holy One to see corruption.

Prayer Priest: O Saviour of the world, who by thy Cross and precious Blood hast redeemed us: People: Save us, and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

PALM SUNDAY TELECAST

On Channel 4, CFCN-TV at 3:30 today the Bishop's annual Telecast will be presented. The advance information is that it will be an attempt to share with the entire viewing audience some of the work and concerns of the Diocese of Calgary. The viewing audience is a very vast one in comparison to the numbers that are reached through other media, and the Station is always glad to have the audience reaction. Please note the time and watch this program today.

HOLY WEEK

The next four days at 5:30 are the remaining Services of our Lenten series of daily Eucharist. If you were not able to come earlier in Lent, we do invite and encourage you to attend this week. These half-hour Services again this year have proven to be a helpful and appropriate way of marking Lent, and we hope everyone has made the effort to attend at least once.

The Passion of Christ is the title of the drama to be presented tonight, Tuesday and Wednesday nights in the Cathedral at 8:30. We commend this exciting presentation to everyone. The background material and the poster with details are found on the bulletin board.

Good Friday: A special Service, 'The Way of the Cross', at 11 o'clock will be for the whole parish family. On this most solemn day of the year Christian people are bidden to remember Our Lord's death and to pause in worship to mark it. From the conclusion of that Service there will be silence in the church until the first declaration of Christ's Resurrection at 7:30 Easter Day.

Easter Day Services will be at 7:30, 9:00, 11:00 and 12:15. An Easter card with all the Service details will be in your mail early this week. ister the contact of the ****

PARISH NOTES

The ladies of the Guild section of A.C.W. express appreciation for all the goods and the assistance of help at their recent Rummage Sale. They are gratified to report that over $700.00 was realized, and these funds form a major source of their contribution to the many Canadian and overseas projects that are supported by Anglican women across Canada.

Parishioners are advised that they receive the SOWER (the Diocese of Calgary paper) and the CANADIAN CHURCHMAN through the arrangement whereby every family in the parish is automatically put on the mailing list. If people wish to pay for their own subscriptions this is always much appreciated, and the contribution of $1.00 per year should be paid to Christ Church.

REMINDERS

Tuesday night 7:30 First Baptist Church - Dr. Larry Ward, prominent evangelical leader recently working in Vietnam and Laos, will speak.

Medical Mission Sisters sing April 2nd, Jubilee Auditorium 8 p.m. See poster on bulletin board for details.

Good Friday 8:30, Jubilee Auditorium, Festival Chorus presents MASS IN B MINOR by Bach.

Silent Minority - those who like to remain in church at conclusion of Service to benefit from the voluntary. The consideration of others is appreciated.

CYCIE OF PRAYER. Australia is the land of the Church family singled out for our prayers during Holy Week, reminding us that this vast country is developing rapidly with new technology and new waves of immigration. All of this presents new opportunities and challenges for the Church. - Perth: Geoffrey Sambell; Bunbury: Ralph Hawkins; Kalgoorlie: Denis Bryant; North West Australia: Howell Witt; Northern Territory: Kenneth Mason; Carpentaria: Eric Hawkey; Willochra (vacant); Adelaide: Thomas Reed.

Bordering on the southern rim of our city are the three churches of St. Paul, Midnapore; St. Barnabas on the Sarcee Reserve; and St. Peter at Okotoks; which comprise the parish whose Rector is Rodney Andrews. The people of this parish we include in our prayers also this week.

At the 8 o'clock Service this morning we welcome as new communicants those who were confirmed last Sunday. They and their families are attending as a group, and will assemble for breakfast in the lower hall at the conclusion of the Service. Their Confirmation certificates will be presented at that time.

BISHOP'S TELECAST: Next Sunday on CFCN-TV Channel 4 at 3 p.m. Bishop Goodman will be granted the facilities of television to speak to the people of the diocese in the annual Palm Sunday telecast. Please note the time and date. (Unlike last year when the video-tape was lost, we are quite sure the program will appear as scheduled this year.)

SHARE CANADA: From the Clapper mailed to you last week, and the enclosed special insert containing the Primate's letter to every Anglican, we are directed to participate in a program of concern being carried out by the major churches of Canada during Lent. Our manner of participating in this "Share Canada" ecumenical program is through the Primate's World Relief and Development Fund. Contribution envelopes were mailed this past week to everyone, and there are extras at the table by the door. A display depicting the need and the results of this appeal is found in the Crump Room.

CHURCH SCHOOL: Today begins the fourth and final semester for all ages in the Church School. This session will run until May 17th, and once again the staff is most anxious to have a stable group of students for whom and with whom a specific area of study can be carried out. So we do remind pupils and parents that registration implies a readiness to attend consistently throughout the semester.

CYCLE OF PRAYER: For this fifth week of Lent the area designated for our prayers is that of Middle America. These are countries and areas that have an obvious Spanish and Portuguese origin as well as indigenous culture, and wherein the Anglican presence has always been of a minority style. However, through the co-operation and invitation of the native people and the Roman Catholic Church, there is a new spirit and a new sphere of impact. Our diocese places considerable money in support of the work in British Honduras, which ties us sympathetically with this whole region in our prayers this week. Mexico - José Saucedo; Guatemala & Honduras -William Frey; British Honduras - Benjamin Vaughan; El Salvador & Nicaragua - Edward Haynsworth; Costa Rica - José Antonio Ramos; Panama and the Canal Zone - Heber Gooden.

Centred around the communities of Mirror, Bashaw and Alix are a number of smaller churches collectively called the Lamerton Mission. We remember them in prayer, and their Incumbent, James Linster.

COMING EVENTS: April 2nd - Jubilee Auditorium - concert by the Medical Mission Sisters whose name is known with the "Joy is Like the Rain" singing style. Poster on bulletin board gives details.

Tuesday, Mar. 24th, 8 p.m. - First Baptist Church - Dr. Larry Ward, a very well known evangelical leader who has spent the past ten years in Asian countries, most recently Vietnam and Laos.

Palm Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of Holy Week (Mar. 22-24), 8:30 p.m. - Religious Drama in the Cathedral, presented by an ecumenical group of young people. Full details and background of plays on bulletin board.

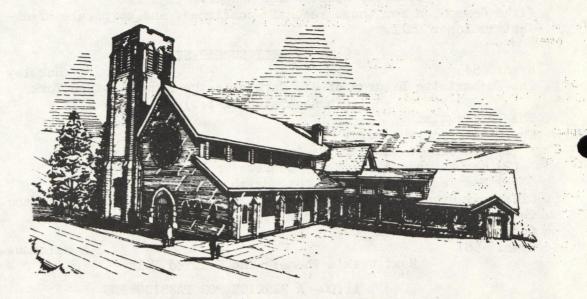

SILENT HINORITY - those who like to remain in church at conclusion of Service to benefit from the voluntary. The consideration of others is appreciated.

JESUS IS CONDEMNED TO DEATH - A prayer by Michel Quoist. Lord, it's too late for you to be quiet, you have spoken too much: you have fought too much: You were not sensible, you know, you exaggerated; it was bound to happen. You called the better people a breed of vipers. You told them that their hearts were black sepulchres with fine exteriors. You chose the decaying lepers. You spoke fearlessly with unacceptable strangers. You ate with notorious sinners, and you said that streetwalkers would be the first in Paradise. You got on well with the poor, the bums, the crippled. You belittled the religious regulations. Your interpretation of the Law reduced it to one little commandment: to love. Now they are avenging themselves. They have taken steps against you; they have approached the authorities, and action will follow. Lord, I know that if I try to live a little like you, I shall be condemned. I am afraid. They are already singling me out. Some smile at me, others laugh, some are shocked, and several of my friends are about to drop me. I am afraid to stop, I am afraid to listen to men's wisdom, It whispers: you must go forward little by little, everything can't be taken literally, it's better to come to terms with the adversary And yet, Lord, I know that you are right. Help me to fight, Help me to speak. Help me to live your Gospel To the end, To the folly of the Cross.

Operation 30. Some days at 5:30 there have not been many of the parish family present to join in the Eucharist offered. The half-hour is a small discipline for Lent - and any day can be "your day". If your surname begins with H, I, J, K, L, & some Mc's, then your name will be mentioned this week. Your effort to be on hand is rewarding for you and for those who are there to join you.

TO ALL LADIES. Please note that the annual World Day of Prayer Service for this district is on Friday of this week, March 6th, 2 p.m. at Riverview United Church, 824 Imperial Way. The theme, "Take Courage", was chosen and developed by a group of five women: a housewife from Egypt, a social worker from Guyana, a teacher from India, and a church worker from the Philippines and from the United States.

THE GUILD'S ANNUAL SPRING RUMMAGE SALE is taking place soon — Friday, March 13th, 7 p.m., and Saturday, March 14th, 9:30 a.m. Please bring materials to the Parish Hall by March 12th, and if unable to do so phone Mrs. R.B. Banks (255-1244) or Mrs. C.W. Hunt (244-2834) for pick-up service.

Archdeacon Swanson says: "May I express my deep appreciation for the all too numerous birthday cards of good wishes, the books, handkies and tonsil lubricant, so kindly given to me. They all helped to make the day. Thanks again!"

CONFIRMATION. Next Sunday at 11 a.m. a sizeable group of adolescents will be presented to Bishop Goodman for Confirmation. They have been under instruction for some time; many were enrolled in the pre-Confirmation class last year, and the preparation leading to Confirmation began last October. A week ago Saturday (Feb. 21) 36 of them spent a full day (11 hours!) at a Preparation Day program at the church which appears to have been most beneficial. Your prayers are asked for them as they come forward to undertake their vows of Christian obedience. Also, we solicit your attendance and support for them next Sunday and the weeks to follow. Reviewing all that has been said pertinent to Confirmation lately we must consider Confirmation as a beginning to responsible Christian life - and not the end of association with the parish family.

CYCLE OF PRAYER.

One of the most appropriate and dramatic areas to focus on for our prayers is the Middle East. The very list of names following, for which we pray this week, recalls that it is a world of east and west, of Jew and Arab, of charm and war. Let our prayers be that the Christian presence there fosters peace and goodwill among the peoples in that volatile area. Jerusalem: George Appleton; Cyprus; Iraq; States on the Persian Gulf and Saudi Arabia and the Yemen; Jordan, Lebanon and Syria: Najib Cuba'in; Iran: Hassan Dehqani-Tafti; Turkey.

The Parish of St. Mary the Virgin, Lethbridge; and Canon Robert Cowan are listed for prayerful remembrance in our diocese.

THE CALGARY LUTHERAN FESTIVAL CHORUS presents Dvorak's 'Stabat Mater' on Friday, March 13th, 8 p.m. at the Jubilee Auditorium. This cantata is a large-scale choral work created in the Czech style which has universal and permanent appeal. The text is based on a 13th century Latin poem describing the anguish of Mary standing at the foot of the Cross. These verses contain expression not only of grief, but also of comfort and compassion to suffering humanity with a bright promise for paradise. Tickets $2.00 and $2.50 (students half price) are available at the Bay Ticket Wicket and the Chinook Ticketorium.

THANKS A MILLION WEEKEND is being observed this weekend to focus attention in Lent on the same needs that were the concerns in the Miles for Millions of last fall. The weekend was initiated with a denial luncheon on Friday noon, at which the Mayor officially declared February 21 - 22 Thanks a Million Weekend. There are several hundred high school students who are observing a 50-hour fast this weekend for the symbolical reason of focussing attention on the need to help in the development of our world. Their fasting identifies and witnesses to their concern for the poor and hungry of the world. This afternoon on Channel 4 at 3 o'clock and on Channel 2 at 12:15, Lt. Gov. Grant MacEwan will speak in support of Thanks a Million Weekend.

LENTEN GIVINGS. Coin cards have been sent to every home so that there can be a daily offering, and the Lent boxes are being distributed to all the children today. We do encourage the regular discipline of these offerings so that the church's programs of development and aid in the world can continue to be supported.

ATTENTION LADIES - Please note that the annual Women's World Day of Prayer Service will be held on Friday, March 6th, 2 p.m. at Riverview United Church, 824 Imperial Way. The congregations of this area are asked to support this Service at which representatives from the churches will be taking part.

PAIRHIETS. Coinciding with the sermon series on life's phases and events, and coinciding with the Lenten Season, there are pamphlets displayed on the literature racks found in the Narthex and in the Crump Room.

RECEPTION. To acknowledge the services of Mr. James A. Hampshire who has recently retired after serving as Secretary-Treasurer of the Diocese of Calgary for a number of years, a reception will be held in his honour at the Bishop's residence, 1029 Hillcrest Ave., on Thursday of this week between 7:30 and 10 p.m. The Bishop and Mrs. Goodman invite the people of the diocese to drop in and join them in honouring Mr. Hampshire.

OPERATION 30 - 5:30 P.M. MONDAY TO FRIDAY. NOTE YOUR DAY AND PLAN TO COME.

LAST CALL. The Banff Conference for couples is next weekend, at which the Conference Leader will be Dr. Otis Maxfield, an outstanding leader in the field of family life and counselling. Information and registration forms found on the bulletin board.

CYCLE OF PRAYER.

The western inland areas of the U.S.A. are listed for our prayer-ful remembrance this week. Since this is the part of the Episcopal Church closest to us, and with which many of us have had close association, it is pertinent for us to offer prayers for them.

Nevada: William Wright
Utah: Richard Watson
Montana: Jackson Gilliam
Wyoming: David Thornberry
Colorado: Edwin Thayer
Arizona: Joseph Harte

New Mexico and Southwest Texas: Charles Kinsolving

In our diocese prayers are offered in remembrance of the Parish of St. Augustine, Lethbridge; their clergy are Roy Crisfield and Charles Gale. From this parish the congregation at Picture Butte is cared for.

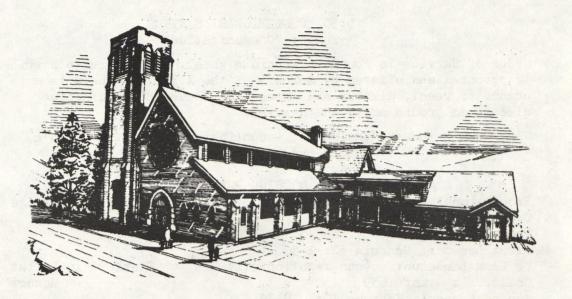

We join with many others to offer congratulations and best wishes to Archdeacon Swanson on his 81st birthday on February 24th.

ADULT STUDY GROUP. An instruction class is held Monday nights at 8 p.m. for adults who wish to be prepared for Confirmation, and those simply desiring to increase their knowledge of the Christian Faith. For further information please call Mr. Challacombe at the church office or 245-8549.

There follows, without comment or delay, this recital of sacred music by chorister Robert Glover (tenor), assisted by fellow choristers Elizabeth Stileman and Joan Hartley (sopranos), accompanied by John Searchfield, organist.

Aria: Ah! my soul, what end awaiteth thee (St. John Passion)

Trio: Quid sum, miser! (Requiem) What affliction mine exceeding? Who shall stand forth for me pleading, when the just man aid is needing?

Aria: Ingemisco tamquam reus (Requiem) Giuseppe Verdi Sadly groaning, guilty feeling, o'er my visage blushes stealing: Lord, oh! spare me, lowly kneeling. Thou, who Mary's sin forgavest, who to hear the thief vouchsafedst, unto me bright hope thou gavest. Though my prayer's breath be wasting, kindly glances on me casting, save me from flames everlasting. With thy sheep, Lord, deign to rate me; from the wicked separate me. At thy right do Thou instate me.

LENT. (i) Some of the Lenten materials were slow in arriving; consequently the mailing to the parish went out on Friday and should be in everyone's hands early this week. All the Lenten Services and observances are contained in this notice, and without repeating all details here we earnestly request that attention be given to the mail on its arrival. (ii) We would remind you of the daily half-hour Communion Service at 5:30 ("Operation 30"). The pattern is to designate a certain number of families of the parish to attend each day, and we hope that this pattern will be readily accepted by everyone. It is quite understandable that for some it might be difficult to come on the day suggested, so we do urge that an alternative day be chosen. (iii) One of the long-standing disciplines of Lent is in the area of self-sacrifice, particularly that of gifts of money. A coin card goes to every family, and the children of the Church School receive Lenten boxes. The amount of money given can have its own significance, but the emphasis is on a habit-forming attitude of remembering throughout Lent that we too can give to the needs of others.

TODAY. We commend to everyone the opportunity to attend Evensong this evening, which is being offered at the commencement of this Lenten Season. Not only is Evensong a beautiful Service in its own right, but the music to be sung at the recital following will give musical expressiveness to this appropriate Lenten Service.

... Some of the members of the A.Y.P.A. are visiting the Alberta Hospital at Ponoka today for the educational experience of becoming acquainted with the work among the mentally ill. They are travelling on the Canadian Mental Health Association bus and are being looked after by one of the supervisors in the hospital.

... Today we begin a Lenten series of sermons dealing with the meaning of life's great events. It is anticipated that the series will carry on after Easter as well.

THE BIBLE SOCIETY ANNUAL DINNER MEETING is highly commended to all: Thursday of this week, Feb. 19, 6:15 p.m. at Rosedale United Church (13th Ave. & 1st St. N.W.). Guest speaker: General Secretary of the Canadian Bible Society, The Rev. K.G. McMillan, an able speaker. Reservations for dinner tickets ($2.25) by phoning 262-4277 or the church office.

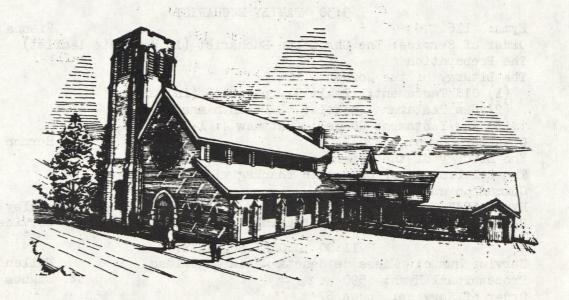

CYCLE OF PRAYER. Our prayers are offered this week in support of some of the western dioceses of the Episcopal Church of the U.S.A. including: Alaska - William Gordon; Olympia - Ivol Curtis; Spokane - John Wyatt; Oregon - James Carman; Eastern Oregon - William Spofford; Idaho - Norman Foote; California - Kilmer Myers; Northern California - Clarence Haden; San Joaquin - Victor Rivera; Los Angeles - Eric Irving Bloy. Within the Diocese of Calgary we offer prayers for the Parish of St. Cyprian, Lacombe; together with St. John the Baptist, Clive; whose Rector is Canon Leo Thurston.

A CONTEMPORARY SERVICE on "Communicating", at 9:30 a.m. next Sunday, presented by a team of teenagers, will include a series of personal contributions with opportunity for dialogue following the Service.

ASH WEDNESDAY. The Lenten Season begins on Wednesday of this week bringing to our attention the fact that before the Christian high-light of Easter comes there is the preparatory Season of Lent. On Ash Wednesday there will be Services at 10.30 a.m. and 5.30 p.m. It is a significant way to note this major season by pausing to mark its beginning at one of the Services on Wednesday, and we encourage family attendance at 5.30. It will be a short Service of Holy Communion with the choir present to lead in the singing.

LENTEN DAILY SERVICES. Following the pattern of the last two years the Vestry has recommended that the daily Services at 5.30 again be adopted as our major Lenten observance. As we have done previously, we will suggest that certain families make an effort to attend on a specific day in Lent, and on that particular day they will be prayed for by name and be encouraged to be present at the 5.30 Service. These daily 5.30 Services will be one-half hour, and all members of the family are encouraged to come.

SHROVE TUESDAY LUNCHEON. All ladies of the parish are invited to the A.C.W. annual luncheon on Shrove Tuesday, February 10th, and newcomers are specially welcome. The significance of the intriguing title, "A Road-Map Luncheon", will become clear at the time of the event. This annual affair is always a very pleasant and informative time, and we hope that the ladies will respond to this invitation. If you would like to bring something to this pot-luck luncheon please contact Mrs. Knebles (243-7351) or Mrs. Burris (245-3098). A nursery will be provided.

VALENTINE PARTY. On Thursday afternoon of this week our senior parishioners and friends are once again most warmly invited to meet in the Crump Room at 2.30 to enjoy each other's company and some refreshments. We do look forward to these gatherings and hope that all those who are able will come along to meet their old friends. Transportation is gladly supplied if you will just let Mr. Jack Ireland know (243-0092).

BIBLE SOCIETY ANNUAL DINNER MEETING. On Thursday, February 19th, the South Alberta District of the Bible Society will hold its Annual Meeting at 6.15 p.m. in Rosedale United Church, 13th Ave. & 1st St. N.W. The guest speaker will be the General Secretary of the Canadian Bible Society, The Rev. K.G. McMillan. Dr. McMillan is an able speaker who is always worth hearing, and we commend this meeting and his address to all our people. Dinner tickets are $2.25; phone 262-4277 or the church office for reservations.

EVENSONG NEXT SUNDAY 7.30 p.m. To coincide with the commencement of Lent a special Lenten Evensong will be sung next Sunday evening at 7.30. Like the Advent Evensong, it will be followed by a brief recital by Mr. Robert Glover assisted by Elizabeth Stileman and Joan Hartley, members of Christ Church choir.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. Since the outbreak of World War II the Japanese Anglican Church has been entirely indigenous and operating with particular effect at the level of primary education and university students. The dioceses of Japan are remembered in our prayers this week, and this might serve as introduction to the many Expo '70 visitors who will visit Japan this year.

Closer to home we remember the communities of Innisfail, Penhold and Bowden which comprise a parish ministered to by Gerald W. Spence. This parish, like many others, is part of the great agricultural background of our diocese, but is undergoing severe changes.

ADULT STUDY GROUP. For those adults who wish to be prepared for Confirmation, or those desiring to make inquiry of the Christian Faith, adult classes are held beginning tomorrow night (Monday) at 8 p.m. For more information please contact the clergy.

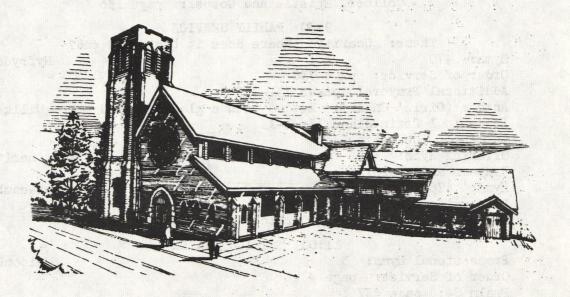

VOLUNTEER VISITORS. If you had parents living in another city it would be most reassuring to know that the church there visited them and looked in on them with some regularity. In this parish we attempt to do this for the many who are known to us that require and appreciate a friendly caller dropping in from time to time. People of any age can do this work which is highly appreciated and most necessary. If you would like to serve in this way please call either Mrs. Brenda Aiken (287-0707) or Mrs. Iris Birch (243-1277). It does not commit people to any precise schedule, and by calling these persons full information can be obtained.

SEXAGESIMA. In common with last Sunday and next Sunday, these three weeks form a prelude to Lent. There are three themes in this prelude, the one for today being that of God's purposes announced and received with results that vary according to the conditions of those who hear the message. Lent, which begins in ten days. has its own definite emphasis and ways in which we can mark it, all of which will be shortly conveyed to you by mail.

ANNUAL MEETING REPORT. As a brief summary, we can report a meeting that was quick to deal with the business matters: and in dealing with the resolutions there was a good participatory debate. The resolutions for the setting up of the funds were adopted, and the resolution dealing with Confirmation was given a good airing before finally being approved. Copies of the total Annual Report and of these resolutions are at the church doors for people to take.

WELCOME. Today we are delighted to welcome into our midst our new Associate and his family. The Rev. Allan J. Challacombe will quickly find a warm place in the affections of this congregation. We hope that many parishioners take opportunity in the Coffee Hour to welcome him, his wife Norma, and wee son Stephen.

NEW VESTRY. Appearing before you today for their installation, following their election at last Monday night's Annual Meeting, are your 1970 Vestry: Stephen Brown, Mrs. Mabel Crosland, Dr. W.A.J. Donald, W.J. Harvie, W.A. Heard, Mrs. Peggy Howard, H.R. Lawrie, D.J. McLaughlin, C.H. Norminton, H.G. Officer,

R.M. Ridley, and Mrs. Lorraine Smith. Churchwardens:

M.S. Devonshire (People's), Dr. R.E. Pow (Rector's).

RENOVATIONS. Work has been fairly well completed in the lower hall area with the exception of the new floor to be laid this week. The two new classroom areas on the north side are most conducive for teaching and other small gathering purposes; and the teenage lounge on the south side is very attractive and will be their centre for activities. The choir room has benefited from improved lighting and cupboards, and all the organizations have been given locker space in the locker room on the north side.

SENIORS. For all our senior parishioners and friends another pleasant social hour has been planned for Thursday, Feb. 12th. Please pass the word around, and if you need a ride call Mr. Jack Ireland at 243-0092.

SHROVE TUESDAY LUNCHEON. All ladies of the parish are invited to save the date of Tuesday, Feb. 10th, for the A.C.W. annual luncheon on Shrove Tuesday. It has been named "A Road-Map Luncheon", and the significance of this intriguing title will become clear at the time of the event. This annual affair is always a very pleasant and informative time, and we hope that the ladies will respond to this invitation.

A.C.W. At the recent annual meeting of the Anglican Church Women the following executive was elected: Hon. Pres., Mrs. June Tatchell; Hon. Vice-Pres., Mrs. Norma Challacombe; Past Pres., Mrs. Lorraine Smith; President, Mrs. Lois Ebbels: 1st Vice-Pres.. Mrs. Ann Arnold; 2nd Vice-Pres., Mrs. Carol McKibben: - Rec. Sec. . Mrs. Dorothy Wilson; Corr. Sec., Mrs. Margaret Tidswell; Treasurer, Mrs. Muriel Ratcliff; Budget & Appeal, Mrs. Barbara Connelly; Public Relations, Mrs. Kay Grove; News sheet, Mrs. Marg. Corbet (editor) & Mrs. Shelagh Lester (co-editor); Hospitality, Mrs. Pat Knebles. Mrs. Kay Baugh (newcomers); Social Service, Mrs. Iris Birch; Gleichen Rep., Mrs. Janet Ashburner; Group Reps., Mrs. Mardie Banks (Guild), Mrs. Freda Coutts (Winchester), Mrs. Edith Austin (Altar Guild), Mrs. Madie Whitburn (Mardi Group).

The ladies of the parish are asked to keep this list for future reference so that they can call the appropriate person when they have inquiries, needs, and offers to share in the work of the parish.

THE WINCHESTER GROUP has cancelled its meeting for Tuesday of this week so that all members may attend the Shrove Tuesday luncheon. The next regular meeting of the Winchester Group will be February 17th.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. Singled out for our prayerful attention are the following dioceses of western Canada:
British Columbia, New Westminster, Cariboo, Kootenay,
Caledonia, Yukon, and Athabasca. We particularly remember the Diocese of British Columbia which meets this week to elect a new bishop. In the Diocese of Calgary we pray for the Parish of High River, Pekisko and Dinton; and their Incumbent. Douglas Jackson.

Other seeds fell

Other seeds fell on good soil . . .

A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seeds fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured them. Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they had not much soil, and immediately they sprang up, since they had no depth of soil, but when the sun rose they were scorched; and since they had no root they withered away. Other seeds fell upon thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. He who has ears, let him hear.

SEPTUAGESIMA reminds us that we are approximately seventy days away from Easter, and also that it will not be long before the Season of Lent begins. Easter this year comes very early, and it rather contracts the time that normally would elapse between Christmas and Lent. The liturgical emphasis of Septuagesima is God's creation, and it is here we begin to prepare to focus on God's entire purposes which are culminated in Easter.

January 25th is also set aside as the day we remember the life and work of the Apostle St. Paul. The New Testament, and indeed the whole Christian record, would be greatly impoverished without this giant of the faith. It is significant that his life is commemorated when we are thinking of the span of God's purposes and how those purposes included Saul of Tarsus.

Y.W.C.A. SUNDAY. We join with the religious communities of Calgary in observing today as Y.W.C.A. Sunday, and thereby endorsing them in their present endeavour of raising funds in the community for new facilities. Two things are pertinent in this concern: one is that the Y.W.C.A. is the sole agency to provide home-style accommodation for girls and women coming into the city, and second that the entire Y.W.C.A. program is complementary to and consistent with the purposes of Christian development. Mr. Charles Lee, chairman of the new building campaign, will speak briefly to both the 9.30 and 11.00 o'clock congregations.

ANNUAL REPORTS. Today you will find in the Warthex and at the side entrance copies of the total Parish Report for 1969. You are encouraged to take these with you and peruse them. It will be all the more helpful to your participation in the Annual Meeting to have looked at this complete report, giving you the most comprehensive story of this parish that is ever made available during the year.

ANNUAL MEETING. This is your last reminder that the Annual Meeting gets under way at 8 o'clock sharp tomorrow night in the Crump Room. Agendas have been circulated, and the meeting will be transacted with as much dispatch as possible while allowing for full examination of our affairs. Everybody is encouraged to be present, if at all possible, and take part in the elections and discussion of the meeting. to the security and the

THE CHALLACOMBES. Our new Associate and his family will be arriving this week to take up residence at 2317 Morrison Street. Their furniture is expected on Wednesday or Thursday, and next Sunday will be Mr. Challacombe's first Sunday with us. We are assured that the parishioners will show every courtesy and warmth of welcome in greeting this family into our midst.

RENOVATIONS. To date the contractor has fairly well completed the two new classroom areas and the youth lounge adjacent to the main lower hall. The lockers for the various organizations have been made, and the only major work to be undertaken now is the new floor. Redecorating continues, and already we can see great improvement in this part of our building.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. Once again our attention is drawn to West Africa, and the list of dioceses for which we are requested to pray includes those countries that surround the troubled land of Nigeria.

COFFEE HOUR. On these chilly Sundays we cordially invite you to a good hot cup of coffee before you leave and while you are waiting for the car to warm up. There is always something for the youngsters as well.

BIAFRA. Out of the quickly changing situation and some confusion resulting from the events of the past week, one thing still remains, i.e. that there is great need for food and medical supplies. We are confident that CANAIRELIEF is still the best agency to receive our support, and it will continue its operations even at perilous risks that they have known all along.

COALITION SUNDAY. As a direct result of the Montreal Poverty Conference in late 1968 regional activity has been encouraged to come to grips with the fact that many Canadians live at a subsistence level or lower. To bring together collective thought, concern and action of the Alberta churches, this Coalition Sunday is intended to produce some results that reflect the thinking of a very wide group. The special Channel 2 telecast has been moved to 3:30, and parishioners are encouraged to meet in the Crump Room to view it and record reactions. If you view this program at home, and wish to record your thoughts, phone in on the church office lines (243-0103, 243-7324) with your comments please.

The image of Christ to the world (as reflected on this bulletin cover) must always express compassion, for He considered Himself the Servant. Poverty is such a debilitating condition that Christian compassion must be shown to those who live in its grip, and this compassion must have an active form. This is the prime concern of today's emphasis.

DANCERS. Today we welcome the University Contemporary Dancers who will present after both the 9:30 and 11:00 o'clock Services the following program:

- 1. Ten Danced Poems by Paul Klee (the painter) James Stephens, D.H. Laurence, E.E. Cummings, Eric Doolittle (a teenager)
- 2. Dances on Electronic Music by Pierre Henry (a) Mort (b) Rock Electronique

Dancers: Susan Crowe, Lisa Doolittle, Margaret Dragu, Richard Farrally, Karen Greenhough, Beryl Hanen, Norma Wood, Bill Eddelman. Choreography: Yone Young. We express our thanks to this group for their readiness to come and present their program to our two congregations.

A.Y.P.A. Following on the poverty theme, the A.Y. program at 7 p.m. tonight will deal with this topic. Since very few of us or our families are familiar with poverty, this will be a first-hand encounter with a spokesman from those who are among Calgary's poor.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE PARISH - JANUARY 26th. The agenda, preliminary financial statements and other meeting details will be in the mail to you this week.

A.C.W. TOMORROW. Beginning with dessert and coffee at 1:30 all ladies of the parish are warmly encouraged to support their A.C.W. at its annual meeting. As previously mentioned, Mrs. Margaret Waterchief from Gleichen will be the guest speaker.

GROUP ANNUAL MEETING DEMINDERS. Winchester Group on Tuesday commencing at 1:30 with dessert and coffee, and including installation of officers.

Altar Guild on Thursday beginning with Holy Communion at 9:30.

THE CYCLE OF PRAYER this week reminds us that every year from Jan. 18-25 we observe the Octave of Prayer for Christian Unity. This observation links us with not only the Anglican family, but other parts of Christendom which share in this time of prayer for the unity of the Church. It demands our reflection on Christ's will for His people, on the sins of our separation, and on the expressions of the Church as the Christian family.

For our own diocese we are bidden to remember the Parishes of Christ Church, Fort Macleod and St. Cyprian, Brocket under the care of Ernest R. Doyle.

CHURCH SCHOOL STAFF. For the benefit of parents we report that the ll o'clock classes for this semester are under the care of the following: Nursery - Mrs. Barbara Portman & Mrs. June Tatchell; Kindergarten - Mrs. Mary Lavender & Miss Karen Rothwell; Grade 1 - Mrs. Sheila Rayer; Grade 2 - Mrs. Beverley Bushell; Grade 3 - Mrs. Anne Novinger; Grade 4 - Miss Geralee Traunweiser; Grade 5 - Mrs. Pauline Watkins & Mrs. Diane Farmer; Grade 6 - Mrs. Margaret Bartley; Grade 7 - Mr. Ken Slater.

"MEALS ON WHEELS" Annual Dinner Meeting will be held Friday, Jan. 23rd, 6:30 p.m. at the Southern Alberta Institute of Technology (Students' Dining Room, East Block). Guest speaker: Dr. Irial Gogan, Executive Director, Holy Cross Hospital. Both men and women are welcome. For dinner reservations ($3.25) please phone 289-3128 or 249-4466.

A FEW ADDITIONAL COPIES OF THE 1970 CALENDAR are now available in the church office.

NEXT SUNDAY WILL BE OBSERVED AS Y.M.C.A. SUNDAY.

TODAY

New Semester. The third semester of the Church School starts today and runs until March 8. Reminder to pupils and parents - today's registration implies consistent attendance for whole period.

A.Y.P.A. resumes weekly gatherings tonight at 7:00, Crump Room.

All teenagers are warmly welcome to this group which offers a diversity of program, worship and recreation.

THIS WEEK

ELECTION. Delegates from the ten dioceses of Keewatin, Rupert's Land, Brandon, Arctic, Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, Qu'Appelle, Athabasca, Edmonton and Calgary meet in our city Tuesday to elect a new Archbishop of this Ecclesiastical Province. This electoral college is comprised of the bishops plus lay and clergy delegates. The public is welcome to the Enthronement Service for the newly elected Archbishop Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer. The preacher will be Dr. F.H.W. Crabb.

CLOTHING BANK. During these winter days the Anglican Clothing Bank receives great demand for winter clothing. Their current greatest need is for men's heavy clothing, particularly shoes, boots and jackets (no long overcoats please - they have oodles). For pick-up please call Mrs. F. Morgan at 243-7448. Please look and see if you have anything that can help, and react to this need.

NEXT SUNDAY

DANCERS. Last year we were greatly favoured with the appearance after church one Sunday of a contemporary dance troop which presented a delightful program. Their artistry depicted biblical and other themes in the medium of contemporary dances. We are to be favoured with a similar recital next Sunday after both the 9:30 and 11:00 o'clock Services in the Crump Room. The troop is the University Contemporary Dancers under the direction of Mrs. Yone Young. COALITION SUNDAY. This title for January 18th refers to the endeavour to produce a collaborative effort on the part of churches throughout Alberta as their attention is directed to the conditions of poverty in Alberta and what might be a practical and unified action in dealing with this social ill. To illustrate the conditions a special TV program appears at 2:30 p.m. on Channel 2, which will be seen in Lethbridge, Medicine Hat. Red Deer and Calgary. For our part we invite you to assemble in the Crump Room to watch the program, discuss it, and send our comments to the provincial co-ordinating group. We warmly invite you to join us on Sunday afternoon to watch the program, share in the discussion over coffee, and forwarding our impressions to the provincial body.

DEADLINE FOR ANNUAL LEETING REPORTS IS JANUARY 15th.

ANNUAL MEETINGS

Monday, Jan. 26, 8 p.m. - Annual Meeting of the Parish. Agenda, preliminary financial statement and other material will be mailed shortly.

Monday, Jan. 19, 1:30 - Anglican Church Women. Dessert and coffee - reports - special speaker: Mrs. Margaret Waterchief.

Thursday, Jan. 22 - Altar Guild. 9:30 Holy Communion, 10:00 o'clockbusiness meeting.

· CYCLE OF PRAYER

West Africa occupies our attention in prayer for this week as the dioceses of that part of the African continent are singled out. Their names indicate the way the Church is identified with the names of the nations, and in this part of the world the Anglican Communion is very strongly indigenous. — West Cambia and the Rio Pongas: Timothy Olufosoye; Sierra Leone: Moses Scott; Liberia: Dillard Brown; Accra, Ghana: Ishmael Lemaire; Northern Nigeria (vacant): Ibadan: Solomon Odutola; Lagos: Seth Kale.

Within our own diocese we remember the four congregations that are ministered to by The Rev. Gerald Tearne in this central agricultural area of Alberta: St. David's, Elnora; St. Golumba, Delburne; Holy Trinity, Pine Lake; St. Hilda, Arthurvale.

AN ORDER OF WORSHIP

Leader: Jesus said, "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven".

This teaching from Jesus is appropriate for Epiphany because it speaks of Light - Men - the Father

Let us be prepared to learn what His Spirit says to us first through prayer. Let us pray.

Leader: Our opening prayer is to admit that darkness (evil) is around us and in us that we must recognize and overcome it. We pray and say together:

Congregation: Accept O Lörd the imperfect service which we have rendered to Thee during the past week. Thou knowest all our idle, trifling and uncharitable words; all our wasted, half-employed and misused hours; all our selfishness, vanity, and ungodliness; all our omitted duties and all our committed sins; Thou, O Lord, knowest all, rememberest all and must bring all into judgment, even every secret thing. Suffer us not to cloak or veil before Thee our hearts or our lives, but forgive, O God, all that Thou hast seen amiss in us, for the sake of Him who came into the world to save sinners, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Leader: The love and forgiveness of God is as a dazzling light to dispel and conquer all the darkness. Let us praise God for His Light.

Congregation: Jesus, our Master, do Thou meet us while we walk in the way and long to reach the heavenly country; so that, following Thy light, we may keep the way of righteousness, and never wander away into the darkness of this world's night, while Thou, who art the Way, the Truth, and the Light art shining within us; for Thy mercy's sake.

Leader: Now let us offer ourselves for the witnessing of God's light and love in the world.

Congregation: O God, the creator of the ends of the earth, with whom there is no distinction of race or habitation, but all are one in Thee: Break down, we beseech Thee, the barriers which divide us; that we may work together in one accord with each other and with Thee; through Him who is the Saviour of all, Jesus Christ Thy Son our Lord.

Leader: Now, standing, we praise God for His truth and love.

Congregation: Accept, O Lord God, our Father, the sacrifices of our thanksgiving; this, of praise, for Thy great mercies already afforded to us; and this, of prayer, for the continuance and enlargement of them; this, of penitence, for such only recompense as our sinful nature can endeavor; and this, of the love of our hearts, as the only gift Thou dost ask or desire; and all these, through the all-holy and atoning sacrifice of Jesus Christ Thy Son our Saviour.

(All prayers are by Robert N. Rodenmayer.)

- 1. Tomorrow Christ is coming, as yesterday he came; A child is born this moment, we do not know his name. The world is full of darkness, again there is no room; The symbols of existence are stable, cross and tomb.
- 2. Tomorrow will be Christmas, the feast of love divine, But for the nameless millions the star will never shine. Still is the census taken and men are on the move; New infants born in stables are crying out for love.
- 3. There will be no tomorrow for many a baby born. Good Friday falls on Christmas when life is sown as corn. But Jesus Christ is risen and comes again in bread, To still our deepest hunger and raise us from the dead.
- 4. Our Lord becomes incarnate in every human birth. Created in his image we must make peace on earth. God will fulfil his purpose and this shall be the sign: We shall find Christ among us as child or youth or man.

EPIPHANY: Tuesday of this week, January 6, is the Feast of The Epiphany for which there will be a Celebration of Holy Communion at 9 a.m. in the Chapel. Like other dates of the Christian calendar that fall on a weekday, we find ourselves observing its message on the Sunday following or the Sunday closest. However, as an integral part of the story of the Coming of Christ, The Epiphany must retain its rightful prominence.

BISHOP'S ANNIVERSARY. Tuesday marks the second anniversary of the Consecration of Bishop M. L. Goodman. To observe this date there will be a Service in the Cathedral at 10 a.m. Later in the day Bishop and Mrs. Goodman are holding open house at Bishop's Court. 1029 Hillcrest Ave. from 3 to 5 p.m. and 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. The Bishop has asked that through the medium of this leaflet all the parishioners will accept their invitation to meet them in their home on Tuesday afternoon or evening.

CHURCH SCHOOL SELESTER. January 11 to March 8 will be the third semester of the Church School year, and next Sunday registrations will be taken in all classes. It is imperative to remind parents and students that registration conveys the sense of commitment to attend for all the Sundays of the semester. By this means the teachers and the students have a consistent time of instruction that is profitable to all concerned. The teachers for this coming semester are reminded that their preparation meeting occurs on Wednesday of this week (January 7) at 8 p.m. in the Crump Room. -verd sub 10 manastlage * 'si * 's *

BIAFRA/NIGERIA CONCERN FOR CALGARY is the name of a group of interested individuals who are bringing Mr. Stanley Burke to Calgary this week to speak of his first-hand experiences and knowledge of the tragic situation in West Africa. Mr. Burke, a well known television personality, has spent a great deal of time in Biafra in trying to move the people of Canada to help that situation. His appearances in Calgary will be as follows: Thursday 10 p.m. CHOR Forum: Friday 10 a.m. CFCN-TV, 12 noon, U. of C. in MacEwan Hall, and 8 p.m. Public Forum at Western Canada High School. ****

CYCLE OF PRAYER. At the beginning of a new year our prayers are directed to the Mother Diocese of the Anglican Communion. Canterbury, and with that seat of Anglicanism those dioceses of South and West Ingland that are part of the Mother Church's Province. We pray for Archbishop Michael Ramsey and the bishops and people of the dioceses which are under his jurisdiction.

In our own diocese we remember the Parish of St. Magloire. Drumheller, and the vast territory west of Drumheller that comprises The Big Country Parish: Castor, Coronation, Monitor, Consort. The flowers on the Altar of the Church are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Mr. & Mrs. Sherman Smith and Mrs. Roger deWinton, and the flowers on the Chapel Altar in loving memory of Pamela Jo Wylie.

NOTICES OF ANNUAL MEETINGS. (1) Anglican Church Women on Monday, January 19, beginning with dessert and coffee at 1:30. The featured speaker will be Mrs. Margaret Waterchief of St. John's Parish, Gleichen. Mrs. Waterchief is a band counsellor, President of the Calgary Deanery A.C.W., and was a delegate to the Montreal Poverty Conference. (2) The Annual Meeting of the Parish will be held on January 26 at 8 p.m. Information regarding the content of the meeting, and some preliminary financial statements will be mailed to all parishioners prior to the time of the meeting.

ELECTION OF NEW ARCHBISHOP. Across the Dominion of Canada there are twenty-eight dioceses that are arranged in four ecclesiastical provinces. The largest of these in area is the Province of Rupert's Land stretching from Western Ontario to the Rockies and including the Arctic areas. From among the ten diocesan bishops one is to be elected to be the Archbishop of this region. This election will take place in Calgary next week when a special electoral synod convenes at the Cathedral on the 13th. It used to be that whoever was elected automatically became the Bishop of the Diocese of Rupert's Land (Winnipeg) and resided in that city. This condition has been changed, and whoever is elected will remain in his own diocese. The Archbishop's main function is to be a spokesman for his province and to preside at provincial synods.

January 18 - "COALITION SUNDAY". This name is derived from the desire to find practical strategy for all Christian churches in the area of poverty and the Christian conscience. To bring this message across clearly there is to be a special television program on Sunday, January 18, at 2:30 p.m. which will be shown locally on Channel 2. This telecast will also reach Lethbridge, Medicine Hat and Red Deer, and the areas served by those stations. To make the best effective use of this program we are inviting the parishioners to meet in the Crump Room to view the program, and following to send reactions and comments to the provincial group for their attention. Please keep this date and time in mind to come and Christmas Services.

As Christina Rossetti wrote: "Love came down at Christmas, Love all lovely, Love Divine: Love was born at Christmas. Star and Angels gave the sign."

So we come and bow our heads, "lost in wonder, love and praise", on this holy night. Like the first witnesses - shepherds, wise men, stable animals we crowd around to ponder the Birth. For here is God and man in utmost encounter - an event that brings "freedom, joy and peace". So we are drawn to that Cradle King to present our offerings of love and adoration as He imparts to us His life and love.

With the first chords of "Christians, awake" on Christmas Day we bring our parish family together at 11 a.m. to simply celebrate the Day of Christ's Birth. Gathered as His family we see young and old share in this glad worshipping of the Saviour.

There are celebrations of the Holy Communion at both 8 a.m. and 12 noon on Christmas Day; these arrangements are offered so that all communicants might receive the Sacrament on the day of Christ's Nativity.

The Rector takes great pleasure in announcing the appointment of Dr. Robert E. Pow to be Rector's Churchwarden, effective immediately. Dr. Pow succeeds Mr. Roy Baker who was transferred to Denver this fall.

Acknowledgments: We are to be grateful every time we enter this church building because it provides a place of considerable beauty as the setting of our worship. But this beauty is not solely to render us pleasure — rather to render expression of man's best to honour God. So it is at this Season we are delighted on every side by those who have added to the beauty of Christ Church: to the Altar Guild and donors for the festive decor, to the choirmaster and choristers for the music of Christmas, to the Servers for their duties performed, to the Sidesmen for their attention, to the Bell-ringers for the joyful pealing, and to all who have added to the enjoyment of our worship.

God Bless You At Christmastide is the simplest and best message we can offer everyone. It comes with sincerest greetings from your Clergy, the Vestry members and the Parish Staff, to all in the hope that you have a well-blessed Christmas and much happiness and health in 1970.

This wish and prayer is extended to all our parishioners, guests and friends who are worshipping with us this Christmastide. We are pleased if visitors would sign the Visitors' Register in the Narthex.

Second Lesson: The Angel Gabriel salutes the blessed Virgin Mary.

Carol: Gabriel's message Old Basque Noel arr. Edgar Pettman
HYMN - God rest you merry English Trad. arr. Willcocks

- God rest you merry, gentlemen, let nothing you dismay,
 For Jesus Christ our Saviour was born upon this day,
 To save us all from Satan's power when we were gone astray:
 O tidings of comfort and joy, comfort and joy,
 - O tidings of comfort and joy.

- 2. From God our heav'nly Father a blessed angel came,
 And unto certain shepherds brought tidings of the same,
 How that in Bethlehem was born the Son of God by name:
- 3. The shepherds at those tidings rejoiced much in mind, And left their flocks a-feeding, in tempest, storm and wind, And went to Bethlehem straightway this blessed babe to find:
- 4. But when to Bethlehem they came, whereat this infant lay, They found him in a manger where oxen feed on hay; His mother Mary kneeling unto the Lord did pray:
- 5. Now to the Lord sing praises, all you within this place, And with true love and brotherhood each other now embrace; This holy tide of Christmas all others doth deface:

Third Lesson: St. Hatthew tells of the birth of Jesus.

Carols: A virgin most pure English Trad. arr. Charles Wood

Fourth Lesson: The Shepherds go to the Manger.

Carol: Away in a manger W.J. Kirkpatrick arr. Willcocks Solo: Elizabeth Stileman (soprano)

HYMN, 76 - While shepherds watched

Winchester Old

Carol: Personent Hodie German, 1360 arr. Gustav Holst

- Sing aloud on this day! Children all raise the lay. Cheerfully we and they hasten to adore thee, Sent from highest glory,
 For us born on this morn of the Virgin Mary.
- Now a child he is born, swathing bands him adorn,
 Manger bed he'll not scorn, ox and ass are near him;
 We as Lord revere him.
 And the vain powers of hell spoiled of prey now fear him.
- 3. From the far Orient guiding star wise men sent; Him to seek their intent, Lord of all creation; Kneel in adoration. Gifts of gold, frankincense, myrrh for their oblation.
- 4. All must join him to praise; men and boys voices raise On this day of all days; angel voices ringing, Christmas tidings bringing.

 Join we all, 'Gloria in excelsis' singing.

WHITE GIFTS. The offering of our White Gifts today is a tangible evidence of our continuing concern for the people of the Blackfoot Reserve. Since their standard of living continues to be in most cases at the poverty level (by Canadian standards), the emphasis this year is to make our gifts those of tinned foods. These White Gifts will be forwarded tomorrow so that distribution can be made in good time among the Indian families. The distribution task is carried out by the people of St. John's Church on the reserve, and they are grateful for our continuing response.

MR. TED BYFIELD. It is our pleasure to warmly welcome our guest who is speaking at both Services this morning. At the 9:30 Service Mr. Byfield will tell the story of the early beginnings of St. John's School and how he as a journalist became involved in this unusual venture in the educational field. At 11 o'clock he will say what the two St. John's schools are now doing, why they carry out their specific style of teaching, and what they plan to do next. With the increasing focus on St. John's of Alberta we are happy to have Mr. Byfield with us today, and commend him and his Company for their faith and endeavour. There will be an opportunity to meet Mr. Byfield at the Coffee Hour at the conclusion of both Services.

NEXT SUNDAY. Our two congregations will join next Sunday to worship in the Service of Lessons and Carols at 11 o'clock. This is always one of the enjoyable, meaningful and impressive highlights of the year. The three choirs will be taking part together with readers representing different segments of the parish life.

ANGLICAN CAPSULE. One of the highly contentious issues in Canadian national life today is the assessment of the Indian peoples. The new document brought out by the Department of Indian Affairs has been simultaneously praised and condemned for its conclusions. Because the Anglican Church has had a high degree of involvement with the native peoples ever since the earliest missions, we must share somewhat in both the things that are commendable and the things that are woeful in the present Indian situation. Within our own diocese there is an increasing degree of self-expression by the native peoples regarding the way the Christian Faith can improve their lives. At the same time the Church struggles to avoid the worst aspects of paternalism. Since this parish is teamed with the Parish of St. John's on the Gleichen reserve, we shall have to be particularly conscious of the need to give Christian endorsation to the ways in which these people seek to be a self-determining group.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. For this third week of Advent the geographical location for the prayer cycle is South America. Newest among the Anglican jurisdictions is the new Province of the Church that takes in this continent. The increasing populations, ecumenical spirit, and cosmopolitan cities have given the Anglican Church a new challenge and opportunity to join in the whole Christian enterprise on this continent. - - Central Brazil: Edmund Sherrill; Southern Brazil: Egmont Krischke; Southwestern Brazil: Plinion Simoes; Argentina & Eastern South America with the Falkland Islands: Cyril Tucker; Chile, Bolivia, & Peru: Kenneth Howell; Colombia: David Reed; Ecuador: David Reed.

Within our own diocese the prayer support this week is offered for the Parish of St. George's in-the-Pines, Banff; and St. Michael's, Canmore. These parishes are served by The Rev. Peter E. Millen.

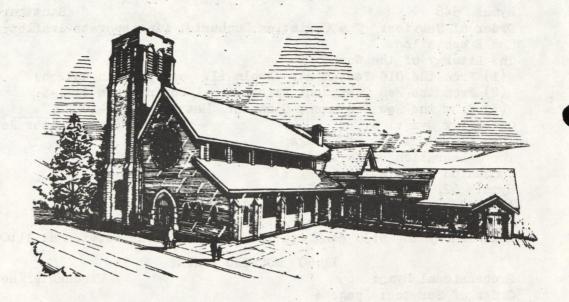

BANFF CONFERENCE FOR COUPLES. On the weekend of Feb. 27, 28 and Mar. 1 it is anticipated that 150 couples from Southern Alberta will have an opportunity to participate in an exciting weekend conference. The leader is Dr. Otis Maxfield who is Executive Director of the Foundation of Religion and Psychiatry, and a parish minister. He is a highly commended leader to guide individuals and couples to enhance their own personal relationships and be introduced to the stimulating experience of small personal growth groups. The locale is the Banff School of Fine Arts, the cost is $55.00 per couple, and details are found on the bulletin board in the hallway.

NOTES AND NEWS. Renovations are at long last under way in the lower hall area, and it is expected work will continue until the job is completed. - The address for "Canairelief" is 50 Winford Drive, Don Mills, Ontario. This is the group which is dropping medicines and food to the people of Nigeria/Biafra nightly, and is supported entirely by Canadian funds. - We commend the emphasis given by the Alberta Motor Association in their program to encourage moderation during the holiday season. - For those who were not exposed to the Canadian Bible Society annual appeal last Sunday, descriptive literature and offering envelopes are on the table at the rear of the Nave.

An organ recital by Terence Fullerton, assisted by Elizabeth Stileman, will be given today at 3 p.m. at St. Anthony's Church, 5340 - 4 St. S.W. Also at St. Anthony's, on Friday, Dec. 12th, 8:30 p.m., Benjamin Britten's "Ceremony of Carols" will be sung by the Festival Chorus directed by John Searchfield.

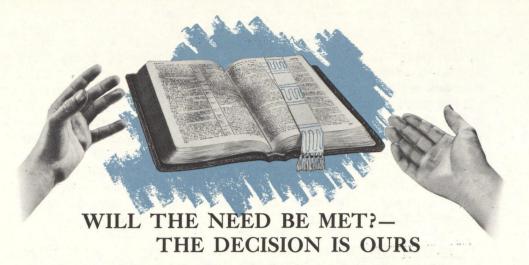

BIBLE SUNDAY

It is apparent from the readings and prayers of today that the Second Sunday in Advent is aptly named Bible Sunday. This then becomes an appropriate time for us to think of the centrality of the scriptures for our worship and our faith. It also recalls the great need for printed scriptures throughout the world, and the responsibility to make them available. This latter challenge is ever increasing with the rise of literacy in all continents. To this end there are envelopes in the pews whereby we can give tangible support to the Canadian Bible Society. The green and white leaflet, also in the pews. states clearly the need for our generous response.

THE PARISH TODAY: The Girls' Choir is singing at the Chapel Service of the Col. Belcher Hospital this morning. The patients are always appreciative of church choirs which take turns in providing music for their Sunday Services, and particularly do they enjoy the presence of children's choirs. - We commend the members of the A.Y.P.A. for their efforts in providing the 9:30 Service whereby they bring their own expressions of concern into the focus of our worship. - During the month of December we shall have the assistance of The Rev. John Buck on occasion, and also Mr. Jim Askew who is assisting at 11 o'clock today. - Please bear in mind that 1970 Church Calendars and the "Good News for Modern Man" Bibles are available today in the Christian Education office, and throughout the week in the church office.

WHITE GIFTS. In consultation with The Rev. John Prince and others on the Gleichen reserve the annual ingathering of white gifts for the Indian peoples will be next Sunday, Dec. 14th. This year we encourage our parishioners to make the gifts in the form of tinned foodstuffs which can be a most practical and appreciative form of assistance. For the very small children who want to make the gift more "gifty", children's toys (in good condition, please) and winter clothing items make appropriate white gifts also. It is hoped that parishioners of all ages will participate in this white gift offering.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. Singled out for our prayerful attention this week are the European congregations of the Anglican Communion, and with them we broaden our concern to include the countries of the whole European community. The local focus of prayer is the Parish of St. Laurence situated in the Lakeview area of Calgary; the Rector is Peter H. McCalman;

A veteran Missionary from the Congo writes, "Interest in buying the Scriptures is at least double anything I've known in my 32 years in the Congo."

in the Congo."

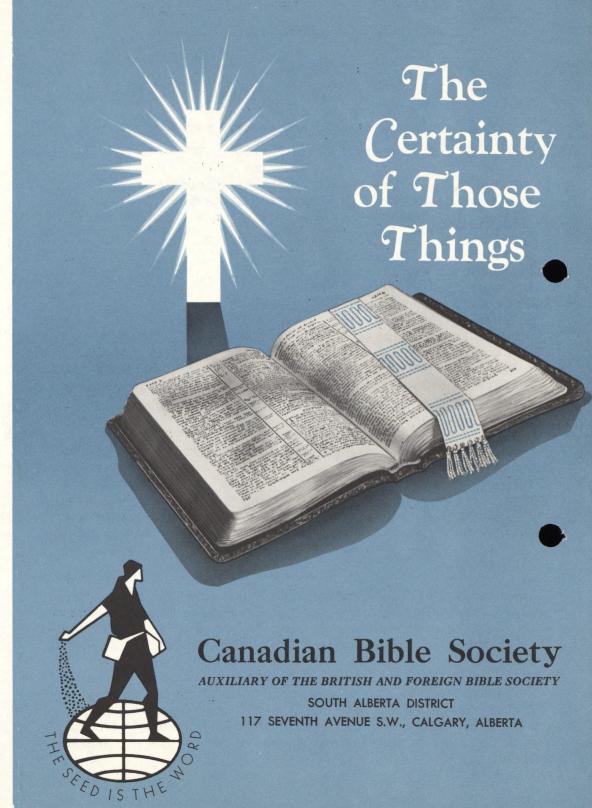

The Congo is but one of the one hundred countries in which the Bible Society is at work around the world and in land after land the demand for Scriptures is double what it has ever been before. With millions of people learning to read, the Bible Society's problem is not that of getting people to accept and read the Scriptures but to provide the Scriptures in the languages and quantities in which they are requested. How long the doors of opportunity will remain open is not known but that the doors are open today is an indisputable fact. Will the Bible Society be able to enter the doors God has opened before it? That question will be answered to a large extent by the Christian people of Canada and the congregations of all the Churches, for we are the ones who can provide the funds that are necessary for the Bible Society to do its work.

Our Church and our Missionaries depend on the Bible Society to provide the Scriptures we need in many languages. The Bible Society renders an essential service to our Communion for everywhere we are at work we require the Scriptures in the languages of the people. To provide the Scriptures which we need for our work the Bible Society must supervise the translation of the Scriptures (now in some 1,200 languages), produce them and distribute them at a fraction of what they cost.

In many cases the Bible Society can provide:

A Gospel for 10c. A New Testament for $1.00 A Bible for $2.00 to $5.00

If each Christian in Canada would make a contribution to the Canadian Bible Society sufficient to pay for either a Gospel, a New Testament or a Bible the requests of many of the people of the world for a copy of the Word of God in their own language would be met.

CHRIST CHURCH - ELBOW PARK

YOUTH SERVICE - December 7, 1969, 9:30 a.m. - "ON REACHING OUT"

Opening Hymn: Little Less of Me

- 1. Let me be a little kinder

 Let me be a little blinder

 To the faults of those around me

 Let me praise a little more

 Let me dream when I am weary

 Just a little more cheery

 Think a little bit more of others

 And a little less of me.
 - 2. Let me be a little braver
 When temptations do me waver
 Let me strive a little harder
 To be all that I should be
 Let me be a little meeker
 With a brother that is weaker
 Let me think more of my neighbour
 And a little less of me.
 - Just a little bit more cheery
 Let me serve a little better
 Those who I am striving for
 Let me be a little meeker
 With my brother that is weaker
 Think a little more of others
 And a little less of me.
- (Sit) Address
- (Kneel) LORD, teach us to pray. Lord, keep our thoughts from wandering. Lord, clean our hearts so we may worship you in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Find the Lord while he can be found; call him when he is near.

- (Sit) Contemporary Prayer
- (Stand) Sing the Lord's Prayer:

Our Father which art in heaven

Hallowed be thy Name

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done

Hallowed be thy Name

On the earth as it is in heaven

Hallowed be thy Name

Give us this day our daily bread

Hallowed be thy Name

And forgive us all our trespasses

Hallowed be thy Name

As we forgive them that trespass against us

Hallowed be thy Name

And lead us not to the devil to be tempted

Hallowed be thy Name

But deliver us from all that is evil

Hallowed be thy Name

For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory

Hallowed be thy Name

For ever, and ever, and ever, and ever

Hallowed be thy Name

Amen, Amen, Amen, Amen

Hallowed be thy Name

Amen, Amen, Amen, Amen

Hallowed be thy Name

(Kneel) Offering

O God, accept the gifts we bring. With these we offer our work, our play, ourselves, to be used in your service.

Sit during collection of offering while duet sings "Love is all around". After collection STAND and sing "Blowin' in the wind".

- 1. How many roads must a man walk down
 Before he knows he's a man?
 Yes, and how many seas must a white dove sail
 Before she can sleep in the sand?
 Yes, and how many times must a cannonball fly
 Before they're forever banned?
 Chorus: The answer my friend is blowin' in the wind,
 The answer is blowin' in the wind.
- 2. How many years can a mountain exist
 Before it is washed to the sea?
 How many years can some people exist
 Before they're allowed to be free?
 Yes, and how many times can a man turn his head
 And pretend that he just doesn't see?
- 3. How many times must a man look up

 Before he can see the sky?

 Yes, and how many ears must one man have

 Before he can hear people cry?

 Yes, and how many deaths will it take till he knows
 That too many people have died?
- (Sit) Five Commandments
 Address
 The two major laws
 One contemporary prayer
- (Stand) Closing Hymn: Seek and ye shall find

CHORUS: Seek and ye shall find Knock and the door will be opened
Ask and it shall be given
And the love comes a trickling down

The flowers on the Altar of the Church are given by the Pearce family to the glory of God and in memory of loved ones.

Your respectful consideration of others is requested as you leave church each Sunday. Sometimes an inordinate amount of chatter distracts those who wish to remain in the pew and who find the closing organ voluntary part of their worship experience. We do encourage friendliness - but let's have it in the Narthex, on the sidewalk and in the Coffee Hour.

- At the 9:30 Service we welcome the student body of St. John's of Alberta together with their masters who are our guests this weekend. Their visit to Calgary is occasioned by their sale of honey in support of the school situated at Genesee, 40 miles west of Edmonton. It is our pleasure to welcome Mr. David Thompson, headmaster, and the entire St. John's School complement. We take this opportunity of conveying sincere interest and best wishes for the healthy future of this Anglican venture in the field of education.
- The arrangements for Church School classes at 9:30 are that the 11 o'clock classes will proceed to their usual locations at the time of instruction. The two 9:30 classes are located thus: Grades 1 & 2 (Mrs. Arnold) in the large lower kitchen, and Grades 3 & 4 (Mrs. Grove) in the Crump Room.
 - Departure of Dr. Crabb. Today marks the last day of Dr. Crabb's ministry with us at Christ Church he takes up his new appointment at St. Stephen's tomorrow, December 1st. We take this opportunity to again reassure Dr. Crabb and his family of our continued affection and prayers, and offer sincere appreciation for his ministry here since the fall of '67. The Service of Induction and Institution for Dr. Crabb at St. Stephen's will be on Wednesday, December 3rd, at 8 p.m.
- As well as being Advent Sunday, the commencement of a new year in the Christian cycle, today commemorates St. Andrew's Day which is traditionally a special day of prayer. In this latter connection Bishop Goodman has requested that we use the following intercessions, particularly in our concern to follow the will of God for Christian unity. "We pray God: To guide, and bless our encounters with other churches and to bring these encounters to that fulfilment which is His will for us. To give us patience, charity, courage and common sense in our dealings with our fellow Christians. To help us to speak honestly to each other and to keep the faith."

THIS WEEK

CHRISTMAS COFFEE PARTY AND SALE. On Tuesday morning, December 2nd, from 10 to 12 you are all invited to the Winchester Group's pre-Christmas event featuring sale items and refreshments. The sale booths will be in the lower hall and the coffee tables will be set up in the Crump Room. Your attendance and support is solicited by this group in aid of the whole A.C.W. projects.

SENIORS' PARTY. On Thursday afternoon at 2 p.m. a social hour will be held in the Crump Room for all our senior parishioners and friends. These are very delightful occasions that offer opportunity to meet and visit with new and old friends. Should you require a ride please do not hesitate to phone Mr. Jack Ireland at 243-0092.

SAFE DRIVING WEEK. Each year December 1-7 is designated as a time to focus national and community attention on the need for safe driving habits. There are more cars registered in Calgary per capita than any other city in North America. This accentuates the great need for improved driving. The Calgary Safety Council urges all Calgarians concerned about traffic accidents to participate in Safe Driving Week. Some statistics concerning traffic accidents in our city are posted on the notice board.

FOR FUTURE NOTICE. Next Sunday the 9:30 Service will be conducted by a team of our A.Y.P.A. on the theme "On Reaching Out", with some emphasis on the Commandments. At its regular 7 p.m. meeting tonight the A.Y.P.A. will be glad of support and assistance in preparation for this Service. - Two weeks from today, December 14th, our guest speaker at both 9:30 and 11:00 will be Mr. Ted Byfield, an articulate layman, who has had intimate involvement in the St. John's Schools development from its earliest stages. - For the third semester of the Church School, January 11th to March 8th inclusive, there is a need for teachers. In preparation for the next term, we would appreciate hearing from volunteer teachers before Christmas. Specifically, at 11 o'clock teachers are required for Grades 1, 2, 3, 5, 7 and nursery (5-year-olds); and at 9:30 for Grades 1 & 2.

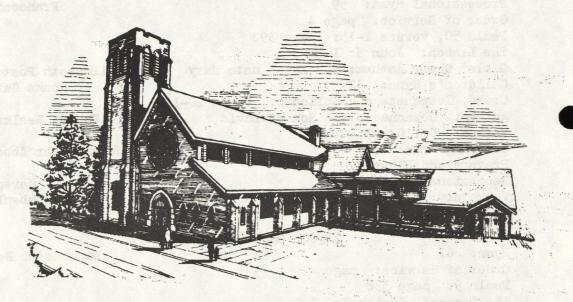

CYCLE OF PRAYER. On this Advent Sunday we begin a new cycle of prayer wherein week by week we shall attempt to single out an area, dioceses and peoples for specific remembrance in our Sunday and weekday prayers. It is hoped that we use these names to add some precision to our prayers day by day. For this week the area is Africa, a continent that produces obvious needs and reasons for our sincere prayers. - Egypt, Libya; Morocco, Algeria, Tunisia; The Sudan: Oliver Allison; Ethiopia and Somali Republic; Southern Sahara - Chad, Niger, Mali, Mauritania, Spanish Sahara; West Central Africa - Gabon, Cameroon, Central African Republic; West Africa - Ivory Coast, Upper Volta, Togo, Dahomey.

In the Diocese of Calgary our prayers are asked for the little Parish of St. George, found in the area immediately east of the Holy Cross Hospital and serving the Parkview residents. And with it is also remembered the congregation of St. Barnabas, Sarcee, which is a happy blend of farmers and residents of the Indian reservation. The Incumbent of the latter is Rodney Andrews.

It is our pleasure to welcome Archdeacon and Mrs. Dowker in our midst today as they spend these few days in Calgary en route to Victoria and retirement. The Coffee Hour will give everybody a chance to visit with them informally. It is our added joy to have the Archdeacon as preacher at 11 o'clock.

ADVENT PROCESSION. Tonight at 7:30 we inaugurate the Advent Season with this special Service (order of service to be found in separate folder) which is commended to parishioners of all ages. This unusual Service conveys the Advent messages through the medium of lessons, music and prayers. If you have never attended the Advent Procession Service we suggest that you be among the worshippers tonight.

NEXT SUNDAY

As stated in the Clapper mailed this week, the major Service next Sunday will be at 9:30. The Church School classes will be for both the 9:30 and 11:00 o'clock enrollments, and the choirs will be present. There will be an 11 o'clock Service. These arrangements have been made in awareness of the Grey Cup falling on November 30th.

St. John's of Alberta. The student body of this Anglican Boys' School are carrying out an extensive letter-drop this weekend. They will return in full strength next weekend to sell 6,000 pounds of honey in a door-to-door campaign. This venture is in support of this Anglican school situated at Genesee (40 miles west of Edmonton) and where several boys from this parish are students. Next Sunday the boys will be attending the 9:30 Service in full strength.

ST. ANDREW'S DAY. Annually this day is set aside for the ingathering of the United Thankoffering from members of the Anglican Church Women. Since St. Andrew's Day, November 30th, falls on next Sunday, it has been requested that the ingathering take place on the occasion of the regular Wednesday 10:30 a.m. Communion Service this week. All ladies of the parish who have set aside their thankofferings throughout the year are asked to bring them to this Service, or see that they are included with the offering at that time.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. The Eastern United States continue to be the locale for our offerings of prayer throughout this week. Again, these names reflect areas of dense population, strong church roots. and considerable urban tensions.

Serving primarily the Acadia, Fairview and south-east sectors of the city, this newer suburban parish is experiencing all the growing pains that go with new housing developments. The Rector is Creighton D. Chew.

ANGLICAN CAPSULE. Initiated at the Canadian Poverty Conference in Montreal in 1968, there has been a continual program of education and public awareness about the conditions of poverty in Canada. Our Church has in Alberta worked with the Inter-Faith groups to see that the ardent concern and facts of poverty are not lost in conference nor ended in written statements. Present plans include a province-wide television program on January 11th to stimulate the population about the poverty conditions close to home. There is no doubt that grinding poverty exists side by side with affluence in this city and in many places in the province. The Anglican Church is employing funds, time and personnel to come to grips with this matter in conjunction with other churches and related agencies.

THIRD LESSON: Zechariah 2: 10-13. The Prophet Zechariah foretells the coming of the Lord and the increase of his kingdom.

CAROLS:

I sing of a Maiden

Patrick Hadley

I sing of a maiden that is makeless; King of all kings to her son she ches.

He came all so still where his mother was, As dew in April that falleth on the grass.

He came all so still to his mother's bowr, s dew in April that falleth on the flower.

He came all so still where his mother lay, As dew in April that falleth on the spray.

Mother and maiden was never none but she; Well may such a lady Godes mother be.

Remember, 0 thou man .

Ravenscroft

Remember, O thou man, O thou man, O thou man, Remember, O thou man, Thy time is spent:
Remember, O thou man, How thou cam'st to me then, And I did what I can, Therefore repent.

Remember God's goodness, O thou man, O thou man, Remember God's goodness and promise made:
Remember God's goodness, how his only Son he sent,
Our sins for to redress: Be not afraid.

In Bethlem was he born, 0 thou man, 0 thou man, In Bethlem was he born, for mankind dear: In Bethlem was he born for us that were forlorn, And therefore took no scorn, our sins to bear.

HYMN 67: On Jordan's bank Winchester New (Congregation to stand - Choir to Chapel and Vestry)

(Congregation to sit)

GOSPEL OF THE SALUTATION: Luke 1: 26-33. The angel Gabriel salutes the Blessed Virgin Mary.

CAROL: Gabriel's Message

Old Basque Carol

The angel Gabriel from heaven came, arr. E. Pettman His wings as drifted snow, his eyes as flame; "All hail", said he, "thou lowly maiden Mary, Most highly favour'd lady", Gloria!

"For know a blessed Mother thou shalt be, All generations laud and honour thee, Thy Son shall be Emmanuel, by seers foretold. Most highly favour'd lady", Gloria!

Then gentle Mary meekly bowed her head, "To me be as it pleaseth God", she said, "My soul shall laud and magnify his holy Name." "Most highly favour'd lady", Gloria!

Of her, Emmanuel, the Christ was born In Bethlehem, all on a Christmas morn, And Christian folk throughout the world will ever say, "Most highly favour'd lady", Gloria!

(Choir proceeds to Sanctuary)

CHORAL: Wachet auf!

Nicolai

Up! awake! from highest steeple,
The watchmen cry, Awake, ye people;
O salem, from thy slumbers rise!
Hear those clarion voices knelling,
The hour of midnight loud foretelling;
Say, where are ye, O Virgins wise?
The Bridegroom comes; awake!
Up! lamp and lantern take;
Alleluya!
With ready light ye must tonight
Go forth to join the marriage-rite.

Glory unto thee in heaven,

By men and Angel-tongues be given,

With harp and cymbal's thrilling tone;

Syon hath twelve pearly portals,

Wherein, with Angel-quire, we mortals

On high may stand around thy throne:

Eye ne'er saw aught like this;

Ear ne'er heard tell such bliss;

Alleluya!

And we therefore will thee adore,

And hymn thy praises evermore.

GOSPEL OF THE ADVENT: Matthew 1: 18-23. St. Matthew tells of the coming birth of Jesus.

CAROLS: (Sung in Sanctuary)

King Jesus hath a garden

Old Dutch Carol arr. C. Wood

King Jesus hath a garden full of divers flow'rs, Where I go culling posies gay all times and hours. There naught is heard but Paradise bird. Harp, dulcimer, lute, with cymbal, trump and tymbal, And the tender, soothing flute.

The Lily, white in blossom there, is Chastity: The Violet, with sweet perfume, Humility.

The bonny Damask-rose is known as Patience: The blithe and thrifty Marygold, Obedience.

The Crown Imperial bloometh too in yonder place. Tis Charity, of stock divine, the flower of grace. . .

Yet 'mid the brave, the bravest prize of all may The Star of Bethlem - Jesus - blessed by his Name!

Ah! Jesu Lord, my heal and weal, my bliss complete, Make Thou my heart thy garden-plot, fair, trim and That I may hear this musick clear: neat. Harp, dulcimer, lute, with cymbal, trump and tymbal, And the tender, soothing flute.

The Blessed Son of God

Vaughan Williams

The blessed son of God only in a crib full did lie: With our poor flesh and our poor blood was clothed that everlasting good. Lord have mercy.

The Lord Christ Jesu, God's son dear, was a guest and a stranger here,

Us for to bring from misery, that we might live Lord have mercy.

All this did he for us freely, for to declare his great mercy;

All Christendom be merry therefore, and give him Lord have mercy thanks for evermore, O Equal to Thy Father, thou! Gird on thy fleshly mantle now: The weakness of our mortal state With deathless might invigorate.

Thy cradle here shall glitter bright. And darkness breathe a newer light. Where endless faith shall shine serene, And twilight never intervene.

All laud, eternal Son, to thee Whose advent sets thy people free. Whom with the Father we adore. And Holy Ghost, for evermore.

CAROL: A spotless rose

Herbert Howells

A spotless Rose is blowing, Sprung from a tender root. Of ancient seers' foreshowing, Of Jesse promised fruit: Its fairest bud unfolds to light Amid the cold, cold winter, And in the dark midnight.

The Rose which I am singing, Whereof Isaiah said. Is from its sweet root springing In Mary, purest Maid; For, through our God's great love and might, The blessed Babe she bare us In a cold, cold winter's night.

Vesper Responsory (said): Judea et Jerusalem

Priest Judah and Jerusalem, fear not, nor be dismayed; (the people continue together with him)

Tomorrow go ye forth, and the Lord, he will be with you.

Priest Stand ye still, and ye shall see the salvation of the Lord.

People Tomorrow go ye forth, and the Lord, he will be with you.

Priest Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

People Tomorrow go ye forth, and the Lord, he will be with you.

(Kneel)

OUR FATHER, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

- V. We wait for thy loving kindness, O Lord.
- R. In the midst of thy temple.

COLLECT FOR CHRISTMAS EVE: Let us pray.

O God, who makest us glad with the yearly expectation of thy coming: Grant that we, who with joy receive thy only-begotten Son as our Redeemer, may without fear behold him when he shall come to be our Judge, even thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

THE BLESSING:

Open wide, O Lord, the gates of heaven and visit thy people in peace; send forth thy Spirit from on high that their hearts may be uplifted unto thee;

O Lord, who for our sake wast of a virgin born. make holy thy people, and bless thine heritage;

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you and abide with you for ever. Amen.

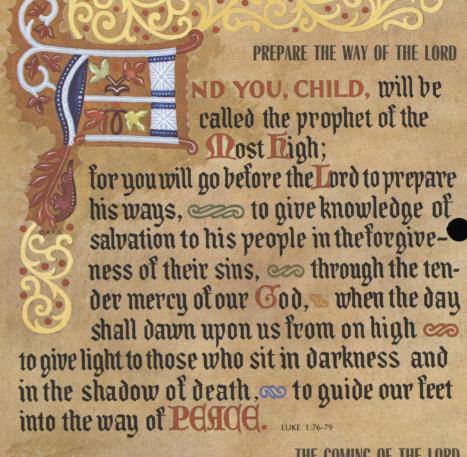

HYMN 62: Veni, Veni, Emmanuel arr. Healey Willan

VOLUNTARY: Carillon Sortie

Mulet

We are happy to welcome Mr. Terence Fullerton back to Christ Church this evening. Mr. Fullerton, who helped to initiate the annual event of the Advent Procession in our church, is the organist for this evening's service.

A Procession with Carols for Advent Sunday In the old Liturgies of the Church, the Advent Offices made a very vivid preparation for the coming of Our Lord to earth. This Carol Service, which is taken largely from the one used in King's College, Cambridge, is designed to include as many of these features as possible. Properly, the choir should be moving in Procession from West to East, from 'Darkness to Light', but the short length of our Nave only allows us to do this symbolically. First, from the west door the Ancient Responsory of Advent Sunday Matins announces the hope of the Messiah, and then the choir enters, singing St. Ambrose's great hymn, "Come, thou Redeemer of the earth". Prophetic lections alternate with carols. Finally the Gospel of the Redemption replaces the Prophets and the whole congregation stands to say with the Minister the last Responsory of Advent, and to sing the great Advent hymn. "O come. Emmanuel".

PARISH NOTES

- The second and final opportunity for the parents of adolescents currently in Confirmation classes, to meet with the Rector and Dr. Crabb, occurs today at 12:15 in one of the upper classrooms. Parents are invited to pick up a cup of coffee, and the group will get under way as soon as possible after the Service ends.
- The A.Y.P.A. meets tonight at 7:30; plans are under way to develop a Youth Service, and lots of help and ideas are expected.

- Archdeacon Swanson is guest preacher this morning at St.

Martin's Church, Calgary.

- The final meeting of the STUDY GROUP for 1969 will take place in the Crump Room on Thursday next, November 20th, at 9:30 a.m.

ADVENT PROCESSION next Sunday night at 7:30.

The choirs will present the symbolic Service to bring in the Advent Season, employing a fine blend of lessons and music. This Service, which has been repeated for the past three years, is one of unusual beauty and meaning, and is commended to the whole congregation.

COMING GUESTS

- Next Sunday it will be our great pleasure to welcome back Archdeacon G. H. Dowker and Mrs. Dowker. The Archdeacon will be preaching at 11 o'clock, and there will be opportunity for the parishioners to greet them at the Coffee Hour following Service. The Dowkers will be en route to Victoria where they will be making their home.
- The exciting educational venture which began at St. John's School, Selkirk, and gave rise to St. John's of Alberta, is one of the arresting stories of Anglican development in Western Canada in recent years. One of the main persons involved in this story is Mr. Ted Byfield who has given dedicated leadership to this cause. He will be with us on December 14th to speak at both 9:30 and 11:00 Services.

* * * * *

Tickets for the remaining five concerts in the Calgary Cecilian Series of organ recitals are on sale at $8.00 ($4.00 for students) from Mr. John Searchfield and Mr. Bruce Wheatcroft. The next concert will be given by the distinguished organist, Gillian Weir. November 26th, Cathedral Church of the Redeemer.

ANGLICAN CAPSULE

Situated a few miles out of Calgary is the Provincial Spy Hill Gaol where men are detained while under custody, or serving short sentences. The Rev. Donald McKinnell serves as Chaplain to the gaol and attempts to make a contact with the men while they are there so that they can continue to have helpful contacts with the outside world. While the gaol does not have the debilitating characteristics of long-term institutions, it can nevertheless be a very jolting experience for those who are even being detained before they have a chance to come before the court. Mr. McKinnell is particularly concerned that the families and the clergy of the inmates are kept posted on their welfare. He also is Incumbent of the two small north-east Calgary congregations of Transfiguration and All Saints.

* * * * *

The clergy of the diocese have been called into conference Tuesday and Wednesday of this week by the Bishop, and your parish clergy will not be in the office on these days.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

Geographically we shift thoughts and attention to the New England and coastal area of eastern United States. In these regions the Episcopal Church is very old and very strong. We pray that for this densely populated area the Church will continue to receive strong leadership.

TODAY

- Parents of the adolescents enrolled in the current Confirmation classes are reminded that they have been invited to meet with the Rector and Dr. Crabb either today at 12:15 or next Sunday at 12:15. Pick up a cup of coffee, and the session will be held in one of the upper classrooms.

- We are delighted to welcome the Scouts and Cubs together with their leaders at the 9:30 Service this morning. Cubs and Scouts have had a long association with Christ Church, dating back almost to the beginning of the parish. We take this opportunity to note the conscientious service given by the leaders and the Group Committee in the continuation of this good program.

- The Choirs of Christ Church have been invited to sing Evensong at 4:30 today at the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer, and our parishioners are invited to join the choirs as we share in the worship of the Mother Church of the Diocese. Dr. Crabb will preach.

- The poppy wreath remains in the Church until Remembrance Day when it will be edded to other memorial wreaths at the cenotaph.

- The teenagers are reminded that there is a special program tonight at 7:30 at Paget Hall (7th Ave. East, next to Cathedral). All teenagers of the city have been invited, and this special program will replace our regular teenage program at Christ Church.

- Archdeacon Swanson is at Camp Horizon today, addressing Girl Guides.

NEW ASSOCIATE. As announced last Sunday, our new Associate Priest for this parish is to be The Rev. Canon Allan J. Challacombe, presently Rector of All Saints' Parish, Saskatoon. Toronto born and educated, his Ministry has been divided between periods of service in Western Canada and as Chaplain at the U. of T. He is a talented and capable priest who will bring many gifts to his work here, and we look forward to him joining us as early in the new year as possible. Mr. Challacombe is married and they have a small son.

TUESDAY: REMEMBRANCE DAY. There will be a Celebration of Holy Communion in the Chapel at 10:30, replacing the usual 9 o'clock Service. At 8 o'clock Tuesday night St. Martin's Anglican Church will be consecrated, and all Anglicans of the city are invited.

THE FLOWERS on the Altar of the Church are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of all the men of Christ Church Parish who gave their lives in the two World Wars.

REMINDER THAT THE RETREAT FOR LAY PEOPLE IS NEXT WEEKEND AT COCHRANE.

ANGLICAN CAPSULE. At the Diocesan Synod last March it was voted that monies obtained from the sale of other properties would be designated for the Inter-Faith Housing Limited venture in their limited dividend enterprise. This scheme which is being supported by most of the church bodies of Calgary, is a direct attempt to create good quality homes for those people who are unable to buy and who have the greatest difficulty in finding rented accommodation. The $40,000 which Anglicans will put into this project will help create eventually 200 units on a site in south Forest Lawn. It is expected that construction will be under way early in 1970. (The Rector is a director of Inter-Faith housing.)

IN REVIEW.

- We congratulate those who participated in Miles for Millions last Sunday, and all those who sponsored them in attaining the incredible amount of money raised for international aid and development.

- The Visitation results are still coming in, and to date are showing a decided increase over last year. Mr. Bob Ridley, Visitation chairman, would appreciate the prompt windup of all calls and pledges still outstanding.

Your respectful consideration of others is requested as you leave church each Sunday. Sometimes an inordinate amount of chatter distracts those who wish to remain in the pew and who find the closing organ voluntary part of their worship experience. We do encourage friendliness - but let's have it in the Narthex, on the sidewalk and in the Coffee Hour.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. The Islands of North and South Pacific are singled out for the prayers of Anglicans throughout the world this week. From the following names we can see how diverse are the situations in which fellow Christians live. — Honolulu: Harry Kennedy; Seoul, Korea: Paul Lee; Taejon, Korea: Richard Rutt; The Ryuku Islands — Okinawa: Edmond Browning; The Philippines: Benito Cabanban; Melanesia: John Chisholm; Polynesia (Vacant).

Locally we remember in prayer the Parish of St. Andrew located in the Foothills Hospital area. The Rector is The Rev. Alfred Bell who also serves as Chaplain to Foothills Hospital.

The designation of November 1st as All Saints' Day is another way that our Christian calendar reminds us of a year-round truth. The strong message of the lessons and hymns associated with this season tells us that there is a fellowship that is a timeless reality for those whose life is identified with Christ. In the Creed we profess the "Communion of Saints" to recall that we are one in Him regardless of what stage of life we are at. This belief calls for the breakdown of death as any dividing point, for the fellowship of saints includes those now on earth and those who are the Church triumphant.

MILES FOR MILLIONS. Taking the slogan "Soul by Sole", the participants in today's 30-mile trek are by their physical effort endeavouring to provide the necessary funds for underdeveloped areas of the world. We can readily understand how people quickly identify with the good cause this march represents, and we commend all those involved in its fulfilment.

VISITATION RESULTS. Two strong factors emerged from last Sunday's efforts in executing the Every Member Visitation for 1970 funds. The first is that over 50% of the pledges received were either new pledges or increased pledges, and this in itself is an encouraging fact. The second factor is not so praiseworthy as we were dismayed by the large number of people who were not at home and had not responded to the request to co-operate in this venture. To the 120 men and women who served as visitors we express appreciation and commendation for the quality of their results.

ANGLICAN CAPSULE. So many human situations these days call for skilful and competent counselling that the Anglican Church has moved to provide this professional service. It is known as the Anglican Counselling Service and it operates in collaboration and co-operation with the Catholic Family Service out of the latter's offices. Acting on the recommendation that the parishes of the city should have access to professional social service facilities, there is now a Social Welfare Worker available to us through this agency. The parishes of the city are asked to contribute to meet a small part of the cost of this service, and those referred are charged only a fee commensurate with their ability to pay.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. The Canadian Dioceses of the Maritimes and Eastern Canada are remembered this week throughout the Anglican communion. In a large country like ours we can forget the distinctive needs and challenges of the Church in places like Labrador, Quebec, and Northern Ontario. In the Diocese of Calgary our prayers are focussed on the twin congregations of All Saints and the Church of the Transfiguration, both located in northeast Calgary. The Incumbent of these two churches is Donald S. McKinnell.

FURNITURE PICK-UP FOR GLEICHEN will take place Saturday of this week. Please call the church office if you have anything to go.

THE FLOWERS on the Altar of the Church are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Carson MacWilliams and Arthur S. de Rosenroll; and the flowers in the Chancel are in loving memory of Joceline Littleton.

NEW SEMESTER. Commencing today and ending on December 14th is the second semester of the Church School teaching year. The pattern followed is that those pupils who are intending to attend each Sunday are to be registered today in their appropriate classes. Those pupils whose attendance is more occasional should report to the Crump Room for their instruction. It is rewarding to report that the first semester was well received and judged to be successful by the staff that served in that term. We are happy to report a full staff on hand for this semester.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. This week we continue our prayerful recollection of the Church in South Africa, and call to mind the need for our concern with the Christian claims of brotherhood and God's love for all men as it particularly relates to this part of His world.

Locally we uphold in prayer the Parish of St. Gabriel in north-east Calgary; the Rector is Frederick A. Dykes.

MILES FOR MILLIONS NEXT SUNDAY. It is anticipated that once again Calgarians will turn out in force to walk either the full or part of the 30-mile route to raise funds for international aid. The churches of Calgary support this venture (although we keep hoping for a Saturday event), and indeed the churches are member agencies and receive a portion of the funds raised. We want to emphasize to all who walk and those who sponsor them that all the money raised goes to underdeveloped areas of the world. All the money is allocated to provide health, education, welfare, or self-help programs that have been carefully evaluated and judged appropriate to receive this money. A full list and details of these programs is found on the notice board.

ANGLICAN CAPSULE (a glimpse of our activities). In a small plain building at 1308 - 3rd St. N.E. a great supply of used clothing and household materials are made available free to those who come seeking these items. This is the Anglican Clothing Bank staffed by volunteer women of the city parishes and operated by the Diocesan Council of Social Service. It is unique in the fact that it is the only place in Calgary where things are made available to needy people free. At the present time they have a great need for men's winter clothing, and contributions can be left at Christ Church any time.

All women are notified that the Calgary Deanery of Anglican Church Women is holding its fall meeting at St. Gabriel's Church, 504 - 30th Ave. N.W. on Wednesday of this week--Communion (10:30, lunch (12 noon - $1.35), and business session (1 p.m.), "Recipes for Programs".

A Retreat for married people will be held at the Retreat House at Cochrane from Friday, November 14th, 6:30 p.m. (dinner), to Sunday, November 16th, 5:00 p.m. Services will be Anglican, and the Retreat talks will be conducted by the Franciscan fathers. Those interested please contact Rev. & Mrs. Robert Green, 249-0549.

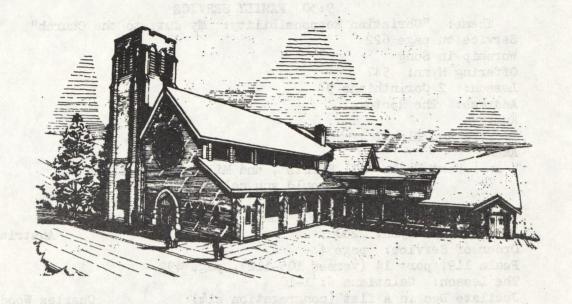

The internationally famed organist Virgil Fox will perform in Central United Church Wednesday of this week at 8:00 p.m. Tickets ($3.00 general public, $1.50 students) at University Theatre Box Office, Bay Ticket Wicket; or at Central United Wednesday evening.

Dedication of Van for Gleichen

Tomorrow morning at 9:30 the Bishop will dedicate a new motor vehicle for St. John's Parish on the Blackfoot Reserve, Gleichen. This little ceremony will take place here at Christ Church, and any who are able to attend are warmly invited.

VISITATION DAY: NEXT SUNDAY

Our annual complete visitation of the parish will take place next Sunday between the hours of 2 and 5 p.m. On behalf of the 110 or more visitors who will be carrying out this important assignment every parishioner is requested to courteously be at home during those hours. If you are unable to be at home kindly inform the church office, or if you can only be in at a specific period it is helpful that we know. The visitation is a very large undertaking and it is both wasteful and frustrating for the visitors to make calls where there is no response at the door. Coperation and kindness will go a long way to make this a very successful visitation next Sunday.

EVENTS OF THIS WEEK

- The Church School staff for the next semester will meet on Wednesday night at 8 p.m. in the Crump Room. Following the good reception experienced during the first semester the Christian Education classes on Sunday mornings will continue to operate under the semester plan. Parents and pupils are reminded that registration for the next semester will take place next Sunday; the second semester is from October 26th to December 14th inclusive.
- On Tuesday afternoon Dr. Crabb will address the Winchester Group at 2 p.m. in the Crump Room. His topic is "Great Women", and all ladies are invited.
- Next Sunday night there will be a full Choral Evensong at 7:30. We shall continue to retain Evensong as an opportunity for people to worship in this beautiful Service at various times throughout the year. The choir has prepared special music, and needless to say it is always a much more enjoyable Service if there is a sizeable congregation to enter into the worship. Following the Service a brief recital will be offered by one of our choristers, Loralee Monro, accompanied by Mr. Searchfield.
- Tomorrow night marks the commencement of the Adult Inquirers' Class which meets from 8 to 9:30 in the Crump Room. To clarify the nature of this group, we forecast it has a place where basic topics (scriptures, creeds, church history, sacraments) are explained, and also a discussion forum where people's questions can be raised and hopefully answered.
- Next weekend there will be a Marriage Preparation Seminar for those contemplating marriage or recently married. Registration forms and information available from the clergy and church office.

DR. NEEHALL SPEAKS TONIGHT. At 7:30 in Knox United Church Hall, 506 - 4 St. S.W. The Rt. Rev. R. G. Neehall will speak on "POVERTY and DISCRIMINATION". An opportunity to hear a capable speaker, distinguished church leader of the West Indies, and highly respected Senator from Trinidad.

FORTHCOMING EVENTS

- All women are notified that the Calgary Deanery of Anglican Church Women is holding its fall meeting at St. Gabriel's Church, 504 - 30 Ave. N.W. on Wednesday, October 29th. The day includes Communion (10:30), lunch (12 noon - $1.35), and business session at 1 p.m. under the heading "Recipes for Programs".

- Anglican married people will be accommodated at the beautiful Retreat House at Cochrane from Friday, November 14th, 6:30 p.m. (dinner), to Sunday, November 16th, 5:00 p.m. Services will be Anglican, and the Retreat talks will be conducted by the Franciscan fathers. The Retreat is for married people, preferably couples, although one spouse may be accepted - ample free time for walking, reading, thinking or sleeping. Those interested please contact Rev. & Mrs. Robert Greene, 249-0549.

- The Miles for Millions event occurs on November 2nd, and undoubtedly will receive widespread support in the city. Behind this successful venture there lies a considerable core of people involved in its organization. People who cannot march can serve very usefully at the check-points or as drivers. If you can so serve, please call The Rev. J. W. Way at 283-3035.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

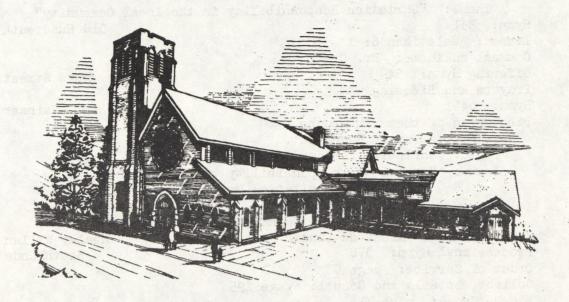

Our roster of prayer reminds us that the diocesesthat are found in the Union of South Africa are singled out for our prayerful remembrance this week. Needless to say there are many critical issues facing churchmen in this part of the world, and all the more reason our fervent prayers should be for them.

In this diocese we remember the Parish of St. Cyprian's in the north-west corner of Calgary, ministering to that part of the suburban sprawl. The Rector is Gordon C. Dickin.

PARISH PROGRAMS

- The Adult Inquirers' Group will get under way Monday, October 20th, 8 to 9:30 p.m. in the Crump Room. All interested in an examination of the Christian faith and Anglican practices are most cordially welcome.
- Tonight at 7 p.m. the A.Y.P.A. will have a Service of contemporary worship in the Crump Room. This will lead to a time of discussion; these discussions have been very lively and are commended to all teenagers.
- Next Friday night and Saturday morning the semi-annual Rummage Sale will be in progress in the lower regions. These remarkable occasions afford a very exciting market place for the exchange of used goods and at the same time provide the A.C.W. of this parish with a good part of their funds. The convenor, Mrs. G. A. Leslie (243-1296) would be most appreciative of all materials that can be supplied for the sale, as well as those who can assist behind the counters.
- On Thursday morning of this week at 9:30 the bi-monthly meeting of the Ladies' Study Group will take place in the Crump Room. This is a very provocative and stimulating group which is deemed highly profitable by those who attend. It is open to all women.
- We would again remind you of the Visitation of the Parish to be conducted in concentrated form on October 26th. The general chairman is Mr. R. M. Ridley (assisted by Mr. H. G. Officer, vice-chairman) who would be glad to hear from any who have not yet indicated their readiness to serve as visitors. Because of the difficulties in staging a successful parish dinner that provides encounter with a sizeable number of parishioners, there will be no congregational event prior to the visitation. It is therefore important both to the visitor and those being visited that explanation be available and offered in terms of the 1970 program. For this reason it is most important that parishioners be at home to receive their visitor October 26th between 2 and 5 p.m.
- The Rector will be in Saskatoon on Wednesday of this week to attend the Council meeting of the College of Emmanuel and St. Chad. In view of the provocative report presented at General Synod in August calling for radical changes in the field of theological education, the future role of our colleges is a current question of some importance. As a member of the College Council the Rector will take to these meetings the concern of all of us that the Canadian Church provide a training program that is adequate for the ministry of the Church, both pre- and post-ordination, and for the laity.
- "Soloists", with John Searchfield, Elizabeth Stileman and Loralee Monro, will be heard Tuesday this week 7:30 p.m. CBR (1010).

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

- We specially remind you of the continuing campaign for the United Fund which will reach many of us in this next while through the canvass of households.
- "Poverty and Discrimination" is the topic of a lecture to be given by The Rt. Rev. R. G. Neehall in Knox United Church on October 19th at 7:30 p.m. The speaker is the Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Trinidad, and also a Senator in their government. He is being presented by the Calgary Inter-Faith, and comes highly endorsed as a competent and articulate spokesman. Please save this date and plan to attend.
- The William Roper Hull Home is a treatment centre for children ages 7 to 16 who are either temporary or permanent wards. At the present time there are seventy-two youngsters cared for at this home, but obviously there cannot be on staff enough adults to give each child a parent figure. The home is seeking to find volunteers who will accept one youngster who can visit the home and be particularly related to a mother and father figure, which is highly important in the children's rehabilitation. This is a particularly interesting and rewarding opportunity. For further information contact Mrs. Schraeder at 252-2266 or 255-4872, or speak to the Rector.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

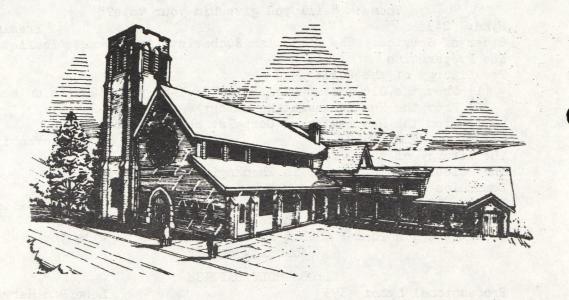

The six counties of Ireland and the Republic of Eire are singled out for our prayerful concern this week. We are painfully aware of the religious factions that have persisted in this part of the world. The recent flare-ups are not of course entirely religious, but have wide social and political connotations. Our prayers are for the churchmen in these countries; that they might have wisdom, patience and skill in learning to live side by side. The dioceses are: Armagh; Connor; Down & Dromore; Derry & Raphoe; Clogher; Meath; Kilmore, Elphin & Ardagh; Tuam, Killala & Achonry; Dublin, Glendalough & Kildare; Ossory, Ferns & Leighlin; Killaloe, Kilfenora, Clonfert & Kilmacduagh; Limerick, Ardfert & Aghadoe; Cork, Cloyne & Ross; Cashel & Emly, Waterford & Lismore.

On the east side of Calgary the twin parishes of St. Augustine, Ögden; and St. Luke, Forest Lawn are under the care of Canon Erle A. Justice. Our prayers are that the ministry of these parishes may be fruitful and particularly effective in the lives of their younger parishioners.

At the 8 o'clock Service today a new Communion Flagon is being dedicated in memory of Kathleen C. Lilly. It is the gift of her son and daughter; the latter has come from England for the Dedication.

The flowers on the Altar of the Church are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Jeanette Marie Whitney.

- Following the ll o'clock Service the Rector will meet with adults interested in forming an Inquirers' Group pick up a cup of coffee at the Coffee Hour and proceed upstairs to the St. John Room for a brief session to arrange times and frequency of meetings. The purpose of this course is to give explanation of the Christian faith as practised in the Anglican Church, as well as to provide a forum for answering questions.
- Dr. Crabb is in Edmonton today as guest preacher at Harvest Services at St. Timothy's Church. Archdeacon Swanson is in Vancouver for the celebration of the 80th anniversary of the establishment of Christ Church Cathedral and the 40th anniversary of the present structure.
- The A.Y.P.A. for all teenagers meets at 7 p.m. (every Sunday night) in the Crump Room. Last Sunday a new executive was elected consisting of Dick McCowan (Pres.), Steve Campbell (Vice-Pres.), Pamela Heard (Sec.) and Martin Buck (Treas.). This group has a very positive and lively program, and welcomes more teenagers.

COMING EVENTS

- The Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Trinidad, The Rt. Rev. R.G. Neehall, will speak in Knox United Church Hall on October 19th at 7:30 p.m. This public meeting is sponsored by the Calgary Inter-Faith Group, and Dr. Neehall will concern his remarks in the realm of underdeveloped nations and the Christian's concern with poverty. This distinguished speaker was appointed by the Prime Minister a senator in Trinidad and Tobago, and his sphere of influence is widely felt in the West Indies and through the World Council of Churches. We commend this meeting to you.
- Anglican married people will be accommodated at the beautiful Retreat House at Cochrane from Friday, November 14th, 6:30 p.m. (dinner), to Sunday, November 16th, 5:00 p.m. Services will be Anglican, and the Retreat talks will be conducted by the Franciscan fathers. The Retreat is for married people, preferably couples, although one spouse may be accepted ample free time for walking, reading, thinking or sleeping. Those interested please contact Rev. & Mrs. Robert Greene, 249-0549.
- The Pastoral Institute engages experienced workers who for years have helped parents and young people with concrete suggestions, preferred solutions and basic principles in family living. On Tuesdays 8 to 10 p.m. beginning October 7th a ten-week seminar on Family Living will be held at the Institute, the purpose of which is to help parents and leaders identify their goals and achieve these goals in relation to children. Further information and registration Pastoral Institute, 265-4980.

- Please save materials for the Guild's Rummage Sale on October 17th and 18th, and for further information or pick-up phone Mrs. G.A. Leslie at 243-1296.
- A 'brainstorm' session on "What is Christian Leadership?" will be held in the Canterbury Room, St. Stephen's Church (10th St. & 14th Ave. S.W.) on Tuesday of this week at 8 p.m. for all interested in the meaning and implication of Christian leadership within the conditions of the communities to which we belong. The Rev. Ken Genge of St. Michael and All Angels will introduce the subject and 'moderate' the discussion. The session will close at 10 p.m.

PARISH NOTES

- The Winchester Group meets Tuesday of this week at 2 p.m.
- Mrs. C.G. Crosland would be glad to hear from volunteers to help with the Coffee Hour certain Sundays. Please phone her at 244-4289.
- The Altar Guild reminds parishioners that there are opportunities to place flowers on the Chapel Altar. For information please phone Mrs. J.H. Mooney at 243-1636.

HARVEST FESTIVAL. The dominant theme in our midst today is the giving of thanks for all of life, and through our medium of worship particularly to offer to God our best expressions of gratitude. The finest expression that any one of us can make is the dedication of life to be a strong disciple of Jesus Christ wherein all of life is a thank-offering. The offerings that we make today, and all the symbols that we employ, serve to be expressive of what God does and continues to do through his boundless creation, and our attempts to respond when we make this specific day a festival of thanksgiving.

We are grateful for the Altar Guild and all who contributed to the decoration of the church. The harvest offering made through the special envelopes today will underwrite Christ Church's support of those who look to the Church for physical and spiritual provisions.

"UNITED FUND DAY". This afternoon starting at 1:30 at the Stampede Grandstand, this year's United Appeal campaign is inaugurated with a free three-hour show that offers a most exciting program. All Calgarians are invited to this performance and are reminded that this week we have the opportunity to heartily endorse the programs that United Appeal makes possible throughout this city. We congratulate the United Appeal officials and workers (many of whom come from this parish) for their zeal and concern demonstrated through the United Appeal campaign.

LAY RETREAT. Through the kindness of the Retreat Centre at Cochrane a Retreat for married persons is offered to Anglicans for November 14th - 16th weekend. The captains for this Retreat are The Rev. & Mrs. R.S.H. Greene (249-0549) from whom information and registration can be obtained. We commend the Retreat experience as one of the finest ways to be refreshed in the midst of a busy life.

THE FLOWERS on the Chapel Altar are given by the Mardi Group to the glory of God and in loving memory of Betty Crump.

"EDUCATION FOR FAMILY LIVING" is the title of a seminar being offered by the Pastoral Institute of Calgary to help parents and leaders achieve and identify their goals in relation to children. This is a ten-week program each Tuesday night beginning October 7th, 8 to 10 p.m. For information or registration call 265-4980.

ADULT INQUIRERS' CLASSES. Every fall there are those adults who for a variety of reasons wish to have some opportunity to learn about the Anglican Church and the expression of the Christian faith found therein. Interested persons are asked to meet with the Rector after the 11 o'clock Service next Sunday.

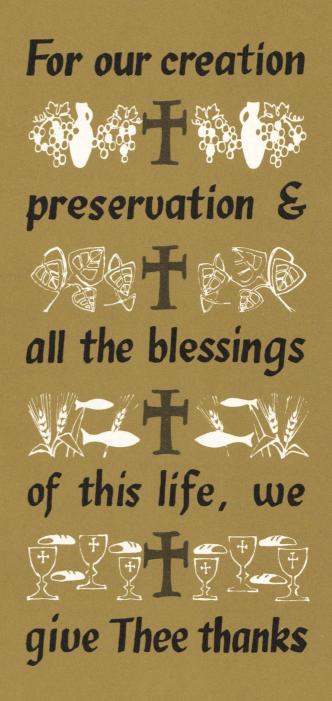

THE OCTOBER-DECEMBER ISSUES OF THE BIBLE READING FELLOWSHIP booklets are now available at the Literature Desk in the Narthex at 15¢ each. In the adult series (A & B notes) the theme for October is "The People of God", a study of Romans 9-16. In the "Discovery" notes, for young people, the October theme is "The Rebel".

CYCLE OF PRAYER. Parts of Australia and the Islands of the South-East Pacific are gathered togather in a group for our prayerful remembrances this week. The islands which look to Australia for support also look to the rest of us Anglicans for our prayers. — Brisbane: Philip Strong; Rockhampton: Donald Shearman; North Queensland: Ian Shevill; New Guinea: David Hand; Kuching (vacant): Sabah: Roland Koh; Kalimantan.

Within the city another neighbouring parish, St.Mark's, is singled out for our prayerful remembrances at this time. The Rector is The Rev. Peter A. Niblock.

NOTES:

The next Administration of Public Baptism will be on October 12th (Thanksgiving weekend). Parents who have infants to be baptized are asked to speak to the Rector soon.  Archdeacon Swanson is a guest preacher today at St. Andrew's.  Please remember the need for rummage for the October 17th and 18th sale; call Mrs. G.A. Leslie (243-1296) for further information and pick-up.  On Thursday of this week, October 2nd, the Women's Study Group meets in the Crump Room at 9:30 a.m.; and in the afternoon at 2:30 p.m. a social time for senior parishioners and friends will take place.  Full particulars are given on the bulletin board of French classes to be held twice a week after school hours in different areas of the city for children roughly aged 6 to 12 years.

HARVEST FESTIVAL. Next Sunday we will observe the autumnal Festival of Harvest Thanksgiving at all Services. As well as the traditional decoration of the Church with the harvest produce, there will be the themes of thanksgiving and recognition to Almighty God for all that we receive in this life, and our responsibilities that go with all our blessings. Every parishioner will receive in the mail this week a special offering envelope wherein each one can make his own particular form of thank-offering to express gratitude to Almighty God.

UNITED APPEAL SUNDAY. From this leaflet cover we can all take note of the fact that next Sunday begins the city-wide appeal in support of all the United Fund agencies. The Churches of Calgary lend their support and concern that the agencies which render so many forms of service and assistance to the people of this city should receive strong support and hearty financial endorsation.

BIBLES. Through the courtesy of the Canadian Bible Society we have a quantity of Today's English Version, "Good News for Modern Man", at 30¢ each. This paper-back version of the New Testament has been highly popular, and is being offered to us at this extremely low price for the first time. This edition will be required for this year's Confirmation classes and is recommended for every family to own.

CONFIRMATION. Twenty-eight adolescents have registered so far for Confirmation instruction, and if there are any others who wish to get in on the courses this fall they should speak to either the Rector of Dr. Crabb personally this week. After this week there will be no further registrations taken. The pattern of instruction this year will be to hold small tutorial classes at various times during the week.

WE NOTE THAT:

- The Coffee Hour is held every Sunday after the 11 o'clock Service, and has been well attended by both newcomers and other parishioners. There are always refreshments for the young fry, and we are delighted to have this chance to meet people after Service. One wag has nicknamed the Coffee Hour "the thirst after righteousness".
- A former parishioner when he was sales manager of a local radio station is now Acting Supervisor of Radio and TV for the Anglican Church of Canada. He is Alan Bestall who has been an active layman in various parts of the country in the communications field and as a lay reader.
- Mr. James A. Hampshire who has been Secretary-Treasurer of this Diocese, has tendered his resignation effective the end of this year.
 - The 'lost' coffee urn has been recovered.
- $\boldsymbol{\mathsf{-}}$ The pamphlet racks in the Narthex and the Crump Room feature items dealing with the world of education and student life.

RUMMAGE SALE. Please save suitable materials for the Guild's Fall Rummage Sale to be held October 17th and 18th. For pick-up or further information please phone Mrs. G.A. Leslie (243-1296).

"WHAT IS CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP?". A 'brainstorm' session will be held in the Canterbury Room, St. Stephen's Church (10th St. & 14th Ave. S.W.) on Tuesday, October 7th at 8 p.m. for all interested in the meaning and implication of Christian leadership within the conditions of the communities to which we belong. The Rev. Ken Genge of St. Michael and All Angels will introduce the subject and 'moderate' the discussion. The session will close at 10 p.m.

CYCLE OF PRAYER.

The Province of Victoria in the Dominion of Australia is the area recalled in our prayers for this week. As we pray for our brethren 'down under' we can reflect on the growing indigenous nature of the Church and the great possibilities that exist as that country develops and expands.

Melbourne: Frank Woods
Ballarat: William Hardie
St. Arnaud: Allen Winter
Bendigo: Ronald Richards

Wangaratta: Bruce McCall Gippsland: David Garnsey Tasmania: Robert Davies

Very close to home we shall uphold our neighbour Parish of St. Philip the Evangelist which many will recall was an outgrowth of our own parish back in the 1950s and for whom we have a special concern and interest. We pray for the Rector, John R. Flagler, and all the people of that parish.

BROWNIES.

There continues to exist a need for leaders to assist in Brownies on Mondays at 4:15. This appeal has come in urgent manner from Mrs. Adamson (243-6237) to whom all replies and inquiries should be made.

The Rector is preaching at the Cathedral at 11 o'clock today. Mr. James Askew is kindly assisting at the Parish communion here.

UNITED APPEAL SUNDAY

SEPTEMBER 28TH, 1969

This year's official campaign kick-off is a free 3 hour extravaganza, featuring marching bands, folk singers, youth groups, radio and TV personalities, many other events. You are invited to the United Appeal show, Sunday September 28th, starting 1:30 p.m. at the Stampede Grandstand.

BIBLES. Through the courtesy of the Canadian Bible Society we have a quantity of today's English version, "Good News for Modern Man", copies of the New Testament, available in the Christian Education Office at 30¢ each. This paper-back version of the New Testament has been highly popular, and is being offered to us at this extremely low price for the first time. This edition will be required for this year's Confirmation classes and is recommended for every family to own.

STUDENT HOUSING. With the return of an increased enrolment at the University of Calgary, heavy demands have been placed upon the Off-Campus Housing Office by students seeking accommodation. Suites, rooms, rooms with board, light-housekeeping units, or any form of housing is greatly sought. If you or anyone whom you know has any accommodation to offer please contact the Housing Office at the University by phoning 284-5309. This same office will provide further information and answer any questions.

NEW RADIO PROGRAM. Of particular interest to the 11 o'clock congregation is a new radio program series carried by CFAC Sunday mornings at 9.15 a.m., called "The Stork and the Plow". This program is geared to the Church's concern centred around the questions of world population and food production. The program comes highly commended to us, and as always with the public media we are grateful to have comments and reactions that can be related to the producers.

CONFIRMATION. On Wednesday of this week at 4:30 adolescents who are interested in being prepared for Confirmation are invited to assemble in the Crump Room. The Rector and Dr. Crabb will outline the kinds of courses that they have in mind, and establish with those registering the times of instruction. It appears at this point that there will be more than one kind of course offered and that not all of the class will come on the same day of the week. The registration period will be for one hour on Wednesday afternoon.

A.Y.P.A. At the first meeting last Sunday night the teenage group decided to meet each Sunday night at 7 o'clock, and also to include various worship forms in their Sunday night programs.: these to occur every second week. For tonight's gathering all teenagers are invited to come and hear of some of the interesting programs arranged for this term.

CYCLE OF PRAYER The focus for our prayers this week is the Caribbean and Atlantic Dioceses where the Church in many cases has been established for a very long time, while in others it is still young and growing under difficulties. This particular Province of the Anglican Communion includes:

Puerto Rico: Francisco Reus-Froylan Dominican Republic: Paul Kellogg CYCLE OF PRAYER - Cont'd ...

Haiti: Alfred Voegeli Jamaica: Cyril Swaby Cuba: Jose Gonzalez

Nassau and the Bahamas: Bernard Markham

Bermuda (vacant)

In the Diocese of Calgary we remember the Parish of St. Peter ministering to the great suburban sprawl to the south of us. Their Parish is under the care of The Rev. W.I.D. Smith, Miss Isobel Forbes, and their recent addition, The Rev. Terry Dunn.

MEALS ON WHEELS. Did you know that Christ Church supplies a car, a driver, and a courier every day for Meals on Wheels? We need more volunteers. You needn't drive to assist us - you can be a courier. If you have two hours at noon one day a week for a month to give to this interesting and rewarding work, we would like to hear from you. Please call Mrs. Erdman (243-5279), Mrs. Taylor (244-1050), or Mrs. Cutler (243-3056).

THE GUILD BRANCH of the A.C.W. will meet tomorrow, September 15th, at 8:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. G.A. Leslie, 4120 Crestview Road.

THE CHOIRMASTER would welcome recruits for both adult and boys' choirs. If you would like to join either of the choirs please phone Mr. John Searchfield at 284-2368, or the Church Office.

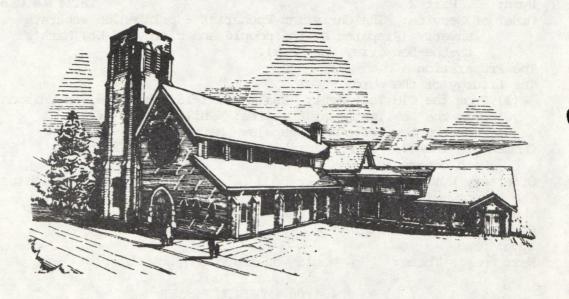

PLAYERS are needed for the Bridge Marathon, in either the mixed evening group or the ladies' afternoon group. If you are interested please phone Mrs. F.J. Ratcliff, 243-3776, or Mrs. G.A. Leslie, 243-1296.

LOST! LOST! Some time during the summer one of our large coffee urns was "borrowed" - possibly by a parishioner. If anyone can help us in locating this important piece of kitchen equipment we would be most grateful.

TODAY

Welcome to everyone on this first Sunday of a new season. For our continuing parishioners we hope the past two months brought some opportunity for vacation or at least some restorative time in the sun and beauty of summer. To those who are joining us as new parishioners we extend warmest greeting to our parish family and hope you will quickly be at home here.

Coffee Hour is one of our customs that brings people together in happy context following the 11 o'clock Service every Sunday. There's also refreshments for the youngsters. Please come along to the Crump Room so you can meet and greet each other.

Choirmaster: Today we welcome to our parish staff our new organist and choirmaster, Mr. John W. Searchfield. We are delighted to have him in our midst, and look forward to his talents benefitting our Services though his skill at the organ console and in directing the choirs. He is a Professor in the Music Faculty at the University of Calgary, the Director of Festival Chorus, and has many facets in his musical abilities. It is our joy to have him with us, and we hope you shall all soon know him.

 $\underline{\text{A.Y.P.A.}}$ Tonight at $\underline{7:00}$ in the Crump Room the teenagers meet for their first session. This will include the selection of fall and winter projects, some plans for special youth Services and other items of special interest. All teenagers are most welcome.

Church School: To clarify the arrangements for Church School classes of all school-age children, please note that:

- (1) Commencing today we begin the first semester of this year's teaching program. (2) Those children who are certain to attend the next 6 weeks (Sept. 7 to Oct. 12 inclusive) should proceed to the regular classes for registration. (3) All those who are not able to attend regularly should proceed to the "general class" in the Crump Room. (4) The location of classes is as follows:
 - Ages 3 & 4 (Nursery) in Kemp Room downstairs
 - " 5 (Kindergarten) in office wing opposite Christian Education Office.
 - Grades 1,2,3 & 4 classrooms are downstairs in lower hall area.
 - Grades 5,6 & 7 (pre-Confirmation) upstairs in office wing.

All classrooms are clearly marked.

Your teaching staff for the first semester are named here:

At 9:30 - Nursery & Kindergarten - Miss Roslyn Gardner

Grades 1 & 2 - Mrs. Lois Heard

" 3 & 4 - Mrs. Mary Ellen Johnson

Christian Education Office secretary - Miss Kathy Stanford.

At 11:00 - Nursery - Mrs. Rosemary Burris

Kindergarten - Mrs. Mary Lavender

Grade 1 - Mrs. Margery Crabb

2 - Mrs. Hope Burnley, Miss Irene Birch

3 - Mrs. Dana Sumner

" 4 - Miss Geralee Traunweiser

5 - Mrs. Pat Wylie

" 6 - Dr. & Mrs. Howard Gretton

" 7 - Mr. Cec. Howell, Mrs. Connie Hill

Supervisor: Mr. Sandy Heard

Christian Education Office secretary - Miss Margaret Wilson.

THIS WEEK AND UP-COMING

Confirmation: Registration for adolescent classes in preparation for Confirmation will be held after school on Wednesday of next week, Sept. 17th at 4:30 in the Crump Room. At the time of registration we shall make arrangements for the instruction periods and outline the season's program.

Choirs: The three choirs are now back to regular rehearsals. Girls will rehearse on Wednesdays at 6:30 beginning Sept. 17th, the boys practise on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 6:45, and the adults on Thursdays at 8 p.m.

Each of these singing groups would welcome new members, especially men for the adult choir; for further information contact the Church office. Mid-Week Services: Throughout the year there is a Service of Holy Communion at 10:30 each Wednesday in the Chapel offering a meditative time for quiet worship. On Tuesdays at 9:00 the parish staff meets in the Chapel for Communion to offer their labours to God in the service of His people in this parish. The staff welcomes others to share in this Service too. These Tuesday Services will commence next week, September 16th, since the clergy will be at a Deanery meeting all day Tuesday of this week.

Brownies & Guides commence meetings as shown below:

Brownies - Thursday 4:15, Sept. 11th & Tuesday 4:15, Sept. 23rd. Guides - Wednesday 7:00, September 17th.

Cycle of Prayer: Seven dioceses of our Canadian Church will be remembered in prayer this week throughout the whole world-wide Anglican Church: Rupert's Land (Archbishop Howard Clark and Bishop Barry Valentine), Keewatin (Bishop Hugh Stiff), Moosonee (Bishop James Watton), Algoma (Archbishop William Wright), Huron (Bishop George Luxton), Niagara (Bishop Walter Bagnall), Toronto (Bishop George Snell).

In the Diocese of Calgary we pray for the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer, and for Dean Carter; his Assistant, The Rev. Geoffrey Heald, and the officers and members of the Cathedral Parish.

WELCOME to all our summer visitors, and to those who have come to stay with us. Will the visitors please sign the Visitors' Book in the Narthex, and help yourselves to any literature that interests you on the rear table. Will newcomers make themselves known to the clergy by filling out the form at the end of this leaflet and handing it in.

As always happens, particularly in the summer months, we have many parishioners leaving the city. We wish you all Godspeed. Please keep in touch.

August 31st - contd..

In the Diocese of Calgary we pray for the Parish of St. Barnabas, Calgary, for The Reverends William Way and Douglas Skoyles, and for the officers and people of that Parish.

GENERAL SYNOD. This bi-annual national assembly of our Anglican Church of Canada meets this month in Sudbury, Ontario. As the senior legislative body of our Church, General Synod will have many important and urgent questions to discuss and decide. Church Union, social action, international aid, and the Church's ministry to youth and to our native peoples will be high in the list of these questions.

CHURCH SCHOOLS. A reminder that Church School will begin again next month. Details of the new approach to our Christian Education Programme for the children for this coming winter have been circulated to all parishioners. Will new parishioners, and those still unsure about this programme, please enquire from the church office (243-0103). And if earlier you had good intentions of offering your service to the Church Schools this winter, but somehow did not get as far as leaving your name at the office, what about doing just that soon - like now?

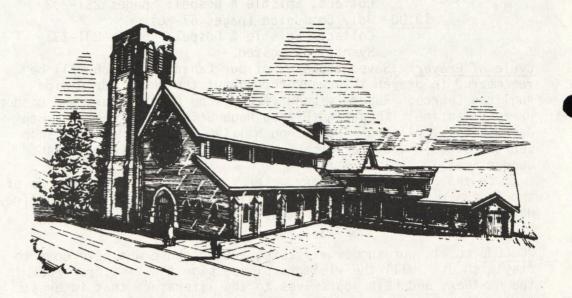

SCOUTING AND GUIDING. Christ Church sponsors Scouts, Cubs, Guides and Brownies. Leaders and instructors in many categories are urgently needed to ensure full and competent programmes in these activities for our children and young people this fall. Can you help? Will you help? Do you know how you can help? Phone the church office.

STUDENT HOUSING. The Off-Campus Housing Office at the University of Calgary needs your help in listing possible accommodation for students this coming winter (houses, suites, rooms, rooms with board or kitchen privileges, light-housekeeping units, duplexes, apartments, townhouses). If you know of any such accommodation available please contact Off-Campus Housing Office, Dining Centre Ol6 U. of C. or phone 284-5309. All listings are accepted free of charge, and placed on a current list available to students.

Cycle of Prayer: The Dioceses of East Anglia, England. Lincoln, Peterborough, Ely, St. Edmundsbury & Ipswich, Norwich, Worcester and Hereford. Norwich is where our ten priests recently spent their mini-sabbatical; hopefully our links with this diocese will increase as they plan to send some of their men here in reciprocal visits.

In the Diocese of Calgary we pray for the Blood Mission comprising St. Paul's School at Cardston, the parish of St. Paul's in the town, and St. Thomas, Standoff. The Incumbent is Allan K. McCuaig.

The flowers on the Altar of the Church today are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Nellie Ireland, and the flowers on the Chapel Altar are in loving memory of Mary Elizabeth Papworth.

WELCOME to all our summertime visitors and guests. We are delighted to have you worship with us and visit Christ Church. Please sign the Visitors' Book in the Narthex and help yourself to any literature on the rear table. For those who are in Calgary for the great Stampede events we hope you thoroughly enjoy this experience and will have happy memories of our city.

Cycle of Prayer: The Dioceses of the industrial north of England: Bradford, Ripon, Wakefield, Sheffield, Manchester, Liverpool and Blackburn.

Closer to home, our prayers are asked for St. John's Parish on the Blackfoot Reserve, Gleichen. Since this is our Partner-Parish within the Diocese, we especially uphold our brethren of St. John's in prayer as we seek to grow together in Christian concern and service for each other. Their Priest is John F.L. Prince.

The flowers on the Altar of the Church today are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Carlton Kayler and Frederick King Kayler.

Lessons: Judges 16: 4 - end; Mark 9: 30 - end Hymns as posted.

Cycle of Prayer: Africa is still the focus of our prayers this week, with emphasis on the Dioceses of East Africa: Dar es Salaam, Zanzibar & Tanga, Morogoro, Central Tanganyika, Victoria Nyanza, Western Tanganyika, South West Tanganyika and Masasi.

Set in the midst of a productive cattle and grain area, the towns of Brooks and Bassano are typical Alberta communities. We pray for them and for our Anglican congregations there: St. Alban, Brooks and St.Mary, Bassano; the Rector is Randall Stringer.

 $\overline{\text{TO THOSE LEAVING}}$. It seems that during the summer months many families take their leave of us to be settled in other communities and cities. We wish you all happiness in your new homes, and would love to hear from you once you are settled.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS to those who are able to take their vacations at this time. We hope you are well blessed in your holiday pursuits, and can return to work truly refreshed and recreated. Remember, no matter where you go there is a church waiting to welcome you to its worship!

REMINDER. If you are to be away for several Sundays it is most helpful to our Treasurer to have the offerings kept current. The parish expenditures are constant even when people are not here, so we solicit your co-operation in maintaining the income over the summer months. Thank you for your co-operation in this concern.

GENERAL SYNOD. Next month the national assembly of our Church will meet in General Synod at Sudbury, Ontario. This body now meets ever second year to provide a forum where questions of common concern can be heard and acted upon by the whole Anglican Church of Canada. This year we can expect to hear about native peoples, church union, social action (housing, welfare), international aid and development, and the youth-centred questions.

PRAYERS FOR FAMILY USE.

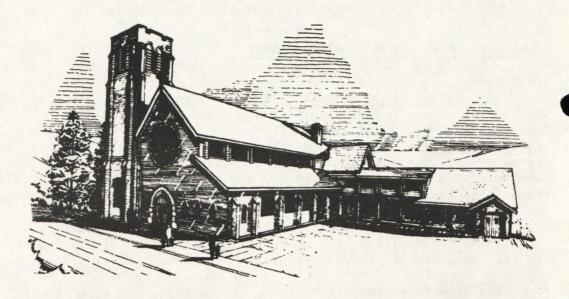

(Road Safety). Give us and all who use the roads, O Lord, the spirit of courtesy and goodwill, of carefulness and self-control; that by our thought for others all may be preserved from needless danger and sudden death, and may live to glorify Thee in their going out and their coming in.

(Holidaymakers). O heavenly Father, who through Thy holy days first gave us holidays, we thank Thee for all the joy and pleasure of our lives; bless those who are on holiday, that in their happiness they may make others happy, and return refreshed to serve Thee better.

The congregation are warmly invited to the Coffee Hour after the Service this morning when we shall have opportunity to recognize the services of our retiring organist. Although Mr. Fullerton will be playing until the end of July, today is the last full Choral Service, and we would like to honour him before too many have gone on vacation.

Today is a sort of triple feast. Here's why. First, it is the day set aside in the church's calendar for the remembrance of two New Testament giants, Peter and Paul. Why these two saints have to share a date can be explained only in remembering that for many western Christians January 25th is the major remembrance for Paul as that date recalls his conversion to the Christian Faith. Peter has no other date on which to be exclusively remembered. So we have double reason today to give thanks to God for the invaluable contribution to the New Testament and the whole Christian tradition that poured out of the dynamic lives of these two men. While one was a Galilean fisherman and the other a Jewish-Roman student, yet they both found their lives fulfilled in obedience to Christ, and helped turn the world upside down in that obedience which ended in their martyrdom at Rome.

Second, today is the day closest to our national anniversary as Canada celebrates her 102nd year on July first. We can summarize our feelings best perhaps in the prayers we shall offer in thanksgiving for all that this land provides.

- in hopes that her people may render to God and man ever greater

- in recognition of her privileged and responsible place in the family of nations, and service as our conditions both demand and provide. Third, we are still in the Octave of the Feast of St. John the Baptist. which gives another double meaning to this period. John the Baptist has a most remarkable place in the whole drama of Jesus' life, and we should never discount the part he played in being the forerunner of the world's Messiah - a role which also lead to death because of his obedience. But, we in Canada have taken this man of God as a national saint, and this is a curious event. The celebration of his day in the Province of Quebec has proven to be a sore point in our internal relations, and there is a strange parallel in the unwelcomeness of this observance and the unwelcomeness of John the Baptist's preaching. We can only pray that whether through reflection of this man's life or pondering of our national destiny, we can all learn to put silly prejudice and malice to one side and seek to be God's people, executing His will here in Canada and beyond. As the screaming headlines of the June Canadian Churchman reminded us, we must do the Father's will - not

THIS WEEK.

- The Rector commences vacation this week. The family will holiday in the Okanagan and then the Rector will attend graduate school at U.B.C., Vancouver for three weeks.

mouth it. Therefore, "Damn your charity - give us justice!"

- Dr. Crabb returns from England this week and will be in charge of the parish during the Rector's absence.
- You are reminded that copies of the July September issue of the Bible Reading Fellowship booklet are at the Literature Desk, and monthly themes are: July A Church which would "turn the world upside down", August The Claims of Jesus, and September, A Study in the lives of Samuel and Saul.
- Members of the Girls' Choir who have left sleeping bags or articles of clothing in the choir room following their weekend outing are asked to pick them up soon.

CYCLE OF PRAYER.

1. The theme for our prayers this week is entitled THE HUMAN FAMILY. Under this comprehensive term we shall endeavour to prayerfully remember these agencies who work for the betterment of the total world society.

United Nations Organization and all its branches and affiliated agencies.

World Council of Churches and all its service affiliates (World Church Relief, etc.)

Anglican Executive Officers Agencies of Human Solidarity

- working in affluence and poverty.
- working in racial matters.
- working for justice and peace.
- working in areas of science and moral choice.
- 11. Our own Dominion is to be prayed for as we keep the national holiday and remember our heritage.
 - For the Prime Minister, Cabinet and Parliament.
 - For the Queen, Governor-General, and all those representing Her Majesty.
 - For all bearing legislative authority.
 - For all the arts, professions and occupations wherein our national life is enhanced and Canada is enriched for the benefit of all peoples.
 - For a sense of thanksgiving and high privilege to rest in the hearts of all her people.
- 111. Our diocesan rota of prayer bids us remember the following categories of people who serve God through particular ways:
 - the retired clergy of the diocese.
 - the lay-readers of the diocese.
 - the Synod Office staff and all Synod appointees.

PRAYERS FOR FAMILY USE.

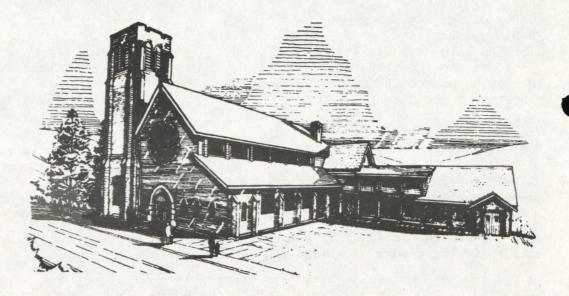

(Road safety). Give us and all who use the roads, O Lord, the spirit of courtesy and goodwill, of carefulness and self-control; that by our thought for others all may be preserved from needless danger and sudden death, and may live to glorify Thee in their going out and their coming in.

The choirs of Christ Church are presenting a recital tomorrow evening featuring David Tatchell, bass, and Terence Fullerton, pianist. It will be held in the Crump Room at 8 p.m. with proceeds going towards the Primate's World Relief Fund. Programs are available from choir members or at the door at a cost of one dollar for adults and fifty cents for children.

Today many parishioners are going by bus and car to spend the day with our partner-parish of St. John's, Gleichen, on the Blackfoot Reserve. There they will have an entirely shared program of worship, luncheon, games and events of the picnic. It is hoped that by this large-scale intermingling of persons from each parish greater awareness, understanding and concern will grow.

We are grateful to the Archdeacon for conducting Service here so that those unable to be at Gleichen may still have the opportunity to worship here. At the same time it enables the Rector to assist The Rev. John Prince at the outdoor Service today on the Reserve.

Cycle of Prayer. Our Anglican brethren 'down under' are remembered this week as our prayer focus shifts to some of the Australian dioceses. For the next seven days the people, clergy and bishops of these areas are upheld by prayers throughout the world-wide fellowship of Anglican churches.

The Cry for Mercy

ORE PERSISTENT than the cry for help, more elemental than the cry for fellowship, more central than any other cry—is the cry for mercy.

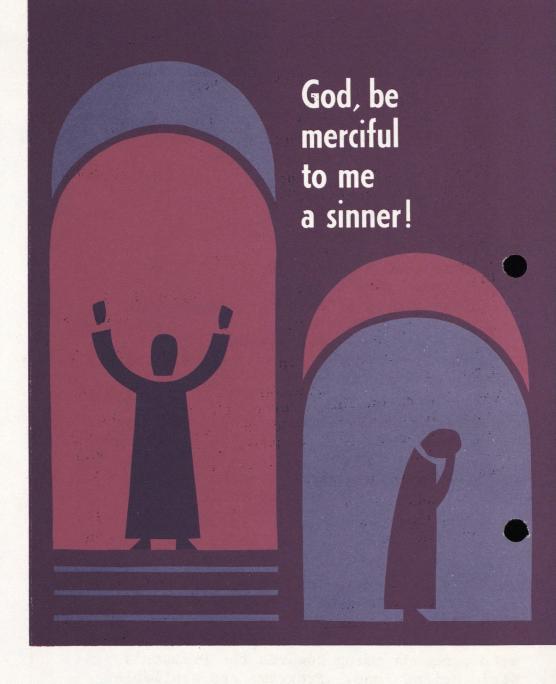

We are sinners; we need forgiveness. We may feel lonely, defeated, helpless. These are but symptoms of a deeper need. We need first and foremost to be restored to God. And this can come about only by being swallowed up by the God of mercy.

Most of us cry for mercy only when we face danger or are threatened with punishment. A boy cheats in examinations, is caught and faces an F in the course. He pleads for mercy, not because he is sorry that he cheated. He is sorry only that he was caught. A man does shabby work and loses his job. He wants mercy. He is not sorry that he did shoddy work; he is sorry to lose his job.

The cry to God for mercy is of a different kind. Man faces the God of the cross, not the God of a club. He sees himself a sinner, whose sin has broken the heart of his Lord. He is sorry that he has hurt God, the God who loves him with an everlasting love. He cries for forgiveness, not in order to escape the punishment of God, but out of his pain in having hurt the heart of God.

It is most fitting that in every hour of worship we approach God with a cry for mercy. We are sinners. And He is our loving Father. We hurt Him in word and deed and thought. Our hearts long to be reconciled to Him. We cannot stand to have our sins stand between us and Him. They must be removed. And there is no other way than through His endless mercy in Christ, our Lord.

How wonderful it is that God is a God of mercy. He is a God of power, of order, of justice. But He is more than that—He is the God of forgiveness, of compassion, of mercy.

THE CANADIAN CHURCHMAN AND THE SOWER

Lest we take our Church monthly periodicals too much for granted we make these three comments to draw attention to these two publications that arrived last week at your home.

The June issue of the "Canadian Churchman" features another extensive report from one of the Commissions that are engaged in the church Union negotiations. The extensive report indicates that there is a concerted effort to make information available to everyone about what is happening in this whole question of Anglican-United union conversations. This is by no means the first such report that the Canadian Churchman has included, and we point it out to indicate that there is an attempt made to get the information out to the whole church constituency. Also in this issue we draw attention to the editorial letter from the Primate which is very direct and informative as to what stage we are at on this topic. The Primate has been accused of speaking out of turn on this question, and his rebuttal in this editorial is worth careful reading.

The Canadian Church has more than once commissioned an outside person to write a report on the controversial topic. The report in this month's Canadian Churchman on the efforts of Charles Hendry wherein he examines the church's ministry to native peoples has certainly caused a big stir. His report is found in the new book "Beyond Traplines" that has just come off the press and has been reported in a lively way.

Our national paper enjoys a good reputation among other denominations and on other continents. It strives to present a lively picture of contemporary church life and the affairs of the world in a responsible way. The feature story this month on poverty is a good illustration of this kind of reporting. It is not conducive to complacency but demanding of some response to the challenge it poses.

Our diocesan paper, "The Sower", strives in its own way to reiterate the policy of the national paper. The affairs of the diocese are sometimes remote and inconsequential to readers who have only a very "parochial" interest. But the style of Christian life today demands awareness of the entire realm of our witness, and this can come through regular reading of the Sower. The present issue, which includes an account of some Christ Church affairs, indicates that there is need for a parish reporter. Someone who has a flair, fluency and facility with words would be an asset to the Sower in receiving reports from this parish as well as providing a good link between the parish and the diocese.

ORGANIST-CHOIRMASTER

At the recent meeting of Vestry appointment was made of Mr. John Searchfield to be organist and choirmaster for this parish commencing September 1st. We are indeed pleased to make this announcement and secure the services of this excellent musician to provide the musical direction for the parish. He comes to us well known and highly regarded both for his musical competence and as a person. We feel the choirs will be well directed under his tutelage, and the parish well served in our musical needs. We look forward to Mr. Searchfield joining our staff in the fall.

THE CYCLE OF PRAYER

One of the oldest missions that was established by the churches of the British Isles is that found in the West Indies. This week the Caribbean Area is the focus of our prayers, and this becomes more and more personal as the tourism from Canada to these islands increases. Also attached to this area is the new Diocese of Venezuela where Bishop Guy Marshall, with his Canadian team recently were established.

PARISH PICNIC

Full details of the Picnic and our arrangements for next Sunday were outlined in the latest Clapper, and we hope everybody is geared for an exciting day next Sunday.

If there are any further details or information required please call the bus captains or the church office at any time. (Copies of the Clapper are found at the church doors.)

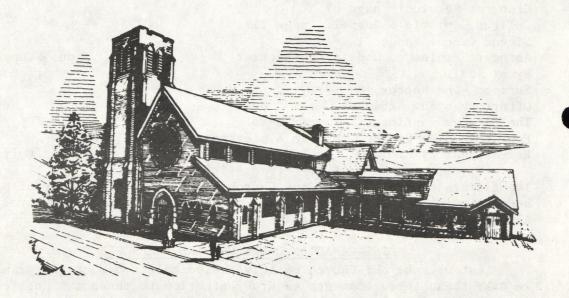

NOTICES AND MEETINGS

- Monday to Thursday evening of this week at 8 p.m. at the Health Education Centre, 509 18 Ave. S.W., a series of films and addresses on "Alcoholism a treatable illness" is presented. These lectures are free, and sponsored by the Department of Public Health.
- We repeat the appeal made in the Clapper for Foster Homes where semi-discharged patients (youth and adults) from the Ponoka Hospital may be accommodated. The patients are carefully screened and under the supervision of Foothills Hospital Outpatients' Department. Further information from Miss T. Connolly, 283-0751, Loc.327.
- The Canadian Save the Children special invites you to a reception at the home of Dr. & Mrs. A.W.R. Carrothers, 1356 Montreal Ave. S.W. on Thursday, June 19th, 5 to 7 p.m. Admission $1.00. Proceeds for polio vaccine for children of Thailand. The Dental Society jazz band will provide music. For tickets contact Mr.Howard Tidswell or Dr. John Crosland.
- Camp Kananaskis. Camp opening is less than a month away, and this brings two concerns to our attention. First we would urge campers to make no delay in obtaining their registration forms and sending them in promptly. Second, that there is an appeal made for financial assistance to help offset costs of major items of construction or maintenance of the Camp. The yearly operating costs are met out of campers' fees. But for new and increased facilities donations are sought to upgrade the Camp and maintain the good operation that has been sustained there over the years. Donations marked Camp Kananaskis can be made at any time and will be forwarded to the Camp management.
- A number of Sundays are available for memorial flowers on the Chapel Altar. If you would like to use one of these Sundays please phone Mrs. W.B. Longshore, 252-4860.

Family Affair - Whopping Success! Profound thanks and congratulations must be extended to all who arranged, organized, worked and served to bring the event of last Saturday to such a fine triumph. The multitudes who attended enjoyed every bit of it, and the day must be judged a success on every score. To Mrs. R.M. Ridley and her committee goes our appreciation for capably handling all the arrangements. It was our pleasure to have Bishop and Mrs. Crump to share the weekend with us, and they appreciated the opportunity to visit with many. All in all it was a highlight in our parish life - and in a monetary sense very rewarding too!

Camp Kananaskis forms are available from the Church Office at any time and parents and students are advised to obtain them and submit them in good time. Also, leader application forms are on hand.

The Epilepsy League of Calgary asks you to collect up old paper backs, hard cover books and comics which they can sell through retail store outlets over the next four months. Contributions to this book collection are to be made through Mr. Norm Birch at 243-1277.

PARISH PICNIC - June 22nd

Two weeks today we shall all be boarding buses here at 9:45 a.m. en route to our second annual Joint Parish Picnic at Gleichen. We are the guests this year of the people of St. John's Parish on the Blackfoot Reserve. They have made fine preparations for an exciting day and are looking forward to our presence there in numbers.

The plan is to leave from here on Sunday morning and arrive in time for a joint outdoor Service. Lunch will be served by their ladies; and in the afternoon the races, ball games, and tug of war will be featured. The buses will leave there approximately 3:30 to return people to our church premises.

There are five sets of bus captains from whom you can obtain bus tickets. There's keen competition for the tickets, and the charge is minimal - $1.00 return for adults, 50¢ for children, and pre-schoolers go free. Tickets are available from the Captains:

Mr. & Mrs. John Meeker
Mr. & Mrs. Roy Baker
Mr. & Mrs. Merv Devonshire
Mr. & Mrs. Norm Birch
Mr. & Mrs. David Stauft
Mr. & Mrs. John Knebles

Guide Leaders. The latest word from our Guide Company is that current prospects for this fall are very good for enrollment, but not so for leaders. The Company had 42-45 girls active during the past term, and this could easily be 52 by September. There were 5 leaders on staff, but 3 are leaving or moving so this creates a serious need to find 3 at least or preferably 4 more leaders to start off the fall. If there are any leads, possibilities or volunteers, please call Mrs. P. Rothwell, the Captain, at 243-5765.

Cycle of Prayer.

One area of the world where we are less likely to think of our Anglican brethren living is in continental Europe and Asia. But in today's mobile world there are Anglican congregations in every major city; and in some cases, notably Europe, these churches have existed with some vitality for several decades. These are the places for which we pray; and not only remembering our Anglican brethren, but praying for the entire nation wherein they live.

Europe and Asia: Germany, West and East
Central Europe - Poland, Czechoslovakia, Austria and Hungary
Balkan States - Rumania, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, Albania, Greece
USSR in Europe
USSR in Asia
Mongolia

In the southern territory of our diocese there exists the very interesting parish made up predominantly of Canadians of Japanese ancestry. It is the Church of the Ascension at Coaldale, Alta. which came into being with the re-settlement of Japanese Canadians in that area. The Rector is the highly respected, Rev. Canon Gordon Giochi Nakayama.

Lasst uns Erfreuen

WELCOME: It is with greatest pleasure that the whole parish welcomes back into our midst Bishop Crump. As Rector of this parish for seventeen years (1944-60) he returns as long-time friend and associate of many. It is our distinct privilege to have him share this weekend with us, and we bid him warmest welcome to his old parish. It also happens that today is the forty-second anniversary of his ordination; we congratulate him on this occasion and pray that he continues to enjoy health and strength to exercise his ministry as a Bishop in the Church.

Coupled with this visit from Bishop Crump, we are delighted to have three of his 'old boys' joining in the service today. They are Archdeacon Robert Crowder and the Reverends Patrick Judge and Richard Davenport. We are grateful that they were able to make arrangements that allowed them to be present, and we certainly welcome them back to this parish where they served as Curates,

The congregation are invited to meet our guests and to mix and mingle at the Coffee Hour after Service; weather permitting, we shall assemble on the lawn, otherwise in the Crump Room.

TRINITY SUNDAY: Words are one man's way of trying to express ideas so that another might catch his insights and share them. In the Biblical accounts of man coming to apprehend God more and more certain words came to be heavily employed. The earlier names for God reflected His creative powers. With the 'knowledge explosion' that Jesus released in his descriptive teaching about the nature of God, two terms gained great favor. For in and through Jesus the Father-ness of God and the exposure of Himself in the Son were new and powerful terms that took prominence, certainly for the Christians. To portray God as a loving Father was a distinctive emphasis that Jesus repeatedly made. With the gradual realization that the Man of Galilee was a most extra-ordinary Person, the followers came to pick up His own word and confessed that the Jesus they knew was God dwelling among them as Son. As we noted last week, Pentecost was the endorsing action that God was, and would ever be, in His world, in His Church, and wherever He willed to be as the Spiritgiver of power, life and health. So we come back to words: words that all have purpose and place in our efforts to speak of the Infinite. It would be shallow to say that our words have divided up God into a 'holy committee' so that we could accept Him more easily. It may be more honest to say that on the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity (Father, Son and Holy Spirit) we acknowledge that we need these valuable words to portray all that God is! Some of the impatience heard over the "complicated doctrine" of the Trinity could be akin to the disbelief that a gorgeous painting of delicate and intricate shades had been created from the strong, pure colours out of the paint tubes.

It is a shame when words become 'hang-ups' for people who desire to believe ardently but simply in God. For them other words and names may better express their understanding. It has to stand as a matter of record that for many ages men and women have found these three terms - Father, Son, Spirit - to best serve their convictions of God in their lives. ********

PARISH NOTES.

Dr. Crabb has by now arrived in England to commence his vacation. Before leaving he asked that this message be conveyed to the parishioners:

"Please express to the congregation our deepest appreciation of the generous expression of their feelings toward us through the Whitsunday offerings."

Archdeacon Swanson is officiating at St. Philip's this morning as their Rector has been called out of town.

PARISH PICNIC: First, here are the details and then below you will read of the great significance of this event and why parishioners will support it enthusiastically.

Sunday, June 22nd - three weeks from today. Date:

Place: Blackfoot Reserve, Gleichen, Alberta (approx. 65 miles east).

The people of St. John the Divine Parish on the reserve. Hosts: Transportation: Get on a bus and have fun, company, singing, etc. (or if you must, take your own car - full, of course).

Leaving Christ Church at 9:45 a.m.; returning at 4 p.m. Time:

All arranged and set out by our hosts. Lunch:

What will we do ?? Worship, eat, have races, games, basebail, tug-o-war, visit, meet new friends, etc.

Since we entered into the Partner-Parish Program some time ago with St. John's, Gleichen, there have been several occasions for our congregations to visit back and forth and to share experiences. The parish picnic last year was probably the best of them all when 150 of their number joined us at Bowness Park for a wonderful day together. Now to reciprocate, they are inviting us to be with them for the second annual joint picnic. It will be a marvellous fun day-especially if you go by bus with the gang - but also a meaningful time as moments of worship, eating, playing and visiting are shared. There will be full details in the next Clapper so watch for it soon. Meanwhile make it a date; everybody is welcomed to come along and endorse our Partner-Parish Program with a great turn out.

Monks Gate

- Whitsunday open offerings are designated for our Associate. Dr. Crabb.

- There will be a Coffee Hour today after each Service -9.00 & 11:00; weather permitting we shall have our coffee on the lawn, otherwise in the Crump Room. There's also Kool-Aid and cookies for the youngsters.
- Please remember we begin our summer Service schedule next Sunday; and for June, July and August times of worship will be 8:00 and 10:00 each Sunday.

TODAY

- Pentecost ranks with Christmas and Easter as major festivals wherein the nature and purpose of God is unfolded. God, in the Person of the Holy Spirit, arrives to be the manifestation of how He is to be intimately active in His people. The usual words associated with this disclosure of His love are ones like power, fire, source, spirit, and strength - all related to what God offers with His Spirit. We celebrate Pentecost in thanksgiving not only for what the Spirit has done in the past, but also in realization that He is ever alive demonstrating these gifts whenever and wherever believers are open to receive Him. (It is a purely Anglo-Saxon tradition that Confirmations and Baptisms took place on this day so that the white-robed initiates gave it the second name of Whit(e)sunday.)

- The children are offered the opportunity to worship this morning at the historic church at Heritage Park at 9 a.m. So there will be no Church School classes held at either 9 or 11 this morning.

- Dr. Crabb leaves this week for England to visit his mother, family and friends; so we wish him safe journeys and a good vacation.

- Archdeacon Swanson is participating in a Dedication Service at St. Stephen's today.

NEXT WEEKEND

- Next Saturday from 2 to 10 p.m. we expect to see all our parishioners and friends at the FAMILY AFFAIR here at the church grounds. There will undoubtedly be a very exciting time going on all day with something for everyone. Bishop and Mrs. W.H.H. Crump will be our special guests for the weekend, and the Bishop will open the show at 2 p.m. With musical entertainments, games, exhibits, refreshments, shows and stunt events, the place will be really popping all day. The ambition of the ladies (A.C.W.) who have planned and arranged it is to provide a happy time for everyone - which surely will be accomplished with lots of people here to enjoy it. The day also includes a casualtype meal and street dance. If you want more details take a copy of the Clapper from the rear of the church.

- Next Sunday Bishop Crump will celebrate at the 8 o'clock Service and preach at the 10 o'clock Choral Eucharist. Also at 10 a.m. we have invited and hope to have three former Curates who served under the Bishop here: Robert Crowder, Patrick Judge, and Richard Davenport.

NOTICES

- Two Cathedral Services are brought to our attention. Today at 4:30 there will be a special Service to commemorate the Convocation of the University of Calgary. Bishop Paul O'Byrne, President A.W.R. Carrothers, and city clergy are participating. Next Sunday at 4:30 there will be an Ordination Service when Mr. T. Dunn and Mr. D. Skoyles will be ordered Deacons to serve in city churches.
- Camp Kananaskis appeals for manual support on the major work weekend of June 21st & 22nd to prepare the campsite for the summer. Officials state that they have secured permanent camp directors for the full camp season; also that to date 45 leader applications are submitted. Parents and children are advised that registration forms are available from the Church Office at any time. Financial support for Kananaskis will be emphasized in a few weeks time.
- Epilepsy League of Calgary seeks any number of paper-backs and hard-cover books for re-sale in retail stores with all proceeds going to the League. This offer to raise money through stores lasts for the next four months, and if you have any books to offer please call the League President, Norman Birch (243-1277).

Regarding Today and this Weekend:

- In response to Sorrento's call for assistance to prepare their facilities for the summer's activities, fourteen of our A.Y.P.A. are there this weekend. The Lay Training Centre at Sorrento will benefit from the directed energies of these teenagers, and we are grateful to those who provided transportation.
- At Banff this weekend, young Anglican and United Church people of college age are holding their annual post-term conference. Dr. Crabb is their theme speaker at the Saturday and Monday sessions.
- Archdeacon Swanson is officiating at the Glenmore Park Auxiliary Hospital Service this evening at 6:30, providing an opportunity for worship for the patients and their visitors.

- At 5 0'clock today on Channel 2 the regular CBC-TV series 'Man Alive' with host Roy Bonisteel, will present a program on the United-Anglican church union question. The directors of this program recently did a cross-Canada survey of opinion, and it should be interesting to see what those results showed. The summer schedule of 'Man Alive' is listed on the bulletin board; these are repeats of some of their most outstanding programs during the past year.
- Due to some teachers being absent for the holiday weekend, there are no school-age classes of the Church School today at either 9:30 or 11 o'clock. And since the children are all invited to go to Heritage Park next Sunday instead of regular classes, it means our Church School term has ended for this year. So we take this opportunity to say heartfelt thanks to all who have served in the Church School since last September and given their service to this Christian education program. While we acknowledge the contribution of all, we especially extend to Mrs. Dorothy McLachlan, our supervisor, sincere appreciation for her conscientious work with the Church School.

Next Sunday: Whitsunday - Pentecost - May 25th.

- As one of the major Christian festivals, we remind you of the Services next Sunday when there will be celebrations of Holy Communion at all three hours. The 9:30 congregation is reminded that this Service will be at 9 o'clock for next Sunday (see Heritage Park notice). As we celebrate the fulfillment of the promise in the Coming of the Holy Spirit, we hope every parishioner will be present to give thanks for the gifts of the Spirit that are ours.
- Next Sunday afternoon at 4:30 in the Cathedral there will be a special Service to commemorate the Convocation of the University of Calgary. The preacher will be the Most Rev. Paul O'Byrne, Roman Catholic Bishop of Calgary. Dr. Carrothers, President of the University; the Rev. John L. Paterson, Minister of Knox United Church; and Dr. C. Howard Bentall, Minister of First Baptist Church, will read Lessons. The Rt. Rev. M.L. Goodman, Bishop of Calgary, will preside and take the prayers.
- We remind you of the details for the children's trip to the historic church at Heritage Park next Sunday. Pupils are to be brought to Christ Church by 8:30. Cars, arranged by the teachers, will depart from here and will return all pupils here at approximately 10 a.m. Service at the log church in the Park is at 9 a.m., lasting half an hour. The regular 9:30 Service at Christ Church will be advanced to 9 a.m. Thus, people dropping pupils here can stay for worship and be through at the same time pupils are returned. There will not be the regular Church School classes at 9 a.m. or 11 a.m. for pupils of school age. The pre-school departments will be in session at 11.

There is still a need for drivers, especially for Grade 4, and offers should be directed to Mrs. McLachlan at 243-0893.

For the Family Affair on May 31st your donations of books may be left with our Verger, Mr. Ken Marshall; and please note the following dates on which your arts and crafts items may be brought in: 7 to 9 p.m. on Friday, May 23rd and 30th, and Saturday, May 24th from 10 a.m.to 12 noon.

The Winchester Group cordially invites all women to a special meeting on Tuesday of this week at 2 p.m. in the Crump Room, when Rev. Dr. T.M. Dustan, Rector of St. Stephen's Church, will give an illustrated talk on "India."

Congratulations from all of us are extended to some of our younger parishioners who have achieved recognition in a variety of ways recently. We include those graduating from the University of Calgary and other universities and colleges, those who won honours at the recent Kiwanis Festival, and also to Carol Burns, the new Stampede Queen.

Cycle of Prayer:

The Plains States of the U.S.A., are mentioned in our prayerful remembrances this week. As we pray for these dioceses we recollect that many of our parishioners from our neighbour nation have been residents in these places.

North Dakota: George Masuda Oklahoma: Chilton Powell South Dakota: Conrad Gesner Northwest Texas: George Quarterman

Nebraska: Russell Rauscher Dallas: Avery Mason Kansas: Edward Turner Texas: Milton Richardson

Western Kansas: William Davidson West Texas: Everett Jones

Within our own diocese we pray for the parish of St. Michael and All Angels, Strathmore, and with it is associated the congregation of St. Andrew in the village of Gleichen. The Incumbent is John C. Marlor.

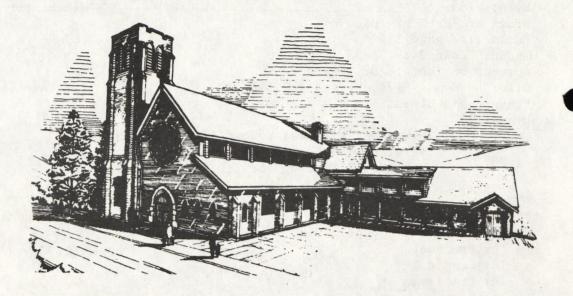

Operation Dogrib invites you to see Mexico in a blaze of colour as painted by the outstanding artist, Mr. Willy Bernard. The one hundred paintings will be exhibited at St. Famille Church, 1803 - 5th St. S.W., Saturday, May 24th, 2 to 10 p.m., and Sunday, May 25th, 2 to 9 p.m. Coffee will be served. (This event is sponsored by churches of several denominations and by some organizations.)

The Church's World Mission (Acts 1-13) is the theme for the month of May of the BRF (Bible Reading Fellowship) booklet, 15¢ at the Literature Desk. The notes for each day suggest the meaning of the Acts for the Christian Church today. "Prayers under the old Covenant" is the theme for June.

The flowers on the Altar of the Church are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Jane Legg.

About Today: Rogationtide is the four days (today and three weekdays) before Ascension Day; they comprise the shortest of all the Church Seasons. Adapted from the Latin word rogare 'to ask', it conveys the prayerful requests that the season of planting, new herds and new life may be fruitful to man. Conversely, it suggests that each man ask of God the right desires so that life may be fruitful for himself and others. The tradition in agricultural society on Rogation Sunday was to have outdoor Services where seed and new-born animals were blessed and the labours of man dedicated.

Dr. Crabb is officiating at Blairmore and Lunbreck today. Their incumbent, William Pope, is one of the ten priests in England currently on the diocesan mini-sabbatical leave.

Heritage Park Trip - May 25th: There were several difficulties to be overcome in making arrangements this year for our Church School pupils to visit and worship in the historic church at Heritage Park. Consequently, these are the plans with which we are left and for which we seek co-operation from parents:

- Pupils are to be brought to Christ Church by 8:30. Cars, arranged by the teachers, will depart from here and will return all pupils here at approximately 10 a.m.
- Service at the log church in the Park is at 9 a.m., lasting an hour.
- The regular 9:30 Service at Christ Church will be advanced to 9 a.m. Thus, people dropping pupils here can stay for worship and be through at the same time pupils are returned.
- There will not be the regular Church School classes at 11 a.m. for pupils of school age. The pre-school departments will be in session at 11.

For those who may be absent next weekend (holiday weekend), please keep these arrangements in mind for the 25th, two weeks from today.

Family Affair: With the circulation of the Christ Church Clapper (the pink newsletter) to every home, we hope everybody is fully aware and eager for the gala parish event on May 31st. This reminder is simply to prod all the youngsters into getting their entries ready, and to request all the arts and crafts talented people to prepare their items. Also, donations will be required of books of all kinds, home-baking, pot plants and cut flowers. These items will be on sale, and generous donations will be gratefully received. The Fair is shaping up to be a marvellous day, so we hope every parishioner has that day saved to spend here - and of course bring some friends! For further information concerning the Fair please phone Mrs. R. (Sally) Ridley, 243-0810. (If you didn't get a Clapper, there are some on the rear Nave table).

Thursday, Ascension Day: To mark the Feast of Christ's Ascension there will be a Celebration of Holy Communion in the Chapel at 9 a.m.

On Thursday the Mothers' Study Group will meet at 9:30 in the Crump Room. This will conclude their sessions for the term on the New Theology topic.

"Man Alive" Program. The CBC-TV series called Man Alive, seen on Sundays at 5 (Channel 2), has been very successfully received this season. Recent notice from the CBC informs us that next season it will be moved to a weekday evening prime time spot.

Next Sunday, May 18th, at 5 p.m. the program will report on a cross-Canada survey made on the topic of Anglican-United Church union relations. For an up-to-date and provocative presentation we refer you to this presentation on "Man Alive" next Sunday.

Cycle of Prayer:

South-East Asia - Singapore, Bishop Chiu Ban It: Malaya, Thailand, Cambodia, Laos, Vietnam, Sumatra and Java.

In our own Diocese, the Churches of St. George, Stettler; St. Edmund, Big Valley; St. Margaret, Scollard; St. Paul, Byemoor; and the Rector, The Rev. Colin Archibald McMullen.

Resignation of our Organist/Choirmaster. It is with profound regret that the Rector and Churchwardens inform the parish that they have accepted the resignation of Mr. C. Terence Fullerton. For four years he has given talented direction and service in his musical tasks for this parish. He will leave us some time this summer to accept a similar post at St. Anthony's R.C. Parish in town. We only wish we could retain him, but knowing this offer to be a very promising one for him, we all join to wish him well in his new work there.

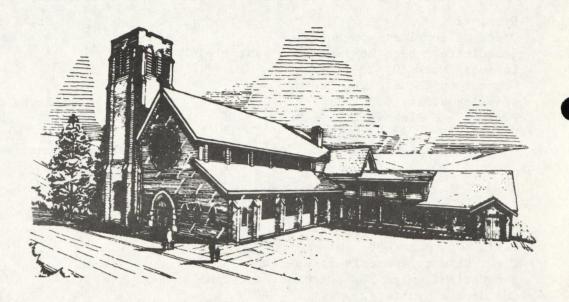

The first performance in Calgary of the powerful and moving choral work "Israel in Egypt" by Handel will be given by the Festival Chorus under the direction of John Searchfield on Wednesday of this week, 8:30 p.m. at the Jubilee Auditorium. Tickets available at the Bay Ticket Wicket or by phoning 245-5601.

In order to continue the Y.W.C.A.-sponsored program of teaching Higlish to new Canadians in afternoon and evening classes on weekdays, additional volunteer teachers are urgently needed. A teacher need not have any training since instructional books and directions will be provided, and it is not necessary to know a second language to teach English under the methods used. All interested please phone the Y.W.C.A.

9:30 MODERN SERVICE
Theme: "War --- and/or --- Peace?"

Once again the teenage folk-singing group has collaborated to present a Service; this time it is centred around a controversial topic to raise rather than answer questions. The music, speech and presentation are expressive of our youth culture, yet speaking to an old issue. A separate order of Service is supplied for the congregation to follow and join in this Service. This will probably be the last modern style Service for this term. The folk-group will be identified by name tags and there will be opportunity for everyone to mix and discuss over coffee afterwards.

Notes for today include:

The boy choristers are assisting at the Col. Belcher Hospital this morning to provide music for the patients at their Sunday Service. Along with other church choirs, Christ Church choristers take turns in providing the veterans with Service music each Sunday, throughout the year; this gesture is highly appreciated by the veterans, and our boys are always very welcome visitors.

Archdeacon Swanson is conducting Service at Balzac this morning.

Sorrento. We are delighted to welcome to the 9:30 Service Miss

Barbara Walker and Mr. Mike Clare, two members of the visiting

Sorrento team in Calgary this weekend.

We heartily recommend to everyone the opportunity to see "Reviewing the Situation" being presented tonight at St. Peter's Parish Hall at 8 p.m. This stage production graphically tells the story of the Sorrento leadership program and is a thoroughly enjoyable evening for everybody.

Mental Health Week. May 1 - 7 is designated to stimulate our interest and concern in the cause of good mental health for all. To highlight this week a series of films and lectures have been scheduled to take place at the Health Education Centre, 509 - 18th Avenue, S.W. They occur Monday to Thursday inclusive at 8 p.m. A descriptive poster is found on the bulletin board listing topics and speakers.

Cycle of Prayer. The Anglican Cycle of Prayer which is followed and supported by our brethren throughout the world, has its focus very close to home this week. Some of the western Canadian dioceses will be remembered by the international Anglican family as the diocese, bishops, clergy and people of the names below will be prayed for this coming week.

Edmonton: Gerald Burch;
Calgary: Morse Goodman;
Qu'Appelle: Frederic Jackson;
Saskatoon: Stanley Steer;
Saskatchewan: William Crump;
Brandon: Wilfred Wilkinson
(Bishop-Elect); The Arctic: Donald Marsh.

Our own diocesan prayer list brings our thoughts to the Parish of Rocky Mountain House which includes the congregations at Chedderville and Caroline; the Incumbent is The Rev. Bruce A. Rathbone. The peoples of this area, including the native citizens, are remembered as we think of this part of our diocesan family.

Parish Notes:

The Rector and Dr. Crabb will both be absent from the parish from Monday till Thursday afternoon to attend the Annual Retreat for the Diocesan clergy. This time of refreshment and rest is highly valued and indeed necessary for our clergy to maintain the quality of ministry that both they and the parish look for.

The next Administration of Public Baptism will be on May 18th at 11 o'clock. If there are any parents who have infants to be baptized please contact the clergy or the church office as soon as possible.

Parish Library. The Church Library Committee has added new members and is getting ready to choose new books to add to our Library. They will begin by taking inventory of the 500 books we now have. You can help build a better library by returning books you may have tucked away on your book-shelves.

Family Service Evaluation. The 9:30 a.m. Family Service next Sunday May 11th, will give the congregation an opportunity to express opinions and to make suggestions to guide us in the forms this Service should take next winter. Will all interested in the 9:30 a.m. Family Service make every effort to be present on May 11th.

The Gateway Singers of Grace Presbyterian Church will sing the modern folk mass "Rejoice" on Sunday, May 11th, at 7:30 p.m. at St. Martin's Church, 21st Ave. & 28th St. S.W. Everyone welcome.

NO ONE NEEDS UNTRAINED TROOPS -- ANGLICANS PAY LIP SERVICE TO TRAINING BUT IN FACT IT HAS GENERALLY STOPPED BY THE AGE OF FIFTEEN -- WE NEED A CHRISTIAN EXPLOSION COMPARABLE TO THAT IN THE SECULAR WORLD.

Traditional training methods—sermons, Sunday schools, day schools, baptism and confirmation preparation—need renewal through the use of modern methods. These start from the experience of the student and give him an active part in the training process. The aim is to prepare him for service in the world and in the Church. It must, therefore, include the understanding of the world—our neighbours, other faiths, modern technology, ourselves—as well as the understanding of our own faith, prayer, and worship.

The layman must be continually renewed by corporate Bible study, prayer, and sacraments. Training in prayer is needed, and for some, especially the aged and the housebound, this may be the main contribution they are able to make to the mission.

Christian education is a continuing process. We particularly draw attention to the need for more lay institutes. Wherever possible they should be ecumenical situation. Often the best help the layman can receive is that given by other laymen facing the same problem. There should also be places where he can meet those of other faiths or none. In such centres the clergy will also find that they themselves Learn from the laity how the gospel relates to real life!

We recommend that, where possible, clergy and laity should undergo training together; and also that, where circumstances permit, group training courses should provide for the widest representation in their membership: men and women, people of other denominations or of none, members of different races, and people in different sectors of society.

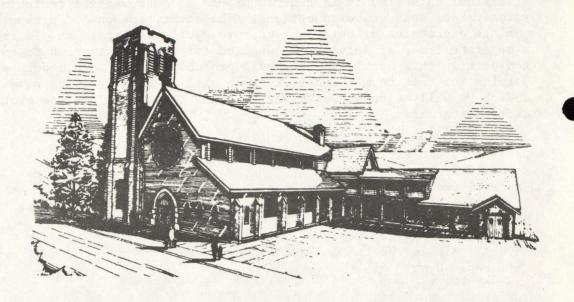

Today people increasingly move across geographical, cultural, and social frontiers as students, business men, public servants, and tourists, in the armed forces and international organizations. They need help in listening to and learning from those whose backgrounds differ from their own, and in making their Christian witness. We commend the orientation courses which exist in some countries which provide such help, and recommend that Churches co-operate in establishing such courses where they do not exist.

The teen-agers will meet tonight at 7:30 in the Crump Room for their regular meeting. The group going to Ponoka today will be back in time for the meeting and to rehearse for next Sunday's Youth Service.

The Church has historically been a strong patron of the arts in all its forms, and we hope that in our own small way we can encourage every expression by which people interpret the meaning of God in their lives. So it is that today we are delighted to welcome one of the least familiar forms of expression, that of interpretive dancing, with the presentation by the "Contemporary Dancers, Calgary" in their recital here today.

The congregations are warmly invited to attend this recital at 12:15 in the Crump Room and show appreciation for the kindness of Mrs. Yone Young and her group. The program to be presented today includes:

- 1. Landscape of a City..... Lasry
- 2. Three Danced Poems:
 - (1) Creation James Weldon Johnson
 - (2) Kids Witter Byner
- (3) Anyone lived in a pretty low town E.E. Cummings The dancers taking part today are: Lynette Fry-Abra, Gordon Gardner, Cathy Herbert, Florence Kingsbury, Larry McKinnon, Jimmie Steen, Ron Wright.

Parish Notes.

Parents of Cubs: If you are concerned about the programs for your boys; and if you are interested in what may be provided next year, please attend a meeting for parents in the Crump Room WEDNESDAY of this week, April 30th at 8 p.m.

Post Confirmation Group: The final session of the program for this spring's Confirmation group will be this Wednesday. The members of the class are to meet at 5 o'clock prior to going to Holy Cross Hospital where they will be given an opportunity to hear from hospital staff regarding the total Christian concern for people who are sick.

Forward booklets: The Whitsun and Trinity number of the Forward Day by Day booklet, with daily Bible readings and meditations beginning May 1st, is now available at the Literature Desk.

The former Rector honoured: Parishioners will be pleased to learn that Wycliffe College, Toronto, will be granting an honorary Doctorate of Divinity to Archdeacon G.H. Dowker on Tuesday night of this week at the Spring Convocation. We extend to the Archdeacon our congratulations and best wishes on this tribute as he comes to the closing months of his active Ministry, and intends to leave Toronto late next fall to retire at the west coast.

Canvassers are required: Volunteers are needed for the Red Shield Campaign on May 5th 6 to 9 p.m. If you can help, please phone Mrs. Elaine Downing, 244-4447.

Elbow Park Kindergarten: Registration for the Elbow Park Kindergarten, will be held April 29th at 7:30 in the Kemp Room. For further information please phone Mrs. Laurine Hellam at 243-0648. (This is a community operated kindergarten, not a parochial organization).

The Guild section of the A.C.W. are pleased to report that the efforts of their Rummage Sale resulted in $850.00 being raised. This will greatly aid in the support of the projects underwritten by the A.C.W. during this year.

Film Showings

The Inter-Faith Committee has arranged additional showings of the mægnificent film narration "World in Profile". This film can be seen on the following dates at 8 p.m.

Church of Our Saviour, April 27, 8831 Fairmount Drive Parkdale United Church, April 28, 29 St. & 8 Ave. N.W. Knox Presbyterian Church, April 30, 3704 - 37 St. S.W.

St. Mary's Cathedral, May 1, 219 - 18 Ave. S.W.

This film is great entertainment as well as a meaningful glimpse at the poverty in the world, with suggestions of alleviating the pain poverty brings. We journey from Calgary to Arctic Canada, to restless Africa, from the thin atmosphere of Nepal to the sweltering jungles of South America. The film is of the same calibre as other travelogue series appearing in the city. It has been professionally produced and made available to support the churches' projects in under-developed areas. Tickets are available at the Church Office at any time ($1.00).

The geographical location where our prayers and thoughts are directed this week is that of Central Africa and the Indian Ocean. Most of the names of the diocese shown below bring to mind that these areas have in the last decade become independent and autonomous self-governing units. This means that the Church has a very vital part to play in creating a stable and honourable society for the many races that live in these parts of the world.

Cycle of Prayer

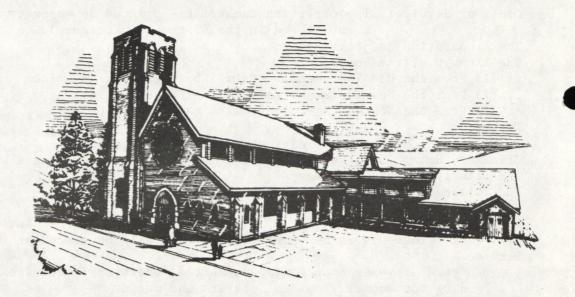

Zambia: Oliver Green-Wilkinson, Archbishop of Central Africa Malawi: Donald Arden; Mashonaland: Paul Burrough; Matabeleland: Kenneth Skelton; Lebombo: Pina Cabral; Madagascar: Jean Marcel; Mauritius and the Seychelles: Edwin Curtis.

Within the Diocese of Calgary the focal point of our prayers is St. Luke;s Parish in Red Deer, which has associated with it the Anglican congregations at Sylvan Lake, Eckville and Rimbey. This whole pastoral charge is ministered to by the clergy team comprised of Archdeacon Murray Starr, The Rev. Albert Collier and the Rev. Walter Barnes.

The Parish This Weekend

- Recognition with thanks is given to those who gave materials, time and effort for the Rummage Sale on Friday and Saturday. Again vast quantities of goods arrived and a brisk sale ensued. This results in a large sum of money being raised in support of all the projects sustained by the A.C.W. of this parish; most of these projects are beyond our parish expressing our concern and outreach in the world.
- Dr. Crabb is guest preacher today at the Parish of the Good Shepherd in town as they keep their Patronal Festival.

Events to Come

As ways of interpreting the Christian message the church has always employed the arts. The forms of music, architecture, literature and graphics (especially stained glass windows) have been most commonly used, while others have been less prominent. Among the lesser-used expressions two have recently been revived with great zeal and profit, namely drama and dance. It will be our good fortune next Sunday to have the local Contemporary Dance Group offering a program in the Crump Room following the 11 o'clock Service. They will present interpretations of religious themes in a 20-minute recital. They are a group of professional dancers who have recently been formed and have appeared in highly-praised performances. We are indebted to Mrs. Yoni Kviets-Young, their director, and the troupe for their gracious and free presentation next Sunday.

On Wednesday of this week the Organist of Notre Dame Cathedral, Paris, France, will play a recital in Calgary. M. Pierre Cochereau is an internationally known musician, holding one of the most eminent organ posts at Notre Dame. He will play at St. Mary's Cathedral, 18th Avenue, on Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. Admission is 2.50 for adults, 1.50 for students, and 1.00 for children, and tickets are available at the Bay Ticket Wicket or from Mr. Fullerton.

Youth Events

Next Sunday, an all-day trip to the Provincial Hospital at Ponoka is scheduled for all interested teen-agers. We shall leave Calgary in the morning and eat a picnic lunch along the way (each bring own). A tour of the hospital is arranged with special emphasis on the adolescent ward. The patients of this ward are very delighted to have visitors and bring some variety to their day. Transportation is to be by car, and the Rector would be glad to hear from any prospective drivers and so make this trip possible. Teenagers desiring to go should indicate to the A.Y.P.A. executive or the Rector by the time of the meeting tonight.

The next Youth Service is planned for 9:30 on May 4th. A theme has been chosen and the Service drafted. It calls for a lot of participants - singers and non-singers - to make it the finest we have done yet.

All teen-agers are really really welcomed to come tonight at 7:30 and become involved in this next Service. It is a very worthwhile effort and lots of fun besides.

Cycle of Prayer

Africa is still a 'dark continent' to most of us North Americans because we are so ignorant of its peoples. We have had flashes of insight from the occasional visitor, returned missionary or sometime resident of its lands. It is, however, one of the brightest chapters in Anglican missionary history if for no other reason than it produced a fine indigenous ministry - as evidenced by the bishops' names below. Certainly Africa is to be prayed for - for the resolution of its racial, economic and political complexities, as well as for the deepending of Christian love and witness among its peoples.

For this week our focus in prayer is for:

Namirembe: Dunstan Nsubuga

Mbale: Erisa Masaba

Northern Uganda: Silvanus Wani; Soroti: Asanasiyo Maraka West Buganda: Stephen Tomusange; Ruwenzori: Erica Sabiti

Ankole: Kosiya Shalita; Kigezi: Richard Lyth

Rwanda: Adonija Sebununguri Burundi: Yohana Nkunzumwami

On the local scene we commend to your prayers the Foothills Mission comprised of St. John, Pincher Creek; St. Aidan, Cowley; All Saints, Wærton. The incumbent is William David Pope.

Also, this week we note the first annual group of ten priests from this diocese leave on Friday for England and their mini-sabbatical 6-week leave of studies, parish work and exposure to new situations. The bishop will accompany the 10 men who go; we pray they have safe journeys and much profit from their experiences overseas.

Notes

- The Inter-Faith Committee has arranged additional showings of the magnificent film narration "World in Profile". This film can be seen at the following times and places:

St. Mary's Cathedral, May 1, 219 - 18th Ave. S.W. Parkdale United Church, April 28, 29 St. & 8th Ave. N.W. Knox Presbyterian Church, April 30, 3704 - 37 St. S.W.

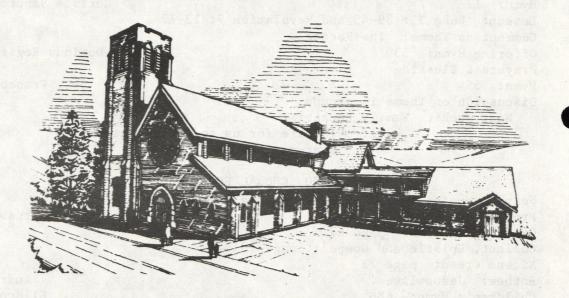

Church of Our Saviour, April 27, 8831 Fairmount Drive. This film is great entertainment as well as a meaningful glimpse at the poverty in the world, with suggestions of alleviating the pain poverty brings. We journey from Calgary to Arctic Canada, to restless Africa, from the thin atmosphere of Nepal to the sweltering jungles of South America. This film is of the same calibre as other travelogue series appearing in the city. It has been professionally produced and made available to support the churches' projects in under-developed areas. Tickets are available at the Church Office at any time ($1.00).

- We note that The Rev. J.R. Flagler will be inducted tomorrow evening as Rector of our neighbouring parish, St. Philip the Evangelist, Elboya. We bid him welcome and pray that he, his family and the parish will have much joy in his coming to Calgary.

The flowers on the Altar of the Chapel are given to the glory of God, and in loving memory of Dr. Lewis Clarke and Mrs. Annie Clarke.

Eastertide We had a glorious Easter Day last Sunday and so can be grateful for many things. The chiefest reason, of course, is the victory we proclaim in Christ's Resurrection. By it we view God's love overcoming all the forces of evil and death itself - not just in the one-time happening of Jesus' rising from the grave, but in the assurance that all who have confidence in the power of God's love are participants in this resurrection.

We were all blessed with the favourable outbursts of sunshine and warmth that greeted the weekend and somehow reinforced the message being proclaimed. The contribution of Choirs, Altar Guild and many others made the Services meaningful and appealing to eye and ear, and to them all we convey thanks.

But Easter is more than a day to anyone who appreciates the New Testament record and the liturgical calendar based on it. Easter is a season of some 40 days culminating in the event of Jesus' Ascension. Even more, Easter is a mentality — it is a way of looking at life and of living. It is a positive, trusting, and confident faith that is rooted in the power of God — evidenced in Jesus' own resurrection — and applied to everyday life. So today and throughout Eastertide we are called to take stock of our spiritual assets and to live in the affirmative way knowing that with God all things are possible!

Parish Calendar.

Tonight - A.Y.P.A. meets at 7:30 in the Crump Room. There will be a short business session and a rehearsal of the folk-group in preparation for some coming events. All teenagers are invited to come.

Monday - At 2:30 there will be an afternoon's social hour for senior parishioners and friends. Great fun and enjoyment is experienced as lively conversation and bantering goes on, sprinkled with reminiscences and comparisons! A warm invitation to all, and if anyone needs a ride just call Mr. J.W. Ireland at 243-0092.

- The regular Vestry meeting commences at 5 p.m.; there will be a special report on St. John's Parish at Gleichen.

Tuesday - Holy Communion at 9 a.m. in the Chapel.

Wednesday - Holy Communion at 10:30 a.m. in the Chapel.

Thursday - The Morning Study Group will meet in the Crump Room at 9:30. Nursery care provided.

Friday & Saturday - Semi-annual Rummage Sale in the Lower Hall.

Contributions would be most welcome, and if pick-up is needed, please

Contributions would be most welcome, and if pick-up is needed, please phone either Mrs. G.A. Leslie at 243-1296, or Mrs. C.W. Hunt at 244-2834. The sale is open to parishioners only on Friday evening and to the public on Saturday morning.

The first Provincial Annual Foster Week is being observed from April 13th - 19th and in this connection there will be a Tea today (Sunday) 2:30 - 4:30 p.m. at St. Michaels and All Angels. Other plans will be announced in the Press and on Radio.

The purpose of this observance is to increase public interest and concern in the welfare and care of our foster children, to encourage our foster parents to participate in social and educational programs pertaining to child care, and to create and promote a good working relationship between parent, child and social worker.

Cycle of Prayer

Our Anglican heritage owes much to the early Christian foundation of northern England. It is this area we remember in prayer this week. Some of the dioceses found there are:

York: Donald Coggan, Archbishop

Southwell: Gordon Savage Chester: Gerald Ellison Carlisle: Cyril Bulley Newcastle: Hugh Ashdown

Durham: Ian Ramsey

Sodor and Man: Eric Gordon

The furthest north-easterly parish of our diocese is comprised of a number of congregations centred around All Saints', Oyen. The outlying points are St. John, Cereal; St. Joseph, Acadia Valley; St. Mary, Empress; Parish of New Brigden. The Rev. L. Frank Lee resides in Oyen and has been in charge of the whole parish.

PARISH REGISTER FOR JANUARY, FEBRUARY AND MARCH:

Baptisms - "We receive this Child into the Congregation of Christ's flock, and do sign him (her) with the sign of the Cross, in token that he (she) shall not be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ..."

Nativity

History and tradition have treated the major Christian festivals with varying importance, but there can be no doubt that Easter remains very important. The Christian Faith is rooted in Easter, for here is where our affirmations about life after death and about God's power and victory over sin and death are all fixed. Easter is hope — not a faint whimpering hope about some vague chance — but a bold triumphant hope that as Christ rose from the dead, so shall we know the life eternal. In the confidence of this Easter message we greet you all — parishioners, friends and guests — and pray you may find the restatement of Christ's Resurrection brings joy and strength to every heart.

May God bless you all as you worship with us at this Eastertide.

Your Clergy, Parish Staff, Churchwardens and Vestry.

† NOTICES

There will be a Social Hour for senior parishioners and friends on Monday afternoon, April 14th, at 2:30 in the Crump Room. These highly enjoyable gatherings for our elder folk are much appreciated and anticipated. We are looking forward to seeing those who have attended the former affairs plus some new faces. For information please call Mrs. Iris Birch at 243-1277, or for transportation call Mr. J. W. Ireland at 243-0092.

The annual Spring Rummage Sale occurs on Friday and Saturday, April 18th and 19th. Goods may be left at the church any time, or for pick-up service call Mrs. G. A. Leslie at 243-1296, or Mrs. C. W. Hunt at 244-2834.

It is expected that a load of used furniture will be taken to St. John's congregation on the Gleichen reserve during the third week of April. If anyone has donations of good kitchen, living room or bedroom items to go on this load, please call the Church Office (243-0103). Also, a day-care centre is soon to be established and there is a special appeal being made for cribs, play pens, toys and items to equip this program for toddlers.

There will be no sessions of the Church School today, except for the 3 and 4 year olds and those of the Cherubs' section. All children are reminded that their Lenten boxes are to be brought in by next Sunday. Adults are also asked to return their coin cards as soon as possible.

Paschal Candle. An old tradition of the Church is to strike a new light at Easter and let it burn continuously for the forty days of the Easter Season. This Paschal (Victory) Candle speaks of the new life our Risen Lord brings, and calls us to let His power shine in our hearts to brighten the world with the faith of His followers. Our large Paschal Candle is lit on Easter morn and will burn at all the Services during Eastertide.

During Easter week there will be the regular midweek Services at 9:00 a.m. Tuesday and 10:30 a.m. Wednesday. Special efforts will be made to call on shut-ins at this time, but please do not hesitate to call the Church Office if you know of any who would like their Communion or a call from the clergy.

GOOD FRIDAY? What difference does the Cross of Christ make upon individual lives? Many will be wondering that today, and to give some thoughtful reply we offer the following extract from the writings of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

"Let me mention just three practical ways in which this great matter really does come to pass in Christian lives, and I cannot but doubt has already come to pass in yours. First, the Christian, as he goes about serving God and serving the world, and trying to meet the world's tragic needs, does so as one who has been humbled again and again by God's forgiveness of him. The humility of having been forgiven, it is that that gives quality to the Christian life all through. It is terribly difficult to love other people without being possessive about them. Alt is terribly difficult to serve other people without being rather 'bossy' towards them; and so it is that philanthropy comes so often to be corrupted by pride. But Christian philanthropy is marked through and through by the humility of one who knows himself, not once but time and time again, to be forgiven by the wounds of the Crucified.

"And the second mark of the Christian life is this, that it can see and use Christ's victory over suffering by transforming it. We all try to remove suffering from the world. We try to alleviate suffering, but it is the mark of a Christian that he has the power for himself to accept suffering and to see it transformed and made creative by sympathy and love and sacrifice. The Christian knows something of how those words, suffering and glory, go together; and so the Christian is marked by a heightened sensitivity towards the world's trials, bearing things more and feeling things more keenly than others; and yet within that sensitivity he brings on to the scene a kind of heavenly serenity, that the worldly mind is not able to create or to fathom.

"And the third mark of the Christian life is this, that within that life there is being fought out again, perhaps all unnoticed, the battle of Good Friday. Within our souls there is raging a conflict -- the Good Friday conflict -- the conflict between the glory of man and the glory of God. The glory of man dies very hard; but a Christian is one in whom this self-centredness and pride is, through whatever humiliation and pain, being dethroned. This process can never be a selfconscious thing. Self-consciousness in religion is the very denial of what the Christian is meant to be, because after all selfconsciousness is just one form and aspect of self-centredness, and the Christian life is marked by the forgetfulness of self, in the service of God and the service of man. Thus it is that the glory of man is dethroned, and human life is brought nearer to that end for which God created us in His own image, after His own likeness."

HOLY WEEK.

Our daily observance of Holy Week, including the Passion readings of Jesus' trial and sufferings, will be designated in the 5:30 Communion Service (Operation 30). We bring to your attention the opportunity this affords to everyone to keep a short period each day - and especially remind those who have their day occuring this week.

On Good Friday there will be the one major Service at 11 a.m. for adults and children alike to attend. This is called a major day for solemn prayer (page xiii Prayer Book) and all are encouraged to keep it as such.

Easter Day Service hours are 7:30, 9:00, 11:00 and 12:15. Please note these times. A full description of the Services is found in the card mailed out; copies of the card are on the rear table.

TODAY:

- We extend appreciation to Mrs. Mary Ellen Johnson for being our speaker at both 9:30 and 11 o'clock Services. It is unneccesary to welcome her as she is a parishioner and worships regularly here. The opportunity of focusing on modern education - both its policies and prospects - brings our attention to one of life's most important pusuits. To examine the educational field as a form of Christian endeavour is one of our major concerns today. Mrs. Johnson, who is a Public School Board Trustee, has a good background to present this topic to us.
- This is the last day to browse and purchase from the display of paperbacks we have had on hand throughout Lent. They are to be found in the old choir room opposite the Christian Education office. The balance of books will be returned to the agent this week.
- Today concludes the ecumenical Art Exhibit at Parkdale United Church, 2919 - 8th Avenue, N.W. It features a variety of art forms - ceramics, wood and metal craft, paintings, etc. executed by people of varying religious backgrounds. The display closes at 8 p.m. this evening.
- Dr. Crabb is assisting at St. Philip's today as that parish awaits their new Rector.
- We remind you of the Bishop's TELECAST at 3 p.m. this afternoon on Channel 4, CFCN-TV. There are to be several guests appearing with the Bishop and the theme is concerned with our whole outreach.
- Appreciation is extended to the ladies of the Altar Guild who patiently made several hundred palm crosses for the parishioners to have today.____

CYCLE OF PRAYER.

The area remembered throughout the Anglican Communion this Holy Week is the land of China. There is scant information on the organization of the Church or who the present leaders are. The recent cultural Revolution resulted in the closing of many places of worship and the destruction of Bibles and other aids. Yet we firmly believe the Christian faith is alive and maybe very strong in the face of danger. Certainly we ought to pray for all our Chinese brethren - all 600 million or more of them.

The one Chinese priest in our diocese is Paul Hei King Yip who is Rector of St. John's, Olds, together with St.Cyprian's Didsbury, and St. George, Harmattan. He and his congregation are supported by our prayers at this time in our roster of prayers.

OTHER NOTES:

- The regular meeting of the Winchester Group will be held on Tuesday, April 1st, at 2 p.m.

- Two half-hour TV programs (Channel 2), "This Land of Ours", dealing with St. John's Cathedral Boys' School in Selkirk, Manitoba (comparable to St. John's School of Alberta at Genesee) will be shown on Easter Day at 10.30 a.m. and on Monday, April 7th, at 5.00 p.m.

- Channel 2 will present a special Easter series "The Prince of Peace", April 1 - 4 at 5.30. This Holy Week series portrays the Crucifixion, Resurrection and Ascension episodes together with their meaning.

- We remind you of the city-wide blitz for Cancer funds to be conducted Monday, March 31st, between 6 and 9 p.m.

- The last of the Cathedral Tuesday noon-hour recital series sponsored by the University of Calgary, will be given on Tuesday of this week, 12:15 - 12:45 p.m. by Terence Fullerton and our Christ Church choir.

OUR GUESTS today from the Parish of St. John the Divine, Gleichen, on the Blackfoot Reserve are Mr. Russell Wright and Miss Donna Breaker. We are most delighted to have them with us and appreciate their willingness to come and address our congregation. Through them we wish to convey to all the Anglicans on the Reserve our best wishes and assurances of continued concern as we work out our sister-parish relationship.

Mr. Wright is a well-known spokesman for Indian causes and often participates in leadership development programs. Miss Breaker is a Grade 12 student at Crescent Heights High School and has also been an interpreter of her people's concerns. He father is a Churchwarden at St. John's Gleichen.

PRIMATE'S WORLD RELIEF FUND. Last Sunday we introduced the annual appeal for this fund which enables our church nationally to meet dire needs throughout the world wherever and whenever they occur. It coincides with our Lenten focus on poverty and the under-developed peoples of the world. The Primate's letter to us, and the special envelopes, are found in the pews today. If you have not yet given, please make this a priority and place the green envelope on the plate at any Service.

ART EXHIBIT. For a few years now, an annual event of the Palm Sunday weekend is the art collection and exhibit at Parkdale United Church, 2919 - 8th Avenue, N.W. (at the foot of the hill below Foothills Hospital). It goes on Friday evening, Saturday and Sunday all day, and features many art forms. Interestingly, so many of today's artists find the religious themes their strongest message and exposure, such as this exhibit, is of great value for both craftsmen and public.

NEW BISHOPS. The Canadian Church is undergoing one of those periods when 'bishop-making' is happening quite regularly. Within recent months we have noted the election of our Dean, H.V. Stiff, to be Bishop of Keewatin (northern and western Ontario). The Diocese of British Columbia (which is Vancouver Island) recently chose to ask Bishop John O. Anderson to be their bishop; consequently he will soon leave Winnipeg where he has been Suffragan Bishop of Rupert's Land, to take up office in Victoria. Within B.C. the Diocese of Caledonia recently selected Canon Douglas Hambidge of their own diocese to succeed the late Bishop Munn. Canon Hambidge is an old student of Dr. Crabb's and has served with distinction in Caledonia for some years. The most recent episcopal election took place in Brandon when their Dean, T.W. Wilkinson, was named to be bishop of that diocese. There possibly will be other additions to the bench of bishops before the year is out as some senior bishops have either announced or mentioned retirement. But for the moment this completes the picture, and we add our sincerest prayers for the growth of Christian life and witness in these Fathers-in-God and their dioceses.

PARISH NOTES:

Diademata

- It is gratifying to see the major part of the redecorating job accomplished and to see the interior brightened. The reactions to date are that lighter colour paint gives a softer interior and makes the church look even bigger. We acknowledge the patience of all who have suffered the dislocations without protest, and the kind cooperation of Mr. Martin Vernon and his staff for the utmost collaboration.
- The A.Y.P.A. folk-group meets tonight at 7:30 to rehearse for their two forthcoming engagements and to pursue plans for the next Youth Service in April. All teenagers are most welcome, and the singing fun is the greatest!

- The Mother's Thursday morning study group will meet this week, the 27th at 9:30 in the Crump Room. All those interested in an exciting and provocative study program are welcome. Baby-sitting is provided.
- This past week Dr. Crabb was seasonal lecturer at the Sorrento Lay Training Centre in B.C. where young adults are registered for the winter courses. The impact of Sorrento on young persons has been, and continues to be, most emphatic and to the great good of the Church at large.
- The Rector is spending this Sunday with his parents who are celebrating their fiftieth wedding anniversary.
- A.C.W. Poverty Luncheon on Tuesday, March 25th, 1:15 p.m. in the Crump Room. Bring your own sandwich coffee will be supplied. Nursery provided. Guest speaker: The Rev. John Prince of Gleichen.
- The Cathedral Choir under the direction of Robert Bell will sing Passiontide music Monday, March 24th, at 8 p.m. in the Cathedral. Tickets $1.00 are available at Paget Hall or from members of the choir, and proceeds will go towards financing the choir's trip to Vancouver in May to attend a Cathedral Choir Festival.

TV NOTES:

- Two half-hour TV programs (Channel 2), "This Land of Ours", dealing with St. John's Cathedral Boys' School in Selkirk, Manitoba (comparable to St. John's School of Alberta at Genesee) will be shown on Easter Day at 10:30 a.m. and on Monday, April 7th, at 5.00 p.m. - Channel 2 will present a special Easter series "The Prince of Peace" April 1 - 4 at 5:30. This Holy Week series portrays the Crucifixion, Resurrection and Ascension episodes together with their meaning.

CYCLE OF PRAYER.

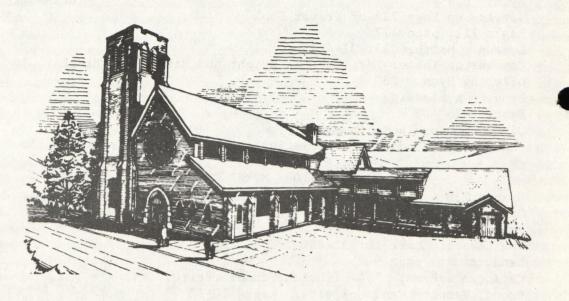

This week our attention is centred on Western Australia as our prayers are offered for the diocese of Perth, Bunbury, Kalgoorlie, North West Australia, Northern Territory, Carpentaria, Willochra, and Adelaide. In our diocese we remember the Parish of St. Peter's Okotoks, and St. Paul's, Midanpore; the incumbent is Rodney O. Andrews.

We remind you that the city-wide blitz for Cancer funds is conducted on Monday, March 31st, between 6 and 9 p.m.

Primate's World Relief. The leaflet used today, along with our Primate's letter enclosed, speak adequately of what this fund has done and will continue to do. We simply point out the repeated needs that arise, and because we have given to the Primate's World Relief our Church can give immediate aid to urgent demands. Pause for a moment and picture the world's needy - reflect for a moment on our plenty - then decide to give generously in the Name of Christ!

Special Speakers. We hope to have two guests with us next weekend from our sister-parish at Gleichen and speaking at both 9:30 and 11 o'clock Services. To obtain a first-hand and frank account on what the reserve resident hopes for and how the Church can aid in these ambitions we look forward to this opportunity of hearing from these Indian Anglicans. Two weeks from today at both Services we shall have Mrs. Mary Ellen Johnson, a Public Board Trustee, presenting some current concerns in the educational field as they reflect over-all human values and conditions.

Today. It is our pleasure to note last Sunday evening's Confirmation candidates receiving Communion at 8 o'clock today along with the families. The new communicants and the parents are invited to breakfast in the Crump Room following the Service.

Tonight at 7:30 all teenagers are urged to come along to the regular A.Y.P.A. meeting. There will be a full discussion about future 9:30 folk-type Services, and some other project plans. For any who can play a guitar or any instrument, sing or simply be a part of the folk-group, this is the time you are needed!

The Lenten Book Display is still on hand, but the choice is diminishing weekly. It is found in the old choir room opposite the Christian Education Office.

Cycle of Prayer. The major area which is the focus of our prayers this week is Central America. It embraces the diocese of Mexico, Guatemala, El Salvador, British Honduras, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Panama and the Canal Zones. Closer to home we remember in prayers the Lamerton Mission, cared for by The Rev. James Linster, which includes St. Monica, Mirror; St. Peter, Bashaw; St. Pancras, Alix.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Guild section of A.C.W. will be held Monday, March 17th, at 8:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. C.W. Hunt, 1119 Sydenham Road.

Remember Operation 30 at 5:30 daily for Holy Communion and especially when your day occurs.

The Mothers' Study Group will meet on the fourth instead of the third Thursday - March 27th, at 9.30 a.m.

7:30 CONFIRMATION: There is a separate leaflet for this Service.
Today's candidates are: David Edward Baugh, Patrick Neil Harvie, Robert Pierce Hawkins, Grant James McKibben, Michael John O'Connor, Peter Lewis Ridley, Richard Barnes Ridley, James Logan Sutherland, Anthony John Wensley, Virginia Ann Arnold, Ellen Haldeman Ashmun, Norah Kathleen Beaumont, Allison Jeanne Butlin, Elizabeth Ann Cameron, Brenda Jane Hayward, Joan Dianne Hill, Lee Elizabeth Luxford, Cynthia
Lorna MacDougall, Fiona Elizabeth Mills, Joan Frances Robson, Tiana
Margaret Scott, Janice Leslie Tye. Your presence and prayers are much desired and appreciated at the time these people shall undertake their vows of Christian obedience in Confirmation.

The flowers on the Altar of the Church today are to the glory of God and in loving memory of Gordon and Gladys Egbert.

Declaration of Intentions: To highlight the vow-making aspect of Confirmation, we shall use the short order of declaring these intentions at the 11 o'clock Service today. It serves to focus on certain facets of Confirmation so frequently and easily forgotten:

- that Confirmation is a time for those truly convinced of their Faith to be admitted to the full fellowship of the Church.
- that it is a responsibility of the believers to be assured that those entering full membership are ready and informed of this undertaking.
- that the Christian fellowship conveys the expectation that each should pray for the other and support each other since each belongs to the other.
- that Confirmation is the taking over of the baptismal vows so that the individual assumes responsibility for his own conduct, morals, faith and duties as a Christian.
- that all of us could and should be well reminded of the promises we made to God at the time of our Confirmation, and renew those affirmations along with today's candidates.

Sermon Series: As forecast in the Lenten Letter sent out earlier we shall have the privilege of hearing from some laity representing some interesting sectors of our society. Next Sunday Alderman Adrian Berry will speak at 11 o'clock on some of the 'conscience questions' raised in public life. Since he is chairman of city council's housing committee, and with the exposure in the news media recently on this issue, it seems likely some focus will fall on that topic. On Sunday the 23rd we hope to have two Indians representing our partner-parish at Gleichen to speak at both 9:30 and 11. One will probably be a teenager and the other a band councilor reflecting their current hopes and concerns for their people and our ways of sharing in these plans. Two weeks today, March 30th, at both Services Mrs. Mary Ellen Johnson will highlight some of the urgent questions in modern educational systems, especially those which are of humanitarian nature. From her experience as a Public School Board Trustee she will share her concern for programs that reflect a compassionate and intelligent approach to the total education of the person.

Housing Petition: The Church's concern for the welfare of people in their basic need of shelter has been expressed this past week through Inter-Faith's continuing committee on housing and the dynamic leadership of The Rev. R.S.H. Greene, Rector of Good Shepherd Parish. The news media have given full coverage to the episode that developed on 15th Avenue, and this points to the creation of a Housing Bureau to deal with such events before they reach such dramatic proportions.

At the church doors today are copies of a petition which you may sign requesting City Council to establish such a Bureau to:

- protect the rights of tenants
- protect the rights of landlords
- see that the development of our city will be orderly and preserving justice in that development so that the fundamental dignity of man is maintained.

Next Sunday:

- The newly-confirmed are welcomed to their first Communion at 8 a.m. with their families. We shall provide breakfast for them and their parents in the Crump Room, at which time their Confirmation certificates will be given out.
- At the regular A.Y.P.A. meeting at 7:30 a full discussion of the 9:30 Youth Services will be held and plans made for future ones. All teenagers who would like to participate in the Fall Group are warmly invited to come along.

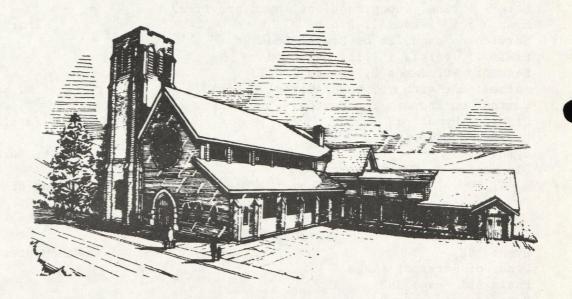

Synod: The parliamentary body of this diocese is its Synod, and it meets this week. Representatives from every parish will come together to reflect, debate and shape the way Anglicans in this area are to serve God and mankind. It commences with a public Service Wednesday night at 7:30 in the Cathedral when the Bishop will deliver a keynote address on the Synod's theme. The sessions on Thursday and Friday are held in St. Peter's Parish Hall, Elbow Drive & 75th Ave., and are open to visitors. On Thursday evening Mr. Arnold Edinborough, well-known journalist and lecturer, will speak at a public meeting to be held in MacEwan Hall, University of Calgary, at 8 p.m. Among the major issues to discuss are the present state of Anglican-United Church progress towards union, the 2-year trial period of merging Anglican Church Women and parish funds and programs, and some renovations in diocesan organization. The annual meeting of the Anglican Church Women of our diocese is also held this week.

Cycle of Prayer: The branch of our Church in Scotland is known as the Episcopal Church in Scotland, and it is for her people we pray this week. To the south and west of Calgary are situated a number of Anglican parishes known collectively as the Meota Parishes under the care of Archdeacon Waverley D. Gant. These are St. Paul, Black Diamond; St.James, Priddis; Christ Church, Millarville; St. George, Turner Valley; Longview. They are singled out for our intercessory prayers this week.

Welcome: We are grateful for the presence of our Bishop as he performs his episcopal function in confirming these candidates. He had a good getting-to-know-you session with them on Wednesday (including supper), and we appreciate the time spent with them. As the diocese heads towards a very busy and important week with its Synod meetings, at which the Bishop presides, we assure him of our prayers for all the work of Synod.

9:30 A FOLK COMMUNION
Theme: "The Four Loves"

A group of teenagers have collaborated to present the central act of Christian worship (the Communion) in a very clear, emphatic manner. The Breaking of the Bread and the Blessing of the Cup recalls Jesus' last meal with the disciples as well as His definite way of presenting Himself to us repeatedly. The central action also includes the offering of us to God, symbolized by the common elements of man's daily life - bread, wine and money.

The Four Loves. The 9:30 Service is an attempt, among other things, to speak of a specific human emotion - love. The Greek language of Jesus' time had identified man's love relationships as being of four dimensions. Filial love (philias) referred to mutual regard between people, a sort of brotherhood emotion. Erotic love (eros) spoke of the intense and dynamic relationship between one human and the object of his passionate love. The idolatrous love (thelo) of possessions, money or anything considered base or silly was in a separate category. The highest expression of love for man was that which he experienced in relation to God (agape) and the way it manifested itself in love for other people. To illustrate and refer to these 'loves' and the supremacy of God's love for us and our capacity to return His love is the theme of this Service.

LENTEN BOOKS. One of our disadvantages in not having ready access to Anglican publishers is that we are often limited in selection of current and topical books. Through the courtesy of Canterbury House, Ottawa, we have a good selection of paperbacks on hand here during Lent for your advantage. They are on display in the old choir room opposite the Christian Education office and may be seen at any time. Somebody will be on duty after each Service to aid you in making selections, and throughout the week the Church office will assist you. These books are for sale, not loan; and what remains at the end of Lent is to be returned to the supplier.

CONFIRMATION. Next Sunday evening at 7:30 this year's class of candidates will be presented for Confirmation by our Bishop. We bring this to your attention so that you might remember them in your prayers and be on hand next Sunday night to support them in their steps toward Christian maturity. As in the past few years, the candidates will state before the congregation next Sunday morning their intention to undertake the vows of Christian obedience. This act of publicly stating their intention is not only for the emphasizing of their solemn promises, but to remind us all of what we undertook in Confirmation, and prayerfully to desire God's fullest strength for them and all of us.

PAINTING. Commencing tomorrow a crew of painters will undertake the complete redecorating of our church interior. Some slight dislocation of events may ensue, but no serious interruptions are expected. Mr. Martin Vernon, the contractor, has offered full co-operation during the three weeks the job may take so that we will have the church cleared for Sundays. We shall be able to continue the daily 5:30 Services without any trouble, also the Wednesday 10:30 in the Chapel. The Tuesday 9:00 Service will be held in the Crump Room on March 11 and 18 (no Service this Tuesday).

A.Y.P.A. Because an earlier scheduled trip had to be cancelled, there were some very disappointed people who hoped to have a weekend in Banff as a gang this winter. Tentative plans are afoot to go next weekend, March 7, 8, & 9, if there is sufficient interest. If any teenagers are interested they should be at A.Y.P.A. meeting tonight at 7:30 in the Crump Room. A letter went out from the A.Y.P.A. President, Jody Wood, this past week, and information is available from her at 252-3591.

OPERATION 30. We remind you of the opportunity to come for 30 minutes of quietness, devotion and Holy Communion daily at 5:30. When it is 'your day' to come, please make an effort to be on hand - or come any day and join the parish family's Lenten emphasis.

"Dear & beloved People: I want to thank you for that wonderful birthday party last Sunday, for the flowers and for that perfectly gorgeous book of Beny's photography which I shall treasure for many a day, and many a cosy night during this awful weather. I knew the Benys in Lethbridge, and met him when he was down photographing the lovely scenery of Waterton Lakes. It is such a joy for me to finish my ministry at Christ Church and to experience the abounding friendship of all you good people - a fine final blessing to this fairly long life. God bless you all.
Yours very sincerely, C. Swanson."

HAPPY BIRTHDAY. To our genial friend Archdeacon Swanson who tomorrow celebrates his eightieth birthday we all heartily express happy birthday wishes. We thank God for his effective service throughout his long ministry, and we enjoy and benefit by his presence here in his retirement. Everybody is invited to the special Coffee Hour following 11 o'clock Service today when we shall have the opportunity to pay our respects to the Archdeacon. (We hope it will be a surprise party as he is brought over from St. Philip's where he is officiating today).

THIS WEEK.

Monday For all Anglican Church Women officers, Vestrymen and Clergy a special discussion takes place on the topic of "integrated programs and budgets". It is held at St. Barnabas Parish Hall, 1407 - 7th Ave. N.W., starting at 8 p.m.

Wednesday. Another party for senior parishioners will take place at $\overline{2:30~p.m.}$ in the Crump Room, and we look forward to a large attendance. If you need transportation please phone Mr. J.W. Ireland (243-0092). Thursday.

1. What: Annual dinner meeting, Canadian Bible Society.

Where: Scarboro United Church Memorial Hall.

When: Thursday, February 27th, 6 p.m.

Guest Speaker: The Rev. Russell Self, Scripture

Distribution Consultant for Asia.

Tickets: $2.00 - Phone 262-4277 by Feb. 24th.

2. "Poverty". The first part of a 3-phase project arranged by the Calgary Inter-Faith occurs this Thursday at 8 p.m. in St. Mary's Hall, 219 - 18th Ave. S.W. Presenting the topic will be Fr. Bill Ryan of Ottawa (economist), Mr. Grant Maxwell of Ottawa (journalist and ecumenist), and the Rev. Mrs. Lois Wilson of Fort William who with her clergyman-husband have set up a highly valued scheme at the Lakehead. From this meeting it will be hoped to generate in local congregations a greater awareness of poverty - its effects, its prognosis and our response. The next stage in this 3-phase project will be a provincial conference at Banff in May to act on local studies.

EVERY DAY. Operation 30 at 5:30 offers you 30 minutes of quiet mood, the Holy Communion, and a special way to keep Lent. If you have been invited for one day this week, try to be there; when you will be prayed for by name on 'your day'.

NEXT WEEK

SUNDAY (March 2). At the 9:30 Service a group of teenagers will supply the music and parts for a Youth Eucharist. This will be the first time a Communion Service has been done by them, and it is likely to be stimulating as it exposes the way we treat the theme of 'Love' in sacrament and life. A special rehearsal for this Service will be held on Wednesday in the Church at 7 p.m., and all teenagers are invited to participate.

Miss Winnifred Gray will address the Winchester Group on Tuesday, March 4th, at 2 p.m. in the Crump Room; and all women of the parish are invited to this special meeting.

ETCETERA

- There are opportunities to place flowers on the Chapel Altar throughout the year. For information on the Sundays available look at the flower calendar in the Narthex and then please call Mrs. W.B. Longshore at 252-4860.
- Synod will meet next month and billets may be required by out-of-town delegates. If you can assist please call The Rev. Peter Niblock at St. Mark's (244-4002 or 244-0198).

CYCLE OF PRAYER

The geographic focus for our intercessions this week continue on from last week as the western dioceses of U.S.A. are remembered.

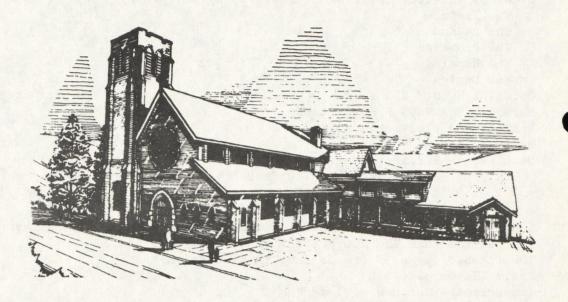

Nevada: William Wright; Utah: Richard Watson; Montana: Jackson Gilliam; Wyoming: Wilson Hunter; Colorado: Joseph Minnis; Arizona: Joseph Harte; New Mexico & Southwest Texas: Charles Kinsolving.

For our own diocesan intercessions we pray for the Parish of St. Augustine, Lethbridge which at the moment also has Church of the Redeemer, Picture Butte attached. The clergy are Roy Lacey Crisfield and Charles Turner Gale.

THIS WEEK.

Ash Wednesday dominates this week as we enter the Season of Lent. The forty days of Lent have many purposes and interpretations, the greatest of which being the preparation of the Christian for Easter. The Cross is the dominant Lenten theme with both its Victim and its Victor calling on us to reflect on His purposes exhibited by His death and resurrection. There will be two Services of Holy Communion on Ash Wednesday, at 10:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m.

Operation 30 is the name we give to our Lenten program of daily Services at 5:30 which begin on Ash Wednesday and continue each week-day (Monday to Friday) until Maundy Thursday, April 3rd. Each family and individual will be invited by postcard to come on a specific day when they will be prayed for by name. The Service will last only 30 minutes (hence the name), and can be for each one a particular Lenten focus.

A Shrove Tuesday Film presentation in the Jubilee Auditorium at 8:30 is being offered by the Calgary Inter-Faith Committee in support of all the church's Lenten appeals for world poverty and the development of peoples. The well-known film lecturer Mel Halverson is donating his services to show the documentary "World in Profile", which is an excellent portrayal of poverty conditions in Asia, Africa, South America, Europe and North America. Tickets are 1.95 for adults, and 1.25 for all students; available at Chinook Ticketorium and Bay Ticket Wicket.

Thanks-A-Million Week is the local effort to express appreciation to all participants in past Miles for Millions marches. As you will have seen in the press, a large gathering was held last night (Saturday) to honour the youth marchers. The churches join in this expression, particularly since from the well over $400,000.00 raised 20% was designated for specific church-sponsored development programs overseas.

Brotherhood Week is the sort of observance that aims at disappearing. To have to point out the continuing abuses in racial questions as it affects housing, employment, education, and health and welfare facilities, is to illustrate the need for Brotherhood Week. The great one family of man still has to work at the acceptance of each other as members of each other.

The Winchester Group will hold a work meeting on Tuesday, February 18th in the Crump Room beginning at 10:30 a.m. Members will bring their lunches, and those who cannot come in the morning may join the work meeting immediately after lunch.

The Ladies' Morning Discussion Group will meet on Thursday, February 20th, at 9:30 a.m. in the Crump Room when it will continue a discussion of the book "But That I Can't Believe". Nursery available. Everyone welcome.

COMING EVENTS.

- On Thursday, February 27th, the Bible Society will hold its Annual Meeting at Scarboro United Church at 6:30 p.m. The guest speaker will be The Rev. Russell Self who is now Scripture Distribution Consultant for Asia and has been a Canadian Presbyterian worker in India.
- The Synod of the Diocese will convene on March 12th, and to accommodate out-of-town delegates some billets are sought. If you can provide hospitality for two nights (12th & 13th) will you please call The Rev. Peter Niblock at St. Mark's, 244-0198 or 244.4002.
- On Monday, February 24th, at St. Barnabas Parish Hall, 1407 -7th Ave. N.W., there will be a presentation of the ways and means of integrating parish budgets and Anglican Church Women's budgets. To bring the work of the A.C.W. into a co-ordinated effort with parochial efforts is a new venture and this question will be examined at that gathering. All A.C.W. executives, Vestry members and clergy are particularly requested to attend.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

The area remembered in the prayers of Anglicans around the world this week is that of Western United States including:

Alaska - William Gordon, Bishop.

Olympia - Ivol Curtis: Spokane - John Wyatt, Bishop.

Oregon - James Carman, Bishop; Eastern Oregon (vacant)

Idaho - Norman Foote, Bishop

California - Kilmer Myers, Bishop; Northern California -Clarence Haden, Bishop.

San Joaquin - Victor Rivera, Bishop

Los Angeles - Eric Irving Bloy, Bishop

The Calgary diocese prayer rota bids us remember in our prayers the Parish of St. Cyprian, Lacombe and the attached congregation of St. John the Baptist, Clive. Canon Leo Sydney Thurston is the Rector of this area.

A Prayer for Children

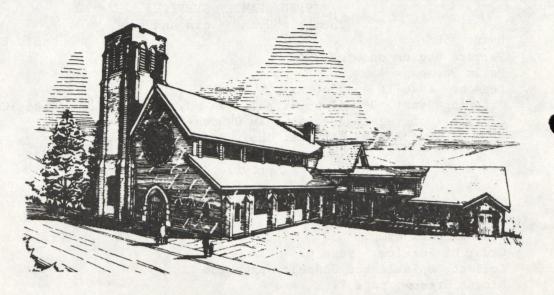

Almighty Father Who has given us earthly parents that we may be loved, governed and taught by Thee through them; Make us ready to obey them and so honour your will. When they have lived longer than us, and have our best interests uppermost, may we learn to respect and cherish their desires and concerns for us.

In all the many ways we can be directed or misdirected, help us to turn first to You for help and guidance. When we do not understand life and its complexities, may we trust You and be given patience to learn and grow.

As Your Son Jesus Christ always addressed you as Father, so may we come to You as the source of our life, our health and peace. In all things may we grow as your children with your love and power in our hearts. Amen.

The A.Y.P.A. (teen-agers) meets tonight at 7:30 in the Crump Room for its regular meeting.

The flowers on the Chapel Altar today are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Lewis W. Caldwell.

Sexagesima theme is the second statement of Christ's Summary of the Law, i.e. you are to love your neighbour as yourself. To put this ethic into practice leads to programs of Christian social activity - an arm of our Church designated as the Diocesan Council for Social Service (D.C.S.S.) One of the D.C.S.S.'s most recent accomplishments is to secure the services of a professional social worker (that's her pictured counselling a couple on today's cover) who is available to Anglican people requiring such aid. To provide this service at little or no fee this Anglican worker is a member of the staff of the Catholic Family Service Bureau, which is a United Fund agency. Through the courtesy and co-operation of the Catholic Bureau we have been able to place this skilled worker at the disposal of all our parishes, while providing her with office space and facilities. Christ Church makes a regular financial contribution to this program, and we have 3 representatives on D.C.S.S.; Mrs. W.J. Magathan, Mr. Art Jeal, and your Rector.

Volunteer Case Workers. Pertaining to the above category, there is a place and appeal for volunteer people to serve in the realm of social work. Based on profitable experience, The Catholic Family Service Bureau is offering a training course for Volunteer Case Workers. The training sessions will be held Feb. 10, 11, 12 & 13 from 9:30 to 11:30 each morning at the C.F.S. offices, 120 - 13th Ave. S.E. (new United Fund Building). The course is open to both men and women, and there are no obligations implied by attending, nor is there any fee.

The objective is to give selected persons some skill in doing individual social welfare work under the guidance and auspices of the C.F.S. wherein the volunteers are matched to the case on a person-to-person basis. To attend or obtain information phone either Mrs. Edmonds at 269-0720 (C.F.S.) or Mrs. Magathan at 243-0678 (Anglican representative).

Jottings. Archdeacon Swanson is in Vancouver today for the dedication of memorial windows in St. Helen's ... Dr. Crabb is officiating at St. Philip's, Elboya, at 8 & 11 o'clock today as they are temporarily without a Rector ... A week Wednesday is Ash Wednesday and there will be Holy Communion at 10:30 a.m. & 5:30 p.m. ... Festival Chorus presents a programme of music for choir, brass and organ on Tuesday night in the Cathedral at 8:30; see poster in hallway ... The A.Y.P.A. presents a dance for teen-agers next Saturday 7:30 - 11 p.m. in the lower hall ... Shrove Tuesday evening Feb.18, at 8:30 in the Jubilee Auditorium plan to see "World in Profile" presented in support of all the church's Lenten appeals for world hunger and needs.

ANGLICAN COUNSELLING SERVICE

When the Anglican Counselling Service was inaugerated October 1, 1968, in a co-operative effort with the Catholic Family Service Bureau, 122 - 17th Avenue S.E., we were very fortunate to have the immediate counselling services of Mrs. Mavis Marteinson available to us.

The Diocesan Council of Social Service takes great pleasure in introducing Mrs. Marteinson to the Diocese of Calgary. She is a charming, competent and dedicated counsellor. Her education as a graduate from the School of Social Work, University of Manitoba, has led her into such areas as counselling unmarried Mothers with the Children's Aid Society in Hamilton, Ontario, and the Foster Care and Adoptions program with the Children's Service Center in Montreal. Mrs. Marteinson has served with the Catholic Family Service Bureau in marital counselling for the past four years. Mrs. Marteinson is available to the Anglican Community, two and one-half days per week, in such areas as interpreting the Counselling Service to the community and in acting as a case worker in specific problems.

Mrs. Marteinson is an Anglican. She is married and the mother of three children who are attending elementary and senior high school.

"A basic part of the philosophy of Social Work is to accept the person's attitudes and work within his framework."

- Mrs. Marteinson

TODAY has many connotations, so to shed some light we offer these comments:

- (a) Septuagesima The name is derived from the Latin word meaning "seventieth" to indicate how many days (approx.) before Easter (French sept 7). For from now on all the days and events are being measured from the monumental event of Easter. It also ushers in a pre-Lenten season which turns Christians thinking to God's action on our behalf. The whole liturgical patterm of lessons, psalms, and hymns today speak of God's first and constant activity, His creativity. The theme of Septuagesima is that the whole created universe, all the plant and animal kingdoms and the totality of human life is derived from some Power and Mind we name God. It also looks forward to the redeeming of all this Creation by the self-offering of God's Son, Jesus Christ.
- (b) Feast of Presentation. It just happens that on today, Feb. 2, we always recall the historical event when Mary took her six-week-old baby to the Temple in correct Jewish fashion to have her child blessed and herself purified. The Biblical account in Luke 2:22-40 is a beautiful story with many overtones of what is in store for this Holy Child. This observance is also called the Feast of the Purification of the Virgin Mary for it marked the end of Mary's ceremonial isolation after the birth.
- (c) In lighter vein today has some legend about the groundhog and his shadow which if seen means we are in for more winter. Having already had an over abundance of winter, we can think of no finer thing for every groundhog to do than stay out of sight!

Reporting events of the past week or so we can begin by saying that the Ecumenical Service last Sunday afternoon went on as scheduled despite the blizzard that raged. An ardent but somewhat reduced congregation was on hand, and good things were said by Father Pat O'Byrne in his sermon. The teenagers of the three churches added some vitality to the Service with their folk hymns. It has been suggested that this event be re-scheduled for another time of the year to avoid unfortunate weather conditions; and, it is also felt that these joint Services have much merit and ought to be sustained.

The Annual Meeting of last Monday night also bears some reporting for its good support and participation. Nearly 90 persons (and their cards) defied 28 below to attend and carry out the parish's business. Mr. Roy R. Baker was named Rector's Churchwarden and Mr. Merv. S. Devonshire was re-elected to be People's Churchwarden. The ballot for Vestry offered a fine slate of names, and the following 12 were duly elected: R.S. Arnold, Stephen Brown, Mrs. C.G. Crosland, W.J. Harvie, Mrs. W.E. Howard, H.R. Lawrie, D.J. McLaughlin, C.H. Norminton, H.G. Officer, J.S. Palmer, R.M. Ridley, D.B. Smith. Our parish's delegates to Synod in March will be R.R. Baker, M.S. Devonshire, K.M. Manning, /contd...

W.B. McQueen, C.H. Norminton, Col. J.E.H. Tidswell; or their Alternates: J.A. Askew, A.P. Drever, W.E. Howard, Mrs. D.B. Smith, L.J. Valentine, J.B. Webb. A budget of $102,000.00 was presented, discussed and finally approved, representing as it does a deficit budget of some $5,000.00. To remedy this deficit situation strong recommendations came from the meeting to seek financial support from over 300 families who claim membership here and use this church's resources but have declined to give any tangible support to date. Copies of the Annual Report of the Parish are available free at the Church doors today for any person to take and read.

Around the Parish.

- The A.Y.P.A. (all teenagers) are invited to meet at St. Mark's Church, 33rd Avenue & 16th Street, S.W. tonight at 7:30, to join in a modern service. They have definite plans for another Youth Service at 9:30 soon, and even more specific plans for a Teeners' Dance in the Lower Hall on Feb. 15. Watch your school bulletin board for posters.
- The Winchester Group will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 2 p.m. At this, their first meeting since the A.C.W. annual meeting, the group's current executive will be installed.
- This weekend the facilities of Christ Church are again being used by a group attending the Marriage Preparation Course. Some twenty couples are registered for this seminar conducted by the Deanery of Calgary.
- Please remember that on Thursday, Feb. 27, the Annual Meeting of the Bible Society will be held in Scarboro United Church at 6:00 p.m.

Cycle of Prayer.

The focus for our prayers this week is on the dioceses which lie to our west and form the ecclesiastical Province of British Columbia, plus one Alberta diocese.

British Columbia: Harold Sexton, Bishop

New Westminster: Godfrey Gower, Archbishop, Prov. of British Columbia.

Cariboo: Ralph Dean, Bishop Kootenay: Edward Scott, Bishop

Caledonia: vacant

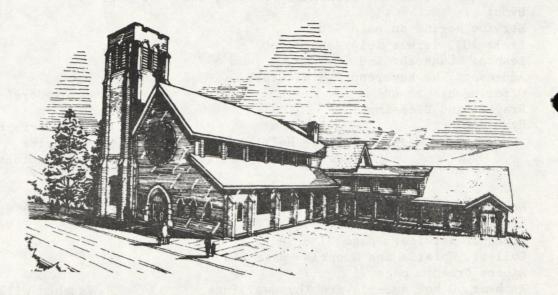

Yukon: John Frame, Bishop

Athabasca: Reginald Pierce, Bishop

Within our diocese we place the High River parishes in the forefront of our prayers. These are St. Benedict, High River; St. Aidan, Pekiski; and St. Thomas, Dinton; cared for by The Rev. Douglas George Jackson and The Rev. Thomas Betton.

ECUMENICAL SERVICE TODAY

3 p.m. at Riverview United Church, 824 Imperial Way. To Mark the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

Sponsored by Anglican, United and Roman Catholic Churches Preacher: Fr. Pat O'Byrne. Participation by Clergy and Laity of all Churches, including Folk Groups. WELCOME. No one would dispute that the University today is a community where there is a concentration of people, ideas and dynamic change. It is our pleasure to warmly welcome today the Anglican Chaplain at the University of Calgary, The Reverend David J. Carter, who in his capacity respresents our Church's concern for this community. In his ministry to students, faculty and all university personnel we recognize the special forms and problems encountered. His work also includes the same responsibility at the Southern Alberta Institute of Technology. On this occasion of his visit to Christ Church we wish to express to him our keen interest and assurances of support.

We deem it appropriate, also, on the occasion of Mr. Carter's visit to draw your attention to his book "Where the Wind Blows". This historical review of the Diocese of Calgary's first eighty years is a valuable manual and is available in the Church Office at any time($1.50) or during the Coffee Hour today.

Library Reminders. We wish to underline two points which may be of help to you and benefit our library. First, to encourage you to use your library facilities - and this means children, youths and adults, are welcome to take out books at any time for their reading pleasure and enrichment. The periodicals can also be borrowed and we hope you will develop the habit of surveying them for their high news value. Second, to remember most of our books have been given as donations. At the moment we have run low on funds to buy more books. We encourage the idea of giving books as a lasting gift; they can serve as memorials, thank-offerings, tributes or any designation can be mentioned in the name plate. The Library Chairman is Mr. J.B. Ashmun.

YOUR PARISH ANNUAL MEETING

TOMORROW NIGHT - JAN. 27, 1969, 8 p.m., Crump Room ELECTIONS - REPORTS - 1969 PROJECTS - BUDGET YOUR PRESENCE, PARTICIPATION, VOTE AND PRAYER COUNTS

The flowers on the Altar of the Chapel today are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Mr. and Mrs. H.W. Ford.

The Rector found this comment written by an American Rector this week and passes it on - maybe it says something to those who feel lukewarm about our Annual Meeting.

"I want to give some reasons why I think you should be there.

First, the parish belongs to you. It belongs to you just as surely as a corporation in which you are a shareholder belongs to you. It is your privilege to be informed about the parish. It is also your responsibility to share in its decisions.

Second, in our society we are more and more being influenced by the pressure to abdicate, to let someone else think, act, do and be for us. This is contrary to the Christian impulse in which we are so clearly charged not only to carry our own burdens, but to share the burdens of others.

Third, the Anglican Church is a democracy. For better or for worse it is a democracy with all the strengths and weaknesses of a democracy, and few churches can legitimately claim this, including many branches of the Anglican communion. A democracy works or fails according to the conscientious participating of its members.

Fourth, our parish is in your hands. This is unusual, and rather daring because it implies what sort of stance we shall adopt not only towards our local affairs, but towards the diocese and the whole Church, national and international.

Fifth, each year at the annual meeting we elect men and women to govern the parish as its Vestry, and to represent us at the Synod of the Diocese. These men and women are your friends, and neighbours, and fellow-parishioners. They devote a great deal of time and energy to the tasks you ask of them and they deserve to know that they have been elected by as inclusive and representative a cross-section of the parish as possible. The more people there to vote for them, the greater confidence they have in representing you. They deserve your support."

Churches sometimes have the image of being run by small privileged "in" groups. Only you can prove that this is not so here. Let us keep Christ Church in the hands of the people who worship, pray, give, support and care for it. This will happen when you participate tomorrow evening at your Annual Meeting.

This Service, like similar previous ones, has been initiated, arranged and prepared by the team of teenagers who today participate in its conduct. There is one exception, Michael Ebsworth, who has given valued help and assistance on the guitar at these Services. It should be mentioned that any teenager wishing to take part in future Services can readily do so and should speak to any one of the group they see in action today. The full text of today's Service is found on a separate sheet which the congregation may retain.

The leaflet this Sunday conveys to you the following MESSAGES:

From the Youth: The teenagers of Christ Church are having a "Grubby Night" tonight. Come and "LISTEN" to what our generation is singing, thinking and saying. Wear old jeans and sloppy shirts and bring any records that you want to discuss. Is there some topic you'd like to bring up with a group of your contemporaries? Come tonight and discuss it. This is our first effort at a "Grubby Night". Come at 7:30 and make it a success. We have already had two dances - one in October, one in November - and we're planning another for February some time. We meet at 7:30 Sunday evenings. Everyone 13 to 18 is welcome to join us.

From the Ladies:

Don't forget that the annual meeting of the Anglican Church Women of Christ Church is this Tuesday, commencing with dessert and coffee at 1:30. At 2 p.m. Mrs. Mary Ellen Johnson, School Board Member, and parishioner, will speak and open up a discussion on public education. The highlights of 1968 are stated in a printed report prepared for the meeting, and some 1969 plans will be presented.

From the Churchwardens and Vestry:

Everyone should have received notice by now that the Annual Meeting of the Parishioners is called for Monday night, January 27th, at 8 p.m. Following the pattern of recent years a short, well-ordered agenda is being arranged, but still allowing for good democratic principles to prevail. You will received a proposed agenda and financial statements in the mail this week, and the comprehensive parish report is being assembled now for distribution next Sunday and Monday.

From the Community at large:

- (1) From the organization "Meals on Wheels" comes the invitation to all men and women to attend their dinner meeting this Tuesday, 6:30 p.m. at the Westgate Motor Hotel. Reservations should be made to either 244-4629 or 244-7117; tickets are $3.00. Our parish puts considerable effort into this venture; their current demands require the preparation and distribution of 140 meals per day, and almost 300,000 meals were delivered in 1968 bringing improved health and a feeling that someone cares, to many older citizens of Calgary.
- (2) The Miles for Millions Office appeals for volunteers to write receipts for donations received in the November March. Workers are desired for Thursdays and Fridays, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. (any part of that time) a the office on the Stampede Grounds. While speaking of this event, the present plans seem to indicate there will be another such march this spring and annually thereafter in the spring, to avoid clashing with other community affairs and the risk of unfavourable weather.

From Next Sunday's Calendar:

(1) Our special guest and preacher next Sunday at 9:30 and 11 o'clock Services will be The Rev. David Carter. As the Anglican Chaplain at the University of Calgary and other institutions, his work among the student population equips him to speak of that scene.

(2) Next Sunday afternoon we have the opportunity and invitation to worship with our Roman Catholic and United Church brethren in an Ecumenical Service at Riverview United Church at 3 p.m. The occasion is to highlight the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity being observed January 18-25 around the world. Our special responsibility is to be present and join in common prayers for God's will to be done in and through His Church.

From our Calendar of future events:

- (1) The next public administration of Holy Baptism will be at 11 o'clock on February 9th. Parents who have children to be baptized are asked to contact the clergy soon.
- (2) There will be a Marriage Preparation Seminar for those contemplating marriage or recently wed, on Saturday and Sunday, February 1 and 2, at Christ Church. Registration forms and details are available from the Church office at any time.

From our Cycle of Prayer:

Our prayers for the Church in this week of Prayer for Christian Unity embrace the whole of Christendom. So we pray:

"That all our Church communities may be continually open to the liberating work of the Holy Spirit;

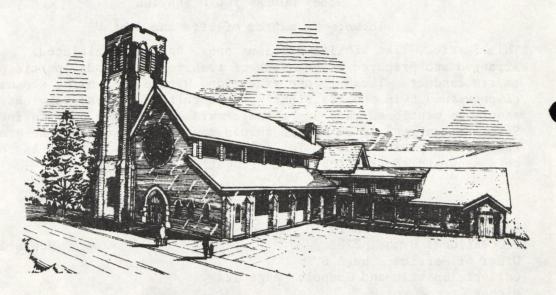

"That through the Church the joy, the glory, and the freedom of that Spirit may break anew upon the world;

"That we may be quick to discern the working of that same Spirit in all the life of men, and to share his work."

In the Diocese of Calgary our prayerful remembrances are for the parishes of Christ Church, Fort Macleod and St. Cyprian, Brochet; The Rev. Ernest R. Doyle is their parish priest.

The teen-agers meet tonight at 7:30 in the Crump Room for their regular meeting.

THIS WEEK

- The Study Group for Women will meet on Thursday next, January 16th in the Crump Room at 9.30 a.m. A welcome to all. The subject for study and discussion will be taken from the book "But That I Can't Believe", by Bishop Robinson, obtainable now in paperback at Evelyn de Mille and other bookstores, priced 85¢.
- The Calgary Anglican Immigration Assistance Committee is a group of about 30 persons who have and continue to make it possible for persons and families to come to this country and become established. The annual meeting of this group occurs on Wednesday night, January 15, at 8 p.m. in the Crump Room. The meeting is open to everyone, and a warm welcome is extended to all by the president, Mr. Roger Davis.
- Wednesday of this week, January 15, is the deadline for all group reports to be submitted to the Church Office to be printed in the comprehensive Parish Report. This all-inclusive document is prepared for the Annual Meeting on January 27. We ask the co-operation of all presidents, convenors and leaders to receive their material on time.

COMING EVENTS

- Confirmation Study Group for Adults will recommence on Wednesday, January 22nd at 8 p.m., this meeting to be held at 2317 Morrison Street. New members are welcome.
- The Anglican Church Women which includes all the women of the parish - will hold their Annual Meeting on Tuesday, January 21, beginning at 1.30 p.m. with dessert and coffee. A good speaker, an informative, brief year-end report period and the disclosure of next year's projects promise to make this an event deserving of every lady's time and attention.
- In case you didn't know (and sometimes we are accused of not giving enough notice) the Service next Sunday at 9.30 will be presented by teen-agers. Modern speech, prayers and music will be used; the musical support will comprise of two guitars, a mandolin and a string bass.
- Two weeks hence it will be our pleasure to have The Rev. David Carter in our midst again. He is our Chaplain at the University of Calgary and the S.A.I.T. The 'Student Power' movement has drawn a lot of attention lately, and Mr. Carter will be speaking of it at both Services.
- Last January our parish collaborated with other churches of southern Calgary to present an ecumenical Service in St. Gerard's R.C. Church. The occasion was to emphasize the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity observed by nearly all churches throughout the world.

Again this month we shall be participating in a similar Service to be held at Riverview United Church on January 26th at 3 p.m. It is being arranged by the United, Roman Catholic and Anglican Churches of this area and your support is solicited.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

For this week our thoughts and prayers are focused on the church in West Africa. The diocese and bishops of that region are:

Gambia and the Rio Pongas: Timothy Olufosoye

Sierra Leone: Moses Scott

Liberia: Dillard Brown

Accra, Ghana: Ishmael Lemaire Northern Nigeria: John Mort Thadan: Solomon Odutola

In our own area we support by prayerful remembrances the congregations of St. David's, Elnora; St. Columba, Delburne; Holy Trinity, Pine Lake; St. Hilda, Arthurvale; all under the pastoral care of The Rev. Gerald Tearne.

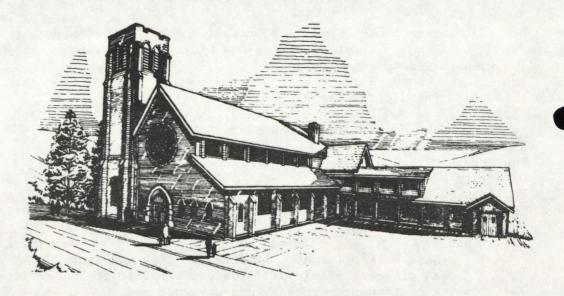

Parents' Prayer

O Almighty God, our heavenly Father, teach me to understand my children and help me always to treat them as well as I know how. Let me listen patiently to what they say and answer all their questions kindly. Keep me from interrupting or contradicting them; make me as courteous to them as I would have them be to me. May I not vainly hurt their feelings; forbid that I should laugh at their mistakes or punish them with ridicule. May I not nag, and when I am out of sorts, O Lord, help me to hold my tongue. Blind me to the little errors of my children; help me to see the good things that they do and to praise them. Keep me in my pride and impatience from interfering in their work and from doing things for them that they can do for themselves. May I never say No to them without a reason and give me the courage to stand by my No once I have given it. Give me grace always to admit I have been hasty or wrong, and may I always be as open and loving to my children as you are to me, gracious Father, who brings good out of our sins and mistakes, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Epiphany. Today is the twelfth and last day of Christmas ushering in the new Season of Epiphany tomorrow, January 6th. Taking its origin in the Gospel account of the Visit of the Kings to the Christ-Child, the implications of this observance follow very naturally on the theme of making Christ known to all nations. Just as the word 'epiphany' in Greek means to show forth, so our attention is focused on whom we have to show forth to the world as Saviour and Lord. There is still a very large part of the Christian world, namely the 200 million adherents of the Orthodox Churches, which claims that this feast is more worthy of the attention than the Birth is. Hence, the celebration for them occurs not on December 25 but January 6. For all the Christian world, the Epiphany has to be the touch-stone when we come back and recall that Christ came for all men, for all time, and His love is to be made manifest to all.

The Bishop's Invitation. A year ago on the Feast of the Epiphany our Bishop was consecrated. To observe this first anniversary of his consecration he has asked for space in this leaflet to invite all the people of this parish to attend "Open House at Bishop's Court", 1029 Hillcrest Avenue, 3 to 5 in the afternoon, 7:30 to 9:30 in the evening, Monday, January 6, 1969.

There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at the Cathedral at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at which the Bishop will be the Celebrant. All the people of the diocese who are able to attend are warmly invited to share in this Service. Whether we can attend or not, let us all offer prayer for the guidance and grace of God our Father on his servant Morse Goodman as he exercises his episcopal ministry as Bishop of Calgary.

Thanks from the Rectory. Once again the Rectory family have been most kindly remembered in many ways during Christmastide, and to all we convey our love and gratitude for your thoughtfulness. It is one of the touching things at Christmas to be remembered, and we are rather overwhelmed by the way we have received so many greetings. Our thanks go to each and every one, and our prayers and hopes that you all may be happy, healthy and well blessed in 1969.

David Tatchell

In Memoriam. One of the founding families of this parish in 1912 was the Munn family. From that fine family came three sons, each to serve the Church in love and service throughout their lives. The second son, Eric George, entered the ministry in the 1920's and after serving in England briefly and then in several places in British Columbia was made Bishop of Caledonia in 1959. While attending the Lambeth Conference this summer he suffered a cerebral haemorrhage which greatly impaired him. He recovered enough to fly back to Canada from whence he and Mrs. Munn went to Los Angeles for recuperation. There, on Friday, December 27th, he died of a heart attack at the age of 65. Funeral services for the late Rev. E.G. Munn will be at Christ Church Cathedral, Victoria, on Wednesday, January 8th, with interment the next day at Lytton, B.C. where he served for many years among the Indian people he loved so much.

We give thanks to God for the life and witness of His servant, Eric Munn, and extend Christian consolations to his family. We also offer our sympathies to Mr. Reg Munn, the remaining and eldest brother, who is still a steadfast member of this parish.

January Services - Special Rota.

19th - At the 9:30 Service a team of youths will offer a modern style worship Service centering on the theme "a matter of life and death". Contemporary prayers, speech and music will be employed.

26th - At both 9:30 and 11 o'clock we shall have the Rev. David Carter present to be our preacher. He is Chaplain at University of Calgary and S.A.I.T. He has suggested that he say something about the 'Student Power' movement to our congregations.

26th - At 3 p.m. there will be an Ecumenical Service in Riverview United Church to observe the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. This Service will be endorsed and attended by Roman Catholic, United and Anglican Churches of our area. The preacher will be Father Pat O'Byrne, Pastor of St. Anthony's R.C. Parish.

Cycle of Prayer.

(Note: In the past our listing of dioceses to be remembered by prayer throughout the year has been done alphabetically. This year we shall each week remember a whole area of the Anglican world, and hence the dioceses of that area will be shown under this heading in each Sunday's leaflet.)

Then was I born of a virgin pure, Of her I took fleshly substance; Thus was I knit to man's nature, To call my true love to my dance:

In a manger laid and wrapped I was, So very poor, this was my chance, Betwixt an ox and a silly poor ass, To call my true love to my dance:

Carol: "Adam Lay Ybounden"

Peter Warlock

Adam lay ybounden, bounden in a bond;
Four thousand winter thought he not too long.
And all was for an apple, an apple that he took,
As clerkes finden written in their book.
Ne had the apple taken been,
Ne had never our lady abeen heavene queen.
Blessed be the time that apple taken was.
Therefore we moun singen Deo gracias!

Fifth Lesson: St. Luke tells of the birth of Jesus.

Carol: "Watt's Cradle Song"

Stanley Taylor

Hush! my dear, lie still and slumber; Holy Angels guard thy bed! Heav'nly blessings without number Gently falling on thy head.

Sleep, my babe; thy food and raiment, House and home, thy friends provide; All without thy care and payment, All thy wants are well supplied.

How much better thou'rt attended Than the Son of God could be When from Heaven he descended And became a child like thee.

Soft and easy is thy cradle; Coarse and hard thy Saviour lay, When his birthplace was a stable And his softest bed was hay.

Lo, he slumbers in his manger, Where the horned oxen fed; Peace, my darling! here's no danger; Here's no ox a-near thy bed.

Mayst thou live to know and fear him, Trust and love him all thy days: Then go dwell for ever near him, See his face and sing his praise.

Carol: "Sussex Carol"

arr. David Willcocks

On Christmas night all Christians sing, To hear the news the angels bring, News of great joy, news of great mirth, News of our merciful King's birth.

Then why should men on earth be so sad, Since our Redeemer made us glad, When from our sin he set us free, All for to gain our liberty?

When sin departs before his grace, Then life and health come in its place; Angels and men with joy may sing, All for to see the new-born King.

All out of darkness we have light, Which made the angels sing this night: 'Glory to God and peace to men, Now and for evermore. Amen'.

Hymn, 77 - Hark! the herald angels sing (Choir moves to the Altar)

Mendelssohn

Sixth Lesson: St. John unfolds the great mystery of the Incarnation.

Carol: "The Infant King" from an old Basque Carol arr. Edgar Pettman Sing lullaby! Lullaby baby, now reclining, Sing lullaby! Hush, do not wake the Infant King.

Angels are watching, stars are shining
Over the place where he is lying:
Sing lullaby.

Sing lullaby! Lullaby baby, now asleeping, Sing lullaby! Hush, do not wake the Infant King.
Soon will come sorrow with the morning,
Soon will come bitter grief and weeping:
Sing lullaby.

Sing lullaby! Lullaby baby, now adozing, Sing lullaby! Hush, do not waken the Infant King.

Soon comes the cross, the nails, the piercings, Then in the grave at last reposing:

Sing lullaby.

Sing lullaby! Lullaby is the babe a waking? Sing lullaby! Hush, do not stir the Infant King. Dreaming of Easter, gladsome morning, Conquering Death, its bondage breaking: Sing lullaby.

"Where riches is everlastingly" Carol:

Peter Warlock

Into this world this day did come Jesus Christ, both God and man, Lord and Servant in one person, Born of the blessed Virgin Mary.

I pray you be merry and sing with me In worship of Christ's nativity.

He that was rich without any need Appear'd in this world in right poor weed To make us, that were poor indeed, Rich without any need truly.

A stable was his chamber, a cratch was his bed, He had not a pillow to lay under his head; With maiden's milk that Babe was fed, In poor clothes was lapped the Lord Almighty.

A noble lesson here is us taught. To set all worldly riches at naught, But pray we that we may be thither brought Where riches is everlastingly.

For their significant contribution on this Sunday, and throughout Christmastide, we express appreciation to all the choristers for their offering of fine music. Our Organist and Choirmaster, Mr. G. Terence Fullerton, very competently supervises all the music for this parish.

Carol: "The Holly and the Ivy"

Benjamin Britten

፞ኧ

The holly and the ivy are trees that's both well known; Of all the trees that grows in the woods, the holly bears the crown.

The rising of the sun, the running of the deer, The playing of the merry harp, sweet singing in the choir.

The holly bears a blossom as white as any flower; And Mary bore sweet Jesus Christ to be our Sweet Saviour.

The holly bears a colour as green as any tree; And Mary bore sweet Jesus Christ to set poor sinners free.

The holly bears a berry as red as any blood, And Mary bore sweet Jesus Christ to do poor sinners good.

The holly bears a prickle as sharp as any thorn; And Mary bore sweet Jesus Christ at Christmas Day in the morn.

The holly bears a bark as bitter as any gall, And Mary bore sweet Jesus Christ for to redeem us all.

Third Lesson: St. Matthew tells of the birth of Jesus.

Carol: "Nowell, Nowell" Elizabeth Maconchy

Nowell, Nowell sing we now all and some. For rex pacificus is come.

In Bethlehem in that fair city. A child was born of a maiden free. That shall a lord and prince be; A solis ortus cardine.

Children were slain in full great plenty Jesus, for the love of thee: Wherefore their souls saved be: Hostis Herodis impie.

Tomorrow shall be my dancing day: I would my true love did so chance To see the legend of my play. To call my true love to my dance: Sing O my love, my love; This have I done for my true love.

THE FOURTH SUNDAY IN ADVENT

December Twenty-second, 1968.

8:00 HOLY COMMUNION
The Liturgy on pages 67-86
Collect, Epistle and Gospel: page 102

11:00 SERVICE OF LESSONS AND CAROLS

Processional Hymn, 733 - Once in royal David's city Irby (1st verse solo; congregation join 3rd verse)

First Lesson: Isaiah foretells the peace that the Messiah will bring.

Carol: "A spotless Rose"

H. Howells

A spotless Rose is blowing,
Sprung from a tender root,
Of ancient seers' foreshowing,
Of Jesse promised fruit;
Its fairest bud unfolds to light
Amid the cold, cold winter,
And in the dark midnight.

The Rose which I am singing
Whereof Isaiah said,
Is from its sweet root springing
In Mary, purest Maid;
For, through our God's great love and might,
The blessed Babe she bare us
In a cold, cold winter's night.

Hymn, 63 - Hark! a herald voice is sounding

Merton

Second Lesson: The Angel Gabriel salutes the blessed Virgin Mary.

Carol: "Lully, Lulla, Thou little tiny Child" Kenneth Leighton

Lully, lulla, thou little tiny child, By, by, lully, lullay.

O sisters too, How may we do for to preserve this day? This poor youngling for whom we sing, By, by, lully, lullay!

Herod, the king, in his raging, Charg'd he hath this day His men of might, in his own sight, All children young to slay.

That woe is me, poor child, for thee! And ever mourn and say, For thy parting nor say nor sing, By, by, lully, lullay. The Girls' Choir is directed by Miss Elizabeth Stileman. At the Coffee Hour following 11 o'clock we all have opportunity to personally express our thanks to these people.

Holy Communion Tuesday, December 31, 9 a.m. and Wednesday (New Year's Day) 10:30 a.m.

Christmas and Driving

Nothing strikes us more tragically than serious mishaps at this Season. The Alberta Motor Association encourages everybody who is hosting friends over this holiday to be "First a Friend - Then a Host", and thereby discourage excessive drinking by guests who will be driving. Anyone who knowingly continues to press drinks on those who need restraint is guilty of a grave offence against his friends and against society. To have joy driving this season, we must give goodness and kindness to all - and that means, among other things, to keep our friends alive on the roads.

Holy Communion in the Christmas Festival Season. Most of us like to attend a Service in Church if this is at all possible. Some members of our Congregation who are elderly and without transport would still choose to go to a Church Service if someone else would take them. If you know of any parishioners unable to come to Church for their Christmas Communion through lack of transport, will you please phone details to the Church Office as soon as possible. We will guarantee transport. If you are willing to help with a car, will you please let us know.

Still others cannot get to Church even with transportation assistance. If you know any such, will you please phone details to the Church Office. The Clergy will be glad to make private arrangements for these.

Welcome. It is our privilege and pleasure to welcome as our celebrant and preacher at 11 o'clock, The Rt. Rev. M.L. Goodman. So often congregations only have the opportunity to see and hear their Bishop when he is presiding at a Confirmation or some other very special occasion. To have him in our midst as the Chief Pastor of this Diocese celebrating the Communion and preaching to his people of Christ Church Parish is greatly appreciated. So we bid our Bishop a most warm welcome here today.

Cycle of Prayer. Western Michigan, U.S.A. Bishop Charles Bennison. This diocese comprises the western half of Michigan's lower peninsula. Although established in 1874, Kalamazoo has just now been made the see city. Hopefully their plans will create a Diocesan Centre and Cathedral of such exciting dimensions to be called "America's Coventry". By 1990 it is expected to be one of the largest centres between Chicago and Detroit.

The Parish of St. George's in-the-Pines, Banff; with St. Michael's, Canmore - The Reverend Peter Elton Millen. Like any centre of tourism, Banff presents special pastoral problems in ministering to an element of townsfolk. - parishioners and a swollen population at peak periods. Canmore is one of those communities which has a small loyal congregation but cannot now sustain a resident priest.

The Living Message is the official publication of the Anglican Church Women of Canada. It is an interesting and informative little magazine published monthly, and the plans for 1969 call for more emphasis than ever upon its vitality and timeliness. The subscription is only $1.50 a year, and issues will be sent directly to you. Please call Mrs. Cutler at 243-3056 now so that you won't miss a single copy.

9:30 Services. For your information and easy reference we are listing the nature and themes of the 9:30 Services. These have been prepared by the Steering Committee who hope you will note them and be better prepared to participate as you attend.

- January 5 Theme: "Booze" Family Service
 - 12 A teaching sermon on "Why people use symbols". Family Eucharist.
 - 19 Youth Modern Service. Theme: "Death"
 - 26 Family Service. Rev. D. Carter, University Chaplain, will lead discussion in Church on "Student Power to Christian Power".

Christmas is Sharing. This is the theme we emphasized last Sunday when a generous response on White Gift Day produced a large supply of useful gifts for the people of St. John's Parish on the Blackfoot Reserve at Gleichen. Today we are sharing our ministry of music as the Boy Choristers and Adult Choir sing at Glenmore Park Auxiliary Hospital at 6:30 p.m. This week we shall share our Church and hall facilities with the students and staffs of both Strathcona and Tweedsmuir Schools on Tuesday and Thursday respectively as they conduct their Christmas Services and programs. To all who make such sharing possible we express gratitude on behalf of the recipients.

Next Sunday - Carols. At the 11 o'clock Service next Sunday both 9:30 and 11:00 congregations will join for the beautiful Service of Lessons and Carols. This annual and traditional act of worship skilfully combines the Scripture lessons with the rich treasury of choral music and favourite carols to create one of the most anticipated and appreciated Services of the year. Because of the combined congregations attending we can only urge you to be early to ensure a good place in the pew. The Cherubs and pre-schoolers will meet as usual, but all school-age children will stay throughout the Service.

Christmas Schedule. For your early information and notice we are listing below the schedule of Services for the Christmas Season. The usual printed card will come in the mail this week bearing all the details.

TO-DAY

As evidenced by our leaflet covers, we coincide with the Prayer Book emphasis to mark Bible Sunday. In so doing we focus on three factors: first, to draw attention to the primary place the Bible has in our teaching, worship and nourishment; second, to acquaint people with the many excellent modern versions that put Bible reading into the category of easily understood, enjoyable reading; third, to point out the need for stepped-up production to meet the vast world market in the rising rate of literacy. To deal with this latter condition the Vestry and the A.C.W. send a corporate gift to the Bible Society; and the individual envelopes are distributed today to allow anyone to donate at any time to this great cause. Throughout the year Mr. N.E. Birch, 3918 - 4th Street, S.W. serves as the Bible Society representative in our parish and will gladly receive and receipt your donation.

Our White Gifts are being received at all the Services to-day and will be shipped tomorrow to St. John's Parish, Gleichen. The children will place theirs in the larger containers at the Chancel steps during the Service, and the adults may place theirs in the marked boxes found in the entrance ways. The Rev. John Prince at Gleichen has informed us of the great value and appreciation placed on this project, and he will personally supervise the distribution. Cash donations are also in order and will be used for supplementing Christmas foodstuffs. On the Blackfoot Reserve 60% of the people are on public welfare assistance.

Tonight at 8 p.m. in St. Mary's Boys' High School Auditorium a panel forum will be presented entitled "New Dimensions in Ecumenism". Several denominations will have spokesmen on hand; and two outstanding men in the realm of Christian unity will comment, in the persons of Father J. Keating and Professor Eugene Fairweather, both from Toronto. The public is invited to attend and also put questions to the panel.

NOTES

Due to insufficient registrations, the teenagers' Banff weekend planned for this weekend had to be cancelled. We find this a bit puzzling - but that's what happened. We feel very disappointed for those who keenly wanted to go, and hope to arrange alternate plans for them in January or February.

Next Sunday at 11 o'clock we shall welcome our Bishop as Celebrant and Preacher for the Choral Eucharist. Sometimes congregations only see their Bishop when he comes to carry out a Confirmation or some special duty. We are happy to have him simply as our Chief Pastor visiting us and presiding at our regular worship.

God's Word for a New Century

As Canada enters its second century, in common with men everywhere, it is confronted by the challenge of controlling and constructively utilizing the benefits of science and technology. Man has to decide how to use the enormous powers that are now his. The Bible has a realistic view of man and sees his possibilities for greatness without ignoring the fact of sin. The Bible offers norms for human living valid in every age in every country and without which no just and stable society can be built.

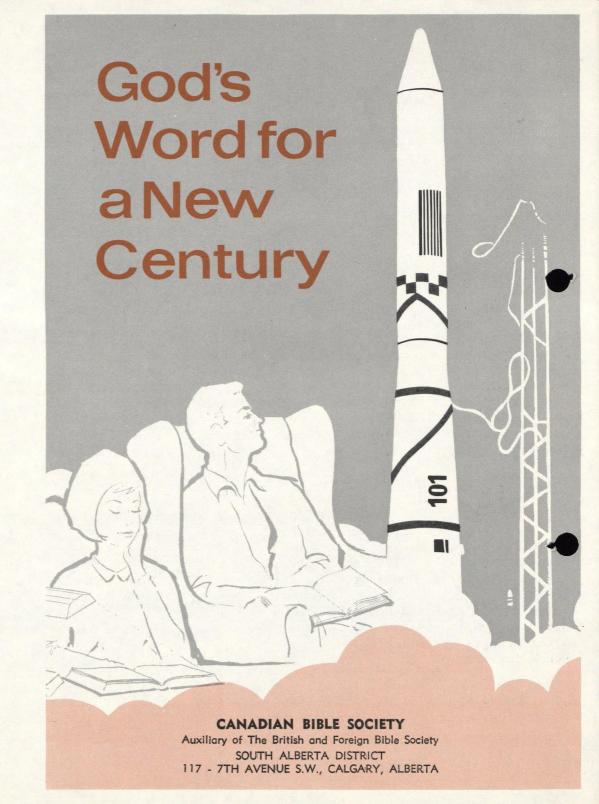

God's Church is Built and Renewed by God's Word In what is called the Coffee Mountain area of Brazil there is today a well organized and active church. It traces its origin to a few Bibles sold by a Bible Society colporteur to local farmers. The farmers began to talk to one another about the Book they were reading. This led to their meeting together to read and discuss the Bible, which in turn led to the holding of Sunday services. Years later the little company, by then about 150 in number, linked themselves to the Presbyterian Church of Brazil. The great periods of renewal in the life of the Church have followed the rediscovery by the Church of the Bible.

The modern missionary movement was born of a fresh understanding of the Scriptures. Today, wherever one finds reformation and renewal in the Church it has grown out of a new interest in the Bible, a willingness to submit to its authority and to be directed by its teaching.

The Spirit of God Uses the Word of God to Make a Child of God

From every corner of the earth come stories of lives completely changed through reading the Bible. John Subhan is a Bishop of the Methodist Church in India. As a boy he attended a Moslem school and studied the Koran under the direction of the mullah. He had no associations of any kind with Christian people or Christian institutions. He had never met a Christian. He had certainly never listened to any Christian sermon. Then he read a Gospel. Only one! "It was sufficient," he said, "it convinced me and I decided to become a Christian." There was no other influence at work except the single Gospel.

For the Bible to speak to individuals, to the Church and to the world it must be widely distributed in language that is understood and in attractive format. In most countries this is possible only if the Bible is provided at a fraction of its cost. The Canadian Bible Society depends on the Churches and the Christian people of Canada for the support essential to carry on its world-wide work.

4:00 SERVICE OF ADVENT PROCESSION

SENIORS' SOCIAL

Thursday, December 5, 2:30 p.m.
Crump Room

A hearty invitation to all our senior parishioners (Mrs. Sedgewick in charge of tea),

TODAY

Advent, which commences today, is a resplendent Season where rich meanings come forth from its historic and Biblical tradition. A cursory examination tells us that

-- it marks the Church's "new year" as once again the cycle starts here that over the next twelve months will bring to our notice all the events of Christ's life, plus commemoration of major Christian persons and epochs, plus time to reflect and grow in the significance of the Gospel message.

-- it speaks of the Royal Son of David, the Messiah, Who is to be born as this world's Saviour. So the royal purple dominates the hangings and points to the King Who, though He comes in the lowly stable birth-place, rises triumphant over sin and death ultimately. -- it gives a wondering, wandering world a period of preparation -- not the mad shopping, card-sending, party-going pre-Christmas preparation -- but the time to prepare for our Christ Child so that there may be room in "the inn of each man's heart". The Advent Wreath simply and meaningfully speaks of the opportunity to get ready for Christ's-mass - our celebration of His Birth.

Today there will not be any Teenagers' meeting at 7:30 p.m., but we do remind all our youth to get their Banff registrations in fast. See details under separate heading.

At 4 p.m. the very special and beautiful Service of Advent Procession is held to which we invite you all most warmly. The lessons, hymns, carols and responses all bring out the wonder of Christ's Coming. The music ranges from sixteenth century to that composed in 1967. Do not hesitate to bring the whole family — it is not a long Service, but very artistically arranged.

The flowers on the Church Altart today are to the glory of God and in loving memory of Mr. & Mrs. G.T. Allum.

THIS WEEK

On Tuesday morning at 10:00 the ladies of the parish are encouraged to attend the annual Corporate Communion of the Anglican Church Women. We hope to see the officers of the organizations come to this Service because it is here specifically we offer to God corporately all our past services and accomplishments, while all the time seeking His guidance and blessing on the on-going work carried out by them in this parish. Strong support for the officers is encouraged at all times, and so on Tuesday we hope to see, as well, lots more than the officers in attendance.

When an adolescent class is in process of being arranged for Confirmation there are two kinds of guidance which are essential for good results, namely parents and leaders. So on Thursday night at 8 p.m. in the Crump Room the clergy look forward to sharing, discussing and planning with the parents of what are the best ways to achieve a good Confirmation preparation for their adolescents. We hope that if any parents cannot attend they will be kind enough to inform the Church Office.

NEXT SUNDAY - DECEMBER 8th

WHITE GIFT DAY will be observed in one week's time when we all have an opportunity to share out of our possessions with those who have real needs. As in previous years our White Gifts will go to our partner-parish, St. John's, Gleichen. Details have gone to all families with children, but we do emphasize that all adults can participate too. Foodstuffs and warm clothing are recommended for adults to give; and should be simply marked, and whether suitable for man or woman.

By next Sunday it is expected some 36 teenagers from this parish will be concluding a special weekend at Banff that begins on Friday. Notices about this went into the mail last Tuesday, and registrations must be in by this Tuesday, Dec. 3rd. The trip starts with a charter bus leaving here at 5 p.m. Friday and returning Sunday afternoon. There will be conference sessions Friday night and Sunday, with Saturday given to skiing or other recreations. Total cost, including bus fares and meals and accommodation is $8.00. Information and registration forms are available at the Church Office today.

Next Sunday at 8 p.m. in St. Mary's High School Auditorium panelists from the Lutheran, Presbyterian, United, Roman Catholic and Anglican Churches will speak on the topic, "New Dimensions in Ecumenism". This is an open assembly and should be very stimulating and informative. Two experts will be on hand in the persons of Father J. Keating and Prof. Eugene Fairweather, both of Toronto and both members of the international group engaged in R.C.-Anglican discussions.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

Virginia, U.S.A.: Bishop Robert Gibson

"Faced with fast multiplying opportunities for service inside and outside its boundaries, which severely tax its resources and organizational structure, the Diocese of Virginia is undergoing a radical self-study and reappraisal of its goals and program under God. The problem of race relations, inner city needs; a more effective town and country ministry; a renewed program of evangelism; and calls for assistance outside the diocese -- all present urgent demands."

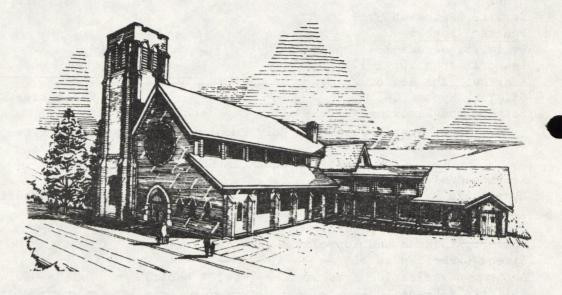

St. George's, Calgary: Mr. Donald R. Yeoman, Layreader.

Situated in the Parkhill area adjacent to the Elbow River where it approaches the Stampede grounds, this small parish valiantly carries on to minister to its families with real concern.
St. Barnabas, Sarcee: The Rev. Rodney O. Andrews.

Linked together with Midnapore and Okotoks, this all-Indian parish has all the inherent history and challenges of a rural church living very close to a large urban centre.

TO-DAY

- On the fourth Sunday of each month our Servers' Guild meets for breakfast following the 8 o'clock Service. We are grateful for their mothers who provide this meal; today the Christmas Service duties will be arranged for the Servers.
- Following the 11 o'clock Service the parents of the Choir Boys are requested to meet briefly with the Choirmaster and Rector in the St. John room upstairs in the office wing. (Pick up a cup of coffee at the Coffee Hour on your way!)
- The Teenagers will meet tonight at 7:30 in the Crump Room. Hot items on the agenda are the dance (see box notice elsewhere) and the Banff weekend.

- Today is traditionally called "Stir-up" Sunday, taken from the first two words of today's Collect (page 259). It had a domestic connotation for English housewives as the signal to get busy and 'stir-up' the Christmas cakes and puddings. The deeper significance lies in its call to be alert to the Christian new year commencing with Advent and the announcement of the Saviour's coming.

ADVENT PROCESSION: We are ever seeking ways to make emphatic some Christian characteristics in our society. One built-in way for Anglicans is to observe the Church Year, because of its obvious attention to the historical facts of our central Person, Jesus Christ. So beginning with His coming our Advent Season annually offers an opportunity to take Him seriously and to identify ourselves with Him.

A special Service, enriched with appropriate lessons, prayers and music all on the Advent theme will be held next Sunday afternoon at 4:00 p.m. entitled "Advent Procession". We encourage attendance by parishioners of all ages, for families to share, and for your friends of other churches to be invited.

SENIORS' SOCIAL: Many parishioners and residents of this area have enjoyed the two previous occasions when they come together for an afternoon's social. Another such gathering will be held on Thursday, December 5th, for our senior people. A warm invitation is extended to them all, and we hope they will come along for a happy hour together. Arrangements are in the hands of Mrs. M.L. Canniff, Mr. John Ireland, Mrs. E. Fleury and Mr. Arthur Millard.

WHITE GIFT DAY will be observed on December 8th for the presenting of suitable Christmas items for distribution to our Indian congregations. Suggestions of suitable gifts will be outlined in a letter to all the pupils of the Church School and we request the co-operation of parents in this regard.

LADIES OF THE PARISH: Written into the constitution of the Anglican Church Women of Christ Church is a requirement to arrange for and attend an annual corporate Service of Holy Communion on or near St. Andrew's Day (Nov. 30th). We presume this obligation is not to ensure that the ladies go to church once a year (!) but rather to have a specific occasion when all their past endeavours are humbly offered to God as their composite expression of love and devotion to His Church; also, to be a time to focus on our desire to serve Him well in the forthcoming year. For this entirely sound reason we then encourage many ladies (not just a faithful handful) to be present for their Corporate Communion on Tuesday, Dec. 3rd at 10 a.m.

"NEW DIMENSIONS IN ECUMENISM" is the title of a presentation to be made by men representing many church bodies at an ecumenical evening on Dec. 8th. 8 p.m. at St. Mary's R.C. Cathedral Parish Hall.

Two special guests at that gathering will be Father J. Keating of St. Michael's College, Toronto, and Professor Eugene Fairweather, of Trinity College in the same city. These two clerics were among a select group that engaged in the top-level R.C.-Anglican conversations over the past year at three conferences in Italy, Malta and England. This gathering is open to the public.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

Trinidad & Tobago, West Indies: Bishop William Hughes.

Because of the preponderance of African and Indian descended groups the population of these islands resembles the mainland more than it does the rest of the West Indies. So it follows that the Church in this area is related to the mainland where a new diocese has been created (Venezuela) having close association with these two islands. Economically, this part of the world is enriched by tourism, but the sugardominated economy is being varied with the development of vegetable crops for both exports and diets.

Venezuela, South America: Bishop Guy Marshall.

Into an area calling for close co-operation with other churches, a real understanding of under-developed areas and the ferment of a volatile continent, the Church has placed a former Torontonian, Guy Marshall, as the first Bishop in a demanding new diocese. Among his staff is Miss Edith Galbraith of Calgary, who is a specialist in pre-school work to develop their day-care program in the diocese.

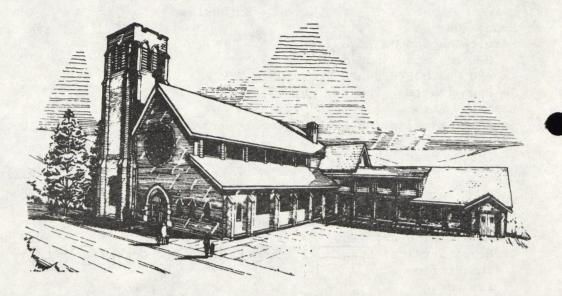

Church of the Holy Nativity, Calgary: The Reverend Creighton D. Chew. Serving the Acadia, Fairmount and Willow Park areas, this parish has a great challenge to cope with the city's rapid expansion south and east. Mr. Chew took up his duties there this fall, coming from Edmonton, and we pray for him and his congregation every success in ministering to these suburban families.

> 9:30 FAMILY SERVICE Theme: "On Hypocrites"

A month ago a team of young people presented the 9:30 Service in a completely modern idiom; today it is carried out again by them at the enthusiastic urging of those present last time. Employing current forms of speech and music, they are attempting to phrase worship in the patterns of today's world. The full text of the Service is to be found on a separate sheet which you may keep and maybe want to use again elsewhere. Co-ordinating the Service are Irene Birch, Liz Crabb and Janice Steele, assisted by several others; the guitarist is Michael Ebsworth.

Pentecost

Today we are making a special point of offering at the 11 o'clock Eucharist all thepledges received to date from our parishioners. We regret that we cannot wait till every single pledge is returned before we make this offering because we would like everyone to feel his intention for 1969 was included in this offertory. However, today marks the close of our Visitation period, and we hope any persons who have not yet replied to this appeal will do so soon. From the General Chairman, Mr. Rod J. Whitehead, his committee and the Churchwardens, a sincere word of thanks is ectended to all who participated gladly and generously to support the Church and its work.

"THIS WEEK IN THE PARISH"

- The pre-Christmas Coffee Party and Bazaar (auspices Winchester Group A.C.W.) will be held on Friday of this week from 10 a.m. to 12:30. The Thursday morning workshops have created many attractive bazaar items, and there also will be Christmas baking, home cooking, knitted goods, etc. Admission is 50¢, and a nursery will be provided.
- The Monthly Study Group meets on Thursday next, November 21st, in the Crump Room at 9:30 a.m. Open to all. Babysitting provision is made. The study books are: 'But that I can't believe', John Robinson: 'Religion in Contemporary Debate', Alan Richardson. The first is now obtainable at Evelyn de Mille. The second is promised immediately. The study subject is on religion today.
- Teenagers meet tonight at 7:30 to make final arrangements for their Nov. 29th dance as well as making further plans for a Banff weekend. All adolescents are invited to attend.
- This weekend at Christ Church we are again hosting the Marriage Counselling Seminar conducted by the Deanery of Calgary for those about to be wed or newly wedded. Various professional people lend their valuable assistance to this regularly scheduled program, thereby providing qualified guidance to those starting out in their marriage careers.
- The Library Committee will meet on Thursday, Nov. 21st, at 8 p.m. in the St. John Room. The Chairman, Mr. John B. Ashmun, points out to all parishioners the great asset we have in our very attractive and accessible library, and encourages people to remember the opportunity to enlarge it by gifts - either as memorials or thankofferings.
- Ladies, please bring to the Winchester Group meeting on Tuesday, November 19th, 1.45 p.m. in the Crump Room, all "Operation Bazaar" bags.
- The Women's Guild section of A.C.W. will hold its regular monthly meeting tomorrow, November 18th, 8:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Sally Erdman, 4324 Coronation Drive.

"FOR GENERAL INTEREST"

- Noon-hour organ recitals are given in the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer every Tuesday from 12:15 to 12:45. This week's recitalist is Bruce Wheatcroft.
- Following last Sunday's Services the poppy wreath was placed on the Cenotaph.
- The Church Calendars for 1969 (65¢) may be obtained at the Coffee Hour following the 11 o'clock Service from Mrs. K. Burris, and also at the Coffee Party and Bazaar on Friday of this week.

"CYCLE OF PRAYER"

Taiwan, China, is the island of 13 million people where the exiled Nationalist government is based. It is a sad little area since it is politically cut off from its parent-country and culture. But it is a place with a future; 50% of the population is under 20 and there is no race of men more keen on education. The Church is deeply involved with education, and the Christian presence is through every level - kindergarten to post-graduate studies. The Bishop is James Wong.

Church of the Good Shepherd in western Calgary reaches out into these suburban areas of the city. It carries on a vigorous parochial life under inadequate building circumstances. The Rector is Robert S.H. Greene who is active in several areas of social concern.

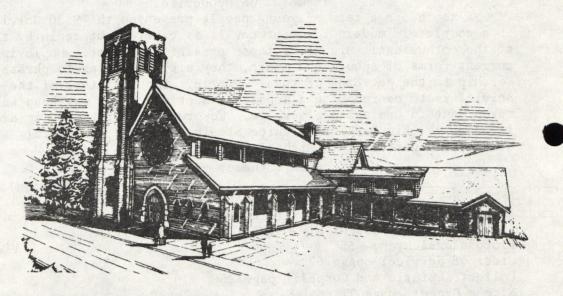

"ECUMENISM"

To keep abreast of all that is happening in the realm of Christian unity throughout the world one would have to read widely and constantly. One things is certain - it is an issue kept alive by persistent outbreaks of concern in every continent and recently given impetus by the international church assemblies at Lambeth and Uppsala. But sooner or later everyone of us has to think about our own attitudes. Is there a latent desire to see the Christian world brought into better and more effective co-operation, and that once touched by the right spark will grow into a strong fire and consume the whole Christian world with its force? Or is there an incurable lethargy and apathy that will prevent any real widespread movement from ever gaining momentum? Or to put the question to ourselves, if a referendum was taken this week what would be the majority desire of this parish if given an opportunity to enter some scheme of unification with other Christians? Maybe, the question is whether we know enough about the whole issue to have a position of integrity, or whether we care enough to know why the question is even being asked.

For those who do know and do care, and whose experience is fascinating and disturbing, we can direct you to the front-page account reported in the Western Catholic Reporter, Nov. 7, 1968, found on the Library counter. The joint experience of Anglican, United and Roman Catholics who tried to live out a valid experiment in ecumenism makes absorbing reading.

4:30 DIOCESAN SERVICE OF THANKSGIVING (EUCHARIST) at the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer

To mark our Diocese's 80th year, we are all summoned to our mother church, the Cathedral, to offer praise for the contributions of our past as well as re-dedication for the future. All parishioners are urged to attend and assemble with all the parishes of the diocese for this momentous occasion.

The flowers on the Altar of the Church today are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of all the men of Christ Church Parish who gave their lives in the two World Wars. The Chapel Altar flowers are in loving memory of Hannah Richardson.

Part of our way of marking our Diocese's anniversary is the publication of a book "Where the Wind Blows". It tells in an excellent style the story of the Church's early life on these prairies. A sample is found on the rear nave table, and copies are available from the Church Office at any time for $1.50.

Pre-Christmas Coffee Party and Bazaar. Please note the date of this event (auspices Winchester Group of A.C.W.) is set for Friday, 22nd November, 10 a.m. to 12.30. The Thursday morning workshops have produced a variety of lovely articles for the bazaar, and Christmas cakes will also be sold. Admission 50¢. Nursery provided. Ladies are asked to return their "Operation Bazaar" bags for the Winchester Group November 19th meeting.

Two additional workshops are being held to prepare bazaar items, and the final one will be on Thursday of this week at 9:15 a.m. in the Crump. Anyone who has taken articles home to finish them is asked to please bring them to this meeting.

Youth Emphasis.

- Next Sunday at 9:30 a team of teenagers will present an entirely modern Service. This will repeat the same style of worship that was enthusiastically received by a large congregation on October 20. It will not be an identical Service to the previous one, but incorporating similar music, prayers and format.
- The week of November 11-17 has been designated as Youth Appreciation Week by the Optimist International, a men's service organization. We are happy to endorse this observance wherein we recognize the accomplishments and capabilities of our younger citizens. Certainly last Sunday's Miles for Millions March clearly demonstrated how willing and able they are of outstanding service to their fellowmen.
- The Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A. are observing a Week of Prayer and World Fellowship from November 10-16. Their request is: "Listen with us and pray for deeper understanding among peoples".

- Southwestern Brazil: Bishop Plinio Simoes. Brazilians are listed as having one of the lowest income rates in the world. The State of Rio Grande do Sul, where this diocese is located, used to be second in importance but now is fifth because of the low economic value of its crops. No wonder South America is a volatile area where many of the leaders, including churchmen, are committed to violence. Doing its best to be present as a Christian force in this context is the Diocese of Southwestern Brazil.
- Situated near Foothills Hospital, the St. Andrew's parish has now been circumscribed by geographical features. It serves the St. Andrew's Heights area rather exclusively. The Rector is Alfred Bell.

 $\frac{A \text{ Reminder.}}{\text{and at any time from the Church Office.}}$ For overseas mailing we urge you to get your copies now.

Requests for Christian people to serve their fellow man come regularly and urgently to your parish office. The most recent is in the realm of mental health, and we pass it on to you and solicit your support. It comes from the Alberta Hospital (Ponoka) Out-Patient Clinic which operates out of Foothills Hospital where rehabilitation of former patients is carried out. They ask for foster homes and half-way houses to bridge the gap between the sheltered life of the mental hospital and the community. "A good foster home family provides emotional support until the individual gains the degree of self-confidence necessary for him to go on his own." To learn more about this program and to offer any assistance please call Mr. V.W. Van Nice at 283-0751, loc. 328; or at 249-6929.

The flowers on the Altar of the Church today are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of A. Carson MacWilliams and Arthur de Rosenroll.

In view of the March for Millions event today there will not be any Evensong or Teenagers' meeting.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. South Florida, U.S.A., is the southern half of that state which is well known for at least three reasons - tourism, Cuban refugees and the rocket-space program. Because of its rapidly expanding population there are plans afoot to divide the Church's work into three dioceses within a few years. Bishops are Henry Louttit, James Duncan and William Hargrave.

On the further outreaches of Calgary's spreading northern and eastern bounds are found two congregations of All Saints and the Church of the Transfiguration. Their Incumbent is Donald Stewart McKinnell.

TODAY

- Our Every Member Visitation is now in full swing and to date many calls have been completed. Our men will be attempting to make the rest of their visits this week, so we again bespeak your courtesy and co-operation in receiving them. Next Sunday when the great majority of pledges have been made, we shall present the pledge cards on the Altar as our offering to God for His work in the world in 1969.
- The exciting Miles for Millions March probably causes a greater community-wide stir than any other happening, with the possible exception of the Stampede. And for the good cause it represents we are glad to see so many of our parishioners involved actively and/or as sponsors. From the funds obtained, those church bodies, like us, who belong to the Canadian Council of Churches, will be forwarding money to two self-help schemes in Kenya that are part of the World Council of Churches All-Africa Scheme wherein 2 million dollars will be spent in the next 5 years for development.
- This time of year brings us to commemorate all the saints of God which is a collective term embracing all those who have by their Godly lives and examples honoured their Lord and left us a great and good heritage. So often we limit our thoughts of saints to specific New Testament figures, but the point of this season is to remember all those in all ages who either knowingly or unknowingly served God well in their lives.

NOTES: - On Thursday morning the final workshop to prepare bazaar items. Ladies meet at 9:30 in the Crump Room, and all hands on deck is the invitation and request.

- Christ Church Teeners will present a second successful Dance on Friday, Nov.29th, so all you Junior High crowd note the date and spread the word.
- In place of its afternoon meeting Tuesday next, Nov. 5th, the Winchester Group will meet at 10 a.m. to bake cakes for its pre-Christmas Bazaar. Please bring a lunch.
- All A.C.W. members are asked to bring their United Thank-Offering boxes to Church next Sunday, Nov.10th, and place them in a box provided in the Narthex.
- Next Sunday to mark our Diocese's 80th year, a special thanksgiving Eucharist will be held at the Cathedral at 4:30 p.m. The Bishop will preach and parishes throughout the diocese will be represented at this mass Service.

RESPONSIBLENESS

"Change and decay in all around I see . . ."

People are bewildered and confused by the changes that seem to be happening at an accelerated rate in our society.

Some are adapting to the changes, as if "change for change's sake" were the way of salvation. Some are deploring the changes as if to say that God has lost control of His world. The Christian however ought to take his bearings from the One "who changes not," and seek to manage change, seeing it as evidence of God working in the world. His hope is not to be saved from, but to be saved in the changes of life.

This conviction is the resource which enables him "to wait amid the uncertainties rather than to attempt to break through into the vacuum of a churchless situation".

"We cannot always meet life's changing situation with one action, but we can meet them with one attiude".

(BRATTGARD: "GOD'S STEWARDS")

"Now Concerning the Collection"

The offering which the Christian makes is the outward and visible sign to the world of his being on Mission. It is part of his responsible stance as a disciple of the unchanging Christ.

"O thou who changest not abide with me."

* * STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY

Today marks the commencement of our Every Member Visitation which will continue throughout the next ten days. This effort is primarily a time of testing our loyalty to the Church and just how far we are prepared to go in financial tangible support to ensure its vitality and work. This financial appeal is integrated, quite rightly we feel, into our worship - not separated from it. For worship is the giving of ourselves to God in Thanksgiving. Many of the reasons for the Visitation have been enumerated through recent mailings. The needs for this parish to have increased pledges have been detailed, and each Visitor will bring this to your attention. But the real reason for giving more and more lies in what it does to us as well as for what it does for others in the extension of the Church's work. Surely one of our privileges in the Christian Church is to share - gladly and freely - in imitation of the way Christ gave all for us and in reaction to God's continuing blessings to us. May we squarely face our responsibilities and have faith to meet our challenges in stewardship.

THIS WEEK'S EVENTS.

- For ladies who are newer to our parish family we issue the warmest welcome to come to the Coffee Hour Monday morning 10 to 11:30 in the Crump Room. We sincerely hope this will be an occasion for meeting and mixing and to warmly greet our newer ladies. Nursery care is provided for pre-schoolers.
- Monday night at 8:30 in the Crump Room there will be a meeting on Adoptive and Foster Homes to which everyone is invited. Mrs. Pawluk, a provincial welfare worker, will speak, and some adoptive parents will be on hand to share their experiences and answer questions. We earnestly urge Christian families to consider opening their hearts to the needs of parentless, homeless babies and children.
- At 9:30 Tuesday morning in the Crump Room the Rector will present an illustrated talk on the meaning, use and purpose of the vessels, vestments and ornaments used in Anglican worship. This is being conducted at the request of the Altar Guild and it is open to anyone to attend. It so often appears that even long-time church-goers are uninformed about many of the component parts of our worship. To know why and how we do things can help us discover greater meaning, and this in turn more deeply value our worship. The regular Tuesday morning Eucharist at 9 in the Chapel will precede the address and, of course, is open to all.
- On Thursday morning of this week and next week a bazaar Workshop is in action in the Crump Room from 9:15 onwards to prepare decorative items for the pre-Christmas Bazaar. Ladies are invited to come and lend a hand.

Theme: Presenting Sorrento

This Service is prepared and presented by three young people of our parish; Irene Birch, Elizabeth Crabb and Janice Steele, who spent some time at the Anglican Lay Training Centre at Sorrento, B.C., this past summer. Sorrento has come to mean a very dynamic and vital episode of Christian living for many youths. It is the desire to relate this enthusiastic Sorrento experience that lies behind this Service today. A group of parish teenagers are assisting in the Service also.

The full text of the Service is found in a separate leaflet which you may keep. The familiar tunes will help you use these words as folk-hymns in your home and other gatherings.

THE PARISH

- Confirmation for Adults. A reminder that those interested in participating will meet this morning at 12:30 with Dr. Crabb to discuss time and place of meetings. Place of today's meeting St. John's room on the second floor, office block.
- Two events of this weekend are singled out for commendation: the Rummage Sale and the Teeners' Dance. Both required considerable effort, organizing and involvement on the part of the sponsors. The Rummage Sale is always a successful event rather like a miracle that turns cast-offs and surplus household items into hundreds of dollars to support projects this parish endorses. To those who gave, worked, managed and carried off this event we extend grateful acknowledgement. The Teeners' Dance was our parish youths' way of saying they are on 'the scene' and the name of the band (Mixed Emotions) has nothing to do with our congratulations to our adolescents for attempting this big affair.

- Tuesday of this week brings one of our major parish gatherings of the entire year the Parish Dinner staged in connection with the annual fall Visitation. You were all asked to send in your reply by today; and if you (oops!) forgot, please mail your card today to reach the office by tomorrow morning, or phone the office tomorrow before noon. Thanks. We are expecting a good crowd and it will be a good meal a guaranteed interesting, audio-visual presentation and all over by 8:30. It simply is not true for anyone to think that they know "all about it" because they went last year or some other year. The undertakings of the church change from year to year, and certainly our proposed 1969 budget will depict this. So for established parishioner or newcomer we urge you to be present on Tuesday night; dinner is at 6:30 with "Attitude Adjustment" from 6:00 to 6:30.
- We note the special effort being put forward by our teenagers in today's 9:30 Service. Let's give credit where and when it is due and show recognition to an often maligned age group.
- For the forthcoming year, 1969, the Anglican and United churches have collaborated to produce a church calendar. It features mainland China which is to be a major topic for study by several church groups in '69. Calendars are available at Coffee Hour or any weekday at the church office for 65¢.

VISITATION

Next Sunday will launch the offical Visitation period wherein between 85 and 100 Visitors will make calls on our parishioners. This annual exercise can easily be misinterpreted to be simply a way to raise enough funds to carry on next year. It must, of course, be much more than that. It calls for three basic questions to be answered, namely:

- What does God's work in the world require?
- What is my responsibility in this work?
 - What is for me a proper stewardship?

So, as we approach this whole venture let's all preface our reactions by some deliberate thought and prayer. Certainly, for the corps of busy men who undertake this Visitation they deserve your co-operation and thoughtful response.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

- The central inland portion of California, U.S.A., forms the Diocese of San Joaquin (Wah-keen), with its hub at Fresno. It must claim the wildest range of topography from the highest mountain in the U.S.A., Mt. Whitney, to the lowest area, Death Valley. It also boasts the largest tree, General Sherman's Sequoia, and the oldest tree (4500 years)! Under M.R.S. aegis they have a priest and teacher working in Botswana, South Africa, and a priest in Ecuador. The bishop is Sumner Walters.

- Situated in the northwest sector of our city is the Parish of St. Cyprian with a fine set of buildings overlooking Confederation Park. Serving the sprawling suburbs of Charleswood, Brentwood and the even newer areas, it faces the trmendous challenge to minister to growing families. The Rector is Gordon C. Dickin.

FROM YOUR CHURCHWARDENS

It has been brought to our attention by the Envelope Secretaries that at the last mailing of quarterly receipts there were a considerable number of unfulfilled pledges indicated. We know that the end of summer does leave some people a bit stretched financially. But we do request every consideration and co-operation from parishioners to complete their pledge obligations to the best of their ability. To keep up our parish's payments we take a loan in the summer months, and we must now press to retire this quickly. To those who give steady fine support we extend grateful appreciation. It is hoped all subscribers will place their church's financial needs in a priority from now on. In anticipation of your collaboration we tender our thanks on behalf of your Vestry.

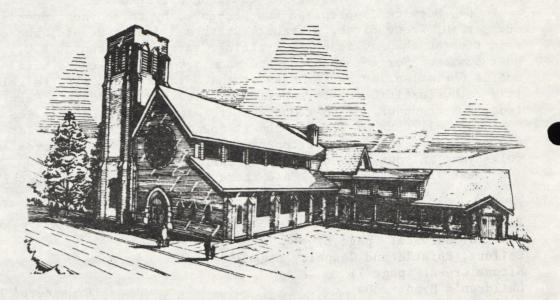

W.J. Magathan, M.S. Devonshire.

A history of the Diocese of Calgary has been completed and printed to highlight our 80th year as a Diocese. This is the work of the Rev. David J. Carter, who acts as Diocesan Archivist as well as University Chaplain. Our parish has been pleased to help bring this to print, and we heartily recommend it for your purchase. A plastic covered sample is found on the rear nave table, and copies are on sale at the church office at any time for $1.50 each. For old church folk who knew earlier days in these parts, it could be a timely gift to send to them.

We will soon be aware of the highly dramatic Miles for Millions event taking place in our city once again. The date this year is November 3rd and all the Calgary churches are members of the sponsoring body. As well as urging people to participate as marchers, people are also needed to man the 14 check points, to serve in the central office in clerical jobs, and to drive weary walkers home at the end of the March. Our own committee will soon be named and meanwhile we ask you to remember this need just around the corner.

TODAY

- It is our distinct honour and pleasure to have the Bishop of Kootenay with us as our guest and preacher. Bishop Scott's experience in parish and social service work has enabled him to bring to his leadership in the Diocese of Kootenay a definite pastoral concern for the Church's ministry to the world. It is in that diocese that new and varied ways of presenting the Gospel to modern society have been attempted, and Bishop Scott's leadership in this field is widely known. We are fortunate to have this respected member of the Canadian House of Bishops, and our neighbouring Diocesan, as our most welcome visitor today.

- With this holiday weekend, our Church School staff at 11 o'clock is greatly reduced and consequently all school age classes at 11 today are withdrawn. The children of these ages will stay in church for the entire Service. The Cherubs' Room (for babies and toddlers) and the pre-school department functions as usual,
- Coffee Hour follows the 11 o'clock Service, and while having this refreshment your attention is directed to the new periodicals, pamphlets and recent books all added to the Library section.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

- (a) The Diocese of St. Arnaud, Australia. Bishop Allen Ernest Winter. This diocese covers the northwestern part of the State of Victoria, situated north and west from Melbourne. One of Australia's most exciting economic projects, the Murray River irrigation area, is in the northern part of this region. The whole diocese is agriculturally based on orchard and grain crops. They have a special project in the Diocese of New Guinea.
- (b) Parishes of St. Augustine, Ogden; and St. Luke, Forest Lawn, both under the care of Canon Earle A. Justice. The Ogden parish has an old, but cared for church, and this railway centre has a fluctuating population. The newer St. Luke's Church is an attractive building, and there is considerable parish life for the children and youth.

PARISH NOTES

- The 1969 Church Calendars are on hand and available at the Coffee Hour today and any time at the Church Office for 65¢. This year it has been produced jointly with the United Church of Canada, and features mainland China which will be the topic of study by several church groups in Canada during 1969.
- A very enjoyable social afternoon is planned for Thursday of this week at 2:30 for all our senior parishioners and friends - both men and women. If any person requires transportation please call Mr. J.W. Ireland at 243-0092 who will gladly arrange for persons to be picked up and later taken home. We hope these older folk, and not so old, will all come along and have a fine time together.
- We hope everybody by now has received notice of the Parish Dinner scheduled for a week from Tuesday, October 22nd, in the Lower Hall at 6:00 p.m. The arrangements committee ask your co-operation by returning the post card by October 20th at the latest. It will be a smoothly run event with time to enjoy the meal and each other's company, as well as allowing the Visitation Committee an opportunity to speak of our 1969 projects.

- The Thursday Morning Discussion Group for ladies will begin their season this week by meeting in the Crump Room on Thursday, October 17th at 9:30. Dr. Crabb will introduce the topic of "The New Theology" and invite discussion. All ladies are welcome, and nursery care is offered for wee ones.
- The Guild section of the A.C.W. would appreciate articles for its Fall Rummage Sale on October 18th (7 to 9 p.m. for parishioners and friends) and October 19th (9:30 to 11:00 a.m. open to the public). Please leave rummage at the Parish Hall by Thursday or phone Mrs. G.A. Leslie (243-1296) or Mrs. D.J. McLaughlin (243-5082) for pick-up service.

OTHER NOTES

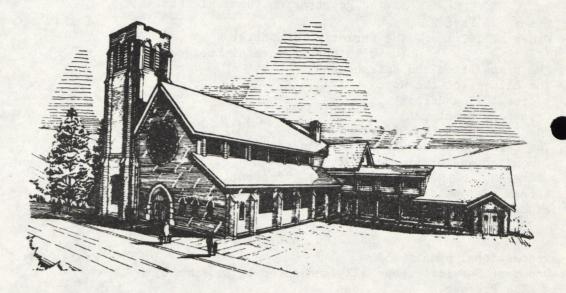

- The Rector is in North Battleford on Wednesday this week to preach at the Induction of the Rev. Douglas Blackwell at St. Paul's Church. This is the Rector's home parish and city.
- We urge everyone to heartily support the current drives of the Elbow Park Residents' Association and the city's United Appeal.
- It will soon be election time to select local government authorities. Make it your business to hear, meet and question the candidates, and then vote responsibly.

THE CHURCH IN THE WORLD

- You will have noticed in the press this week a disturbance relating to the chronic housing conditions in Calgary. The Inter-Faith Community Action Committee, of which your Rector is secretary, has pursued this question very diligently and will continue to press for better conditions and an end of abusive practices.
- On November 3rd Calgary will again have the Miles for Millions event, and it is fully expected to be an even bigger and better success than last year. You should be informed that Calgary churches are very much involved in this affair, and we will be looking for people to march, work at the check points, and generally endorse this project.

CALGARY CITIZENSHIP COUNCIL. There is a need here in Calgary for persons who will volunteer about half-a-day a week to help establish New Canadians in our city. A knowledge of languages other than English would be helpful but not entirely necessary. The Citizenship Council is working with the representatives of other agencies and interested groups in setting up an Immigration Services for Calgary. Volunteers are asked to phone Mrs. Iris Birch at 243-1277.

WELCOME. It is our pleasure to have the Reverend John F.L. Prince with us throughout the morning. Just eight days ago he was inducted as Priest-in-Charge of the Parish of St. John the Divine on the Blackfoot Reserve at Gleichen. So at the outset of his ministry among our Indian-Anglican brethren, we are delighted to have Fr. Prince come to us, and especially since this is the group we are striving to work with as a total parish project. We look forward to having the pleasure of co-operating with him and his people. and by his presence with us today we wish to show him our true concern and loyal support.

UNITED APPEAL From the leaflet cover you will see we are bringing to your attention the current city-wide campaign to support the United Appeal. For so many obvious reasons this approach has got to be the best idea yet to give community agencies the necessary funds to carry on their good work. Your clergy are increasingly aware of the excellent work carried out by these agencies in ministering to people's needs, and bespeak your wholehearted support for the United Appeal at this time. Many parishioners are involved in this whole project, including Mr. Eric Connelly, this year's chairman, and we wish them every success.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

(a) Diocese of Rochester, New York, U.S.A. George Barrett, Bishop. The city of Rochester is deeply troubled by the aggravated social issues found today in so many American urban areas: housing, racism, riots, rights of minority groups. Beyond this city there are affluent suburbs, small towns and rural areas. On the ecumenical scene they work in joint ministries with the migrant workers, college students, and in urban projects. This diocese has a strong program of mutuality with Maseno, East Africa.

(b) Parish of St. Martin, Calgary. Edward H. Wallace, Rector. This parish serves a residential segment of west Calgary wherein are found many social and economic groups. An adequate set of buildings aid their work, and many parochial groups flourish.

WEEKLY ORGAN RECITALS at the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer on Tuesdays from 12:15 to 12:45 until December 17th are sponsored by the Division of Continuing Education of the University of Calgary. All are welcome.

A SOCIAL AFTERNOON FOR OLDER PARISHIONERS and friends (such as the successful one held on May 30th) will take place on Thursday, October 17th at 2:30 p.m. in the Crump Room. Please make this known to all our senior friends, and it often helps if you can offer transportation for them.

RETREAT. We are just a month away from the time set for our Parish Retreat. If you are anxious to go, and need help with domestic arrangements, please let the Captains know and maybe they can help you. The point of this Retreat is to provide people like us who live in a noisy hectic world the chance to have some peace and quiet. The Franciscans at Cochrane have offered us their fine facilities, and we hope a full complement (40) take advantage of this opportunity to be refreshed in many ways.

REMINDERS.

(1) Adolescent Confirmation preparation has commenced but others can be enrolled. Classes are on Wednesday from 5 to 7 p.m., and a full descriptive letter about the course is available from the Church Office.

(2) Adults desiring to receive Confirmation instruction are asked to meet in Dr. Crabb's office on Sunday, October 20th at 12:30 p.m. If you wish to join and cannot be present on the 20th please contact the Church Office.

(3) All teenagers are invited to attend their meeting tonight in the Crump Room at 7:30. There will be a discussion on a forthcoming dance; also some records of modern religious music will be auditioned to select some materials for an experimental Service to be prepared by the group.

(4) The Parish Dinner is on October 22nd, two weeks from this Tuesday at 6:30 in the Lower Hall. Please mark and save this date to come and enthusiastically launch the Visitation for this fall. General Chairman, Rod Whitehead, and his Assistant Chairman, Bob Ridley, are looking for you to be present and lend your support.

(5) Remember to bring your articles to the Rummage Sale to be held on October 18th and 19th.

The flowers today are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Beatrice McKenzie (Church Altar) and Betty Crump (Chapel Altar).

CYCLE OF PRAYER. A small western segment of Illinois forms the Diocese of Quincy (Bishop: Francis Lickfield) which is among the lesser-known American dioceses. Not outdone by larger strong areas around them, these people have pushed for better internal support while becoming partners with the Diocese of Mauritius in the Indian Ocean. To our immediate west is the Parish of St. Mark whom we remember in our diocesan intercessions today. The Rector is Peter Armour Niblock.

TODAY.

- We acknowledge with thanks the contributions of produce to add the harvest symbols to the church's interior today, including the efforts of the Altar Guild and especially Mrs. W. Whitburn.
- This is the last day for us to make response to the Nigeria-Biafra Appeal. From our contributions emergency foodstuffs, medical supplies and other necessities will be forwarded to the peoples ravaged by the current shocking war. Please be assured that proper administration of our funds and the goods sent will be exercised; that is the message received from the supporting agencies listed on the rear Nave doors.
- Tonight all teenagers are invited to meet at 7:30 in the Crump Room. This session is an important one, because we hope to establish just what we want to do and how we will go about doing it. A full notice went out to a good many, but if we missed some there are copies on the rear Nave table.

COMING EVENTS.

- Next Sunday we shall have as our guest throughout the morning The Reverend John Prince, recently appointed as Incumbent of the St. John the Divine Parish on the Blackfoot Reservation at Gleichen, Alberta. Fr. Prince has just served as Curate at the Cathedral and previously worked among native peoples in northern B.C. (Caledonia) and northern Ontario (Keewatin). We are happy to know he can come so soon after his appointment and thus strenghten our bonds with his people.
- As a public service the Alberta Heart Foundation is holding a panel discussion in the Calgary Power Building Auditorium, 110 15 Ave. S.W., on Friday, October 4th, at 7:30 p.m. Dr. John C. Callaghan, internationally known heart surgeon: Dr. F.H.W. Crabb, W.B. Gill, Q.C., and Mrs. Betty Garbutt, sociologist, will discuss all aspects medical, moral, legal, sociological and economic of organ transplants.
- At an open meeting for both men and women (sponsored by the Diocesan A.C.W.) on Tuesday, October 1st, at 8 p.m. at St. Peter's Church, 75th Ave. & Elbow Drive, The Rev. Bob Wallace of Parkdale United Church, who was the Southern Alberta Delegate to the World Council of Churches at Uppsalla, will give a report. This is your opportunity to hear first-hand of this important assembly.
- The Winchester Group will visit the Conservatory at St. George's Island on Tuesday of this week, and will meet at the Church at 1:30 p.m.

- Adolescent Confirmation preparations begin on Wednesday of this week at 5 p.m. in the Crump Room. A full explanatory letter is available from the Church Office for all candidates and their parents. The clergy appreciate having prior notice (before Wednesday) of those intending to attend.

FURTHER NOTE ON CONFIRMATION CLASSES FOR ADULTS.

A meeting of those interested will take place in Dr. Crabb's office at the Church on Sunday, October 20th, immediately after the morning Service (12:30 p.m.) Classes will begin the following week on a day and time then to be decided. If you wish to join the group, but cannot be there on October 20th, please phone in your name to the office beforehand. Or just phone for information. Classes will probably run for eight weeks, to early December. Others than those seeking Confirmation are welcome to join the group.

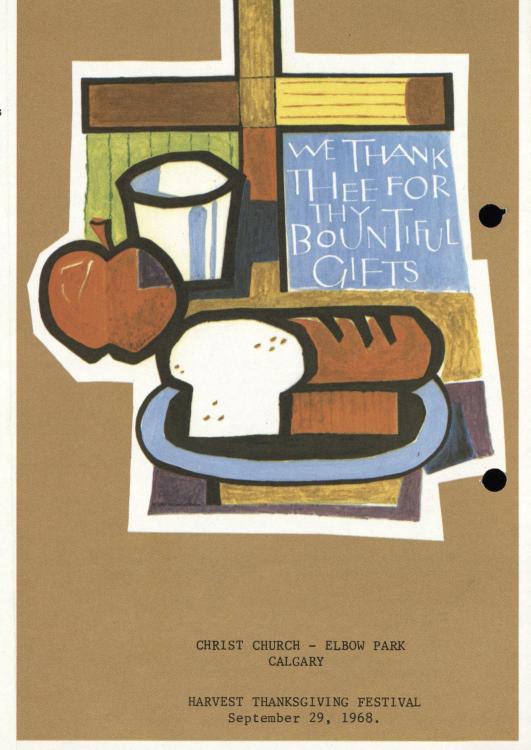

PARISH NOTES.

- Dr. Crabb is in Edmonton this week conducting a Retreat for the clergy of that Diocese.
- Archdeacon Swanson is guest preacher at St. Andrew's this morning.
- The enlistment of Visitors for the Every Member Visitation is in progress; and General Chairman, Rod Whitehead, looks for a generous response to make up the 100 men required.
- Remember the parishioners' Retreat scheduled for the November 3rd weekend. Captains are David & Peggy Stauft (243-6821) who will provide all the information and help you may require.
- Our second oldest parishioner, Mrs. S.A. Wright, marked her 100th birthday on Wednesay last, and flowers and prayers conveyed our greetings to her.

Reminders:

- Coffee Hour in the Crump Room follows the 11 o'clock Service every Sunday, and the welcome mat is always out - especially to meet new parishioners or guests and introduce them to the others.

- The Nigeria/Biafra Appeal continues throughout September, and the small white envelopes in the book racks of the pews are for that purpose. We reiterate the concern for a generous response to send aid to this tragic area of untold suffering.

- Mothers who use the Cherub Room facilities for babies and toddlers are requested to leave their names with today's supervisors so they can, if at all possible, share in this service.

CYCLE OF PRAYER.

Today we pray for:

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, U.S.A., is one of the busiest industrial communities in the United States, being a heavily populated steelmaking and coal mining region. The city of Pittsburgh faces an acute urban crisis over the question of racial tolerance. Robert Appleyard became the Bishop here on September 1st.

The Parish of St. Philip the Evangelist in the Elboya district has strong historical and hence emotional ties to Christ Church, for it was a daughter-church project in the 1950s. It now has an attractive set of buildings and the parish's spiritual care is given by The Reverend C. Archie McMullen.

NEXT SUNDAY is to be observed as Harvest Festival, and this theme will be kept at all the Services. The Altar Guild will be at the Church Saturday morning to decorate, and any contributions of flowers, foliage, fruits and vegetables will be much appreciated, and should be delivered by 9:30 Saturday morning.

PARISH NOTES:

- 1. May we remind you of the Retreat being offered on the weekend of November 1, 2 & 3 at Mount St. Francis, Cochrane. The Captains are Mr. and Mrs. D.L. Stauft (David and Peggy), 243-6821, and they will be happy to provide information, reservation cards or any other assistance.
- 2. The Fall Rummage Sale will occur on October 18 & 19, and the Guild section of the A.C.W. requests your articles for this event.
- 3. It seems that last Sunday very few adults received the special page entitled "What is a Church School Teacher" that was to have been in everybody's hands, especially when we were emphasizing our Christian Education program. We hope you will get one today at the close of the Service and read it with a readiness to respond.
- 4. The response to the postcard sent out early this month appealing for student accommodation has been quite helpful. The Social Service convenor (Mrs. Iris Birch, 243-1277) of the A.C.W. expresses the thanks of those who assisted in this way and hopes that as many places for students to stay come to our attention she will be notified.
- 5. Advance notice is given here that the annual fall Visitation of the Parish will be launched with a kick-off dinner on October 22nd. The period of visitations will follow on from that date.

POST-CONFIRMATION TEEN-AGERS - "TRIPLE C".

There will be an exploratory meeting for this group next Sunday evening at 7:30. At that time we shall settle what our projects and programs are to be, and how often to meet. A reminder postcard will go out to all known to us in this age group.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES.

Adolescents: The first session will be on Wednesday, October 2nd at 5 p.m. in the Crump Room. There is a prepared statement giving a full description of the course, available from the Church Office. Any youths who would like to be prepared for Confirmation are urged to speak to the clergy as soon as possible.

Adults: A course running 8 to 10 weeks will soon be undertaken by Dr. Crabb, and adults are invited to contact him soon to be included.

It should be clearly understood that adolescents or adults are welcome to attend Confirmation preparation classes, but the decision to be confirmed is made on a personal, individual basis, only after some preparation and discussion.

"AN INVITATION - A CHALLENGE - AN OPPORTUNITY" is the title of the pamphlet to be found on the rear Nave table. In it is found the complete Christian Education program for this Parish. You are invited to take one and examine it critically.

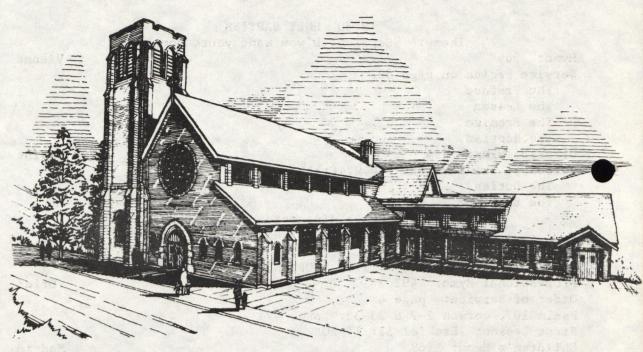

DO YOU READ? Of course we all do - and the question really is, what do we read? Much of our reading time is probably poorly spent on material that is not important, and we'll never remember it. For some helpful, instructive and entertaining reading we can, with confidence, direct you to the pamphlet racks (in Narthex and Library), and the new books and periodicals found in the ever-expanding Parish Library.

Tear off and place in the offering plate, hand to Sidesman, or mail mail to Church Office.

COFFEE HOUR. Today we resume our usual routine of having Cofee Hour in the Crump Room following the 11 o'clock Service. To stand around and drink coffee can be a boring waste of time or a very pleasant and profitable occasion. We try hard to make it the latter - but it requires the best spirit of friendship and fellowship. So we invite you to come - bring your smile and be ready to mix and meet your fellow-worshippers. A special invitation is extended to new parishioners to come along and get acquainted.

OF PAMPHLETS, PAPERS AND BOOKS. In the literature rack of the Narthex we are featuring during September items that deal with college life, youth concerns and student affairs. We encourage young adults and adolescents to take a look. In the Library (Crump Room) the recent issues of periodicals can bring you current opinions on Lambeth Conference, politics in America, birth-control encyclical, etc., as well as new volumes on the shelves. Take a look around during Coffee Hour.

CHURCH SCHOOL is being registered today for all ages and grades. Regular classroom sessions will commence next Sunday and continue throughout the fall and spring terms. Among the many significances we can attach to this phase of our parish's education program is that the Church School sessions provide a focus and crucible for the pupil to discover the Christian meaning of life. To do this in any deserving way calls for regularity in attendance so that the child's participation is not a series of "starts" but a continuing, building up of understanding and faith.

BIAFRA-NIGERIA RELIEF. Throughout September special white offering envelopes are in the book racks of the pews (or at the rear table) wherein we can contribute to this special fund. Listed on the doors at the back of the Nave are all the signatories and agencies that are sponsoring, promoting and working for generous results. The situation in Nigeria is grim and the needs there will continue for a long time, so we reiterate the appeal of our Church leaders to give solid support.

NEXT SUNDAY. We shall keep next Sunday as Christian Education Day, and for these reasons:

- It marks the commencement of the Church School term.
- A specially prepared brochure will be in your hands by then to illustrate our total parish education program.
- The education process is still very narrowly defined in many minds, and we shall try to paint on a wide canvas what we mean by this important term.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

- Diocese of Oklahoma, U.S.A. Bishops: Chilton Powell and Frederick Putnam (Suffragan)

For those who know Oklahoma only through the Broadway musical, it may be easy to forget that Oklahoma too has to wrestle with the problems and projects that accompany any rapidly developing diocese. One major concern is the American Indian whose needs are very great every where. A companion relationship exists with the Diocese of Nicaragua in Central America.

- Parish of St. Michael and All Angels, Calgary. Rector is Canon Murray Starr who leaves shortly for St. Luke's, Red Deer, so we include in our prayers the Rector-elect, Kenneth Genge, presently at Holy Trinity, Yellowknife. The parish is ably served too by Miss Karen McKinley, the parish worker.

MIDWEEK SERVICES. With the return of our regular schedule of Services for the fall, we remind you of the Service of Holy Communion on Tuesday morning at 9:00 and on Wednesday morning at 10:30. For those who are prevented from attending on Sunday, and for those who value the quiet simplicity of the Chapel Services, we bring these occasions of midweek Services to your attention. Frequently too, when personal concerns ride high, it is a most helpful comfort to slip into Chapel for Communion during the week.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. Overseas today our prayerful thoughts are for the Diocese of Northern Nigeria. This is a tense area because of the clash between the dominant Muslim group and Christians. Also, currently it is the focus of the entire world as Biafran and Nigerian forces struggle to preserve identities while many suffer the atrocities of war and hunger in the process. The Bishop is John Mort. Locally we remember the Parish of St. Barnabas, Calgary, which ministers to the residential area immediately north of the Bow River in the central sector of the city. The Rector is John William Way, assisted by the retired army chaplain, Edward Orme.

WELCOME back from holidays to those who have had vacations during the past weeks; we hope holidays are times of refreshment and rest to equip us for the demands of life. And, especially do we welcome any who are new residents and will come to make this place their church home. If you are a guest or newcomer please speak to the clergy at the door and make yourself known.

LABOUR DAY. Tomorrow is a rather curious holiday which goes back in Canadian industry to the days when organized labour made its presence felt in society. It is a good remembrance, however, calling attention to our privileges in work, the responsibilities of labour and management, and the changing shape of the labour force in today's economy when automation becomes more and more prominent.

CHURCH SCHOOL registration for all pupils will take place next Sunday. Regular classroom sessions commence in two weeks' time, September 15. Further information about the Church School and other areas of Christian Education will come to you under separate cover shortly.

PAMPHLET RACK. In the Narthex rack this month we are featuring leaflets that deal with young people, college life and questions vital to adolescents and young adults. Maybe you don't have time to read books, but these pamphlets are all well written and worth-while reading.

THE BISHOP REPORTS.

The Lambeth Conference attended by all the Anglican Bishops in the world, plus some special observers, adjourned last Sunday. Our Bishop has returned during this past week, and we have been informed that he will report on the conference on Tuesday, September 10, at St. Barnabas Church, and members of the laity are welcome to attend the sessions. The routine of the day is to commence with Holy Communion at 9:30 and the first session at 10:30. The Bishop will have lunch with his clergy and the second session is at 1:30; Evensong at 3:20 ends the day. For both sessions and the Services we hope parishioners who are able, will avail themselves of this opportunity to learn of the Lambeth Conference first-hand.

CHOIRS.

The president of the Adult Choir writes: "Our choir needs new members! We practise Thursday evenings 7:45 to 10:00 p.m. commencing September 5 in the Crump Room. If you have any questions call me at 244-7524 and I will be happy to assist you." Peggy King

The Boys' Choir will rehearse Wednesday and Friday of this week at 4:30 commencing their fall season.

The Girls' Choir will begin rehearsals on Tuesday, September 10, at 6:30.

Lambeth Conference is occupying the minds and prayers of all Anglicans these days as this important gathering of all our bishops seeks to give the Church new zeal, understanding and leadership. As we anxiously anticipate good results from this conference, so let our earnest concerns be matched with faithful prayers for our own Bishop and all the Bishops in council at Lambeth.

Dr. Crabb and his family are on vacation this month on Vancouver Island. The Church Office is open throughout the month and the clergy can be reached there.

When saying your prayers, don't forget to remember all those who travel and are on holidays. And as wars, threats to national welfare occur, riots and troubles abound pray for the Peace of the World.

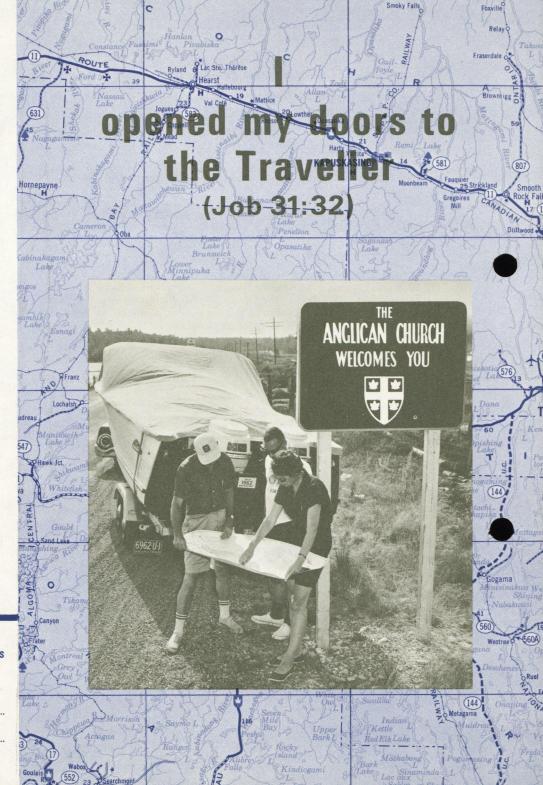

"I OPENED MY DOORS TO THE TRAVELLER"

We live in an age of mobility. This is especially true in Canada during the vacation months of the year. As many as 33,000,000 people will visit Canada from the U.S.A.; another 200,000 will vacation in Canada from Europe. This does not include the hundreds of thousands who will travel from province to province.

With this great influx of travellers into all areas of Canada, many thousands will probably visit your community. Some will only pass through, others will stay overnight but many will visit for a few days. Among these travellers a percentage will be members of the Anglican Communion; others, members of other communions seeking out a Christian community for worship and fellowship.

How will your Church welcome these vacationers? Will they have to look hard to locate your Church in order to participate in a service? Or has your parish formed a welcoming committee to investigate all possible areas where specific information about your Church can be placed, such as in popular eating and resort establishments? Has a sign been erected in a busy area of your community giving specific directions? Has this committee placed a card or pamphlet in your local travel and information bureau for distribution, giving pertinent facts about your Church? Will the committee have a list of homes where travellers may stay when commercial accommodation is critical?

This summer your Church can follow the aforementioned suggestions and develop others so it will be able to say as Job did many thousands of years ago, "I OPENED MY DOORS TO THE TRAVELLER".

PLEASE MARK WITH AN X THE POINT TO WHICH YOU DESIRE TO CALL ATTENTION. TEAR OFF AND PLACE ON PLATE.

THE FOURTH ASSEMBLY OF THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES:

Two thousand Christian leaders from six continents will meet in the ancient university city of Upsalla in Sweden from July 4th to 19th to wrestle with the meaning and application of the Gospel to the world in the last decades of the twentieth century. The theme of the Assembly is "ALL THINGS NEW". All things new — in Africa! in China! in Vietnam! in North America! in Calgary! in Christ Church! None who read this note are likely to be at the Assembly. Yet two thousand leaders at Upsalla for two weeks are not likely to do much about it unless two hundred million Christians the world over care — pray — expect — work — believe. So, maybe, all of us had better be there — in spirit.

Holy Baptism. A Service of Holy Baptism will be held in Christ Church on Sunday, July 21st, at 2:30 p.m., particularly though not exclusively for those who have somewhat older children to be brought to baptism. THE LAMBETH CONFERENCE of Anglican Bishops meets at Lambeth in London, England, from July 25 - August 25. Our own Bishop is an official delegate at this Conference, which has been held once every ten years since the Canadian Church petitioned such a Conference in 1867. The Conference will discuss, and hopefully advise on, current problems in the Church, specifically including the New Theology, New Morality, Biblical Interpretation, and Church Union, movements toward which are happening in almost all of the branches of the Anglican Communion. The Diocese of Madagascar, Malagasy Republic. This young island nation - half African, half Oriental - in the Indian Ocean off the coast of South Africa, boasts a population of six million. Of these there are two million Christians, of whom some forty thousand are Anglicans. Congregations are scattered and poor. There is a grave shortage of clergy, many clergymen having upwards of twenty congregations under their care. The Bishop is Jean Marcel.

In our own Diocese we remember today the retired clergy, for whose ministry we thank God. Also the Layreaders, and the staff of the Synod Office.

Weekday Services: On Wednesdays only at 10:30 a.m. through July and August.

Holiday Camping Hints or "The Bear Facts". The teacher, addressing a Sunday School class, had taken for her theme the story of Elisha on his journey to Bethel -- how the youngsters had taunted the old prophet about his baldness, and how they were punished when two bears came out of the bush and ate forty-two of them.

"And now children", concluded the teacher, wishing to press home some moral point, "what does this story teach us?"

After some moments of blank incomprehension on the part of the class, a hesitant voice ventured, "Please, it shows how many children two bears can hold".

Family Service 9:30 a.m. 1968-69.

As noted in the bulletin last week, a suggestion meeting is called for this morning in the upper class room of the hall at 11:45 a.m. Considerable and lively interest in the practical forms our Family Service should take has been already expressed. This meeting is called to enable you to offer your suggestions if you have not already had an opportunity to do

Extra-Parochial duties will claim your clergy's time on occasion during the holiday month of July. Today, Archdeacon Swanson looks after the Church of the Good Shepherd to enable the rector of that parish to stand in for the rector of Banff, who is taking a much needed holiday. The Church in the diocese must also seek to provide a Ministry for tourists and those on holiday at our resorts. One focus of this holiday ministry is at Lake Louise, where Services will be conducted by Mr.Crabb on July 7th, and by Archdeacon Swanson on July 14th. Mr. Crabb will also be at Camp Kananaskis for the midweek Service on July 3rd.

Dominion Day. Whatever other, and perhaps more worthy, ideas Dominion Day conjures up, for most of us it spells the real opening of the summer holiday season. Have fun! Probably within reach of your chosen resort there will be a Church Service laid on. Make the effort to enquire. But, if not — why not a family Service, just for the family? The Prayer Book (pages 728-736) offers suggestions for such a family Service. Somewhere in the New Testament the "Church" is described as "two or three gathered together in My Name". And in several places in Acts Dr. Luke speaks of "the Church that was in their house". Here for most of us is a new kind of experiment based on excellent old precedences. At a Family Service in the fall we might share our own experiences in summer holiday family worship.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

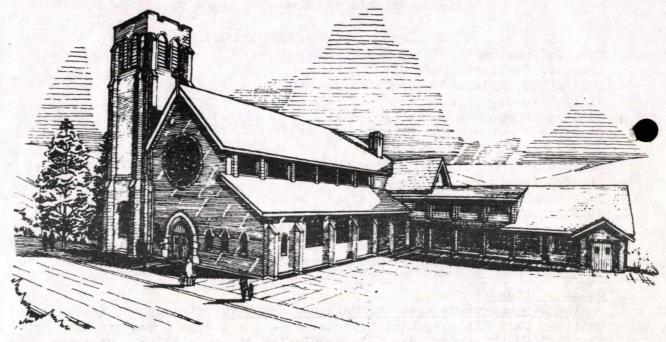

Holiday Travelling Hints:

- 1. Never let but anybody pass you. If necessary tramp on the gas in second gear. Hollywood muffler preferred.
- 2. Never leave sufficient interval behind the car in front in case another vacationer will crowd into it.
- 3. If the car in front is leaving interval room for one car, duck around him and fill the interval. (This movement preferred without warning.)
- 4. At stop signs, nose well into the intersection in case of opportunity to dash through. The fellow on the THROUGH street will stop. He has brakes.
- 5. On through streets and intersections, maintain a good high speed, some pedestrian might try to cross, or another vehicle might try to enter from a side street, and impede your progress.
- 6. For carrying liquor or beer in the car, discuss with other experienced lawbreakers how best to conceal it and what are the best excuses to make in case of apprehension.
- 7. If you have a girl friend in the car, have her ride as close to you as possible, but not so close that she might almost appear to be on the other side of you.
- 8. Honk the horn well in advance of anticipated light changes. This 'gets' the fellow in front and makes him take off like he was mad. In case of ensuing accident it will be his; drive casually past.
- Study carefully the point system accruing to hitting pedestrians in various age groups. Who knows, you may be a winner for your neighbourhood.

By following these few simple rules they will undoubtedly help you to get faster to wherever in "HELL" you are trying to go.

Family Service, 9:30 a.m., 1968-9.

Through the Christian Worship Seminar and subsequent sessions a considerable amount of interest in forms for this weekly Service has been expressed. In order to get general interest and ideas reduced to practical and applicable forms the Rector has asked that these be collated. To this end a meeting of those interested is called for Sunday, June 30th, at 11.45 a.m. in the upper class room of the Hall. If you are unable to attend will you please submit your suggestions, preferably in writing, to the Church Office, or to someone you know will be present. We hope some of our younger members will be able to attend.

Hospital and Home Visiting. One of the privileges of the Ministry is that of visiting our people who are sick in hospital, or confined at home. Some weeks I visit at as many as seven hospitals. Time — and sometimes energy — is the enemy that frustrates all that could and ought to be done in this area of Ministry. We, your clergy, are deeply appreciative of the efforts of those from our Parish family who share in the ministry of home visiting. If you have a little time to spare, and a desire to help in this way, particularly in bringing friendship and encouragement to lonely and confined people, please do contact Mrs. Iris Birch, 243-1277. And you can all help the clergy by letting the office know of parishioners who are ill, and in hospital. We shall do our utmost to visit promptly.

Furniture Pick-up for Gleichen. There will be a pick-up of furniture for the Gleichen Reserve tomorrow morning, Monday, June 24th. If you have furniture for this purpose and haven't advised the Church Office, you may phone Bob Arnold (244-9280) or Peter Jekill (244-3214) today.

Camp Kananaskis. Bursary support is needed to enable boys and girls unable to pay their own fees to attend this summer. Donations may be sent to Mr. Michael Evamy at 326 - 37th Avenue, S.W., or to the Church Office.

"We shall remember this till next year" was the way one of our Gleichen friends summed up the Parish Picnic. But it is less than an hour's drive to Gleichen - what about dropping in one Sunday afternoon? A year to renew contacts is a long time.

THE TENANT IN APARTMENT "1612"

Each month fifteen to thirty-storey apartment towers go up in cities across Canada; more and more people are living 200 feet in the air. One in five Canadians now lives in an apartment — in large cities, as many as one in three.

The challenging question that faces the urban church today is — "How does it reach the tenant in apartment 1612?"

In the opinion of those who have tried, very few will be reached with the techniques and programs that worked for the rural parish 50 years ago. If the Church sees the apartment ministry in terms of visiting, then it must face the problem of getting in. Every apartment is protected from visitors by a uniformed doorman or an electric door. The tenant in apartment "1612" may be one of the countless high-rise dwellers who use their home only to eat and sleep, who neither have nor want any sense of community with those who happen to be their neighbours. One clergyman sat in a lobby all afternoon and buzzed every apartment. Not one person let him in.

Some will say, "If this is the situation, why bother!" Unfortunately unless the Church takes the time to bother then it is in danger of losing a whole generation.

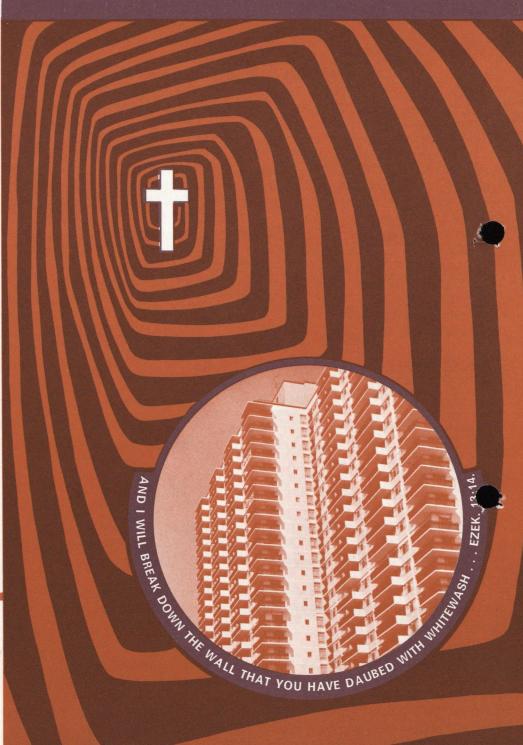

Dr. Harvey Cox in his book "The Secular City" says that clergymen who have carried out surveys of apartment dwellers report what they encountered "was a sheer survival technique". Resistance against efforts to subject them to "neighbourliness" and socialization is a skill apartment dwellers must develop if they are to maintain human relationships of their own choosing. The Reverend John Sullivan, a United Church minister, who works among one of the high-rise developments in Toronto states that this situation is a boon to the Church because it forces a change in outdated concepts. It forces the clergy to develop a new evangelism, and to penetrate areas of life and work other than the residential setting alone.

The challenge of reaching the "Tenant in Apartment 1612" presents itself to the Church today and the General Synod is engaged in ways and means of meeting that challenge tomorrow.

Cycle of Prayer

There are over 700,000 people in 800 square miles of the East Midlands of England, at the centre of which is the ancient yet modern city of Leicester. The area produces clothing, tires, typewriters, plastics, hosiery, shoes, as well as famous agricultural products like pork pies and cheeses. In the Diocese some 250 clergy plus many lay leaders work together with Bishop Ronald Ralph Williams to serve this ancient Saxon bishopric caught in all the demands of a modern upheaval; our prayers are for their strong Christian witness.

In our Diocese we remember the scattered Anglican families of the most southerly parts of Alberta. Worshipping in centres like Foremost, Bow Island, Milk River and Knappen, they are presently cared for by the clergy of our Medicine Hat parishes.

Nursery Care: During the summer months every effort is made to offer baby and small child care in the Cherubs Room during Service time to allow families to keep up their Church attendance. For those mothers who use this facility and any teen-age girls who can assist, will you please phone and offer your help to the summer convenor, Mrs. Janey Raaby, 243-7883.

Camp Kananaskis: The description of our diocesan camping facilities given on the back cover of this leaflet needs little elaboration. What we would like to point out to all readers of this leaflet are three special emphases being stressed at this time:

i - For people who have no children of camp age, but who would like to ensure that the Church's summer camp program is being endorsed, it is stated by the Camp Committee that sponsorship

(camper-ships) for some children is desired. Especially is this true for Indian boys. Donations to subsidize the fees of campers can be made and indicated on the envelope attached.

- ii A children's "Wet-Day Library" is being collected, and suitable reading material for ages 8-12 is solicited. These may be forwarded to Mr. Michael Evamy, Camp Committee Chairman, at 327 36th Avenue, S.W., 243-6382.
- ii Apart from the summer camp program there is tremendous need and opportunity to utilize the facilities during more months of the year, especially as a Retreat and Conference Centre. Your contributions to this purpose are stated on the leaflet cover and we are one parish that could greatly benefit from having such accommodation available in the spring and fall periods.

Rector Away: The Rector commences vacation tomorrow and during his absence Dr. Crabb is in charge of the Parish. There will be somebody in the Church Office all summer to take calls and relay messages. Dr. Crabb will take his holidays when the Rector returns.

Notes: We welcome the pleasant combination of Men and Boy Choristers at the 10 o'clock Service today. — During these June Sundays we issue a specially cordial welcome to mix and mingle at the Coffee Hour after Service. — At the time of writing all things are in hand for an anticipated successful picnic. To all those who have given of their time and energies to this endeavour we express our gratitude. — One of Canada's most exciting times politically is now being lived out in our midst; we hope this prompts all who have a vote to get out on June 25th and exercise this responsibility — and to do it with forethought and prayerful decision. — These are the days of increased highway traffic and mounting tragedies on the road; please remember your Christian duty behind the wheel and be carefull for all.

Camp Kananaskis

Providing the people of Southern Alberta with an opportunity to enjoy camping activities, Christian fellowship and training, Camp Kananaskis is located amid the grandeur of the Rocky Mountains in the Kananaskis Forestry Reserve just off the Banff Highway. It is situated in a clearing not far from a small lake, Lake Chilver, and campers enjoy the beauty and exhilaration of being in the mountains while living in the comfrt of an organised camp.

The buildings include six fire-proof sleeping cabins, a dining hall and kitchen, sick bay with resident Nurse's quarters, indoor Chapel and recreation hall with a fireplace for wet weather activities. There is also an attractive outdoor chapel set in the woods. Swimming facilities are provided in the heated pool, under supervision at all times.

The Camp is operated by the Calgary Diocese of the Anglican Church and is run by a committee of approximately twenty - clergy and laypersons. It is financially self-supporting and all operating costs are covered by campers' fees. However, major renovations are urgently needed and capital funds are required in order to implement these maintenance measures. Furthermore, if new buildings were to be added to existing facilites, thus providing year-round accommodation, the Diocese would then have a first class retreat centre available for the benefit of all.

If each family in the Diocese donated $1.00 in the envelope supplied with this leaflet, it would enable the committee to complete such a development program for Camp Kananaskis. Please consider the worth of this camp among today's young people who will, we hope, be the congregation of tomorrow.

We note today:

- That the second in a series of excellent programs is offered on Channel 2 (CBC) at 5:03 p.m. Called "East of Rome", it portrays the development of the Christian Church in its early centuries.

- The important two-hour telecast is on from 6 8 p.m. wherein the major political leaders will present their platforms to the Canadian electorate.
- The Sunday following Pentecost, Trinity Sunday, was not kept as a particular observance till the Middle Ages. Its observance, introduced to mark the conclusion of the life of Christ and the descent of the Holy Spirit by a celebration embracing God in all three Persons, became specially popular in England. The Feast is restricted to a single day, appropriate to the Unity of the Godhead which the feast commemorates. The struggle to assert the essential position of the dogma of God's Oneness, yet preserving the personalities of Father, Son and Spirit, is well documented in the "East of Rome" program series mentioned above.

Welcome to Second Group. It is our distinct pleasure to welcome all those present with us today from the Cubs, Brownies, Guides and Scouts who are sponsored and based at this church. We take this opportunity to express sincere appreciation for the efforts of the leaders, Group Committee, and all who in any way support the Movement and provide these boys and girls with the benefits of the Scout-Guide program.

Cycle of Prayer

Our westerly neighbouring Diocese is Kootenay which is remembered in our prayers today. It is an interesting area, not only because of its two verdant mountain valleys and their vacationland, but for the fact this diocese is a "pilot" area in the Canadian Church where many forms of renewal, re-structuring, and ecumenical endeavours are attempted. The Bishop is Edward Walter In our own Diocese we offer prayers for the Scott. Japanese Mission in our southern area. Canon Gordon Goichi Nakayama has the pastoral oversight of these people and is much loved and respected for his faithful Ministry. The work centres around the Church of the Ascension at Coaldale.

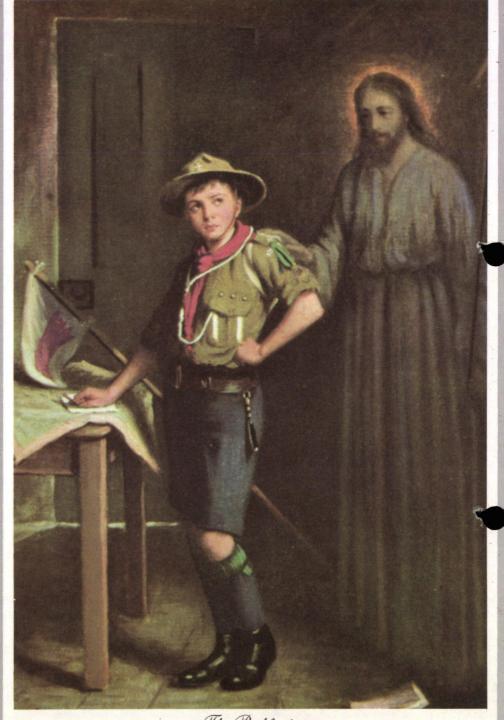

In Memoriam

At our Services today we offer prayers for Mrs. Ethel Kennedy and her family, the whole Kennedy family and the people of the United States of America. The Rector has sent a message of condolence to the U.S. Consulate-General to express our concern at the death of this young and able member of the U.S. government. Apart from any evaluation of the man and his service to the nation we are grieved that such an act of tragic violence should be the peril of those who offer themselves for public office.

This Week

- Ladies of the Parish are invited to a Pot-Luck luncheon on Tuesday at 1:30 at Riverview United Church. Panelists will present various sides of the question, "Church Women and the Ecumenical Movement". Our representatives on the panel are Mrs. Pat Wylie and Miss Flora Macleod. If you plan to attend please call Riverview Church Office (243-5184).
- Saturday of this week, 15th, is our Annual Parish Picnic to be held at Bowness Park, West Pavilion #3, beginning at 1:30. This year, it will be different because it will be a shared event with our partner-parish of St. John the Divine, Gleichen. From the people of the reserve we expect to have 150, and we look for strong and enthusiastic support from this parish. Full details are in the mail to you promptly.
- The Library Committee meets on Wednesday, 12th, at 8 p.m. in the Crump Room.

Pentecost: The name Pentecost was taken over by the Church from Judaism and means "fiftieth" day. Among the Jews the festival was known as the Feast of Weeks. and it was a thanksgiving for the wheat harvest. In the time of our Lord the Jews also commemorated at this feast the giving of the Law, and thus the foundation of the 'Jewish Church'. The English and other northern European peoples called the date 'White Sunday' from the white garments worn by the newly baptized on this day: climatic conditions favouring this feast for baptisms rather than Easter.

The New Testament account (found in the Lesson on page 205) of Pentecost gives a graphic description of what transpired on that occasion. From this account it can be clearly seen how red becomes the significant colour of the day - depicting the tongues of fire. Also, we can conclude that Pentecost does in a certain sense mark the inauguration of the Christian Church's dynamic life - now made possible by the power given in the Holy Spirit.

So much for history and tradition. The real issue for Christians observing Pentecost today is what does the celebration of the event mean? The answer lies in several propositions, but the one offering immediate and recognizable form is couched in the word "power". Surely, just as God can be seen in His creative activity, and God can be seen in His human Son who achieves man's redemption - so God can be seen in the 'power' of goodness working through human lives. through events and through all history. This 'power' is not vague - not a perchance effort - it is the evidence of the Holy Spirit. He is the Bestower of the gifts in Baptism, the Strengthener in Confirmation, the Upholder in anxiety and grief, the Fortifier in temptation and weakness - and so on.

So our celebration today is a very personal acknowledgement of every evidence we have known of the Holy Spirit and to give thanks for His continuing presence and power.

Church School: It is our pleasure today to recognize the Church School, and in so doing we can underline three points. First, it is opportune to express, on behalf of the whole parish, our appreciation to all the staff who have taught, supervised and in any way provided a program of Christian Education for our younger parishioners during the past term. Second, we are acknowledging with Recognition Awards those pupils whose attendance, co-operation and interest have merited this recognition and for which they have been nominated by their teachers. Third, we hasten to say that now is the time when the people of this parish might very well plan and provide for their part to ensure a good Church School next fall. Are you prepared to endorse this goal? If so, all you have to do is accept that anybody can be a leader, helper or teacher who is prepared first to be a learner.

Cycle of Prayer:

The Anglican Cycle of Prayer, from which we take our cue for our regular intercessions, provides no diocese to be remembered on the days of the great church festivals. So, we shall borrow for our prayer support today the name shown for yesterday, Saturday, June first, because it seems particularly appropriate. It is not a diocese, but an office - the office of the Anglican Executive Officer who is charged with the task of being in touch, and spreading the news of the whole world-wide Anglican Communion. He is the Canadian Bishop, Ralph Stanley Dean, on leave from the Diocese of Cariboo, who from his London office globetrots to the 40 million Anglicans to create a better informed and a better supported (through M.R.I.) task force wherever we are located.

Locally we pray for the area designated as the Wheatbelt Mission which includes St. Aldhelm, Vulcan; Emmanuel, Carmangay; and St. John, Lomond. The Incumbent is Edmund Wilson Clarke, an able bachelor priest who hails originally from Calgary and is an ex-student of our Associate.

Parish Notes:

Next Sunday at the 10 o'clock Service we shall welcome the component sections of the Scouting movement who have their base in this parish... The Triple C group (post-Confirmation) have concluded their meetings for this term and will resume in the fall with a pertinent program... The Parish Picnic will be held on the afternoon of Saturday, June 15th at Bowness Park. This year it will be a joint picnic with the people of St. John the Divine parish, Gleichen, to bring our congregations together in a happy way.

CYCLE OF PRAYER

Diocese of Johannesburg, South Africa.

Bishop Leslie Edward Stradling; Asst. Bill Bendyshe Burnett.

For a country where divisions between people are so deep, let our prayers be for patience, tolerance and unity. The Bishop of Johannesburg is chairman of the Witwaters and Christian Council seeking to unite all Christians in South Africa in their witness and service. Regrettably, the Dutch Reform Church is not at present participating.

In the Diocese of Calgary, for the Parishes of St. Theodore, Taber; and St. Stephen, Vauxhall; and for the Incumbent, John Charles Daisley.

This is a Sunday in the Church's year without name or significance of its own. So we simply call today "The Sunday After The Ascension".

Just behind us is the great event of the Ascension: next Sunday is Pentecost, the day on which the Church was baptized with the power and fire of the Holy Spirit to fulfil its role in the world. Most people know something about Pentecost (or Whitsun as we often call it). Fewer and fewer people appear to see much significance in the Ascension, judging by its lack of observance. Yet the truth enshrined in this observance is an essential link in the Christian understanding of the meaning of life. Christ not only rose from the dead, triumphant over sin and death; He "ascended into heaven", a pictorial (don't get bogged down with the picture) or symbolic way of saying that He who was made one with us in our humanity at His birth, and lived the Life of a man, and died on a Cross at a point in time, and rose from the dead, belongs also in the very place of God. There He joins our humanity, purged and purified and renewed, to the life of God most high: and when we come face to face with the God of the universe we meet there the One who also took His place in humility by our side, and who, in the words of the Epistle to the Hebrews, "ever lives to make intercession for us". _____

Meet our Guests. Last fall the Choir and Congregation of St. John's, Gleichen, our companion parish, were our hosts, and many of us took advantage of their invitation and enjoyed harvest thanksgiving with them. Today the roles are reversed, and we have the privilege of being hosts to members of St. John's parish, specially represented by the Choir. Our Choir will entertain St. John's Choir to lunch, AFTER we have all had a chance to meet and greet each other over coffee in the Crump Room at the close of the 11 a.m. Service. Don't hurry away today.

PLEASE NOTE: BEGINNING NEXT SUNDAY (June 2) WE SHALL OBSERVE THE SUMMER SCHEDULE OF SERVICES. HOURS OF SERVICE EACH SUNDAY WILL BE 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. The inauguration of the summer schedule in June has come from the request of parochial groups and is endorsed by motion of your Vestry and with the concurrence of the Rector.

For Older Parishioners and Friends:

- Remember the social afternoon Thursday of this week, May 30th, at 2 p.m. in the Crump Room.

- If you require transportation please phone Mrs. Nan Morrison, 244 - 6219.

- And anyone who can drive others, or anyone who would like to provide baking, please phone Mrs. Morrison.

On Whitsunday, Sunday next, June 2nd, Holy Communion will be celebrated at both Services - 8 a.m. and 10 a.m.; and at the 10 o'clock Service Church School recognition awards will be presented.

Camp Kananaskis Application Forms are going quickly. Don't delay in getting yours in.

Gleichen Furniture Pick-up:

A furniture pick-up for Gleichen is planned for an early date. Our list of items for this pick-up is small, so if you have any furniture for this purpose please phone the Church Office soon. The following are particularly needed: cribs, single and double beds, springs and mattresses, kitchen chairs, living-room furniture, dressers, cupboards, rugs.

Scout Service at 10 a.m. on June 9th:

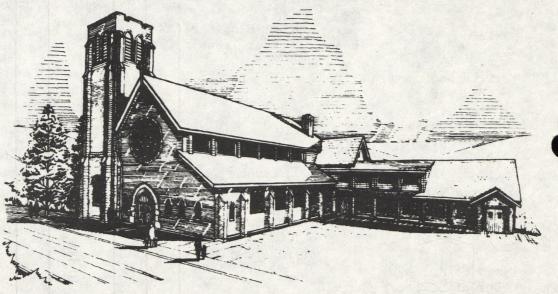

Our own Scouts and Cubs, with the Guides and Brownies, will parade for this Service, and the Scouts will take part in the Service itself. Parents and relatives of the boys and girls involved are particularly invited to share in this Service.

A Sorrento Holiday:

Looking for a different type of holiday this summer? Families and individuals are welcome to have a holiday with a purpose at the Sorrento Lay Training Centre on Shuswap Lake, 45 miles east of Kamloops, B.C. There are two sessions a day for adults with the rest of the time for holiday fun in one of the best resort areas of British Columbia. While parents are in session, children have their own prgramme under the supervision of the staff. There are thirty camp sites, trailer court, Cabanas, and modern rooms in the new residence, which will be completed by July 15th. Full information and list of courses is available in the brochure at the back of the church,

TODAY:

- Rogationtide is probably for city churches the least celebrated of all our Church year seasons - but is has suffered this decline only since urbanization. The theme of the Season traditionally was to pray for God's blessing on the new crops and herds as the spring agricultural work began. In rural areas this emphasis is still very meaningfully portrayed, and if you were in any of the churches of the Meota parish today, for example, you would witness Archdeacon Gant and his congregations keeping the Rogationtide ceremonies of blessing seed, plough, new-born animals and the like. But for city folk removed from such practices and their meaning, Rogation still offers the underlying attention to our dependence on God's creation, our unconscious reliance on the supporting industries that bring us all our amenities and provender. The origin of the word is from the Latin rogare - to ask. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week are kept as Rogation Days.

- The flowers today are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Catherine McQueen (Church Altar) and Thomas Guy and Edith Jeal (Chapel Altar).
- Our Associate and his family are joining with others from the diocese at Sorrento, B.C. to engage in a work-study weekend. This effort initiates the Lay Training Centre's summer season and a special blurb about the facilities and opportunities there are found further on in this leaflet.
- At the Glenmore Auxiliary Hospital tonight at 6:30 we shall be conducting a Service for the patients, staff and visitors as a part of our ministry to those confined to such places.

THIS WEEK:

- ASCENSION DAY is Thursday, the fortieth day after Easter, when the New Testament tells us (Acts 1: 3-9) Jesus ascended to reign eternally with God the Father. The Ascension marked a traumatic moment for the nascent church, Christ's disciples, for they were to now live out their faith without His physical and visible presence. What it announced, of course, was that there was soon to be another climatic point when their strength and power was to be visibly declared and actualized on the Day of Pentecost (Whitsun) just ten days later, as the Holy Spirit comes to the Church. Our observance of this major day will be with Celebrations of the Holy Communion at 10:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Please make note, mark down and keep this day.
- Rogation Day Services on Tuesday 9 a.m. and Wednesday 10:30 a.m. in the Chapel.
- The Triple C (past Confirmation) group meets on Wednesday 5 to 6 for a discussion on hypocrisy, discrimination and double standards to be found around us in our society. A film and time to share and debate is the program.

NEXT SUNDAY:

- The choir of St. John's, Gleichen, will be with us for the 11 o' clock Service next Sunday. We are looking forward to their visit and this further opportunity to meet the people of our companion parish.

Our choir will be hosts for the occasion, and the two choirs will have lunch together following the Service.

- Next Sunday will be the concluding Sunday for the Church School term as far as regular classes are concerned. The preschool section, like the nursery care, carry on during the summer months. On June 2nd we will present recognition to those students who have maintained a good attendance and work record for the year.

"A SORRENTO HOLIDAY. Looking for a different type of holiday this summer? Families and individuals are welcome to have a holiday with a purpose at the Sorrento Lay Training Centre on Shuswap Lake, 45 miles east of Kamloops, B.C. There are two sessions a day for adults with the rest of the time for holiday fun in one of the best resort areas of British Columbia. While parents are in session, children have their own programme under the supervision of the staff. There are thirty camp sites, trailer court, Cabanas, and modern rooms in the new residence, which will be completed by July 15th. Full information and list of courses is available in the brochure at the back of the church."

CYCLE OF PRAYER:

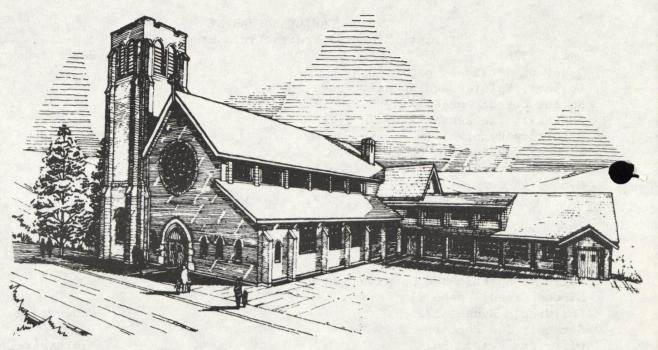

Last year the Diocese of Idaho, for whom we pray today, entered into a companion relationship with the Diocese of Kootenay in B.C. Already the closeness of the two areas has permitted a good deal of exchange back and forth of clergy and lay people — with the resulting shared thoughts of ways to meet problems similar to both. It is hoped this relationship may bring about better understanding between Canadian and American church people. The Bishop is Norman Landon Foote.

In our diocese we offer prayers appropriately on this Rogation Sunday for the congregations of St. Michael and All Angels, Strathmore; and St. Andrew in the Village of Gleichen. The parish priest is John Charles Marlor, and his people occupy some highly productive farm land.

REMINDER. Application forms for Camp Kamamaskis should be sent in soon.

CAMP KANANASKIS is your diocesan summer camp that offers an enriching program to all children and youth. Registration forms are available from the Church Office at any time. Application forms to serve in any leadership capacity are also on hand for adolescents and young adults to assist in the camping program.

Around the Parish Today:

- All the children of the parish 5 years and over have been invited to Heritage Park for children's services in the restored Livingstone Church. The cars taking them to the Park leave the church at 9:30, 11:00 and 11:30, returning each section approximately 1 1/2 hours after departure. It is designed to be an opportunity to learn something of our Christian heritage through the efforts of the early Church people, and how faith was a dynamic characteristic of the pioneer. Dr. Crabb is conducting the services there.

- Archdeacon Swanson is at St. Augustine's, Lethbridge, today, where he was rector some thirty years ago or so. And speaking of history, he has offered this note for its historical significance. "On Sunday, May 5th, after a tough struggle, a baby was baptized. He was James Farquharson Macleod, son of James Farquharson Macleod, son of Norman Macleod, son of James Farquharson Macleod, usually known as Colonel Macleod who founded Fort Macleod and Fort Calgary. The baby's grandfather, Norman Macleod, was present with his wife, and casually mentioned that he was one of the first group of people who founded Christ Church! Pretty young country, isn't it?"
- A week ago Saturday some twenty-five concerned parishioners spent the greater part of the day in scrutiny of the principles of worship and how we evaluate our present practices. A considerable part of that Seminar was directed to the "meaning content" of our worship services, especially as younger parishioners are affected. A sequel to that discussion takes place this morning in the Crump Room when the initial group plus 25 younger parishioners together examine our responsibilities in the public worship of God at Christ Church.
- An arresting television series is offered by the CBC (Channel 2) each Sunday at 5:03 p.m. It will feature top flight personalities speaking to modern society's more persistent questions. A full description is found on the bulletin board.

Today our specific prayers are for: Hereford, England: a rural diocese with 1/4 million population; a huge new town at Dawley to be built on the waste heaps of the industrial revolution; scores of churches of great beauty and historic interest but enormously expensive to keep in repair; many opportunities for social action and urban evangelism. The bishop is Mark Allan Hodson, the assistant William Arthur Partridge. Stettler Parishes: St. George, Stettler; St. Edmund, Big Valley; St. Margaret, Scollard; St. Paul, Byemoor; and the priest for the whole interior area is Peter Hugh McCalman, a former Calgarian, city Churchwarden and oil industry man who entered the Ministry under the tutelage of our Associate.

To Come: The Annual pot-luck supper of the Guild section of the A.C.W. will be held Monday, May 13, 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. C.S. Lee, 4015 Crestview Road.

CHANGING ATTITUDES

"Our present intellectually and socially exciting age has many themes, perhaps two of the most central and meaningful of which are freedom and responsibility. Western people are presently experiencing a vast expansion of freedom of thought, experiment and action, with respect to all aspects of life, from the uniqueness of each individual's creativity, to humanity as a whole, and to the possibilities not only of the planet upon which humanity is nurtured, but to outer space as well.

Long suppressed or dormant peoples, races and groups are springing to life, demanding their right to equality and freedom — and in so doing are giving birth to a new spiritual Renaissance. The struggle of the North American Negroes, the rise of new nations in Africa and Asia, the emergence to world power of Russia and China are some of the more obvious examples of revolutionary forces which often focus on the themes of freedom and independence.

The increasing interest among our young people in sexual understanding and fulfilment should be seen as part of this enormous new vitality and concern for personal freedom and autonomy. Flowering from roots deeply imbedded in our Western history, we see here a new vitality and upthrust of the human spirit that demands a new awareness and confrontation of the fact of human sexuality; these new aspirations, as with the 14th Century Renaissance may well lead to a tremendous reformation of the outer face of Christendom."

The above paragraphs were taken from a current bulletin produced by the Council for Social Service of the Anglican Church of Canada entitled "Canadian trends in pre-marital Behaviour." This bulletin deals with this emphasis in its relationship to Church teaching and Christian education. It was compiled with the help of the Reverend W. E. Mann, M.A., Ph.D., an Anglican priest, who is currently Professor and Head of Sociology Programs at Atkinson College, York University, Toronto. The full text of this report can be obtained by writing to: Council for Social Service, Anglican Church of Canada, 600 Jarvis Street, Toronto 5. Ontario.

Ever heard of Paul Tournier? He is a Swiss medical doctor who has a great gift with words. His first book to catch the public eye and be widely read was "A Doctor's Casebook". He is a psychologist too of no mean account, and went on to write "The Meaning of Persons" which has been a book of great comfort and insight for many. His other works are "The Seasons of Life" and "The Strong and the Weak". You can find all four in the Parish Library, and they are highly recommended books to provide easily read yet highly perceptive comment, from a deeply Christian point of view, on modern man and his social problems.

BIBLE SOCIETY SUNDAY observed annually on the first Sunday in May is an opportunity to look at this Society's tasks. "We live in a world where poverty is the lot of the majority of people. It is a striking fact that the Gross National Product of Canada with 20 million people is the same as that of India with 500 million. In vast areas of the world the Bible Society must provide the scriptures at a fraction of their cost and in some cases free of charge. A Bible that costs $3.00 to produce may sell for $1.00. The Bible Society loses $2.00 but we must remember that the one who pays $1.00 is making a tremendous sacrifice, perhaps paying a week's wages to obtain a Bible. A $2.00 gift to the Bible Society will pay for the subsidy on the Bible in many cases and such a contribution is a small sacrifice in comparison to that of the one who paid $1.00 for it. The world budget of the 35 Bible Societies of the world in the fellowship of the United Bible Societies is $7.500,000 for 1968. This is the minimum that is required to cover the costs of translation and to pay the loss sustained through distributing Scriptures below cost and free of charge. The Canadian Bible Society is expected to contribute $800,000 towards the world budget of $7,500,000 in 1968." It is no wonder then that the late Georges P. Vanier as Governor General wrote in 1946 to the Canadian Bible Society these words: "Your work is of the utmost importance to humanity ... and deserves high praise and splendid encouragement. I congratulate you and urge you to carry on in making available to all mankind the invaluable and inexhaustible treasury of spiritual knowledge and virtue that is in the Bible." Our parish representative to the Southern Alberta District of the Canadian Bible Society is Mr. Norman Birch, 243-1277, and he along with the Rector will be glad to receive your contribution, discuss any aspect of its work, and answer your questions.

Child Safety Day. The Calgary Safety Council draws to the attention of the public the need for constant vigilence to reduce the number of accidents to our junior citizens. In the first three months of 1968 there were 45 children injured in traffic accidents in Calgary. The message of this Council is to call all motorists to be "child-wise" when operating a vehicle, with special care for children in and out of the vehicle.

Elbow Park Community Kindergarten will hold a registration meeting for the 1968-69 term, in the Kemp Room of Christ Church on Thursday, May 9th at 8 p.m. sharp. All parents of children who will be five years of age by December 31st are invited to attend. For information please call Mrs. J.V. Martin at 243-6834.

Summer Camps. Posters - complete with dates of boys' and girls' camps - depicting the Camp Kananaskis summer program, are to be found in prominent places about the church premises. Parents are urged to make their arrangements soon and avoid disappointment. This year a full-time camp director is in charge, and each camping period will provide an excellent schedule for those attending. Registration forms are available from the Church Office at any time. Also, young people who can serve as cabin leaders and in other supervisory ways are being solicited, and their application forms are also on hand at any time.

Mothers. If you have a little girl (or girls) who attends, or will attend, Brownies or Guides at this church then this message is beamed primarily at you -- but also at any lady who is concerned about the Brownie-Guide program. Next fall we will be facing an acute shortage of leaders. At least five will be required for the Brownie groups and some help also for the Guides. If you can respond to this notification please call the Area Commissioner, Mrs. Dougall, 243-2350 now.

When special things happen to you and the natural response is to go to church and especially to go to communion, you do not have to wait till Sunday. The midweek Services offer a very refreshing half-hour of quietness, with a simple and dignified Service set in an atmosphere of devotional beauty. So when you have reason to give special thanks, or to remember some urgent need, or to find support for yourself or another, just remember you don't have to wait for Sunday. The regular week-day Services are on Tuesday at 9 and Wednesday at 10.30.

The Triple C group (post Confirmation) meets on Wednesday in the Horne Room from 5 to 6. The topic this week is: "Marriage is probably not many years away: what do I really know about it?" There will be a provocative film, a young married couple to comment, and lots of general discussion.

Cycle of Prayer. The diocese we pray for today is Gloucester which covers the whole county of Gloucestershire (England) with the exception of the city of Bristol. Its main centres are the city of Gloucester, with its magnificent Gothic cathedral, the regency town of Cheltenham, and 200 Cotswold village parishes. The Bishop is Basil Tudor Guy, and the Suffragan of Tewkesbury is Forbes Trevor Horan. Closer to home we offer prayers for the churches of Rocky Mountain House (Holy Trinity), Cheddarville (All Hallows), and Caroline (St. Mary the Virgin). Their Incumbent, Bruce Alistair Rathbone, covers this difficult area of low economic resources, and we 10nd minor support twice yearly through quantities of rummage for their sales.

PARISH REGISTER FOR APRIL:

CAMP KANANASKIS is your diocesan summer camp that offers an enriching program to all children and youth. Registration forms are available from the Church Office at any time. Application forms to serve in any leadership capacity are also on hand for adolescents and young adults to assist in the camping program.

We express a very warm WELCOME to all the participants in the Youth Conference underway this weekend. They come from all over the Diocese and we are delighted to offer them the facilities of Christ Church for their sessions and meals. At the 9:30 Service today we welcome them as fellow-worshippers, and also our Bishop who is Celebrant at the Eucharist. We trust their time spent at this rally leads to a greater awareness of Christian living.

Today our Associate is guest preacher at St. Mark's Church while the Archdeacon is the preacher at St. Stephen's for a dedication ceremony. The special appeal envelopes for contributions to Anglican World Mission are in the pews today for the final opportunity to respond by those who have not done so to date. (A full statement about A.W.M. is to be found in the Parish News Letter found on the rear Nave table) Also in the pews today is a descriptive pamphlet regarding the work of the Canadian Mental Health League, which you are invited to take and read. May 1 - 8 is the national observance of Mental Health Week.

LIBRARY DAY is our special emphasis today when everybody is encouraged and invited to make a special trip to the Library area in the Crump Room. At the Coffee Hour following the 11 o'clock Service special refreshments are offered and hostesses will be on hand to make parishioners of all ages welcome and familiar to the Library's workings and what it offers to children, youth and adults.

Cycle of Prayer: Seventeen years ago the withdrawal of foreign personnel and support from China's Anglicans took place. All we can assert today is what a visitor in 1967 wrote in the Church Times: "China is caught up in a dynamic purpose such as countries rarely experience except in great crises." The Holy Catholic Church in China (Anglican) is cut off now from regular communication with the rest of the Anglican Communion. All schools and hospitals have been taken over by the government, and many churches are reported to be closed. The southern Chinese Diocese of Fukien is embraced in our prayers today, remembering all their people, clergy, and the bishops: Michael Kwang-hsu Chang, Moses Ping-hsi Hsieh, and Yu-ch'ang Liu. In our Diocese we support by prayer St. Luke's, Red Deer; Sylvan Lake; Eckville; Rimbey - all cared for by the team of clergy including Randall Eugene Ivany, Albert Codlier and Harold Barnes.

RACIAL AND CULTURAL CONFLICT

Too readily we dismiss the struggles for racial equality and opportunity which are taking place throughout the world. We tend to hide in a blanket of smug superiority as we read accounts of demonstrations, tragedy and bloodshed in Africa or the Southern States. Discrimination prejudice and injustice are here in our midst — despite laws designed to protect the rights of minorities or particular groups of people. We see it not only in the isolation of Negroes or Migrants from Europe and Asia, but most particularly in the attitudes and treatment of our own Indian-Metis-Eskimo citizens. Prejudice and discrimination can work in our own hearts and almost subconsciously cause us to turn a deaf ear or look the other way, or what is even worse, just not be bothered to care.

A step has been taken to combat racial and cultural discrimination against our Indians, Metis and Eskimo citizens. At the twenty-third session of the General Synod, held at Saint Paul University, Ottawa, August 22-31, 1967, the following resolution was carried:

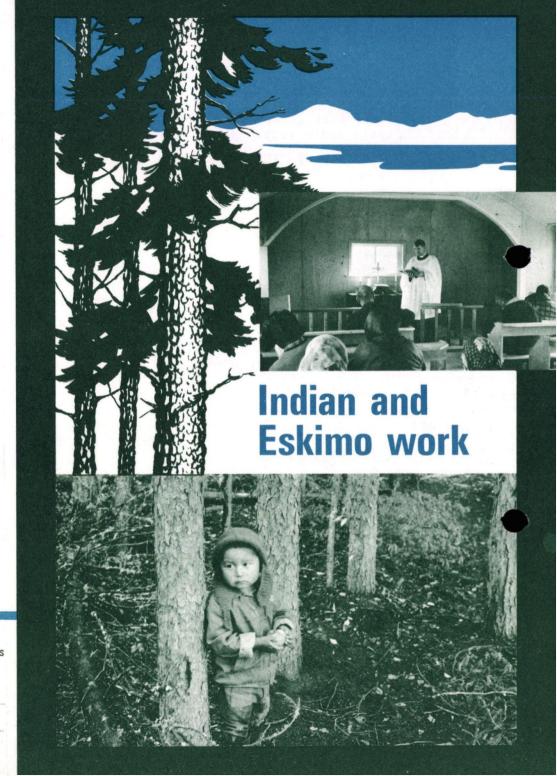

"Whereas the 1965 General Synod expressed its intention to undertake one or more pilot projects in an attempt to discover more effective ways of working with Indian and partly Indian communities, within the context of Community Development philosophy, and

Whereas the Report of the Interdepartmental Committee on Indian/ Eskimo Affairs to the 1967 General Synod states that there is need for research and planning to form a consistent policy of the Anglican Church of Canada to Indian work:

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED (1) that this General Synod requests the Long Range Planning Committee, or the appropriate arm of General Synod, to give its full support to and become actively involved in projects enabling Indians to discuss their own proposals for self-determination and which provide discussion between Indians and other Canadians:

AND FURTHER (2) that the Long Range Planning Committee, or the appropriate arm of General Synod of the needs, concern and recommendations expressed in such projects;

AND FURTHER (3) that the National Executive Council be asked to provide $20,000 for each of the two years 1969 and 1970 (that is a total of $40,000) in the budgets of those years to implement the recommendations of the Report".

NEXT SUNDAY

- We will observe next Sunday as LIBRARY DAY in the Parish. The contribution of books to our Christian development and awareness will be underlined and naturally some focus made on our own excellent Parish Library. The full Library Committee will be on deck at the Coffee Hour next Sunday with special refreshments for all - including the younger parishioners.
- We will have in our midst many young people from around the Diocese who will be attending the annual Youth Rally, which this year is located at Christ Church. So do not be surprised if you see scores of youth around the place - but rather rejoice at their presence and make them welcome.

TODAY

- There are envelopes in the pews today for specific contributions to Anglican World Mission this Eastertide. They are there for those who feel they have not given any support either through an increased pledge in 1968 (to cover all special appeals), or by using one of these special envelopes last Sunday. A full statement about our approach to Anglican World Mission and the area being supported by Calgary Diocese is found in the News Bulletin - copies of which are to be found on the rear Nave table.

- Archdeacon Swanson is conducting Services at St. Philip the Evangelist Church, Elboya, in the absence of their Rector.
- There will be no Evensong here today.
- Today there is a Seminar on War and Peace being offered at Trinity United Church, 1401 - 10th Avenue, S.E., from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. It offers an objective evaluation of the historic causes, and presents means of making war and making peace. A variety of competent speakers will participate (see bulletin board for details).
- At 8 p.m. tonight in the Crump Room there is a session for young adults, 18 years and over, to consider their participation with other groups in the city of similar ages. There will be a discussion of next weekend's Youth Rally also.

NEXT WEEK

- St. George's Day occurs on Tuesday, 23rd, and will be observed at the regular Tuesday 9 a.m. Service.
- St. Mark's Day falls on April 25th, and the memory of Mark the Gospel writer will be commemmorated at the Wednesday 10:30 Chapel Service.
- Next Saturday the Seminar on Worship will be held from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. with a light lunch included. If you are planning to attend please let the Church Office know so that some careful planning can be done in relation to the numbers attending. We remind you that this Seminar is intended to cover at least these three areas: - an evaluation of present worship practices; - what specific changes, if any are desired and how to effect them; - to survey what is happening in the whole Liturgical Movement in the world today.
- On Thursday morning at 9:30 in the Crump Room the Morning Study Group will have Mrs. Hermon Stevens as their guest. She will be speaking on the Vanier Institute on the Family. All ladies are welcome.
- Reminder Parish Military Whist, Friday of this week at 8 p.m. in the Lower Parish Hall. Sale of home baking, wine jellies, and barbecue sauce. Admission $1.00. Master of Ceremonies - Bob Sturgess.

CYCLE OF PRAYER. Our prayers today take us in thought to three locations:

- Egypt. The Diocese of Egypt with Libya, and North Africa, along with the Diocese of the Sudan, is under the jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Jerusalem who wrote in a recent issue of 'Bible Lands': "From the Arab parts of the Archbishopric we in Jerusalem are now cut off but we continue to be linked in prayer. We pray for the day when the problems of the Middle East -- impossible boundaries, homeless refugees, together with hatred, suspicion and fear -- may be squarely faced by men of good will."

- Ekiti, Nigeria. The Diocese of Ekiti, inaugurated in October, 1966, is situated in an agricultural area of Western Nigeria. Cocoa and yams are the main crops, although rice is also grown. The vast majority of the population are either Muslims or pagans, Anglicans numbering about 41,000. The Bishop is Michael Adeniji Osanyin.
- The Foothills Mission of our Diocese includes St. John, Pincher Creek; St. Martin, Livingstone; St. Chad, Lundbreck; St. Aidan, Cowley; and All Saints, Waterton; all nestled in the ranching and foothills country of southwesterm Alberta. The area is not heavily populated and hence congregations are sparce. We pray for wisdom to effectively provide worship for these scattered people and their Incumbent, William Davis Pope.

NOTES:

- Easter brings a confrontation with the reality of Jesus' Resurrection. To tackle this particular statement of Christian belief, and to share in the openness of an honest mind on this topic and many others, have you read "Honest to God" by Bishop John A.T. Robinson? It will seem radical even heretical to some, but by its extensive sale proves it helps to clear away the debris of half-believing to an honest grasp of faith's essentials. It's in the Parish Library.
- Paschal Candle. Candles occupy a special place in all celebrations. Birthday cakes, a dinner party, a bride's table -- almost all occasions that speak of some delight and wonder are enhanced by candles. From the days when they were used for illumination their soft light has kept an aura of the mystical and sacred. A very old tradition of the Church was to strike a new light at Easter and let it burn continuously for the whole Easter Season. We will follow that meaningful act too, and the special Victory Candle or Paschal Candle which was lit on Easter morn will burn at every Service for the forty days of Eastertide.
- For your information we are reporting on the results of the daily 5:30 Service held throughout Lent under the caption of 'Operation 30'. For the 32 weekdays this Service was held there was a total attendance of 607, of which 421 were communicants; a lot of children came with family groups. This averaged out to 19 present each day, of whom 13 received Communion. This appears as a good showing for its first attempt, and all being well the pattern will be repeated next year. For all those who attended, supported and conducted Services a word of appreciation is extended.

GOOD or GOD'S FRIDAY.

Anyone can rightly ask - why do we call this a "good" day. Surely the commemoration of Christ's death is anything but a happy event to any sincere follower. But for an answer, we have to look not to our reactions to that event, but to what it is and what it does. The death of Jesus is proclaimed as their way of salvation, their way to peace with God - and that is surely a "good thing". Three facts come down to us from that Cross standing on a hilltop outside Jerusalem.

First, we have to acknowledge the sheer gruesomeness of that death. The manner was barbaric, the heat of noon-day onwards was cruel, the ignominy was totally undeserved. These aspects of that day's occurrence cause us to accept that Jesus endured all of this to be known as the one who would take all of man's sins and together with His own agony of dying nail them to His Cross.

Second, we see the physical endurance matched by His own conquest of heart and will in order to be completely obedient to His Father - even unto death! There may be great reluctance on our part to imagine Christ refusing to go through with it, and to seek some alternative. But remember He dies as man as well as Divine Son, and His cry of despair from the Cross only serves to remind us that it was a supreme sacrifice made by the sinless Christ on our behalf.

Third, it can be all too easy to see Good Friday as necessary then but not now. Only as we see the crass and senseless men of then being examples of all crass and senseless humanity will we acknowledge that we helped nail Him to the Tree.

Have you read "The Trial of Jesus" by the Honourable James C. McRuer? It's in our Parish Library. In his book Chief Justice McRuer (of Ontario) brings to bear a trained legal mind for the evidence presented on the trial of Jesus the Man; a fascinating study for anyone, and especially the legal mind. This is just an example of the fine books to be found in your Parish Library. A Library Assist-

Today:

- Palm crosses, skillfully made and provided by the Altar Guild, will be blessed at the 8 o'clock Service and distributed to every adult and child at the Services today. We respectfully suggest that they be used to speak of the meanings of Holy Week and not thoughlessly discarded.
- This afternoon at 2 p.m. on Channel 4, CFCN-TV the Bishop will be on television to speak to the people in our diocese with regard to Anglican World Mission. Miss Sandra Falck of our parish, and Mrs. Margaret Waterchief from the Blackfoot Reserve at Gleichen will be the Bishop's guests on the program.
- At Sunday at Four we shall conclude our Lenten series on the issues the Church faces in contemporary society. Our special preacher will be the young and able United Church Chaplain at the University of Calgary, The Reverend Douglas Lauchlan. We solicit your attendance in extending a warm welcome to our guest.
- At 11 o'clock the children will return from classes during the recessional hymn and advance to the chancel steps, and from there form a palm recession.

TODAY:

- The days from now until Good Friday (April 12) are called Passiontide when the Lenten theme is intensified. The death of Jesus becomes more imminent and the drama of His last days on earth gains suspense and tragedy. The indignities He is to suffer in the arrest, mock trial and incarceration have given these days their name Passiontide - from the Latin word "passio" meaning suffering.

- You will find in the pew book racks today, as last Sunday, some information brochures and appeal envelopes for the Primate's World Relief Fund. We reiterate the two points most pertinent to this appeal. First, that this appeal for funds is to equip our Church with a reserve for emergency needs in the world as crisis comes and demands instant action. Second, that the fiscal policy of this parish is to send a sum to this, and all national appeals, taken from our general receipts. There still remains the opportunity for individuals to make a personal and specific contribution to this fund, and to that end envelopes are in the pews.

- The Rector is preaching at St. Barnabas Church, Calgary, at 11 o'clock and Archdeacon Swanson is speaking at Banff.

- At the 8 0'clock Service we have opportunity to worship with last Sunday's Confirmation candidates as many of them receive their first Communion. Their families are our guests at breakfast following.

- The Recreation Division of the City is staging a display of Arts and Crafts at Henry Wise Wood High School today, 11 to 5:30.

COMING EVENTS:

- One of the great masterpieces of Christian music is the story of Christ's passion and death taken from the account in St.

 Matthew's Gospel and put to music by Johann Sebastian Bach. This moving work is being presented in the Jubilee Auditorium on Good Friday evening at 8 p.m. by the Festival Chorus. It will feature a double choir of adult choristers, the boy choristers from this Church and the Cathedral, and top line soloists; all supported by an orchestra. The conductor is John Searchfield, and the assistant conductor is Terence Fullerton. Tickets are available from any choir boy or Mr. Fullerton.
- The premiere showing of the "Bobby Richardson Story" will be shown at Western Canada High School next Saturday, April 6th at 7:45 under the auspices of the Youth for Christ movement. Everyone is welcome.
- Next Friday, Saturday and Sunday, April 5, 6 & 7, a very exciting art exhibit is staged at Parkdale United Church, 2919 8th Avenue, N.W. just below Foothills Hospital. All forms of art are employed to depict Christian themes, and it is an ecumenical venture of a very different but fascinating kind. See the poster on the bulletin board for details.
- On Thursday, April 11th at 8 p.m. an original play by Calgary playwright Stewart Boston will be staged at Hillhurst United Church. It is entitled "Problem in Judea" and presented by the Mac Workshop group. There is no admission, and churches of that area are sponsoring the event.
- Next Sunday being Palm Sunday, palm crosses prepared by the Altar Guild will be presented to all adults and children at the Services.

CYCLE OF PRAYER:

Overseas: Damaraland, South West Africa, is part of the territory of 318,000 square miles declared by the U.N. as an international country, but South Africa has opposed the move, continues to govern it and declines admission to any U.N. representative. The Church, headed by an American Bishop (Robert Herbert Mize) and served by English and American missionaries, is going through a trying period. There is a fine response by the Ovambo people to Christ and His Church. Our Diocese: The parishes of St. John, Olds; St. Cyprian, Didsbury; and St. George, Harmattan, are conscious of the movement of people from country to town as Olds steadily increases and the Agricultural School there grows. The Incumbent of these three congregations is Paul K. Yip.

Sunday at Four brings to our attention some particular concern the Church faces in the modern world. This has been the theme of these Services throughout Lent, and today our guest preacher will be the Rector of St. Michael All Angels' Church in Calgary, The Reverend Canon C. Murray Starr. Having served all his Ministry in this Diocese, after an eastern Canada upbringing and education. he has been most active and concerned with the whole realm of social issues. He is a past chairman of the Diocesan Council of Social Service, and is presently chairman of the Inter-Faith Community Action Council. This latter group has won widespread praise for its noteworthy accomplishments and for its role as a conscience for the whole community. We are very delighted to have this hardworking Anglican Rector as our speaker at Sunday at Four today. The speaker next Sunday afternoon will be Mr. Bernie Muzeen, Calgary director of the Company of Young Canadians.

Cycle of Prayer: The Diocese of Connor, North Ireland, is remembered in prayer throughout the Anglican world today. This Diocese, which takes in part of the suburbs of Belfast faces the common problem and opportunities for a population on the move from old city areas to newer settlements. In our Diocese we offer prayers for the people of St. Peter's, Okotoks, and St. Paul, Midnapore; these two congregations are part of the area served by the young priest, Rodney Osborne Andrews.

Primate's World Relief Fund: Regarding this appeal which is made annually on the Fourth Sunday in Lent we have two comments to make. First, this fund is the Church's emergency reserve to meet critical needs as they occur. The world's disasters, like a tidal wave in Japan, earthquake in Chile, hurricane in the West Indies — anything that calls for immediate relief funds can be assisted because we have supported this fund. Second, we have created a fiscal policy in this Parish that states this appeal and others will be supported to a degree from general pledges and receipts. This still leaves opportunity for any person to contribute if he desires at the time this appeal is given national publicity. For this reason specific information and special envelopes are in the pews today to use if you care.

Along with our pleasure at being present for the Confirmation of today's large class is our opportunity to identify ourselves in this event as the solemn vows of Christian obedience are made and we too can renew those promises. It must always be the responsibility of the whole body of believers to also pray for and support in every possible way these new confirmees so that they grow into a full and active performance of these vows; and to this end they have received all the gifts of the Holý Spirit. To them we say heartily "We welcome you in the name of the Lord".

This day is significant in another way for it gives us great pleasure to welcome for his first episcopal function the Bishop of Calgary, the Rt. Rev. Morse L. Goodman. We tender him on this auspicious occasion our warmest welcome and assurance of our prayers and support for a long and well blessed ministry as our Father in God.

For those who are guests and visitors with us today, and are especially interested in the candidates, we extend our warmest greetings, we are glad you are able to be present for this important Service in the life of the candidates.

Following the Service the candidates and their families are asked to adjourn to the Crump Room to meet the Bishop - and will they please exit through the doorway to the adjoining office wing. The Bishop will greet the rest of the congregation at the main west door at the conclusion of the Service.

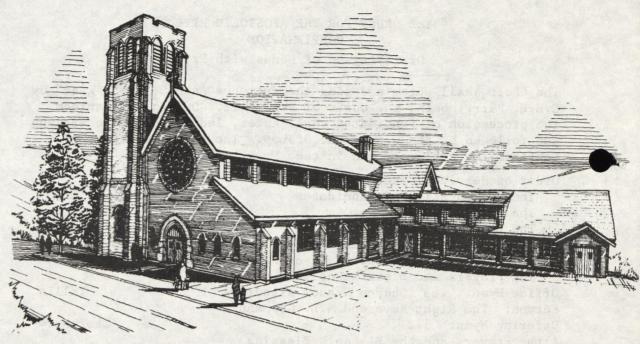

The candidates and their parents are reminded that they will attend Holy Communion next Sunday at 8 a.m. for their first Communion; breakfast will be served in the lower hall following.

Notes:

- All senior young people, 18 and over, are invited to meet with Mr. Dave Peyto and other representatives of the city-wide Anglican Young Adults tonight at 8 p.m. in the Crump Room for the purpose of discussing the Young Adults' Rally on May 18th, and other matters relating to mutual problems.
- Remember the spring rummage sale Friday and Sturday of this week, March 29th and 30th.
- Advance notice is given that the Bridge Marathon wind-up party will be held in the Crump Room, April 19th at 8 p.m. Please reserve this date.
- Parish Military Whist, Friday April 26th, 8 p.m. in the Lower Parish Hall. For tickets ($1.00) please phone Mrs. J.E. Baugh (243-5340).
- Please be reminded of our Lenten daily Service, "Operation 30"; and if "your day" occurs this week we hope to see you present, and as often as you can attend.
- This weekend Christ Church is once again the locale for a Marriage Preparation Seminar. This course for all those contemplating marriage, or recently wedded, is offered frequently by the Anglican Churches of the Calgary area, and provides excellent professional guidance and instruction.
- Tickets for Bach's "St. Matthew Passion" by the Festival Chorus, assisted by a boys' choir from the Cathedral and Christ Church, on Good Friday, April 12th, at 8 p.m. in the Jubilee Auditorium, are available from Mr. Terence Fullerton, or from any of our choir boys.

Sorrento Presents: Situated attractively on Shuswap Lake is the Anglican Lay Training Centre at Sorrento, B.C. Here many exciting and imaginative things are carried out to equip laity for their Christian responsibilities in today's society. Some of the winter term students at Sorrento are in Calgary this weekend and are providing two most interesting evenings. Here are the details: Tonight (Sunday) at 7:30 in St, Stephen's Church they will present a Choral Eucharist done with modern music - the "Rejoice" version. This is a well executed Service done to a setting which has found wide acceptance and is commended to all. Tomorrow, Monday, at 8 p.m. in St. Stephen's Hall they will present the story of their work and what they have to offer at Sorrento, It is presented in a cleverly devised satire form and highly recommended for all teen-agers and adults. If you don't know about Sorrento, or where it is or what it does, we hope this weekend clears things up for you. There are four or five of the travelling team billeted in our Parish for the weekend.

Forthcoming Confirmation: The introduction to the congregation today of this class, your candidates, who will be presented (DV) to the Bishop next Sunday, serves two purposes. The first reason for their presence as a group is to single out for special attention - for them and us - the vow-making aspect of their Confirmation. So often in our Anglican practices the day of Confirmation is so filled with thoughts of the Confirmation ceremony, the Bishop's visit, the family excitement. etc., that what transpires by way of commitment to Christ for life is easily and frequently submerged by other interests of the day. So we hope today's little Declaration of Intention will help to restore the Confirmation promises to some centrality in our observance of being confirmed. Secondly, we find good reason to introduce this class to the whole Parish today so that they may be seen, noted, prayed for, welcomed and remembered both today and in future days. It is to be hoped that every parishioner will make an effort to show we care about young people entering the communicant stage of membership. Confirmation will be next Sunday at 11 a.m., and the first Communion is on March 31st at 8 a.m. - breakfast following.

Cycle of Prayer:

Overseas we remember in prayer today the Indian Diocese of Chota Nagpur found in an inland area of east India close by Calcutta. The Bishop is Sadanand Dilbar Hans, a native of the country. Locally our prayers are for the Lamerton Mission which is comprised of St. Monica, Mirror; St. Peter, Bashaw; and St. Pancras, Alix - all cared for by The Rev. James Linster.

Sunday at Four:

This series of Lenten Evensongs has brought and will continue to bring, to Christ Church some of Calgary's able exponents of the Church's mission in contemporary society. We have taken as our text for the whole series John 3: 16, "God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son"; and week by week we have been helpfully exposed to how we can more and more give better witness to God's world that He loves it all. It has been an excellent series of Services and fine Sermons; the whole-hearted support of the Parish is deserving for our guest preachers who share their time and concern with us.

Today it is our privilege to welcome Father Jack Bastigal of the Catholic Information Centre as our guest speaker. He is a native Albertan who received his schooling in southern Alberta, his seminary education at St. Joseph's Seminary, Edmonton, and was ordained in Calgary. He has served in the Calgary Parishes of St. Mary's Cathedral, St. Pius X, as Chaplain at the University of Calgary, and at Gleichen. He presently is Director of the TV Radio and Vocational departments of the Centre, and is an able exponent of the Church's concern in these areas. We are delighted to have him come to us today.

Notes:

- We remind you of Operation 30 at 5:30 each weekday; do try to come on your day and as often as you can. Attendances to date have been encouraging.
- Today our Associate is at St. Stephen's Church at 11 o'clock, and next Sunday our Honorary Associate will be there; thus we are offering some assistance while they are awaiting a new Rector.
- The rectory family use the courtesy of this leaflet to express appreciation for every kindness, especially during Peter's protracted hospitalization.
- The March meeting of the Guild section of A.C.W. will be held on Monday the 18th at 8:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. F. Siegel, 2918 Montcalm Crescent.
- Remember the Spring Rummage Sale March 29th and 30th. Bring your contributions to the lower Parish Hall, or phone Mrs. G.A. Leslie (243-1296) for pick-up service.
- At the Winchester Group Meeting Tuesday of this week at 1:45 pm Mrs. Clyde Archer will give a brief biography of one of the early churchmen.
- On Thursday, March 21st, the Mothers' Family Life Discussion Group will meet at 9:30 in the Crump Room. Mrs. J. Kelly of the Calgary Guidance Centre will speak on the topic: "How the Guidance Centre can help our Children".
- The Indian Friendship Centre is sponsoring a Girl Guide unit for girls living in the downtown area and is in need of small-size Guide uniforms. If you can help, please phone Mrs. W.J. Magathan (243-0678).

Sunday at Four series will bring to Christ Church each Sunday afternoon in Lent a special preacher who is worthy of your attention. The general theme of the series is taken from the famous text John 3:16, "God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son." We know that God loves His world but we wonder if we, His Church, show that love in adequate concern, compassion and action. This emphasis is followed to provide stimulation and provocation for our Lenten spiritual appetites.

During this series we hope to have two representatives from the Anglican, United Church, and Roman Catholic communions speak at "Sunday at Four". The whole-hearted support of the Parish is deserving for these guests who share their time and concern with us during the six Sundays of Lent.

Our Guests: To the morning Services we are delighted to extend a warm welcome to The Reverend E.A. (Ted) Weare, Rector of the Nanton -Claresholm Parish. Having served in that ranch country for several years now, he has won a firm place in the Diocese by his gifts and devotion to his Ministry. He is currently Rural Dean of the High River Deanery and in that capacity is exercising leadership in the way our Church can effectively serve town and country congregations now and in the future. Father Weare is a bachelor, and his Ministry is blessed by his talents as musician, teacher, preacher and counsellor. This afternoon at our special Lenten series "Sunday at Four" we are privileged to welcome The Reverend Robert Wallace as guest preacher. Mr. Wallace is Minister of Parkdale United Church in this city, and also carries the additional task of being Chairman of the Calgary Presbytery. A native of Vancouver where he was educated, his Ministry in Calgary has been marked by a warmth and concern for people together with a strong stand for Christian involvement in social conditions. He is a frequent exponent on the Family Life Education program, and we are grateful for his contribution here today.

The flowers today are given to the Glory of God and in loving memory of Jeanette Whitney (Church Altar), and Charles E. Rogers (Chapel Altar).

CYCLE OF PRAYER:

Central Tanganyika in East Africa, the focus for the prayers of our Anglican Communion today, is of special interest to us. It forms our Calgary Diocesan project under the auspices of the Anglican World Mission. Most of our donations through A.W.M. go to help the work in this Diocese. Tanganyika is one of the new African countries, and is

... beset with the same problems these young African nations have in common. Bishop Alfred Stanway notes as one of the pressing problems in the Church in Tanganyika the provision of an adequate ministry to meet the needs of a thousand congregations.

In our own Diocese we remember today the "Meota Parishes" under the leadership of Archdeacon Waverley Gant - Black Diamond, Priddis, Millarville, Turner Valley and Longview.

Notes for Today:

- We appreciate the presence of the Girls' Choir at the 9.30 Service.
- As mentioned last Sunday we note the all male voices in the Chancel at 11:00, with the mixed choir being in the gallery. More men are urged to take a place in the men's section of the Chancel Choir to support the boy choristers' fathers.
- Dr. Crabb kindly consented to conduct Services at Nanton and Claresholm today to allow our guest to be with us.

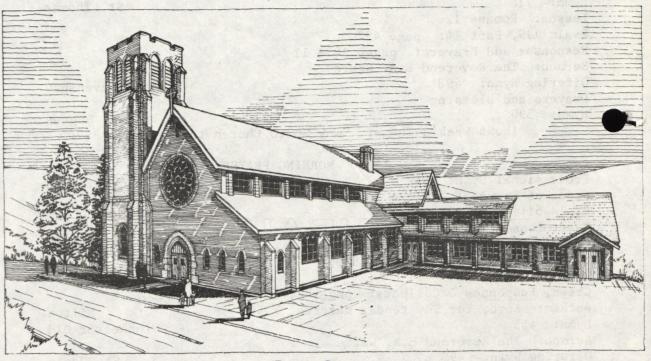

Coming Events:

- The Guild section of A.C.W. would appreciate articles for its Spring Rummage Sale to be held on Friday and Saturday, March 29th and 30th. These may be left in the lower Parish Hall, or phone Mrs. G.A. Leslie (243-1296) for pick-up service.
- The Festival Chorus under the direction of John Searchfield will sing Bach's "St. Matthew Passion" on Good Friday, April 12th, at 8 p.m. in the Jubilee Auditorium. The double chorus of sixty members will be supported by a double orchestra and soloists, as well as a special choir of boys' voices from the Cathedral and Christ Church. Tickets are available from Mr. Terence Fullerton or from any of our choir boys.

PLEASE REMEMBER AND KEEP YOUR APPOINTMENT FOR "OPERATION 30" at 5:30 daily Monday through Friday during Lent. We look for you on your day and as often as you can attend.

THE LENTEN SEASON which began on Ash Wednesday is brought to our full attention today as we attempt to recognize this is a Season with the special characteristics of preparation through self-examination and self-denial, to come finally where we are ready to stand with our Lord on Calvary's hill and meet Him risen on Easter morning. Our Services will be less praiseful and exuberant during this Season as the sacrifice of Christ is reiterated.

Beginning today we have the presence of a male choir in the Chancel singing with the boy choristers. Some of them are the boys' fathers, and we hope more men will, at least for Lent, come and support our new male choir. The mixed choir will occupy the gallery seats and add their vocal support from that position.

We know that God loves His world but we wonder if we, His Church, show that love in adequate concern, compassion and action. This will be the emphasis is followed to provide stimulation and provocation for our Lenten spiritual appetites.

Today it is our great pleasure to welcome as the first guest preacher, The Reverend Robert S.H. Greene, Rector of the Good Shepherd Parish in west Calgary. Father Greene has been an outspoken member of the Calgary Inter-Faith Community Action Committee, especially in the area of the housing problem. He is also a priest who concerns himself readily with many social ills and strives to work for their alleviation.

Next Sunday our special preacher will be The Reverend Robert Wallace.

Next Sunday our special preacher will be The Reverend Robert Wallace, Minister of Parkdale United Church and Chairman of their Calgary Presbytery. Mr. Wallace is an able spokesman, not only for his denomination, but for the area of family education and welfare development. We look forward to his presence.

During this series we hope to have two representatives from the Anglican, United Church, and Roman Catholic communions speak at "Sunday at Four". The whole-hearted support of the parish is deserving for these guests who share their time and concern with us during the six Sundays of Lent.

Cycle of Prayer. Since the early 1960's the world-wide Anglican endeavours have been under the watchful eye of a roving Bishop called the Executive Officer of the Anglican Communion. The first to hold that position was an illustrious American, Bishop Stephen Bayne (who preached here in 1966); and since 1963 it has been a Canadian, Bishop Ralph Dean. Bishop Dean continues to occupy the position as diocesan bishop of his Canadian jurisdiction, namely the Diocese of Cariboo. For him, his diocese and the people and clergy of Cariboo, our intercessory prayers are made today. Closer to home we remember the parish of St. Mary the Virgin, Lethbridge; the Rector is Canon Robert W. Cowan.

Parish Notes

- Please remember and keep your appointment for "Operation 30" at 5:30 daily Monday to Friday throughout Lent. We look for you on your day and as often as you can attend.
- Today Archdeacon Swanson is preaching at St. Stephen's, and throughout Lent our clergy will be frequently assisting in parishes where clergy are in short supply. The Rector will be in Edmonton Wednesday to preach at the Induction of The Reverend Fred W. Peirce at the parish of Christ Church.
- We remind you of the program tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. in the Crump Room when Sandra Falck will show slides and speak of her service in India. All persons are welcome.
- Next Sunday we shall welcome The Reverend E.A. Weare, Rector of Nanton and Claresholm, as guest and preacher.
- Congratulations are expressed to parishioners Eric Connelly, newly elected Chairman of the United Fund: and Pat Mahoney, newly elected President of the Calgary Stampeder Football Club. May they both steer their teams to victory.

7:307 EVENING YOUTH SERVICE

This Service and the program following is for all young people of the parish.

The flowers today are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Edward O. Wallace and Pilot Officer William O. Wallace (Church Altar), and Isabelle Maclure and Mavis Whitburn (Chapel).

TODAY:

- It is our pleasure to extend a warm welcome to The Reverend Douglas C. Blackwell as our guest and preacher at 11 o'clock. At present he is Incumbent of the Cochrane - Balzac Parish, and previously was Curate at St. Stephen's, Calgary. He is one of the young, able and concerned priests of our diocese who has already made a mark.
- In order to permit our guest to be here, our Associate Priest is taking Services at Balzac and Cochrane today.
- We remind you that the Lenten Season commences this week. Ash Wednesday Services are at 7:00 and 10:30 a.m., and 5.30 and 8.00 p.m. Following the first Service, breakfast is offered to those en route to school or work. The evening Service will be a Choral Service when those unable to attend the earlier hours can have the Ash Wednesday note struck for them and so begin a good Lent.
- Copies of the Lenten News Bulletin, the Lenten Calendar, and Lenten Coin Folders are found on the Narthex table for any who might not have received them.

"OPERATION 30":

In case you have not heard of our Lenten daily Service plan, called "Operation 30", we repeat here the main points, and direct you to the Parish News Bulletin for the full details.

- Monday to Friday throughout Lent there will be a Service at 5:30.
- To each Service a specific group of parishioners are invited. All of them will be prayed for by name on "their day".
- By the end of Lent all will have been invited and remembered by name at the Altar.
- The daily Service will be for all ages, and will last onehalf hour - hence the name "Operation 30".

THIS WEEK:

- Tomorrow is the Annual Meeting of the South Alberta District of the Canadian Bible Society. It is a dinner meeting at the First Church of the Nazarene, 126 - 14th Avenue, S.W., starting at 6.15 p.m. Tickets are available at the church office or at the door. Speaker at the meeting is Bishop Goodman, and we look for a strong delegation from this Parish to attend.

- Shrove Tuesday is a luncheon date for all ladies of the Parish at 1:15 in the Lower Hall. An exotic menu of international dishes, a Brotherhood Week Speaker, and a hat show makes it a diversified program.

COMING EVENTS:

- We remind you to keep next Monday evening open to hear Sandra Falck speak and show colour slides. Her work at the Ludhiana Medical Centre, conditions in India today, and some of the spectacular sights of that land will all be shown. It is an evening open to all, so do come and bring a friend. The details are: March 4, 8:00 p.m. in the Crump Room.
- Sundays at Four is the series of Services each Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. in Lent. It will be a full sung Evensong, and each week there will be a special preacher. The general theme will be how well the Church in all its efforts shows a true concern and reflection of the Bible statement "God so loved the world, that He gave his only begotten Son".

CYCLE OF PRAYER:

In our own diocese we join today in corporate prayer for the Parishes of St. Augustine, Lethbridge, and Church of the Redeemer, Picture Butte. The clergy are The Reverend Roy L. Crisfield and The Reverend William D. Rankin.

In the wider family of our Anglican Communion we join the whole family in prayer for our own Diocese of Calgary, and for Morse our Bishop. On this one day — the year when the world—wide Anglican Family focus their thoughts and prayers on us, it is for us a special opportunity to give thanks to God for the succession of faithful witnesses, beginning with the Apostles and Evangelists, through whom we in this part of the western world have received the Gospel and come to take our place in the Holy Catholic Church militant here on earth.

The memorial flowers today are given to the glory of God and in leving memory of Mrs. P. Harcourt-O Reilly (Church Altar) and J. Stuart Simpson (Chapel Altar).

Tonight our young people are invited to visit Beth Israel Synagogue for a guided tour of the synagogue. We have to be there at 7.30 sharp, so please assemble at Christ Church at 7 p.m. to ensure transportation. Anybody is welcome to come along on this interesting visit, and a commentary on the Jewish religion and customs will be given by Rabbi Sheldon Edwards.

THIS WEEK:

- The February meeting of the Guild section of the A.C.W. will be held on Monday the 19th at 8.15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. David. Tatchell, 3032 Glencoe Road. All members and anyone else who is interested in "Meals-On-Wheels" are urged to attend since Mrs. Higgs, the President of "Meals-On-Wheels", will be present to explain the program and answer any questions.
- We appreciate those who promptly and generously came forward with used hockey equipment for the Sunday School teams at Gleichen. If there are more donations of helmets, skates, pads, etc., that can be rounded up we will send it, and make a special point to ask for its speedy delivery to the church so that it can be forwarded while the hockey season is in progress.
- The Winchester Group will meet this week on Tuesday afternoon at 2 p.m. at the Rectory.

SKIERS' SERVICE: Due to the paucity of numbers attending the Skiers' Service over the past six weeks, it is concluded that support for this Service is not to be forthcoming, and so it is withdrawn. The only regret that remains is not over this Service being unsuccessful, but over the fact that the skiers' absence from church attendance remains an unsolved problem. Our questionnaire circulated earlier in the year seeking guidance in the question indicated there would be support for an early Sunday family Service; since this has not transpired we must now await some other tackling of the problem by the skiers themselves stating what is some likely solution to attempt.

COMING EVENTS:

- 1. The Annual Meeting and Dinner of the South Alberta District of the Canadian Bible Society will be held at the First Church of the Nazarene, 126 14th Avenue, S.W., on Monday evening, February 26th, at 6:15 p.m. The guest speaker will be The Rt. Rev. M.L. Goodman, Bishop of Calgary. Tickets are $1.75 and are available at the church office at any time. We look for a strong delegation to represent our Parish at this important function; make this year your year to attend.
- 2. Ladies of the Parish are reminded of the Shrove Tuesday luncheon on February 27th at 1:15 in the Lower Hall. An international menu will feature foods from many lands, Mrs. Morse Goodman will bring greetings, and an address on the Brotherhood Week observance will provide excellent food for thought. For the dessert course, a showing of hats is scheduled to round out the program.
- 3. Lent commences with Ash Wednesday next week, and a full statement of Lenten observances will be in your mail this week.

AVE VERUM: This beautiful anthem by the great church composer Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart is sung today for its fitting place in the Eucharist. The translation runs thus:

Hail to the Word made flesh, born of the Virgin Mary, On the Cross for mankind was truly sacrificed. From his pierced side flows water and blood, So in life and death be Thou our food.

SEXAGESIMA. Annually, this Sunday is used to focus on the "active" side of practising the Christian faith. This comes about rather naturally from the implications of the Gospel for today (Luke 18) when Jesus speaks of our faith "bringing forth fruit", i.e. being demonstrated in deeds.

We are never allowed in our adherence to the Christian way of life to keep our religion as a private little affair between ourselves and God. It has to be a demonstrated faith, and this is the emphasis of the second commandment. Another pitfall is to develop an activistic brand of Christianity which is always dashing about doing things - but not supported by much depth of understanding. Obviously Christians are to have both characteristics; a strong personal conviction and a readiness to employ this love of God in serving others.

This special insert today gives some instances of the way in our diocese the Social Service concerns are exercised on our behalf.

On Tuesday, February 20th, the School Board is having a meeting at 7:30 p.m. at MacDougall School to determine what their program is going to be concerning religious education in the schools. All interested are invited. For persons interested in writing about this issue, letters may be sent to Mr. L.W. Bessell, Secretary-Treasurer, Calgary School Board, 421 - 7th Street, S.W.

COUNCIL OF SOCIAL SERVICE

DIOCESAN COUNCIL OF SOCIAL SERVICE

- is a committee of the synod, elected by the synod and added to by the Bishop or the Council
- responsibilities of the D.C.S.S. are set forth in Canon 29. The functioning committees of the D.C.S.S. are:
 - 1) The proposed Anglican Bureau of Community Services. Negotiations are in progress with the Catholic Family Service Bureau to place an Anglican Social Worker on their staff with the joint duties of providing counselling services to Anglicans and the direction and co-ordination of social service endeavours throughout the Diocese. The salary of this staff member to be paid largely from Calgary United Fund money.
 - 2) A proposed Group Home for Disturbed Girls a home-like residence for girls who because of emotional distress cannot live positively in their own or foster homes. This project when established will be wholly supported by the provincial welfare. Referrals to this home will be made professionally.
 - 3) Anglican Clothing Centre (see frontispiece) is a place where any destitute person or family in need of clothing or furniture can request aid. The Centre is stocked by Calgary Churches is available to anyone on referral by a clergyman is staffed by members of the A.C.W. and other volunteers.
 - 4) Other concerns are geriatrics, Indian citizens, unwed mothers, immigration, etc.

The D.C.S.S. wishes to be informed of special needs in your Community. Address all correspondence to: Chairman, D.C.S.S., Diocese of Calgary.

Following the Youth Service at 7:30, the program topic will centre on the rehabilitation of the juvenile offender. Mr. Kur, Senior Probation Officer of the Juvenile Court, will speak and then preside over a question and answer period. This is a very appropriate discussion relating to the emphasis given this week to the work of the John Howard Society, and we hope our young people will be on hand to get the facts about adolescent crime and rehabilitation for the young offender. (See insert and item on back page).

Please note too that the program next Sunday night will be an instructed tour of Beth Israel Synagogue. We have to be at the Synagogue on 66th Avenue at 7:30 sharp, so be at Christ Church at 7:00 p.m. to ensure a ride for everybody.

The memorial flowers today are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of John Lawe Evans (Church Altar) and Lewis W. Caldwell (Chapel Altar).

CYCLE OF PRAYER: Special intentions today for the Diocese of Birmingham, England and the Parish of Innisfail, Penhold and Bowden. Geographically the Diocese of Birmingham is small in area and compact, but it is thickly peopled and teems with opportunity. Within its boundaries are several small townships as well as Birmingham itself, known by many as the City of a Thousand Trades, and possessing two universities. The Diocesan Bishop is John Leonard Wilson, a bearded, dynamic, modern St. Paul type, who survived p.o.w. attrocities in S.W. Asia and saw his jailers later become Christian; the other Bishops are David B. Porter (Aston) and George Sinker (Assistant). The Churches of St. Mark, Innisfail; St. George, Penhold; and St. Matthew, Bowden, are cared for by The Reverend Gerald W. Spence in an area of good mixed farming and pleasant towns strung out on the main #2 highway.

SANDRA FALCK TO SPEAK. We are very happy to announce that Miss Sandra Falck of this parish, who nursed for some time at Ludhiana Christian Medical Centre in India and has now returned home, will present an evening of slides and commentary on Monday, March 4th, at 8 p.m. in the Crump Room. Many people have been waiting to hear of Sandra's work and travels as well as the medical ministry carried out there. Please mark this date and bring your friends for a fine educational and social evening.

OLD HOCKEY GEAR NEEDED. Another way we can collaborate to support our companion Parish of St. John's Gleichen, has come to light through their Sunday School. Mr. George Fox, their Sunday School Superintendent, states they sponsor two hockey teams, and need equipment badly. (They claim it greatly improves attendance!) We have provided a quantity of sticks so far, but helmets, gloves, pads, etc., are urgently required. We think there is probably some of this gear laying idle in our homes which could be sent to them rather than purchasing new stock. If you can round up any such goods please bring it to the church office for forwarding — and soon please! Their teams are for ages 8-16, so all sizes are acceptable.

ET CETERA. The Rev. Dr. F.H.W. Crabb is in Winnipeg today preaching at the ordination of a former student. --- The Parish Library is for you to use, and has many new volumes; volunteer assistants are on duty at Coffee Hour after 11 o'clock Service to assist you. --- The Morning Discussion Group meets on Thursday this week at 9:30 in the Crump Room. The highly recommended book "Your Growing Child and and Religion" will be discussed, and a good turnout is anticipated. --- Extra copies of the latest ladies news-sheet "The Chatterbox" are on the rear table today.

THE JOHN HOWARD SOCIETY IN ACTION

When you are only a teen-ager and you've never had a home, except one where your step-father was about as mean as it's possible to be and beats your mother and you and your brother, and then you leave home and get into trouble followed by a spell in a prison in Alberta, then you need someone pretty desparately to take an interest in you. There are many lads to whom some of these aspects are applicable, old and hackneyed as they may seem. And sure, the lad has to bear much of the responsibility for his actions and his predicament. But sometimes a sense of seld-responsibility needs to be nurtured, supported, helped along. And someone caring, goes a long way in this regard. Take Brenton, for example. He is real and he fits the picture perfectly. He is glad the John Howard Society has an office in Calgary and takes an interest in lads in prison. Regular visits mean a lot. Brenton wasn't getting along well in prison either. He was felt to be of very dull intelligence. He couldn't stick to a job in the prison, and nobody had a good word to say for him. We started working with him about three months before he was due to be released. He was surprised that the John Howard Society prison visitor called him up. Nobody from outside had paid any attention to him during the sentence, except that "Mom" and "Dad", his grandparents, had written him a couple of times.

Brenton and the worker began talking about family, and it soon became apparent that he hoped for increased contact with his grandparents. However, he was afraid they were no longer interested in him. The John Howard worker visited them and recognized their mixed feelings of interest, confusion and fear for Brenton's future. Elderly, not too robust and therefore unable to travel easily, especially in the winter, they were nevertheless interested in visiting if they could. So the worker arranged a visit and a volunteer drove them to the prison, much to Brenton's embarrassed joy. This enabled an important family link to be strengthened. Shortly thereafter, the grandparents indicated that Brenton could come and stay with them after release as a result of continuing counselling with them and with Brenton. Contact continued after release, through three weeks of frustrating unemployment. He found a job, and a teen lad's must, a car, was an early purchase. There are still problems but Brenton is learning to overcome frustration, thanks to the continuing efforts of the John Howard Society. A success story - well, not yet. But still a big step in the right direction.

"And the righteous reply, "Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison, and did nothing for you? And he will answer, "I tell you this: anything you did not do for one of these, however humble, you did not do for me."

SPECIAL EVENING SERVICE TODAY

Tonight at 7:30 through the media of Scripture, hymns, choral music and prayer, we shall attempt to relate the full implication of the Epiphany story. Whatever we do to state the Gospel is another attempt at "showing forth" (Epiphany) the Light who is Christ. We bid everyone to come, pray, participate and hear what needs to be underlined in our own lives and proclaimed to the world. A special order of service is prepared for this Epiphany-tide observance. The flowers on the Church Altar today are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Frederick E. Boalch.

ANNUAL MEETING: Last Monday evening the parish experienced a very profitable and enjoyable Annual Meeting. The dinner offered a fine buffet enjoyed by 140 persons. It was our pleasure to welcome our Bishop and Mrs. Goodman on their first visit to the parish, and the Bishop's remarks after dinner were most appropriate. Approximately 160 persons registered at the business meeting which produced considerable interest and discussion. Intelligent and lively comment was made regarding the 1968 budget of some $93,700., and it was then approved as presented. There were six new members elected to Vestry including, for the first time, one woman. Mr. W.J. Magathan was appointed Rector's Churchwarden for the coming term., and on behalf of the congregation a presentation was made to Mr. Bill McLachlan for his many services rendered in repairing and improving the fabric. All in all we consider it was a very good meeting, and we hope it augers well for a future guided and blessed by Almighty God.

Parish Officers for 1968, as appointed and elected, are:

Rector's Churchwarden: W.J. Magathan

People's Churchwarden: M.S. Devonshire

Vestry: R.S. Arnold, M.R. Bell, C.S. Lee, C.D. Lester,

W.B. McQueen, H.J. Wilson, R.R. Baker, W.J. Harvie,

Mrs. W.E. Howard, C.H. Norminton, J.S. Palmer, D.B. Smith.

Delegates to Synod: C.G. Crosland, M.S. Devonshire,

K.M. Manning, W.B. McQueen, J.C. Meeker, Lt. Col. J.E.H. Tidswell.

Alternate Delegates: J.A. Askew, W.E. Howard, Dr. H.W. Price, L.J. Valentine, J.B. Webb.

We hope to institute the Churchwardens and Vestrymen next Sunday prior to their first Vestry meeting on February 13th. We remind you that copies of the audited financial statement for the year 1967 are to be found on the small table at the rear of the Nave. Please help yourself.

MEETINGS:

At the Winchester Group meeting Tuesday, February 6th, at 1:45 p.m. Mrs. C.G. Crosland will be present and will speak and answer questions on the Anglican Church Women.

Altar Guild will meet for its annual meeting on Wednesday at 9:30 at the Church. A full turnout from every team is requested. Any lady interested in rendering service by preparing the Altars, delivering flowers and learning about the church's appointments is invited to attend and hear of the Altar Guild's work this Wednesday morning.

The "Meals on Wheels" Annual Dinner Meeting will be held on February 6th at the Westgate Motor Hotel at 6:30 p.m. Dr. W.A. Cochrane, the Dean of Medicine at the University of Calgary, will be the guest speaker. All men and women are very welcome. For more information phone Mrs. D.K. Walker, 249-1559.

CYCLE OF PRAYER:

The island of Barbados in the West Indies is becoming increasingly well known to vacationers. The once remote, idyllic quiet life of the island is now invaded by the presence of many Europeans and North Americans. The Church of this island diocese has been there for many generations, but in these days must assist the native peoples to live in a competitive society. The Bishop is Edward Lewis Evans, and we pray for him, the congregations and priests of the Barbados today. In some of the fine ranch country of south-west of Calgary are three churches we remember in prayer today. They are St. Benedict, High River; St. Aidan, Pekiski; and St. Thomas, Dinton - all served by The Reverend Douglas G. Jackson.

Since this is as good a time as any to put in a plug for the booklet "Response" which anyone can have to use for excellent daily guidance for Bible reading and prayer direction, this is the text of the intercessions taken from "Response" set out for today, February fourth.

"Sally is a Barbadian, born, raised, and educated there; a church girl, confirmed, but very little to look forward to - young people have few prospects for jobs; idleness is the rule, mischief follows; no chance to emigrate, the outcome - frustration, despair.

What can the Church do for Sally?

Find something for her idle hands to do - something creative and worthwhile, such as helping develop a youth center.

Encourage her to finish her education.

Train her for her role in society as wife, mother, churchman. Multiply Sally by the hundreds - this is Barbados.

Pray for Barbados, a diocese in the West Indies, that its concern over possible disestablishment of the Church, lack of jobs for young people, increase in crime and immorality, may result in effective action. Pray for Bishop Evans, his clergy and his people. Pray for vision, and guidance in establishing six new parish churches.

Look at God's world, especially the Diocese of Barbados, and pray. O Lord God, we pray for all Barbadians; may they have the courage and self-sacrifice to face new conditions arising from changes which are imminent; bless, guide, and sustain the young people especially."

ANTHEM sung by the choir, the people seated
Thou whom shepherds worshipped, hearing
Angels tell their tidings cheering, 'Sirs, away with doubt and fearing! Christ the King is born for all'. Thou to whom came wise men faring, gold and myrrh and incense bearing, heartfelt homage thus declaring to the King that's born for all. Bending low in adoration Thee we greet, for our salvation giv'n by wondrous Incarnation, King of Glory born for all.
Music arranged by Desmond Ratcliffe

LESSON III: Matthew 2, 1-12

The Visit made to the Child Jesus by the Wise Men

CAROL: "The Kings" by P. Cornelius sung by the choir, the people seated

Three kings from Persian lands afar

To Jordan follow the pointing star:

And this the quest of the travellers three,

Where the new-born King of the Jews may be.

Full royal gifts they bear for the King;

Gold, incense, myrrh are their offering.

The star shines out with a steadfast ray;
The Kings to Bethlehem make their way,
And there in worship they bend the knee,
As Mary's Child in her lap they see;
Their royal gifts they show to the King,
Gold, incense, myrrh are their offering.
Thou child of man - lo, to Bethlehem,
The kings are trav'lling - travel with them!
The star of mercy, the star of grace,
Shall lead thy heart to its resting place.
Gold, incense, myrrh thou canst not bring;
Offer thy heart to the infant King.

7:30 EVENING YOUTH SERVICE This Service and the program following is for all young people of the Parish.

The flowers on the Chapel Altar today are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Ann and Henry Ford.

TODAY:

It can hardly be correct to welcome The Reverend Bob Griffiths to Christ Church since this is where he grew up, and his parents still belong and attend. But we can and do express our appreciation for his presence here today, and use this occasion to say how happy we are to have the chance to greet him once more, as well as to hear him preaching at both Services. It is all the more appropriate to do this as his service in this Diocese is going to terminate this summer since he has accepted the post of Chaplain at Trinity College, Toronto.

In order to allow Bob Griffiths to be with us, the Rector is at the Church of the Holy Nativity this morning.

Tonight the young people are reminded of their service at 7.30, and the movie "Bird Man of Alcatraz" will be shown in the Crump Room; cost is 25¢ each.

TOMORROW:

We hope you have sent in your reply card and will be on hand for the excellent hot buffet dinner in the Lower Hall tomorrow night at 6:30. We are delighted to know that Bishop and Mrs. M.L. Goodman will be our guests at dinner. It is their first visit to the Parish, and it will be our pleasure to greet them and welcome the Bishop to Christ Church. The Bishop will say a few words after dinner is concluded.

The Business Meeting commences at 8 p.m. sharp in the Crump Room and will follow the outline of the agenda mailed to you - if that is acceptable to the meeting - and should not take much more than the hour and a quarter. (Last year's meeting lasted one hour and ten minutes!) This is your meeting, and we anticipate your presence, your participation and your prayers for the welfare of this Parish to be an effective family living out the Christian Faith here and now.

In preparation for a better grasp of our financial state, extra copies of the audited report have been duplicated for distribution at the Services today. Please help yourself from the supply on the table at the back of the Nave.

NEXT SUNDAY:

To mark the close of the Epiphany Season we shall present a special Evening Service next Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Somewhat like the Advent Evening Service which was very well attended and much appreciated, the forthcoming Service will include appropriate Scripture readings and music. Familiar hymns will be sung and the beautiful atmosphere of the Church at eventide makes this a Service you will want to attend and will find most meaningful.

CYCLE OF PRAYER:

At one time Assam was a separate nation, but since post-war times it has been a part of India's republic. The Diocese of Assam is brought to our prayerful attention today, and with it the Bishop, Eric Samuel Nasir, and their people and clergy. For our own diocesan intercessions we support by prayer today the Parishes of All Saints', Hanna, and St. Patrick, Delia, and their Rector, Donald Arthur Varcoe.

THE "MEALS ON WHEELS" Annual Dinner Meeting will be held February 6th at the Westgate Motor Hotel at 6:30 p.m. Dr. W.A. Cochrane, the Dean of Medicine at the University of Calgary, will be the guest dinner speaker. All men and women are very welcome. For more information phone Mrs. D.K. Walker, 249-1559.

THE CHURCH AT WORK: Just how much is our Church in this Diocese doing to meet the demands and conditions of the present? This burning question constantly receives much serious consideration by many thoughtful laity and clergy. Some of the issues being studied and dealt with are mentioned here so that we all might be more aware of the fact that the Church attempts to stay awake to its task.

- Close scrutiny is being exercised on the deployment of manpower, especially priests, so that congregations are cared for and men are best used to achieve the best stewardship of time and energies. The re-alignment of parishes and areas of work is the specific task of one committee.
- The traditional forms and structures (parochial and diocesan) are being re-assessed to see if they still "work" well. At an early guess it may be we will end up with a mixture of some old ones being retained and newer ones being employed to enable the Church to effectively witness and serve in our society.
- The Diocese has been seriously studying the possibility of carrying out two specific social welfare projects; both to be in collaboration with other agencies. One would be a treatment centre for emotionally disturbed adolescents, using an existing piece of church property. The other would provide in Calgary a Family Counselling Service to support clergy and others in their many and varied counselling sessions.
- Under an arrangement made with the Diocese of Qu'Appelle, that part of Alberta which used to be in that Diocese came into the Diocese of Calgary on January 1st, 1968, for pastoral oversight, and by 1969 should be legally a part of our Diocese. This means that Medicine Hat, Coronation, Castor, Oyen, Empress, and other points are added to the Diocese of Calgary. This makes sense because it brings all of southern Alberta in one Diocese for more efficient and effective administration.

- Next Monday, January 29th, the Annual Meeting of this Parish gives opportunity for every parishioner, 18 years and over, to share in the governing of this parish family. The democratic process followed gives occasion for voting to select parish officers, determining priorities, discussing and examining all fiscal matters, as well as receiving a comprehensive report on the whole parish's life. It will be launched with a hot buffet dinner at 6:30 before the business meeting at 8 p.m. (Reply Cards for the dinner are to be in the hands of the Church Office by Friday, January 26th, for catering purposes, please!) We underline that the whole evening is one of great opportunity to meet others, learn of and participate in parish life all leading to a better understanding of our privileges and duties as members of the Church.
- Next Sunday at the 11 o'clock Service we shall have the honour of welcoming the Reverend Robert R. Griffiths as preacher. Bob Griffiths is a son of this parish and has earned a worthy reputation as a fine priest of this diocese. He is now Rector of the Holy Nativity Parish serving the south-eastern districts of Calgary, and we look forward to his being with us.
- Today our Associate Priest is spending the day with the Reverend Charles E. Mortimer in his parish of Carbon, Acme and Three Hills. Chuck Mortimer was a student of Dr. Crabb's, and following his graduation from the College of Emmanuel and St. Chad was ordained for this diocese. It is a happy occasion when a former principal and student can both now meet as fellow clergy of the diocese.

To remember for Coffee Hours:

If after Kirk ye bide a wee,
There's some may like to speak to ye,
If after Kirk ye rise and flee,
We'll all seem cauld an' stiff tae ye.
The one that's in the seat wi' ye is stranger here than you maybe.
All here hae got their fears and cares.
Add ye your soul to ithers' prayers, and be our angel unawares.

NO EVENING SERVICE TODAY

Next Sunday night the Youth Service and Program occur in their bi-weekly schedule.

CYCLE OF PRAYER: Consonant with our observance of the Octave of Prayer for Christian Unity (January 18-25), our Cycle of Prayer focuses on the various branches of Christendom for our prayerful remembrance rather than a specific Anglican diocese. At the risk of omitting some groups unwittingly, these are some designations for whom we pray today:

- All Orthodox Churches
- The Roman Catholic Church
- The World Union of Methodists
- The World Federation of Presbyterian and Reformed Churches
- The world-wide Anglican Communion
- All Synods of the Lutheran Church
- The Baptist World Alliance
- All Pentecostal Assemblies
- The Society of Friends
- All those churches holding to ancient and catholic practices
- All the Protestant sects and denominations

And, last but not least, we support by prayer today in our Diocese the Parish of Christ Church, Fort Macleod, and its Rector, the Reverend Ernest Richard Doyle who also has pastoral care of St. Cyprian's, Brocket.

SERVICE OF PRAYER TODAY: This afternoon at 3 o'clock in St. Gerard's Church, Elbow Drive and 89th Avenue, representatives of eleven congregations in the south Calgary area will assemble for a single purpose. That purpose is to offer common prayer for the restoration of visible unity in Christendom. As we heed the call to find and follow the will of God for His Church, it is important and timely to do this in an act of common prayer rather than in our isolation and separation. It is an occasion for very meaningful and practical ecumenical relations to which we are all bidden this afternoon; our attendance is the sign of a thoughtful response. Churches participating today are: United - Riverview, Southminster, St. Andrew's; Roman Catholic - St. Gerard's, St. Anthony's. St. Cecilia's; Presbyterian - St. Andrew's; Anglican - St. Philip's, St. Peter's, Holy Nativity and Christ Church.

PARISH NOTES:

- This week on Wednesday our Parish plays host to the Executive Committee of the Diocese at an all day session. This group of some 30-odd laity and clergy is the policy making body directing the affairs of the Diocese between sessions of the Synod. A rough parallel would be to say that Synod is the parliament and the Executive Committee is the cabinet. It will be the first Executive gathering with Bishop Goodman presiding.
- All ladies are invited to the Annual General Meeting of the Anglican Church Women of Christ Church on Thursday of this week, January 25th at 1:30 p.m. in the Crump Room. Coffee will be served and a baby-sitting service available.
